❧ A briefe declaration when euery Terme begynneth and endeth.

Be it knowen that Easter Terme begynneth alwayes the.xviii. daye after Easter, reckenyng Easter day for one, and endeth the Munday nexte after the Ascention day.

Trinitie Terme beginneth.xii. dayes after Whitsonday, and continueth.xix.dayes.

Michaelmas Terme begynneth.the.ix.or.x. daye of October, and endeth the.xxviii.or.xxix.day of Nouember.

Hyllary Terme beginneth the.xviii.or.xviiii.day of January, and endeth the.xii.or.xiii.day of February.

In Easter Terme, on the Ascention day. In Trinitie Terme, on the Natiuitie of Saint John Baptist. In Michaelmas Terme, on the feast of all Saintes. In Hyllary Term on the feaste of the Purification of our Ladye, the Quenes Judges of Westminster do not vse to sit in iudgement, nor vpon any Sundayes.

An Act for the vniformitie of Common prayer, and seruice in the Churche, and the administration of the Sacramentes.

WHere at the death of our late soueraigne Lorde, kyng Edwarde the fyrst, there remayned one vniforme order of common seruice and prayer, and of the administration of Sacramentes, Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of Englande, whiche was set foorth in one booke, entituled: The Booke of common prayer, and administration of Sacramentes, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Churche of Englande, aucthorised by act of Parliament, holden in the fyft and syxt yeres of our sayde late soueraigne Lorde kyng Edward the syxt, entituled: An Act for the vniformitie of Common prayer, and administration of the Sacramentes, the which was repealed and taken away by Acte of Parliament, in the fyrst yere of the raygne of our late soueraigne lady Quene Mary, to the greate decay of the due honour of God, and discomforte to the professors of the trueth of Christes religiō.

Be it therefore enacted by the aucthoritie of this present Parliament, that the said estatute of repeale, and euery thyng therin conteyned, onlye concernyng the sayd booke, & the seruice, administration of Sacramentes, Rites, and Ceremonies, conteyned or appointed in, or by the sayde booke: shalbe voyde & of none effect, frō, and after the feast of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptist next commyng. And that the said booke, with the order order of seruice, & of the administracion of Sacramentes, Rites & Ceremonies, with the alteracion and addicions therein added & appoynted by thys estatute, shal stand, and be, from and after the said feast of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptist, in full force and effect, according to the tenour and effect of this estatute, any thing in the aforesaid statute of repeale, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And further be it enacted by the Quenes highnes, with thassent of the Lordes and commons in thys present Parlyament assembled, and by aucthoritie of the same, that all & singuler ministers in any Cathedral or parish Church, or other place within this Realme of Englande, Wales, and the Marches of the same, or other the Quenes dominions, shal from and after the feast of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptist next commynge be bounden to say and vse the Mattens, Euensonge, celebracion of the Lordes supper, and administracion of eche of the Sacramentes, and al their common and open prayer, in suche order and fourme as is mencioned in the sayde booke, so aucthorised by Parliament in the sayd fift and syxt yeare of the raigne of king Edward the sixt, with one alteration or addicion of certaine Lessons to be vsed on euery Sunday in the yere, & the fourme of the Letany altered and corrected, & two sentences onely added in the deliuery of the Sacrament to the cõmunicantes, and none other, or otherwise. And that if any maner of person, vicar, or other whatsoeuer minister that ought or should synge or say common prayer mencioned in the sayde booke, or minister the Sacramentes from and after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſainct Iohn Baptiſt next commynge, refuſe to vſe the ſayde common prayers, or to miniſter the Sacramentes in ſuche Cathedrall or pariſhe Churche, or other places, as he ſhould vſe to miniſter the ſame, in ſuch order and fourme as they be mencioned and ſet forth in the ſaid boke: or ſhal wylfully or obſtinately ſtanding in the ſame, vſe any other rite, ceremonie, order, fourme, or maner of celebratinge of the Lordes ſupper openly or priuely, or Mattens, Euenſong adminiſtracion of the Sacramentes, or other ope prayers then is mencioned and ſet forth in the ſayd boke (Open prayer in and throughout this Acte, is ment that prayer which is for other to come vnto or heare, eyther in common Churches, or priuie Chappelles, or Oratories, commonly called the ſeruice of the Churche) or ſhall preache, declare, or ſpeake any thinge in the derogation or depraauynge of the ſayde booke, or any thing therin conteyned, or of any part therof, and ſhalbe therof lawfully conuicted according to the lawes of this Realme, by verdict of .xii. men, or by his owne confeſſion, or by the notorious euidence of the fact: ſhall loſe and forfeite to the Quenes hyghneſſe, her heyres and ſucceſſours, for his fyrſt offence, the profite of al his ſpiritual benefices or promocions, cõming or ariſing in one whole yere next after hys conuiction. And alſo that the perſon ſo conuicted, ſhall for the ſame offence, ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of .vi. monethes, without bayle or maynpriſe. And if any ſuche perſon once conuict of any offence, concernynge the premiſſes, ſhall after his firſt conuiction eftſones offende, fende, and be therof in fourme aforesaid lawfully conuict: that then the same person shal for hys seconde offence, suffer imprisonment by the space of one whole yeare, and also shall therefore be depriued, Ipso facto of all his spirituall promocions. And that it shalbe lawful to al patrons or donors of al and singuler the same spiritual promocions, or of any of them, to present or collate to the same, as though the person and persons so offending were dead. And that if any such person or persons after he shalbe twyse conuycted in fourme aforesayde, shal offend against any of the premisses the thyrde tyme, and shalbe therof in fourme aforesayd lawfully conuicted: that then the person so offending, and conuicted the thyrd time, shalbe depryued Ipso facto of al his spirituall promotions, and also shal suffer imprisonment duryng his lyfe.

And yf the person that shall offend, and be conuict in fourme aforesaide, concerninge any of the premysses, shal not be beneficed, nor haue any spirituall promocion: That then the same person so offendynge and conuict, shall for the fyrst offence suffer imprysonment durynge one hole yere next after his said conuiction, without bayle or mainprise. And if any such person, not hauing any spiritual promotiõ, after his first cõuiction, shal eftsones offend in any thing concerning the premisses, & shal in fourme aforesaid, be therof lawfully cõuicted: That then ỹ same person shal for hys second offence, suffer imprisonment during his life.

And it is ordeyned & enacted by the aucthoritie abouesayd, that if any person or persons whatsoeuer, after the said feast of ỹ Natiuitie of S. Iohn

Baptist next comming, shall in any Enterludes, plaies, songes, rimes, or by other open words, declare or speake any thyng in the derogaciō, deprauing, or despising of ẏ same boke, or of any thyng therein conteyned, or any part thereof, or shall by open fact, dede, or by open threatninges, compell or cause, or otherwise procure or mayntaine anye Parson, Vycar, or other Minister, in any Cathedrall or Parishe Churche, or in Cappell, or in any other place, to singe or say any common and open prayer, or minister any Sacrament otherwise, or in any other maner & fourme then is mencioned in the said boke, or that by any of the said meanes shall vnlawfully interrupt or let any person, vicar, or other minister, in any Cathedral or parishe church, Chappel, or any other place, to sing or say common & open prayer, or to minister the Sacraments or any of them, in such maner and fourme as is mencioned in the sayd boke: That then euery such person being therof lawfully conuicted in fourme abouesaid, shal forfeite to the Quene our soueraign lady, her heires & successors, for the first offence a C. markes. And if any person or persons beinge once conuict of any suche offence, eftsones offend against any of the last recited offences, and shall in fourme aforesayd be therof lawfully conuict: That thē the same person so offending & conuict, shal for the second offēce forfeit to the Quene our soueraigne lady, her heires, & successors, foure hundreth markes. And yf any person after he in fourme aforesaid, shall haue ben twise conuict of any offence, concernynge any of the laste resyted offences, shall offende the thyrd time, and be ther-

of in fourme aboueſayd lawefully conuict: that then euery perſon ſo offendyng and conuict, ſhall for his thirde offence, forfeite to our Soueraigne Ladye the Quene, all his goodes and cattelles, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment duryng his lyfe. And yf any perſon or perſonnes that for his firſt offence, concernyng the premiſſes, ſhalbe conuict in fourme aforeſayde, do not pay the ſumme to be payde by vertue of his conuiction, in ſuch maner and fourme as the ſame ought to be payde, within. vi. wekes next after his conuiction: that then euery perſon ſo conuicte, and ſo not paying the ſame, ſhal for the ſame firſt offence, in ſtede of the ſayd ſumme, ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of vi. monethes, without bayle or mainprize. And if any perſon or perſons that for his ſecond offence cõcerning the premiſſes, ſhalbe conuict in fourme aforeſayd, do not pay the ſayd ſumme to be payde by vertue of his conuiction, and this eſtatute, in ſuch maner and fourme as the ſame ought to be payde within. vi. wekes nexte after his ſayde ſeconde conuiction: that then euery perſon ſo conuicted and not ſo paying the ſame, ſhall for the ſame ſeconde offence, in the ſtede of the ſayd ſũme ſuffer impriſonment duryng. xii. monethes, without bayle or mainprize. And that from and after the ſayd feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt next commyng, all and euery perſon and perſons inhabytyng within this Realme, or any other the Quenes Maieſties dominions, ſhal diligently and faythfully, hauyng no lawfull or reaſonable excuſe to be abſent, endeuour themſelues to reſort to their paryſhe Churche or Chappel accuſtomed, or vpon reaſonable let therof, to ſome vſuall place where common prayer and ſuch ſeruice of God ſhalbe vſed in ſuch tyme of lette vpon euery Sunday, and other dayes ordeyned & vſed to be kept as holy dayes. And then and there to abyde orderly and ſoberly duryng the tyme of the common prayer, preachynges or other ſeruice of God, there to be vſed and miniſtred, vpon payne of punyſhement by the cenſures of the Churche. And alſo vpon payne that euery perſon ſo offendyng ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence .xii.d. to be leuied by the churchwardens of the pariſh, where ſuch offence ſhalbe done, to thuſe of the poore of the ſame paryſhe, of the goodes, landes, and tenementes of ſuche offender, by way of diſtreſſe. And for due execution hereof, the Quenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, the Lordes Temporall, and all the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doth in Gods name earneſtly require and charge all the Archbyſhops, Byſhops, and other Ordinaries, that they ſhall endeuour thē ſelues to the vttermoſte of theyr knowleges, that the due and true execution hereof maye be hadde throughout theyr dioceſſe and charges, as they wyll aunſwere before God for ſuch euils and plages, wherewith almightie God may iuſtly punyſhe his people for neglectyng this good and holſome lawe. And for theyr auctoritie in this behalfe, be it further enacted by thauctoritie aforeſayd, that all and ſinguler the ſame Archbyſhops, Byſhops, and all other theyr officers, exerciſing Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, aſwell in place exempte as not exempte, within theyr dioceſſe, ſhall haue full power and aucthoritie by this acte to reforme, correcte, and punyshe by censures of the Church, all & singuler persons, which shall offende within any theyr iurisdictions or diocesse, after the sayde feast of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptist next commyng, against this act and statute. Any other law, statute priuiledge, libertie, or prouision heretofore made, had, or suffred, to the contrary notwithstandyng.

And it is ordeyned and enacted by the aucthoritie aforsayd, that al and euery Justices of Oyer and determiner or Justices of Assise, shal haue ful power and aucthoritie in euery of theyr open and general sessions, to enquire, heare, and determine all, and al maner of offences that shalbe committed or done contrary to any article conteyned in this present acte, within the limittes of the commission to them directed, and to make processe for therecution of the same, as they may do agaynste any person beyng indited before them of trespasse or lawfully conuicted therof.

Prouided alwayes & be it enacted by thaucthoritie aforesayde, that all and euery Archebyshop and Byshop, shall or may at all tyme and tymes at his libertie and pleasure, ioyne and associate them selfe, by vertue of this Acte, to the sayd Justices of Oyer and determiner, or to the sayde Justices of Assise, at euery of the said open and generall sessions, to be holden at any place within his diocesse, for and to thenquiry, hearyng, and determynyng of the offences aforesayde.

Prouided also and be it enacted by thaucthoritie aforesayd, that the bokes concernyng the said seruices, shall at the costes and charges of the pa-rishtioners of euery parish and Cathedral Church be attained and gotten before the said feast of the Natiuite of Saint John Baptist next folowing, & that all such parishes & Cathedral Churches or other places, where the sayd bookes shalbe attayned & gotten before the said feast of the Natiuitie of S. John Baptist, shall within thre wekes next after the sayd bokes so attayned and gotten, vse the sayd seruice: & put the same in vre accordyng to this Act. And be it further enacted by thauctoritie aforesayde, that no person or persons shalbe at any time hereafter impeched or otherwise molested of or for any of the offences aboue mentioned, hereafter to be cõmitted or done contrary to this act, vnlesse he or they so offendyng, be thereof indited at the next generall sessions, to be holden before any such Justices of Oyer and determiner or Justices of Assise, nexte after any offence committed or done contrary to the tenour of this act.

Prouided alwayes, & be it ordeyned & enacted by the aucthoritie aforesayd, that al and singuler Lordes of the Parliament, for the thyrde offence aboue mentioned, shalbe tryed by theyr peeres.

Prouided also, and be it ordeyned and enacted by thaucthoritie aforesayde, that the Maior of London, and all other Maiors, Baylyffes, and other head officers of all and singuler Cities, Boroughes, and townes Corporate within this Realme, Wales, and the Marches of the same, to the whiche Justices of Assyse do not commonlye repayre, shall haue full power and aucthoritie by vertue of this acte, to enquire, heare, and determine the offences abouesayde, and euery of them yearely within. xv. dayes after the feaſte of Eaſter, and Saint Michaell Tharchaungell, in lyke maner and fourme as Juſtices of Aſſiſe, and Oyer and determiner may do.

Prouided alwayes and be it ordeyned & enacted by thauctho*r*itie afo*r*eſayde, that all and ſinguler Archbyſhops and Byſhops, and euery of their Chauncellours, Commiſſaries, Archdeacons, and other Ordinaries, hauyng any peculier Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, ſhall haue ful power and auctho*r*itie by vertue of this acte, aſwell to enquyre in their viſitacion, Sinodes, and els where within they*r* iuriſdiction at any other time and place, to take occaſions and info*r*mations of all & euery the thynges aboue mentioned, done, committed, o*r* perpetrated within the limittes of they*r* iuriſdictions and auctho*r*itie, and to punyſhe the ſame by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration, o*r* depriuation, and other cenſures and proceſſe in lyke fourme as heretofo*r*e hath bē vſed in lyke caſes by the Quenes Eccleſiaſtical lawes Prouided alwayes & be it enacted, that what ſoeuer perſon offendyng in the premiſſes, ſhal fo*r* the offence fyrſt receyue puniſhment of the Ordinary, hauyng a teſtimonial therof vnder the ſaid Ordinaries ſeale, ſhal not fo*r* the ſame offence eft ſones be conuicted before the Juſtices. And lykewyſe receyuyng fo*r* the ſayd firſt offence punyſhement by the Juſtices, he ſhall not fo*r* the ſame offence eftſones receyue punyſhement of the Ordinary: Any thyng conteyned in this Acte to the contrary notwithſtandyng.

Prouided alwayes and be it enacted, that ſuch

ornamentes of the Churche, and of the ministers thereof, shalbe reteyned and be in vse, as was in this Church of England by auctoritie of Parliament, in the seconde yere of the raigne of kynge Edward the sixt, vntyll other order shalbe therin taken by thauctoritie of the Quenes Maiestie, with the aduice of her Commissioners appointed and auctorised vnder the great seal of England for causes Ecclesiastical, or of the Metropolitane of this Realme. And also that yf there shall happen any contempt or irreuerence to be vsed in the ceremonies or rites of the Churche, by the misvsyng of the orders apoynted in this booke: The Quenes Maiestie maye by the lyke aduyse of the sayde commissioners or Metropolitane, ordeyne and publyshe suche farther Ceremonies or rites, as maye be moste for the aduauncement of Gods glory, the edyfyeng of his Churche, and the due reuerence of Christes holy misteries and Sacramentes.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforesayde, that all lawes, statutes, and ordinaunces, wherein or whereby any other seruice, administration of Sacramentes, or Common prayer is limitted, established, or set forth to be vsed within this Realme, or any other the Quenes dominions or countreys, shall from henceforth be vtterly voyde and of none effect.

The Preface,

THere was neuer any thyng by the wit of man so well deuyſed, or ſo ſure eſtablyſhed, whiche in continuaunce of tyme hath not ben corrupted: as (among other thynges) it may plainely appeare by the common prayers in the Church commonly called deuine ſeruice. The firſt originall and ground wherof, yf a man would ſearch out by the auncient fathers, he ſhal finde that the ſame was not ordeined but of a good purpoſe, and for a great aduauncement of godlineſſe. For they ſo ordered the matter, that the whole Byble (or the greater part therof) ſhuld be red ouer once in the yere: entending therby that the cleargy and ſpecially ſuch as were miniſters of the congregation, ſhoulde (by often readyng and meditation of Gods worde) be ſtyrred vp to godlyneſſe them ſelues, and be more hable to exhort other by holſome doctrine and to confute them that were aduerſaries to the trueth. And further, that the people by dayly hearing of holy ſcripture red in the Church, ſhould continually profite more & more in the knowledge of god, and be the more enflamed with the loue of his true religion. But theſe many yeres paſſed, this godlye and decent order of the auncient fathers hath ben ſo altered, broken, and neglected, by plantyng in vncertayne Storyes, Legendes, Reſpondes, Verſes, vayne Repeticions, Cõmemorations, and Synodalles, that commonly when any booke of the Byble was begon, before thre or foure Chapters were read out, all the reſt are vnread. And in this ſort the booke of Eſay was begon in aduent, and the boke of Geneſis in Septuageſima: but they were only begon, & neuer read through. After a like ſort were other bokes of holy ſcripture vſed. And moreouer, where as S. Paule woulde haue ſuche language ſpoken to the people in the church, as they myght vnderſtand & haue profit by hearyng the ſame: the ſeruice in this Church of Englande (theſe manye yeres) haue ben read in Latin to the people, which they vnderſtode not: ſo that they haue hard with theyr eares onely, and theyr heart, ſpirite, and mynde haue not ben edified therby. And furthermore, notwithſtandyng that the auncient fathers haue deuided the pſalmes into viii. portions, wherof euery one was called a Nocturne: nowe of late tyme, a fewe of them haue ben dayly ſayde, and oft repeated peated, and the reſt vtterly omitted. Moreouer, the number and hardneſſe of the rules called the Pye, and the manyfold chaungynges of the ſeruice, was the cauſe, that to turne the boke onely was ſo harde and intricate a matter, that manye times there was more buſines to fynde out what ſhoulde be read, then to reade it when it was founde out.

Theſe inconueniences therfore conſidered, here is ſet forth ſuch an order, whereby the ſame ſhalbe redreſſed. And for a redineſſe in this matter, here is drawen out a Kalender for that purpoſe, which is playne and eaſy to be vnderſtanded, wherein (ſo much as may be) the readyng of holy Scriptures is ſo ſet forth, that all thynges ſhalbe done in order, without breakyng one piece therof frō another. For this cauſe be cut of Anthemes, Reſpondes, Inuitatories, & ſuch lyke thinges as dyd breake the continuall courſe of the readyng of the ſcripture. Yet becauſe there is no remedye, but that of neceſſitie there muſt be ſome rules: therfore certayne rules are here ſet forth, which as they be few in number, ſo they be plaine and eaſy to be vnderſtanden. So that here you haue an order for prayer (as touching the readyng of holy ſcripture) much agreable to the mynd and purpoſe of the old fathers, and a great deale more profitable and commodious, then that whiche of late was vſed. It is more profitable, becauſe here are left out many thinges, wherof ſome be vntrue, ſome vncertain, ſome vayne and ſuperſticious: and is ordeyned nothyng to be read, but the very pure word of God, the holy Scriptures, or that which is euidently grounded vpon the ſame, and that in ſuch a language and order, as is moſte eaſy and playne for the vnderſtandyng both of the readers and hearers. It is alſo more commodious, both for the ſhortnes therof, and for the plainnes of the order, and for that the rules be few and eaſy. Furthermore, by this order, the Curates ſhall nede none other bokes for theyr publique ſeruice, but this Boke and the Byble. By the meanes wherof the people ſhal not be at ſo great charge for bokes, as in tyme paſt they haue bene.

And where heretofore there hath ben great diuerſitie in ſaying and ſyngyng in Churches within this Realme, ſome folowyng Saliſburye vſe, ſome Herforde vſe, ſome the vſe of Bangor, ſome of Yorke, & ſome of Lincolne: Now frō henceforth al the whole Realme ſhall haue but one vſe. And if any would iudge this way more painfull, becauſe that al thynges

muſt be read vpon the boke, whereas before by the reaſon of ſo often repetition, thei could ſay many thinges by hart: if thoſe men wil weigh their labour, with the profite and knowledge whiche dayly they ſhall obtayne by readinge vpon the booke, they wyll not refuſe the payne, in conſideration of the great profite that ſhal enſue therof.

And foraſmuche as nothinge can almoſte be ſo playnely ſet forth, but doubtes may riſe in the vſe & practiſing of the ſame: To appeaſe al ſuch diuerſitie (if any aryſe) and for the reſolution of all doubtes concerning the maner how to vnderſtand, do and execute the thinges conteyned in this boke: The parties that ſo doubt, or diuerſly take any thinge, ſhall alwayes reſort to the biſhop of the dioceſſe, who by his diſcretion ſhall take order for the quieting and appeaſing of the ſame, ſo that the ſame order be not contrary to any thing conteyned in this boke. And yf the Byſhop of the dioceſſe be in any doubt, then may he ſende for the reſolution therof vnto the Archbyſhop.

Though it be appointed in the aforewritten Preface, that all thinges ſhalbe read and ſonge in the Churche in the Engliſhe tounge, to thende that the congregation may be thereby edified, yet it is not ment, but when men ſay Mornynge and Euening prayer priuately, they may ſay the ſame in any language that they them ſelues do vnderſtand.

And all Prieſtes and Deacons ſhalbe bounde to ſay dayly the Mornyng and Euening prayer, eyther priuately or openly, except they be let by preaching, ſtudying of diuinitie, or by ſome other vrgent cauſe.

And the Curate that miniſtreth in euery paryſhe Church or Chappell, beyng at home, and not beyng otherwiſe reaſonably letted, ſhal ſay the ſame in the paryſh Church or Chappell where he miniſtreth, and ſhall toll a bell therto, a conuenient time before he begin, that ſuch as be diſpoſed may come to heare Gods worde, and to pray with him.

¶ Of Ceremonies
why some be abolyshed and some reteyned.

OF suche Ceremonies as be vsed in the Churche, and haue hadde theyr beginnynge by the institucion of man: some at the fyrste were of godly entent and purpose deuysed, and yet at length turned to vanitie and superstition: some entred into the Church by vndiscret deuocion, and suche a zeale as was without knowledge, and for because they were wynked at in the begynnynge, they grew dayly to more and more abuses: which not onely for theyr vnprofitablenes, but also because they haue much blinded the people, and obscured the glory of GOD, are worthy to be cut away, and cleane reiected. Other there be, whiche although they haue ben deuysed by man, yet it is thought good to reserue them styll, as well for a decent order in the Churche, (for the whiche they were first deuised) as because they pertaine to edification: wherunto al thinges done in the church (as the Apostles teacheth) ought to bee referred. And although the kepyng or omitting of a Ceremonie (in it selfe considered) is but a small thyng: yet the wylfull and contempteous transgression and breakinge of a common order and discipline, is no small offence before God.

Let all thynges be done amonge you (sayth S. Paule) in a semely & due order. The appointment of the which order, perteyneth not to pryuate mẽ: therfore therfore no man ought to take in hande, nor presume to appoynt or alter any publique or commē order in Christes Churche, excepte he be lawfully called and aucthorised therunto.

And where as in this our tyme, the myndes of men are so dyuers, that some thynke it a greate matter of conscience to depart from a peece of the least of theyr Ceremonies (they be so addicted to theyr olde customes:) and againe on thother syde, some be so newe fangled, that they woulde innouate al thinge, and so do despise the olde, that nothynge can lyke them, but that is newe: it was thought expedient, not so muche to haue respecte how to please and satisfie eyther of these parties, as how to please god, and profyte them both. And yet least any man should be offended (whom good reason might satisfie) here be certaine causes rendred, why some of the accustomed Ceremonies be put away, and some reteyned and kept styll.

Some are put away, because the great excesse and multitude of them, hath so increased in these latter dates, that the burthen of them was intollerable, whereof. S. Augustine in hys tyme complayned, that they were growen to suche a number, that the state of Christiā people was in worse case (concerninge that matter) then were the Iewes. And he counsayled, that such yoke and burthen shoulde be taken away, as time would serue quietly to do it.

But what would S. Augustine haue sayde, yf he had seene the Ceremonies of late dayes vsed amonge vs? Whereunto the multitude vsed in hys time, was not to be compared. Thys our excessiue multi-multitude of ceremonies was so great, and many of them so darke: that thei did more confound and darken, then declare and set forth Chrystes benefites vnto vs.

And besides this, Chrystes Gospell is not a Ceremonial lawe (as much of Moses law was) but it is a religion to serue god, not in bondage of the figure or shadowe, but in the freedome of spirite, being content only with those ceremonies, which do serue to a decent order and godli discipline, and suche as be apt to stirre vp the dull minde of man to the remembraunce of his duetie to GOD, by some notable and speciall signification, whereby he might be edified.

Furthermore the most weyghtie cause of the abolishment of certaine ceremonies was, that thei were so farre abused, partly by the superstitious blyndnes of the rude & vnlearned, & partly by the vnsaciable auarice of suche as sought more their owne lucre then the glory of god, that the abuses could not well be taken away, the thynge remayning styl. But now as concerning those persons, which peraduenture wil be offended, for ỹ some of thold ceremonies are reteyned still: if they cõsider that without some ceremonies, it is not possible to kepe any order, or quiet discipline in the church. they shal easly perceiue iust cause to reforme their iudgmẽtes. And if thei think much ỹ any of thold do remain, & would rather haue al deuised a new Thẽ such mẽ graũting some ceremonies cõueniẽt to be had, surely where the olde may be wel vsed, there they cã not reasonably reproue the old, onely for their age: wout bewraying of their own folly.

For

for in such a case, they ought rather to haue reuerence vnto them for theyr antiquitie, yf they wyll declare theym selues to bee more studious of vnitie and concorde, then of innouacions & newe fãglenes, which (asmuch as may be, with the true settyng foorth of Christes religion) is alwayes to be eschewed. Furthermore, such shall haue no iust cause with the Ceremonyes reserued to be offended. For as those be taken away which were most abused, and dyd burden mens consciences without any cause: so the other that remayne, are retained for a discipline and order, which (vpon iust causes) may be altered and chaunged, and therefore are not to be estemed equal with Gods lawe. And moreouer, they be neyther darke nor dombe Ceremonies: but are so set forth, that euery man may vnderstande what they do meane, & to what vse they do serue. So that it is not lyke that they in tyme to come, shoulde be abused as the other haue ben. And in these our doinges, we condẽpne no other nacions, nor prescribe any thyng, but to our owne people onely. For we thynke it conuenient that euery coũtrey should vse such Ceremonies as they shall thynke best, to the settyng forth of Gods honour and glory, and to the reduling of the people to a moste perfect and Godly lyuynge, without errour or superstition. And that they shoulde putte awaye other thinges, whiche from tyme to tyme they perceyue to be moste abused: as in mens ordinaunces it often chaunseth diuerslye in dyuers countreis.

The table and kalen=

der, expressinge the order of Psalmes and Lessons, to be sayde at Mornynge and Eueninge prayer, throughout the yere, except certayne proper feastes, as the rules folowinge more playnely declare.

¶ The order howe the Psalter is appoynted to be read.

THe Psalter shalbe read through once euerye moneth. And because that some monethes be longer then some other be, it is thought good to make them euen by this meanes.

To euery moneth shalbe appoynted (as concernyng thys purpose) iust. xxx. dayes.

And because January and Marche hath one day aboue the sayde number, and Februarye whiche is placed betwene them both, hath onely. xxviii. dayes: Februarye shall borowe of eyther of the monethes (of January and Marche) one day. And so the Psalter whiche shalbe read in Februarye, muste begyn at the last day of January, and end the fyrst day of March.

And where as May, July, August, October, and December, haue. xxxi. dayes a peece: It is ordered that the same Psalmes shalbe read the last day of the said Monethes, which were read the day before. So that the Psalter may begyn agayne the fyrst day of the nexte monethes ensuyng.

Nowe to knowe what Psalmes shalbe read euery day, loke in the kalender, the number that is appoynted for the Psalmes, and then fynde the same number in this Table, and vpon that number shall you see what Psalmes shalbe sayde at Morninge and Eueninge prayer.

And where the. cxix. psalme is deuided into. xxii. portions and is ouerlong to be read at one time: it is so ordered that at one tyme shal not be read aboue foure or fiue of the said portions, as you shall perceyue to be noted in this table folowing.

And here is also to be noted, that in thys Table, and in all other partes of the seruice, wher any psalmes are appointed, the number is expressed after the great English Bible, which from the. ix. psalme, vnto the. cxlviii. psalme (folowynge the deuision of the Hebrues) doth vary in numbers from the common latine translation.

The order howe the rest of holy scripture (beside the Psalter) is appointed to be read.

The olde Testament is appoynted for the fyrst Lessons at Morninge and Euenynge prayer, and shalbe readde throughe euery yeare once, except certayne bookes and Chapiters, which be least edifyng, and might best be spared, and therfore be left vnread.

The newe Testament is appoynted for the second Lessons at Morning and Euening prayer, and shalbe read ouer orderly euery yere thyse, besyde the Epistles and Gospels: except the Apocalips, out of the whiche there be onely certayne Lessons appoynted vpon diuers proper feastes.

And to knowe what Lessons shalbe read euery day: Fynde the day of the moneth in the Kalender folowing, and there ye shall perceyue the bookes and Chapiters that shalbe read for the Lessons, both at Mornynge and Euenynge prayer.

And here is to be noted, that whensoeuer there be any proper Psalmes or Lessons appoynted for the Sundayes, or for any feast moueable or vnmoueable: Then the Psalmes and Lessons appointed in the kalender, shalbe omitted for ỹ time.

Ye must note also that the Collect, Epistle, and Gospell, appointed for the Sunday, shall serue all the weke after, except there fall some feast that hath his proper.

When the yeares of our Lorde may be deuyded into foure euen partes which is euery fourth yere: then the Sunday letter leapeth, and that yeare the Psalmes and Lessons whiche serue for the. xxiii. day of February, shalbe read agayne the day folowing, except it be Sunday, which hath proper lessons of the olde Testament appoynted in the Table, seruynge to that purpose.

Also, wheresoeuer the begynnynge of any Lesson, Epistle, or Gospell is not expressed: there ye must begyn at the begynnynge of the Chapter.

And wheresoeuer is not expressed howe farre shalbe read, there shal you reade to the ende of the Chapter.

Item so oft as the fyrst Chapter of S. Mathie is read either for Lesson or Gospel: ye shall begin the same at: The byrth of Jesus Chryst was on this wyse. &c. And the thirde Chapiter of Saint Lukes Gospell shalbe read vnto. So that he was supposed to be the sonne of Joseph.

¶ Proper Lessons to be read for the first Lessons, both at Morning prayer and Euening prayer, on the Sundayes throughout the yere, and for some also the second Lessons.

The order where Mor-nynge and Euenynge prayer shalbe vsed and sayde.

¶ The Morninge and Euenyng prayer shalbe vsed in the accustomed place of the Church, Chappel, or Chauncell, except it shalbe otherwise determined by the Ordinary of the place. And the Chaunsels shal remayns as they haue done in tymes paste.

¶ And here is to be noted, that the Minister at the time of the communion, and at all other tymes in his ministracion, shall vse suche ornamentes in the church, as were in vse by authoritie of Parliament, in the seconde yere of the raigne of king Edwarde the syxt, accordyng to the acte of Parliament set in the beginninge of this booke.

¶ An order for Mornynge prayer dayly throughout the yeare.

¶ At the beginning both of Mornynge prayer, and lykewyse of Eueninge prayer, the Minister shal reade with a loude voyce some one of these sentences of the scryptures that folowe. And then he shall say that which is written after the sayd sentences.

AT what time soeuer a synner doth repent him of his synne, from the bottome of hys hart: I will put al hys wickednesse out of my remembraunce sayeth the Lorde. Ezech. 18

I do knowe mine owne wickednesse, and my synne is alway against me. Psal. li.

Turne thy face away from our sinnes (O Lord) and blot out all our offences. Psal. li.

A sorowful spirite, is a sacrifice to GOD: desſpiſe not (O Lorde) humble and contrite hartes.

Rent your hartes, and not your garmentes, & turne to the lorde your God: becauſe he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient and of muche mercy, and ſuch a one that is ſory for your afflictions.

Dani.ix. To thee O lorde God belongeth mercy and forgeuenes: for we haue gone awaye from thee, and haue not harkened to thy voyce, whereby we myght walke in thy lawes, whiche thou haſt appoynted for vs.

Iere.ii. Correct vs O lorde, and yet in thy iudgement, not in thy fury, leaſt we ſhoulde be conſumed and brought to nothyng.

Mat.iii. Amende your lyues, for the kyngdome of God is at hande.

Luke.xv I wyll go to my father and ſay to hym: father I haue ſynned agaynſt heauen, and againſt thee, I am no more worthy to be called thy ſonne.

Pſa.cxliii Enter not into iudgement with thy ſeruauntes, O lord: for no fleſh is ryghteous in thy ſight.

i. Iohn.i If we ſay that we haue no ſynne, we deceyue our ſelues, and there is no trueth in vs.

DEarely beloued brethren, the ſcrypture moueth vs in ſundrye places to acknowledge and confeſſe our manyfolde ſinnes and wickednes, and that we ſhoulde not diſſemble nor cloke thē before the face of almightie God oure heauenly father, but confeſſe them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient harte: to thende that we may obtayne forgeuenes of the ſame by hys infinite goodnes and mercy. And although we ought

at all tymes, humbly to acknowledge our synnes before God: yet ought we moste cheifely so to do, when we assemble and meete together, to render thankes for the great benefites that we haue receyued at hys handes, to set forth hys moste worthy prayse, to heare hys moste holy worde, and to aske those thynges which be requisite and necessary as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I praye and beseche you, as many as be here present, to accompany me with a pure harte and humble voyce, vnto the throne of the heauenlye grace, saying after me.

¶ A generall confession to be sayde of the whole congregation after the Minister, knelynge.

ALmyghtie and moste mercyfull father, we haue erred and strayed frō thy wayes like lost shepe. We haue followed to muche the deuyses and desyres of our owne hartes. We haue offended agaynste thy holye lawes. We haue left vndone those thynges which we ought to haue done, and we haue done those thynges whiche we ought not to haue done, and there is no healthy in vs: but thou (O lorde) haue mercy vpon vs miserable offēdours. Spare thou them O God, which confesse their faultes. Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankind, in Christ Jesu our lorde. And graunt, O moste mercyfull father, for hys sake, that we maye hereafter lyue a godly, ryghteous and sober lyfe, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

¶ The absolution to be pronounced by the Minister alone.

ALmyghtie God, the father of our Lorde Jesus Chryst, whiche desyreth not the death of a synner, but rather that he may turne from hys wyckednes and lyue: and hath geuen power and commaundement to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people beyng penitent, the absolution and remission of their synnes: he pardoneth and absolueth all them whiche truely repent, and vnfaynedly beleue hys holye Gospell. Wherefore we beseche him to graunt vs true repentaunce, and hys holy spirite, that those thynges may please him which we do at thys present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the laste we may come to hys eternall ioy, through Jesus Chryst our Lord.

¶ The people shall aunswere. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begyn the Lordes prayer with a loude voyce.

OUr father which art in heauen, halowed bee thy name. Thy kyngdome come. Thy wyll be done in earth as it is in heauen. Geue vs thys day oure dayly bread. And forgeue vs our trespasses, as we forgeue them that trespasse agaynst vs. And leade vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euyll. Amen.

¶ Then lykewise he shall say:

O Lorde open thou our lyppes.

Aunswere:

And our mouth shall shewe forth thy prayse.

Priest.

O God

O God make spede to saue vs.

℟ Aunswere.

O Lorde make haste to helpe vs.

℟ Priest.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe. &c.

Prayse ye the Lorde.

℟ Then shalbe sayde or song this Psalme folowyng.

O Come let vs syng vnto the Lord: let vs hartely reioyce in the strength of our saluaciō.

Lette vs come before his presence with thankesgeuyng: and shew our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lorde is a great God: and a great kyng aboue all gods.

In his hande are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hylles is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his handes prepared the drye lande.

O Come, let vs worshyp and fall downe: and knele before the Lorde our maker.

For he is the Lorde our God: and we are the people of his pasture, & the shepe of his handes.

To daye yf ye wyll heare his voyce, harden not your heartes: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptacion in the wyldernesse.

When your fathers tempted me: proued me, and sawe my workes.

Forty yeres long was I greued with this generation, and sayde: it is a people that do erre in theyr heartes, for they haue not knowen my wayes.

Unto whom I ſware in my wrath : that they ſhoulde not enter into my reſt.

Glory be to the father. &c. As it was in the. &c.

¶ Then ſhall folowe certayne Pſalmes in order, as they be appoynted in a Table made for that purpoſe : except there be proper Pſalmes appoynted for that day. And at thend of euery Pſalme throughout the yere, and likewiſe in thende of Benedictus, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, ſhalbe repeated.

Glory be to the father, and to the ſonne. &c.

¶ Then ſhalbe read two Leſſons diſtinctly with a loude voyce, that the people may heare. The firſt of thold Teſtament, the ſecond of the new. Lyke as they be appointed in the kalender, except there be proper leſſons aſſigned for that day: the miniſter that readeth the leſſō, ſtandyng and turnyng hym ſo, as he may beſt be heard of all ſuch as be preſent. And before euery leſſon, the miniſter ſhall ſay thus. The firſt, ſeconde, thyrde, or fourth Chapiter of Geneſis or Exodus, Mathewe, Marke, or other lyke, as is appoynted in the kalender. And in the ende of euery Chapiter he ſhall ſay.

¶ And to thende the people may the better heare, in ſuche places where they do ſyng, there ſhal the Leſſons be ſong in a playne tune, after the maner of diſtinct readyng : & lykewyſe the Epyſtle and Goſpell.

¶ After the fyrſt Leſſon, ſhall folowe Te deum laudamus, in Englyſhe, dayly, through the whole yeare.

Te deum laudamus.

WE prayſe thee, O God : we knowledge thee to be the Lorde.

All the earth doth worſhyp thee: the father euerlaſtyng.

To thee al Aungels crye aloude: the heauens and all the powers therin.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe. &c.

¶ And after the seconde lesson, shalbe vsed and sayde Benedictus in Englyshe, as foloweth.

Benedictus.

BLessed be the lorde God of Israell: for he hath visited & redeamed his people.

And hath raysed vp a myghtye saluacion for vs: in the house of his seruaunt Dauid.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophetes: which hath ben sence the worlde began.

That we shoulde be saued from our enemies: and from the handes of all that hate vs.

To perfourme the mercy promysed to our forefathers: and to remember his holy couenaunt.

To perfourme the othe which he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would geue vs.

That we beyng delyuered out of the handes of our enemies: myght serue hym without feare.

In holynesse and ryghteousnes before him: all the dayes of our lyfe.

And thou chylde shalt be called the Prophet of the highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lorde to prepare his wayes.

To geue knowledge of saluation vnto his people: for the remission of theyr synnes.

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day spryng from an hygh, hath visited vs.

To

To geue lyght to them that sitte in darkenesse and in the shadow of death: and to guide our fete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the begynnyng, is now. &c.

¶ For this. C. Psalme. Jubilate.

DBe ioyfull in the Lord (all ye landes:) serue the lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song. Iubilate.

Be ye sure that the Lorde he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and not we our selues, we are his people, and the shepe of his pasture.

O go your waye into his gates with thankes geuyng, & into his courtes with prayse: be thankfull vnto hym, and speake good of his name.

For the Lorde is gracious, his mercy is euerlastyng: and his trueth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the begynnyng, is now, and euer shalbe worlde without ende. Amen.

¶ Then shalbe sayde the Crede, by the Minister and the people, standyng.

IBeleue in God the father almyghtye, maker of heauen and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only sonne our Lord. Which was cõceaued by the holy ghost borne of the virgin Marye. Suffred vnder Ponce Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buryed. He descended into hell. The thyrde day he rose agayne from the dead.

He

He ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hande of God the father almyghtie. From thence shall he come to iudge the quicke and the dead. I beleue in the holy ghoste. The holye Catholyke Churche, the Communion of Saintes. The forgeuenesse of sinnes. The resurrection of the body. And the lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

¶ And after that, these prayers folowyng, aswell at Euenyng prayer as at Morning prayer, all deuoutly kneelyng. The Minister fyrst pronouncyng with a loude voyce.

The Lorde be with you.

¶ Aunswere.

And with thy spirite.

¶ The Minister.

Let vs pray.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Christ haue mercy vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

¶ Then the Minister, Clerkes, and people shall saye the Lordes prayer in Englyshe, with a loude voyce.

Our father which art in heauen. &c.

¶ Then the Minister standyng by shall say.

O Lorde shewe thy mercy vpon vs.

¶ Aunswere.

And graunt vs thy saluation.

¶ Priest.

O Lorde saue the Quene.

¶ Aunswere.

And mercifully heare vs when we call vpon the.

Becauſe there is none other that fighteth for vs. but onely thou O God.

Prieſt.

O God make cleane our hartes within vs.

Aunſwere.

And take not thy holy ſpirite from vs.

¶ Then ſhall folowe three collectes. The fyrſt of the day, which ſhalbe the ſame that is appoynted at the Communion. The ſeconde for peace. The thyrde for grace to lyue wel: And the two laſt Collectes ſhal neuer alter, but dayly be ſayde at mornynge prayer, throughout al the yeare as foloweth.

¶ The ſeconde Collect for peace.

O God, whiche art aucthour of peace, and louer of concord, in knowledge of whom ſtandeth our eternall lyfe, whoſe ſeruyce is perfect fredome: defend vs thy humble ſeruauntes in all aſſaultes of our enemyes, that we ſurely truſtinge in thy defence, may not feare the power of anye aduerſaries: through the myghte of Jeſus Chriſt our Lorde. Amen.

¶ The thyrde Collect for grace.

O Lord our heauenly father, almighty & euerlaſting god, which haſt ſafely brought vs to the beginning of this day: defende vs in the ſame with thy mightie power, and graunt that this day we fal into no ſinne, neither runne into any kind of daũger: but that al our doynges may be ordered by thy gouernaunce, to doe alwayes that is righteous in thy ſight: through Jeſus Chriſt our Lorde. Amen.

¶ An order for Euening prayer throughout the yere.

¶ The Priest shall say.

¶ Our father which art. &c.

¶ Then lykewyse he shall say.

O Lorde open thou our lyppes.

¶ Aunswere.

And our mouth shall shewe forth thy prayse.

¶ Priest.

O God make spede to saue vs.

¶ Aunswere.

O Lorde make haste to helpe vs.

¶ Priest.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe. &c.

¶ Prayse ye the lorde.

¶ Then Psalmes in order as they be appointed in the Table for Psalmes, except there be proper Psalmes appointed for that daye. Then a Lesson of the olde Testament, as is appointed lykewise in the kalender, except there be proper Lessons appointed for that day. After that, Magnificat in Englyshe, as followeth.

Magnificat.

MY soule doeth magnifie the Lord: and my spirite hath reioyced in GOD my sauiour.

For he hath regarded: the lowlynes of his handemayden.

For beholde from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mightie hath magnified me: and holy is his name.

And hys mercy is on them that feare hym: throughout all generations.

He

He hath shewed strength with hys arme: he hath scattered the proude in the imagination of theyr hartes.

He hath putte downe the myghtie from theyr seate: and hath exalted the humble and meke.

He hath fylled the hungry with good thynges: and the ryche he hath sent empty away.

He remembrynge hys mercy, hath holpen hys seruaunt Israell: as he promysed to our forefathers Abraham, and his sede for euer.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holy ghost.

As it was in be beginninge, is nowe, and euer shalbe: worlde without ende. Amen.

¶ Or els thys psalme.

Cantate domino. Psalm. xcviii.

Synge vnto the Lorde a newe songe: for he hath done marueylous thynges.

With hys owne ryght hande, and with hys holy arme, hath he gotte̅ himself the victory.

The Lorde declared his saluation, hys ryghteousnes hath he openly shewed, in the syght of the heathen.

He hath remembred hys mercy and trueth towarde the house of Israel: and al the endes of the worlde haue sene the saluation of our God.

Shewe your selues ioyfull vnto the Lorde, all ye landes: synge, reioyce and geue thankes.

Prayse the Lorde vpon the harpe: synge to the harpe with a Psalme of thankesgeuyng.

With Trompettes also and Shawmes: O shew your selues ioyfull before the Lorde the kyng.

Let

Let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is: the rounde worlde, and thei that dwell therein.

Let the floudes clap theyr handes, and let the hylles be ioyfull together before the Lorde: for he is come to iudge the earth.

With righteousnes shall he iudge the worlde: and the people with equitie.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the beginninge, is nowe. &c.

¶ Then a Lesson of the newe Testament. And after that, Nunc dimitis in Englyshe as followeth.

LOrde nowe lettest thou thy seruaunt depart in peace: according to thy worde.

For mine eyes haue sene thy saluation.

Whiche thou haste prepared before the face of all people.

To be a lyght to lyghten the Gentyles: and to be the glory of thy people Israell.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the begynnynge, is nowe. &c.

¶ Or els thys Psalme.

Deus misereatur. Psl. lxvii.

GOD be mercifull vnto vs, and bleſſe vs: and shewe vs the light of his countenaunce, and be mercifull vnto vs.

That thy way may be knowen vpon earth: thy sauing healthy amonge all nations.

Let the people prayse thee O God: yea let all the people prayse thee.

O let the nations reioyce and be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folke righteously, and gouerne the nacions vpon earth.

Let

Let the people prayse thee O God: let all the people prayse thee.

Then shall the earth bryng forth her increase: & god, euen our owne god shal geue vs his blessing.

God shall bless vs, & all the endes of the world shall feare him.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe. &c.

¶ Then shall folowe the Crede with other prayers, as is before appoynted at Morynge prayer after Benedictus. And with three Collectes: First of the day, the second of peace, thyrde, for ayde agaynst all perylles, as hereafter foloweth: whiche two last Collectes shalbe dayly sayde at Euenyng prayer without alteration.

¶ The seconde Collecte at Euenynge prayer.

O God, from whom all holy desyres, all good counsayles, and all iust workes do procede: geue vnto thy seruauntes that peace, which the worlde cannot geue: that both our heartes may be set to obeye thy commaundementes, and also that by thee, we beynge defended from the feare of our enemyes, may passe our tyme in reste & quietnes: through the merites of Jesus Christ our sauiour. Amen.

¶ The thyrde Collecte, for ayde agaynst all perylles.

LIghten our darkenes we beseech thee, O lord, and by thy great mercy defend vs from al perylles & daungers of this nyght, for the loue of thy only sonne our sauiour Jesus Christ. Amē.

¶ In the feastes of Christmas, the Epiphanie, Saint Mathie, Easter, Thassention, Pentecost, saint John Baptist, saint James, saint Bartholomew, saint Mathewe, saint Simon and Jude, saint Andrewe, and Trinite Sunday: shalbe songe or sayd immediatly after Benedictus this confession of our Christian fayth.

Quicunque vult

WHosoeuer wyll bee saued: before all thinges it is necessary that he hold the Catholike fayth.

Which faith.except euery one do kepe holye and vndefyled: without doubt he shall perysshe euerlastingly.

And the Catholike faith is this: that we worship one God in trinitie,and trinitie in vnitie.

Neyther confoundynge the persons:nor deuidyng the substaunce.

For there is one person of the father, another of the sonne,and another of the holy ghost.

But the Godhead of the father,of the sonne, & of the holy ghost is all one: the glory equall, the maiestie coeternall.

Suche as the father is,such is the sonne: and such is the holy ghost.

The father vncreate,the sonne vncreate: and the holy ghost vncreate.

The father incomprehensible,the sonne incomprehensible:and the holi ghost incomprehensible.

The father eternall,the sonne eternall: and the holy ghost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternalles: but one eternall.

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three vncreated: but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the father is almightie, the sonne almightie,and the holy ghost almightie.

And yet they are not three almighties:but one almightie.

So the father is God,the sonne is God;and the holy holy ghoſt is God.

And yet are they not thꝛee gods: but one god.

So likewiſe the father is Lord, the ſonne Lord: and the holy ghoſt Lord.

And yet not thꝛee Lordes: but one Lorde.

For lyke as we be compelled by the Chriſtian veritie, to acknowledge euery perſon by hym ſelf to be God and Lorde.

So are we forbydden by the Catholike religion: to ſay there be thꝛee Gods or thꝛee Lordes.

The father is made of none: neither created nor begotten.

The ſonne is of the father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.

The holy ghoſt is of the father & of the ſonne: neither made, nor created, nor begotten: but proceding

So there is one father, not thꝛee fathers; one ſonne, not thꝛee ſonnes: one holy ghoſt, not thꝛee holy ghoſtes.

And in this Trinitie, none is afore or after other: none is greater nor leſſe then another.

But the whole thꝛee perſons: be coeternall together and coequall.

So that in all thynges as is aforeſayde, the vnitie in Trinitie, and the Trinitie in vnitie, is to be worſhipped.

He therfore that wil be ſaued: muſt thus thinke of the Trinitie.

Furthermore, it is neceſſary to euerlaſting ſaluacion: that he alſo beleue ryghtly in the incarnacion of our Lorde Jeſu Chriſt.

For the right faith is, that we beleue and confeſſe: that our Lorde Jeſus Chryſte the ſonne of God, is God and man.

God of the substaunce of the father, begotten before the worldes: and man of the substaunce of his mother, borne in the worlde.

Perfect God, and perfect man: of a reasonable soule, and humaine flesshe subsistyng.

Equal to the father as touchyng his godhead: & inferiour to the father, touchinge his manhod.

Who although he be God & man: yet he is not two, but one Christ.

One, not by conuersion of the Godhead into flesshe, but by takyng of the manhod into God.

One altogether, not by confusiō of substaunce: but by vnitie of person.

For as the reasonable soule and flesshe is one man: so god and man is one Christ.

Who suffred for our saluacion: descended into hell, rose agayne the thyrde day from the dead.

He ascended into heauen, he sitteth on the right hand of the father, God almightie: from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and the dead.

At whose comminge all men shall ryse agayne with theyr bodyes: and shall geue accoumpt for theyr owne workes.

And they that haue done good, shal go into life euerlastyng: and they that haue done euyl, into euerlasting fyre.

This is the Catholyke fayth, whiche except a man beleue faithfully, he can not be saued.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne. &c.
As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe. &c.

¶ Thus endeth the order of Mornyng and Euenyng prayer, throughout the whole yeare.

¶ Here foloweth the Letany to be vsed vpon Sundayes, Wednisdayes and Frydayes, and at other tymes when it shalbe commaunded by the Ordinary.

O God the father of heauen: haue mercy vpon vs miserable synners.

O God the father of heauen: haue mercye vpon vs miserable synners.

O god the sonne redeamer of the worlde: haue mercy vppon vs miserable synners.

O God the sonne redemer of the worlde: haue mercy vpon vs miserable synners.

O God the holi ghost, proceading from the father and the sonne: haue mercye vppon vs myserable synners.

O God the holy ghost, proceadynge from the father and the sonne: haue mercy vpon vs miserable synners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, three persons, and one God: haue mercy vppon vs miserable synners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, thre persons and one God: haue mercy vpon vs miserable symers.

Remembre not lord our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeaunce of our sinnes: spare vs good Lorde, spare thy people whom thou hast redemed with thy most precious bloud, and be not angry with vs for euer.

Spare vs good Lorde.

From al euil and myschiefe, from synne, from the craftes and assautes of the deuil, from thy wrath, and from euerlasting damnation.

Good Lorde delyuer vs.

From al blindnes of hart, from pryde, vaineglory and hipocrisie, from enuye, hatred and malice, and al vncharitablenes.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

From fornication and al other deadly synne, and from al the deceytes of the worlde, the fleshe and the deuyll.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

From lightning and tempestes, from plage, pestilence, and famyne, from battayle and murther, and from sodayne death.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

From sedicion and priuy conspiracy, from al false doctrine and heresie, from hardenes of heart, and contempt of thy worde and commaundement.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

By the misterye of thy holye incarnatyon, by thy holye Natiuitie and Circumcysyon, by thy baptisme, fasting and temptation.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

By thyne agony and bloudy sweate, by thy crosse and passyon, by thy precious death and buryall, by thy glorious resurrection and ascentyon, and by the comming of the holy Ghost.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

In all tyme of our trybulation, in al tyme of our wealth, in the houre of death, and in the daye of iudgement.

Good lorde delyuer vs.

We sinners do beseche thee to heare vs (O Lorde God) and that it maye please thee to rule and gouerne thy holy Churche vniuersally in the ryght waye.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it may plese thee to kepe and strengthen in the true worshyppyng of thee, in ryghteousnes & holynesse holynesse of life, thy seruaunt Elizabeth our most gracious Quene and gouernour.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it may please thee to rule her heart in thy fayth, feare and loue, and that she may euermore haue affiaunce in thee, and euer seke thy honour and glory.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it maye please thee to be her defender & keper, geuyng her the victory ouer al her enemies.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it may please thee to illuminate al bishops, pastours, and ministers of the Church, with true knowledge and vnderstandyng of thy worde: and that both by their preachyng and lyuyng, they may set it foorth and shewe it accordyngly.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it maye please thee to endue the Lordes of the counsayle, and all the nobilitie with grace, wysdome, and vnderstandyng.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it may please thee to blesse and kepe the Magistrates, geuyng them grace to execute Iustyce, and to maintayne trueth.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it may please thee to blesse and kepe all thy people.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That it maye please thee to geue to all nations vnitie, peace, and concorde.

We beseche thee to heare vs good Lorde.

That

¶ Let vs pray.

O God

O God mercyfull father, that despysest not the syghyng of a contrite hearte, nor the desyre of such as be sorowful: mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and aduersities whensoeuer they oppresse vs. And graciously heare vs, that those euyls which the craft and subtiltie of the deuyll or man worketh agaynst vs, be brought to naught, and by the prouidence of thy goodnes, they maye be dispersed, that we thy seruauntes beyng hurt by no persecutions, may euermore geue thankes vnto thee in thy holy Churche, through Iesus Christ our Lorde.

O Lorde aryse, helpe vs, and delyuer vs for thy names sake.

O God we haue heard with our eares, and our fathers haue declared vnto vs, the noble workes that thou dyddest in theyr dayes, and in the olde tyme before them.

O Lorde aryse, helpe vs and delyuer vs for thyne honour.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, & to the holy ghost. As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe and euer shalbe, worlde without ende. Amen.

From our enemies defende vs, O Christ.

Graciously loke vpon our afflictions.

Pitifully beholde the sorowes of our heart.

Mercyfully forgeue the synnes of thy people.

Fauourably with mercy heare our prayers.

O sonne of Dauid haue mercy vpon vs.

Both nowe and euer vouchsafe to heare vs, O Christ.

Graciously heare vs, O Christ.

Graciously heare vs, O Lorde Christe.

¶ The Versicle.

O Lorde let thy mercy be shewed vpon vs.

¶ The Aunswere.

As we do put our trust in thee.

Let vs pray.

WE humblye beseche thee, O father, mercyfully to loke vpon our infirmities, and for the glorye of thy names sake, turne from vs all those euylles that we most ryghteously haue deserued, and graunt that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and euermore serue thee in holynes and pureneſſe of lyuing, to thy honour and glory: Through our onely mediatour and aduocate Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the Quenes Maiestie.

O Lord our heauenly father, high and mighty, kyng of kinges, Lord of Lordes, the only ruler of Princes, which doest frō thy throne beholde all the dwellers vpon earth, most hartely we beseche thee with thy fauour to beholde our most gracious soueraigne lady Quene Elizabeth and so replenyshe her with the grace of thy holye spirit, that she may alway incline to thy wyll, & walke in thy way: indue her plētifully with heauenly gyftes, graunt her in health & wealth long to lyue, strengthe her that she may vanquishe and ouercome all her enemies. And finally after this lyfe, she may attayne euerlastyng ioy and felicitie, thorowe Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

¶ For fayre wether.

O Lorde god, which for the synne of man didst once drowne al the world, except eyght persons, and afterward of thi great mercy didst promise neuer to destroy it so agayne: we humbly beseche thee, that although we for our iniquities haue worthely deserued this plague of rayne and waters, yet vpon our true repentaũce, thou wylt send vs such wether, wherby we may receaue the frutes of the earth in due season, and learne both by thy punyshment to amende our lyues, and for thy clemencie to geue thee prayse and glory: thorowe Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

¶ In the time of dearth and famine.

O God heauenly father, whose gyfte it is that the rayne doeth fall, the earth is fruitefull, beastes increase, and fyshes do multiply: beholde we beseche thee thafflictions of thy people, and graunt that the scarcitie and dearth (whiche we do nowe most iustly suffer for our iniquitie) may through thy goodnes, be mercyfully turned into cheapenes and plentie for the loue of Iesu Christ our Lorde: to whom with thee and the holye ghost, &c.

¶ In the time of warre.

O Almighty god, king of al kinges, and gouernour of all thynges, whose power no creature is hable to resist, to whom it belongeth iustly to punyshe synners, and to be mercyfull to them that truely repent: saue and delyuer vs (we humbly beseche thee) from the handes of our enemyes: abate their pryde, asswage their malyce, and confounde their deuyses, that we beynge armed med with thy defence, maye bee preserued euermoze from all perils, to glozifie thee, which art the onely geuer of all victozy: thzough the merites of thy only sonne Iesu Chzist our Lozd.

¶ In the time of any common plague oz syckenes.

ALmightie God: whiche in thy wzath in the tyme of kyng Dauid, didst slea with the plague of pestilence, thzescoze and ten thousande, and yet remembzyng thy mercy dydst saue the rest: haue pitie vppon vs miserable synners, that nowe are visited with great syckenesse and moztalitie, that lyke as thou dydst then cõmaund thy Aungell to ceasse from punishyng: So it may now please thee to withdzaw from vs this plage and greuous sicknes: thzough Iesu Chzysse our Lozde.

O God, whose nature and propertie is euer to haue mercye, and to forgeue, receaue oure humble peticions, and though we bee tyed and bounde with the chayne of oure synnes: yet let the pitifulnesse of thy great mercye louse vs, foz the honour of Iesus Chzystes sake our mediatour and aduocate. Amen.

¶ The Collecte.

ALmyghtye God geue vs grace that we maye cast away the workes of darkenesse, and put vppon vs the armour of lyght, nowe in the tyme of this mortall lyfe (in the which thy sonne Jesus Christ came to visite vs in great humilitie) that in the last day, when he shall come againe in hys gloryous maiestie, to iudge both the quicke and the dead, we may ryse to the lyfe immortall, through hym who liueth and raigneth with thee and the holy ghost, nowe and euer. Amen.

¶ The Epistle.

OWe nothynge to anye man, but thys, that ye loue one another. For he that loueth another, fulfylleth the lawe. For these commaundementes: Thou shalt not committe adultrye. Thou shalte not kyll. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false wytnesse. Thou shalt not luste: and so foorth (yf there be any other commaundement) it is all comprehended in this sayinge: namely. Loue thy neyghbour as thy selfe. Ro. xiii.

Loue

Loue hurteth not his neighbour: therfore is loue the fulfillyng of the law. This also, we know the season howe that it is time that we should nowe awake out of slepe, for nowe is our saluacion nerer then when we beleued. The nyght is passed, the day is come nye: let vs therefore caste awaye the dedes of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of lyght. Let vs walke honestly, as it were in the day light, not in eatinge and drinking, neither in chaumberynge and wantonnesse, neyther in stryfe and enuying, but put ye on the Lord Iesus Christ, and make not prouision for the flesshe, to fulfyll the lustes of it.

Mat. xxi.

AND when they drewe nygh to Ierusalē, and were come to Bethphage vnto Mount Oliuete, then sent Iesus two of his disciples, sayinge vnto them: go into the towne that lieth ouer against you, & anone you shall fynde an Asse bound, and a colt with her: louse them & bryng them vnto me. And if any man say ought vnto you, say ye, the Lorde hath nede of them, & straygght way he wyll let thē go. All this was done that it might be fulfylled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying: Tell ye the doughter of Sion: beholde, thy kynge cōmeth vnto thee meke, sittyng vpon an Asse and a colt, the foale of the Asse vsed to the yoke. The disciples went & did as Iesus cōmaunded them, & brought the Asse & the colt, and put on them their clothes, & set him theron. And many of the people spred their garmentes in the waye. Other cutte down braunches frō the trees, & strawed them in the the way. Moreouer, the people that went before, and they that came after cryed, saying: Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid: Blessed is he that cõmeth in the name of the Lorde, Hosanna in the highest. And whẽ he was come to Ierusalem, all the citie was moued, saying: who is this? And the people sayd: this is Iesus, the Prophet of Nazareth, a citie of Galile. And Iesus went into the temple of God, and cast out al them that solde and bought in the temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of the money chaungers, & the seates of them that sold doues, and sayd vnto thẽ: It is wrytten. My house shalbe called the house of prayer, but ye haue made it a denne of theues.

When John beyng in prison, harde the workes of Chryste, he sent two of his disciples, and sayde vnto hym: Arte thou he that shall come: or do we loke for another? Jesus aunswered and sayde vnto them. Go and shewe John agayne what ye haue hearde and sene. The blynde receaue their sight, the lame walke, the lepers are clensed, and the deafe heare, the dead are raysed vp, and the poore receaue the gladde tydynges of the Gospell: and happy is he that is not offended by me. And as they departed, Jesus began to say vnto the people concernyng John: What went ye out into the wylderneſſe to see? A reede that is shaken with the wynde? or what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Beholde, they that weare softe clothyng are in kynges houses. But what went ye out for to see? a Prophete? Verely I say vnto you, and more then a Prophete. For this is he of whom it is wrytten: Beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, whiche shall prepare thy way before thee.

¶ The Gospell.

THys is the recorde of John, when the Iewes sent Priestes and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske hym what art thou? And he confessed and denyed not, and sayde playnly: I am not Christ. And they asked hym, what then, art thou Helyas? and he sayeth: I am not. Art thou the Prophete? and he aunswered, no. Then sayde they vnto hym: what art thou, that we may geue an aunswere vnto them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe? he sayde: I am the voyce of a cryer in the wyldernes: make streight the way of the Lord, as saide the Prophet Esay. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees, and they asked hym, and sayde vnto him: why baptisest thou then, if thou be not Christ, nor Helias, neyther that Prophete? John aunswered them, sayinge: I baptise with water, but there standeth one among you, whō ye know not: he it is, which though he came after me, was before me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to John. i.

¶ The Epistle.

Hebr.i

GOD in times past, diuersly and many wayes spake vnto the fathers by Prophetes: but in these last dayes he hath spoken to vs by his own sonne, whom he hath made heyre of all thynges, by whom also he made the world. Whiche (sonne) beyng the bryghtnes of hys glory, & the very image of his substaunce, rulynge all thynges with the word of his power, hath by his owne person purged our sinnes, and sytteth on the ryght hande of the Maiestie on hygh: beyng so much more excellent then the Aungels, as he hath by inheritaũce obteyned a more excellent name then they. For vnto whiche of the Aungels sayd he at any time? Thou arte my sonne, thys day haue I begotten thee. And againe, I wil be his father, and he shalbe my sonne. And agayne, when he bryngeth in the first begotten sonne into the worlde, he saith: and let al the Aungels of God worship hym. And vnto the Aungels he saith: He maketh hys Aungels spirites, & his Ministers a flame of fyre. But vnto the sonne he saith: thy seate (O God) shalbe for euer and euer. The scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter. Thou haste loued ryghteousnesse and hated iniquitie: wherfore god, euen thy God, hath annoynted thee with oyle of gladnes aboue thy felowes. And thou lord in the beginning hast layde the foundation of the earth: & the heauens are the workes of thy handes. They shall perysshe, but thou endurest: But they all shall waxe old as doth a garment, & as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shalbe chaunged. But thou arte euen the same, and thy yeares shall not fayle.

¶ The Gospell.

IN the beginninge was the worde, and the worde was with God, and GOD was the worde. The same was in the beginninge with GOD. All thynges were made by it, and without it was made nothynge that was made. In it was lyfe, and the lyfe was the lyght of men, and the lyght shyneth in the darkenes, and the darkenesse comprehended it not. There was sent from GOD a man whose name was John. The same came as a wytnesse, to beare witnesse of the lyght, that all men through hym myghte beleue. He was not that lyght, but was sent to beare wytnesse of the light. That light was the true light which lyghteth euery man that commeth into the worlde. He was in the worlde, and the worlde was made by hym, and the worlde knewe hym not. He came among his owne, and his owne receyued him not, John. i.

But as many as receyued hym, to them gaue he power to be made sonnes of God: euen them that beleued on his name, whiche were borne, not of bloud, nor of the wyll of the flesshe, nor yet of the wyll of man, but of God. And the same worde became flesshe, and dwelt amonge vs, and we sawe the glory of it, as the glory of the onely begotten sonne of the father, full of grace and trueth.

Then they gaue a shoute with a loude voyce, & stopped theyr eares, and ran vpon him al at once, and cast him out of the citie, and stoned him. And the witnesses laide downe their clothes at a young mans feete, whose name was Saule. And they stoned Steuen, calling on and saying: lord Iesu, receiue my spirite. And he kneled downe, and cryed with a loude voyce: Lorde, laye not thys sinne to theyr charge

Foz it wil come to paſſe, that Herode ſhall ſeeke the chylde to deſtroy hym. So when he awoke, he toke the chylde and hys mother by nyght and departed into Egypte, and was there vnto the death of Herode, that it myght be fulfylled which was ſpoken of the lozd by the Prophete ſaying: out of Egipt haue I called my ſonne. Then Herode when he ſawe that he was mocked of the wyſe men, he was exceadynge wroth: and ſent fozth men of warre, and ſlewe all the childzen that were in Bethleem, and in al the coaſtes (as many as were two yeares olde oz vnder) accozding to the time which he had diligently knowen out of the wiſe men. Then was fulfilled that which was ſpoken by the Prophet Jeremy, whereas he ſaid: In Rama was there a voice harde, lamentacion, weppynge, and great mourning. AND I ſaye, that the heyre (as long as he is a chyld) differeth not from a ſeruaunt, though he be Lorde of all, but is vnder tutours and gouernours, vntyll the tyme that the father hath appoynted. Euen ſo we alſo when we were childzen, were in bondage vnder the ordinaunces of the worlde: But when the tyme was full come, god ſent his ſonne made of a woman, and made vonde vnto the law, to redeme them which were vonde vnto the law: that we through election myght receiue the inheritaunce that belongeth vnto the naturall ſonnes. Becauſe ye are ſonnes: God hath ſent the ſpirite of his ſonne into our hartes, which cryeth, Abba father. Wherfore nowe, thou art not a ſeruaunt but a ſonne. If thou be a ſonne, thou art alſo an heyre of God through Chryſt. Gal. iiii.

¶ The Goſpell.

THis is the booke of the generation of Jeſus Chriſt, the ſonne of Dauid, the ſonne of Abraham: Abraham begate Iſaac: Iſaac begat Jacob: Jacob begat Judas and his brethren: Judas begat Phares and zaram of Thamar: Phares begat Eſrom: Eſrom begat Aram: Aram begat Aminadab: Aminadab begat Naaſſon: Naaſſon begat Salmon: Salmon begat Boos of Rahab: Math. i.

Boos

Boos begat Obed of Ruth: Obed begat Jesse: Jesse begat Dauid the kyng: Dauid the kyng begat Salomon, of her that was the wyfe of Urie: Salomon begat Roboam: Roboam begat Abia: Abia begat Asa: Asa begat Josaphat: Josaphat begat Joram: Joram begat Osias: Osias begat Joatham: Joatham begat Achas: Achas begat Ezechias: Ezechias begat Manasses: Manasses begat Amon: Amon begat Josias: Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the tyme that they were caryed awaye to Babilon. And after they were brought to Babilon, Jechonias begat Salathiell: Salathiell begat zorobabell: zorobabell begat Abiud: Abiud begat Eleachim: Eleachim begat Azor, Azor begat Sadoc: Sadoc begat Achim: Achim begat Eliud: Eliud begat Eleazar: Eleazar begat Matthan: Matthan begatte Jacob: Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was borne Jesus, euen he that is called Christe. And so all the generations from Abraham to Dauid are .xiiii. generations. And from Dauid vnto the captiuitie of Babilon, are xiiii. generations. And from the captiuitie of Babilon vnto Christ, are .xiiii. generations.

The byrth of Jesus Christ was on this wyse: When his mother Mary was maryed to Joseph (before they came to dwell together) she was foũd with chylde by the holy ghoste. Then Joseph her husband (because he was a ryghteous man, and would not put her to shame) was mynded priuily to depart from her. But whyle he thus thought: beholde, the aungell of the Lorde appeared vnto hym in slepe, saying: Joseph, thou sonne of Dauyd, uyd, feare not to take vnto thee Mary thy wyfe: for that which is conceaued in her, commeth of the holy ghoſt. She ſhall bryng foorth a ſonne, & thou ſhalt call his name Jeſus: for he ſhall ſaue his people from theyr ſynnes.

All this was done that it myght be fulfylled which was ſpoken of the Lorde by the Prophete, ſaying: Behold, a mayde ſhalbe with chylde, and ſhall bryng foorth a ſonne, and they ſhall call his name Emanuall: which yf a man interprete, is as much to ſay, as God with vs. And Joſeph as ſone as he awoke out of ſlepe, dyd as the aungell of the Lorde had bydden hym: and he toke his wyfe vnto hym, and knewe her not tyll ſhe hadde brought foorth her fyrſt begotten ſonne, and called his name Jeſus.

¶ The Collect.

ALmyghtie God, which madeſt thy bleſſed ſon to be circumciſed and obedient to the lawe for man: graunt vs the circumciſion of the ſpirite, that our heartes and all our members beyng mortified from al worldly and carnal luſtes, may in all thinges obey thy bleſſed wyll: through the ſame thy ſonne Jeſus Chryſt our Lorde.

¶ The Epyſtle.

BLeſſed is that man to whō the lord wyll not impute ſinne? Came this bleſſednes then vpō the vncircumciſion, or vpon the circumciſion alſo? for we ſay that faith was rekoned to Abraham for righteouſnes. Rom. iiii

Howe

Howe was it then reckoned? when he was in the circumcision, or when he was in the vncircumcision? not in time of circumcisiō, but when he was yet vncircūcised. And he receiued the signe of circumcision, as a seale of the ryghteousnes of faith whiche he had yet beyng vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all thē that beleue, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnes might be imputed to thē also, and that he myght be the father of circumcisiō, not vnto them onely which came of the circumcised, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the fayth that was in our father Abraham before the tyme of circumcision. For the promyse (that he shoulde be heyre of the worlde) happened not to Abraham or to his sede through the lawe, but through the ryghteousnes of fayth. For yf they whiche are of the lawe be heyres, then is fayth but vayne, and the promise of none effecte.

When much people were gathered together, and were come to hym out of all cities, he spake by a similitude. The sower went out to sowe his seede: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden downe, and the foules of the ayre deuoured it vp. And some fell on stones, and assone as it was spronge vp, it wythered awaye, because it lacked moistnes. And some fell amonge thornes, and the thornes sprange vp with it and choked it. And some fell on good grounde, and sprange vp and bare fruit an hundreth folde. And as he sayde these thynges, he cryed: he that hath eares to heare, let hym heare. And hys disciples asked him, saying: what maner of similitude is thys? And he sayd: vnto you it is geuen to knowe the secretes of the kingdome of God, but to other by parables: that when they see, they shoulde not see, and when they heare, they shoulde not vnderstande. The parable is thys. The seede is the worde of GOD: those that are beside the way, are they that heare: then commeth the deuyll and taketh away the worde out of theyr hartes, least they should beleue & be saued. They on the stones are they, whiche when they heare, receaue the worde with ioy, and these haue no rootes, which for a whyle beleue, and in tyme of temptacion go away. And that whiche fell amonge thornes are they whiche when they haue harde, goe forth and are choked with cares and riches, and voluptuous lyuyng, and bryngе forth no fruite. That whiche fell in the good grounde are they, whiche with a pure and good harte, heare the worde and kepe it, and bringe forth fruite through pacience.

Though I speake with tounges of men and of Aungelles, and haue no loue: I am euen as soundynge brasse, or as a tinklynge Cimbali. And though I coulde prophecie & vnderstande all secretes, and all knowledge: yea, yf I haue all fayth, so that I coulde moue mountaynes oute of theyr places, and yet haue no loue, I am nothynge. And though I bestowe all my goodes to feede the poore, and though I gaue my body euen that I burned, and yet haue no loue, it profiteth me nothynge. Though that Prophecyinge fayle, eyther tounges cease, or knowledge vanyshe away, yet loue falleth neuer away. For our knowledge is vnperfect, and our prophecying is vnperfect: But when that whiche is perfect is come, then that whiche is vnperfect shalbe done awaye. When I was a chylde, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a chylde, I imagined as a chylde. But assone as I was a man, I put away chyldishnes. Nowe we see in a glasse, euen in a darke speakyng: but then shall we see face to face. Nowe I knowe vnperfectly: but then shall I knowe euen as I am knowen. Nowe abydeth fayth, hope, and loue, euen these three: but the chiefe of these is loue.

For he shalbe delyuered vnto the Gentyles, and shalbe mocked and despitefully intreated, & spytted on. And when they haue scourged hym, they will put hym to death, and the thyrde day he shall ryse agayne. And they vnderstode none of these thynges. And this sayinge was hyd from them, so that they perceyued not the thynges which were spoken. And they which went before rebuked him that he shoulde holde hys peace. But he cryed so much the more: thou sonne of Dauyd haue mercy on me. And Iesus stode styll, and commaunded hym to be brought vnto hym. And when he was come nere, he asked hym, sayinge: what wylt thou that I do vnto thee? and he sayde: Lorde, that I myght receyue my syght. And Iesus sayde vnto hym: receiue thy syght, thy faith hath saued thee. And immediatly he receiued his sight, and folowed him prayseynge God. Let the Priestes serue the Lorde betwene the porche and the alter, weping and saying: be fauorable, O Lord, be fauorable vnto thy people: let not thine heritage be brought to such confusion, lest the Heathen be lordes therof. But he aunswered and sayde: it is wrytten, man shall not lyue by bread onely, but by euery worde that proceadeth out of the mouth of God. Then the deuyll taketh hym vp into the holye Citie, and setteth hym on a pinacle of the Temple, and saith vnto him: yf thou be the sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe hedlonge. For it is wrytten: he shall geue his Aungels charge ouer thee, and with theyr handes they shall holde thee vp, least at any tyme thou dashe thy foote agaynst a stone. And Jesus sayde vnto hym, it is wrytten agayne: Thou shalt not tempt the lorde thy God. Agayne the deuyll taketh hym vp into an exceadyng hygh mountayne, and shewed hym all the kyngdomes of the worlde, and the glory of them, and sayth vnto hym: all these wyll I geue thee, yf thou wylt fall downe & worshyp me. As for fornication and all vnclennesse, or couetousnes, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth saintes, or fylthynesse, or folyshe talkyng, or iestyng, which are not comely, but rather geuyng of thankes. For this ye knowe, that no whoremonger, eyther vncleane person, or couetous person (which is a worshypper of images) hath any inheritaunce in the kingdome of Christ & of God. Let no man deceiue you with vaine wordes: For because of such thinges, commeth the wrath of god vpon the chyldren of disobedience. Be not ye therfore companions of them, ye were sometimes darknesse, but nowe are ye light in the lord: walk as chyldren of lyght, for the fruite of the spirite consisteth in all goodnes, and ryghteousnes, and trueth. Accept that which is plealyng vnto the Lord, and haue no felowshyp with the vnfruitful workes of darknes, but rather rebuke them. For it is a shame euen to name those thynges, whiche are done of them in secret: but al thinges whē they are brought forth by the lyght are manyfest. If Sathā also be deuyded against himselfe, how shal hys kingdome endure? Because ye say I cast out deuyls through Beelzebub: yf I by the helpe of Beelzebub caste out deuylles, by whose helpe do your children cast them out? Therfore shal they be your iudges. But yf I wyth the fynger of GOD cast out deuylles, no doubte the kyngdome of GOD is come vpon you. When a strong man armed watcheth his house, the thynges that he possesseth are in peace. But when a stronger then he commeth vpon hym, and ouercommeth hym, he taketh from hym all his harnesse (wherin he trusted) and deuydeth his goods. He that is not with me is agaynste me. And he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroade. When the vncleane spirite is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seekyng rest. And when he fyndeth none, he saith: I wyl returne agayne into my house whence I came out. And when he commeth, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he & taketh to him seuen other spirites worse then hym selfe, and they enter in and dwell there. And the ende of that man is worse then the begynnyng. And it fortuned that as he spake these thynges, a certayne woman of the companye lyfte vp her voyce, and sayde vnto hym: happy is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which gaue thee sucke. TEll me (ye that desyre to be vnder the lawe) do ye not heare of the lawe? for it is wrytten that Abraham had two sonnes: the one by a bondemayde, the other by a free woman, yea, and he which was borne of the bond woman, was borne after the flesshe: but he whiche was borne of the free woman, was borne by promysse: which thinges are spoken by an allegory. For these are two Testamentes, the one from the mounte Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, whiche is Agar: For moũt Sina is Agar in Arabia, and bordreth vpon the citie, which is nowe called Hierusalem, and is in bondage with her chyldren. But Hierusalem which is aboue is free, whiche is the mother of vs al. For it is wrytten: Reioyce thou barren that bearest no chyldren, breake forth and cry thou that trauaylest not. For the desolate hath many mo chyldren then she whyche hath an husband. Brethren, we are after Isaac the chyldren of promyse. But as then he that was borne after the flesshe, persecuted hym that was borne after the spirite: Euen so is it nowe. Neuertheless, what saith the scripture? put away the bond woman and her sonne. When Iesus then lyfte vp his eyes, and sawe a great company come to hym, he sayde vnto Phylyp: whence shall we bye breade that these may eate? This he sayde to proue hym, for he hym selfe knewe what he woulde do. Philip answered him: two hundred penyworth of bread, are not sufficient for them, that euery man may take a lyttle. One of his disciples (Andrewe Simon Peters brother) sayth vnto hym. There is a lad which hath fiue barly loaues and two fyshes: but what are they among so many? And Iesus said: make the people syt down. There was much grasse in the place: so the men sat downe, in number about fiue thousande. And Iesus toke the bread, & when he had geuen thankes, he gaue to the disciples, & the disciples to them that were set downe, and lykewyse of the fyshes as much as they woulde. Hebr. ix.

Christe beynge an hye Priest of good thynges to come, came by a greater & a more perfecte tabernacle, not made with handes, that is to say, not of this buildynge, neyther by the bloudde of Goates and Calues: but by his own bloud he entred in once into the holy place, and founde eternall redemption. For yf the bloud of Oxen and of Goates, and the asshes of a yonge kowe, when it was sprinkled, purifieth the vnclene as touching the purifiyng of the flesshe: howe much more shall the bloud of Christ (whiche through the eternall spirite, offred him self without spot to god) purge your conscience from dead workes, for to serue the lyuyng God? And for thys cause he is the mediatour of the newe Testament, that through death, which chaūsed for the redemption of those transgressions

Then aunswered the Iewes, and sayde vnto hym: say we not well that thou art a Samaritane and hast the deuyll? Iesus aunswered: I haue not the deuyll: but I honour my father, and ye haue dishonored me. I seke not mine owne prayse: there is one that seketh and iudgeth. Verely, verely, I say vnto you, if a man kepe my saying, he shal neuer see death. Then said the Iewes vnto hym, nowe know we that thou hast the Deuyll. Abraham is dead, and the Prophetes, & thou sayest: yf a man kepe my saying he shal neuer tast of death. Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? And the Prophetes are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe? Iesus aunswered: if I honour my selfe, my honour is nothinge: it is my father that honoureth me, whiche you say is your God, and yet ye haue not knowen hym, but I knowe hym: and yf I say I knowe hym not, I shalbe a lyer lyke vnto you. But I knowe hym, & kepe his saying. Your father Abraham was glad to see my day, and he saw it, & reioyced. Then said the Iewes vnto him: Thou art not yet fiftie yere old, & hast thou sene Abraham? Mat. xxvi

AND it came to passe, when Jesus hadde fynyshed all these sayinges, he sayde vnto his disciples: ye knowe that after two daies shalbe Easter, and the sonne of man shalbe deliuered ouer to be crucified. Then assembled together the chief Priestes and the Scrybes and the Elders of the people, vnto the Palace of the high Priest (whiche was called Cayphas) and helde a counsayle that they myghte take Jesus by subtiltie, and kyll hym. But they sayde: not on the holy day, least there be an vproze among the people. When Jesus was in Bethanye in the house of Symon the Leper, there came vnto him a woman hauynge an Alabaster boxe of precious oyntment, and powred it on his head, as he sat at the boorde. But when hys disciples sawe it, they had indignacion, sayinge: wherto serueth this waste? This ointment myght haue ben wel solde, and geuen to the poore. When Jesus vnderstode that, he sayde vnto them: why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good worke vppon me. For ye haue the poore alwaies with you, but me ye shal not haue always. And in that she hath caste this oyntment on my body, she dyd it to burye me. Verely I saye vnto you: whereseoeuer this Gospell shalbe preached in all the worlde, there shall also thys be tolde that she hath done, for a memoriall of her. Then one of the twelue (whiche was called Judas Iscarioth) wente vnto the chiefe Priestes, and sayde vnto them: what wyll ye geue me, & I wyl deliuer him vnto you? And they appoynted vnto hym. xxx.

pieces of syluer. And from that tyme forth, he sought opportunitie to betray hym. The fyrst day of swete bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him: where wylt thou that we prepare for the, to eate the Passeouer? And he sayde: Goe into the citie to suche a man, and say vnto hym: the Master sayeth, my tyme is at hande, I wyll kepe my Easter by thee with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appoynted them, and they made readye the Passeouer. When the euen was come, he sat downe with the. xii. And as they dyd eate, he sayd: Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betray me. And they were exceadinge sorowful, and began euery one of them to say vnto him: Lord is it I? He aunswered and said: he that dyppeth his hande with me in the dyshe, the same shal betray me. The sonne of man truly goeth, as it is wrytten of him: but woe vnto that man by whom the sonne of man is betrayed. It had bene good for that man, yf he had not bene borne. Thē Judas, which betrayed hym, answered, and sayd: Master, is it I? He said vnto hym, thou hast sayd. And when they were eatynge, Jesus toke bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake & gaue it to the disciples, and sayd: Take, eate, this is my body. And he toke the cup, and thanked, and gaue it them, saying: Drynke ye all of thys: For this is my bloud (which is of the new Testament) that is shed for many, for the remission of synnes. But I say vnto you, I wyl not drinke henceforth of this fruite of the vyne tree, vntyl the day when I shal drinke it newe with you in my fathers kingdom. And when they had said grace, they went out vn-

to mount Oliuete. Then saide Jesus vnto them: al ye shalbe offēded because of me this night. For it is written, I wyl smite the shepeheard, and the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroade: but after I am risen againe, I wil go before you into Galile. Peter answered, & sayd vnto him: though all men be offended because of thee, yet wyl I not be offended. Jesus sayde vnto him: verely I saye vnto thee, that in thys same nyght, before the Cocke krowe, thou shalt denye me thryse. Peter said vnto him: yea, though I should die with the, yet will I not deny thee: likewyse also sayd al the Disciples. Then came Jesus with them vnto a farme place, (which is called Gethsemane) & sayd vnto the Disciples. Sit ye here, whyle I goe and pray yonder. And he tooke with him Peter, and the two sonnes of zebede, and began to waxe sorowful and heauy. Then sayde Jesus vnto them. My soule is heauy euen vnto the death. Tary ye here and watch with me. And he went a litle farther, and fell flat on hys face, and prayed, saying: O my father, yf it be possible, let thys cuppe passe from me: neuertheless, not as I wyl, but as thou wilt. And he came vnto the disciples, and founde them a slepe, and sayd vnto Peter: what, could ye not watch with me one houre? watche and pray that ye enter not into temptation: the spirite is wyllynge, but the flesche is weake. He went away once againe and prayed, sayinge: O my father, yf thys cup may not passe away from me, excepte I drinke of it, thy wyl be fulfylled: and he came and founde them a slepe agayne, for theyr eyes were heauye. And he left them, and went agayne and Behold, the houre is at hand, and the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners. Ryse, let vs be goynge: beholde, he is at hand that doth betray me. Whyle he yet spake: loe, Judas one of the number of the xii. came, and wyth him a great multitude wyth swordes and staues, sente from the chyefe priestes and Elders of the people. But he that betrayed him, gaue them a token, sayinge: whosoeuer I kysse, the same is he, holde hym faste. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and sayde: Hayle Mayster, and kyssed hym. And Jesus sayde vnto hym: frende, wherfore art thou come? Then came they and layde handes on Jesus, and tooke hym. And beholde, one of them that were wyth Jesus, stretched out hys hand and drewe hys sword, and stroke a seruaunt of the hye Priestes, and smote of hys eare. Then sayde Jesus vnto hym, put vp thy sworde into thy sheath, for all they that take the sworde shall perysche with the sworde. Thynkest thou that I cannot nowe pray to my father, and he shall geue me euen nowe, more then. xii. Legions of aungelles? But howe then shall the scriptures be fulfilled? For thus must it be. In that same houre sayde Jesus to the multitude: ye be come out as it were to a thiefe with swordes and staues, for to take me, I sat dayly with you teachinge in the temple, and ye toke me not. But all thys is done that the scryptures of the Prophetes might be fulfylled. Then all the disciples forsoke him and fled. And thei toke Jesus and led him to Cayphas the hie Priest, wher the Scribes and the Elders were assembled. But Peter folowed him a farre of vnto the hie Priestes palace, and went in, and sat with the seruauntes to see the ende. The chiefe Priestes and Elders, and all the counsaile, sought false witnes against Jesus (for to put him to death) but founde none: yea when many false witnesses came, yet founde thei none. At the last came .ii. false witnesses, and sayd: This felow sayed, I am able to destroye the temple of God, and to builde it agayne in three dayes. And the chiefe Priest arose, and sayde vnto him: aunswerest thou nothing? Why do these beare witnes against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the chiefe Priest aunswered, and saide vnto hym, I charge thee by the liuinge God, that thou tell vs, whether thou be Christe the sonne of God. Jesus said vnto him: thou hast said. Neuertheles I saye vnto you, hereafter shall ye see the sonne of man sitting on the right hand of power, and comming in the cloudes of the sky. Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, saying: he hath spoken blasphemye, what nede wee of any more witnesses? Beholde, nowe ye haue harde his blasphemie. what thinke ye? They answered, and sayd: he is worthy to dye. Then dyd they spit in his face, and buffeted hym with fistes. And other smote him on the face with the palme of their handes, sayinge: tell vs thou Christ, who is he that smote the? Peter sat without in the court, and a damosel came to hym, sayinge: thou also wast with Jesus of Galile: but he denyed before them all, sayinge: I wote not what thou saist. When he was gone out into the porch, another wenche sawe hym, and sayde vnto them that were there: This felowe was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And agayne he denyed with an othe, sayinge: I do not knowe the man. After a whyle caine vnto hym they that stode by, and said vnto Peter: surely thou art euen one of them, for thy speache bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to sweare, that he knewe not the man. And immediatly the Cocke krewe. And Peter remembred the word of Jesu, which said vnto him: before the cocke krowe, thou shalt deny me thrise: and he went out and wepte bytterly. When the morning was come, al the chiefe Priestes and Elders of the people helde a counsell against Jesus, to put him to death, and brought him bound, and deliuered hym vnto Poncius Pilate the deputye. Then Judas (which had betrayed him) seing that he was condemned, repented him selfe, & brought again the .xxx. plates of siluer to the chief priestes and elders, saying: I haue synned, betraying the innocent bloud. And they sayde: what is that to vs? See thou to that. And he cast downe the siluer plates in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged hym selfe. And the chiefe priestes toke the syluer plates and said: It is not lawful for to put them into the treasure, because it is the pryce of bloud. And they toke counsayle, and bought with them a potters fielde to bury strangers in. Wherfore the fielde is called Haceldema, that is, the fielde of bloud, vntyll this day. Then was fulfylled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophete, saying: and they toke .xxx. siluer plates, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the chyldren of Israell, and gaue them for the potters fielde, as the Lorde appointed me. Jesus stode before the deputie, & the deputie asked hym, saying: Art thou the kyng of the Jewes? Jesus sayde vnto hym: thou sayest. And when he was accused of the chiefe Priestes & Elders, he aunswered nothyng. Then sayd Pilate vnto him: hearest thou not howe many witnesses they lay agaynste thee? and he aunswered hym to neuer a worde: insomuch that the deputie marueyled greatly. At that feast, the deputie was wont to delyuer vnto the people a prisoner, whom they woulde desyre. He had then a notable prisoner called Barrabas: Therfore when they were gathered together, Pilate sayde: whether wyll ye that I geue lose vnto you, Barrabas, or Jesus which is called Chryste? For he knewe that for enuy they hadde delyuered him. When he was set downe to geue iudgement, his wife sēt vnto him saying: haue thou nothyng to do with that iust man. For I haue suffred this daye many thynges in my slepe, because of hym. But the chiefe priestes and elders perswaded the people that they should aske Barrabas, & destroy Jesus. The deputie aunswered and sayde vnto them: whether of the twayne wyll ye that I lette loose vnto you? They sayd Barrabas. Pilate said vnto them: What shall I doe then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all sayde vnto hym: let hym be crucified. The deputie sayd: what euyl hath he done? but they cried more, saying: let him be crucified. When Pilate saw that he could preuayle nothyng, but the more busines was made:

he toke water, and washed his handes before the people, saying: I am innocent of the bloudde of this iust person, see ye. Then aunswered all the people, and sayde: his bloud be on vs and on our chyldren. Then let he Barrabas loose vnto them and scourged Jesus, and delyuered hym to bee crucified. Then the souldiours of the deputie toke Jesus into the common hall, and gathered vnto hym all the company, and they strypped hym and put on hym a purple robe, and platted a crowne of thornes and put it vppon his head, & a rede in his right hand, & bowed the knee before hym and mocked hym, saying: Hayle kyng of the Jewes, and when they had spyt vpon hym, they toke the rede and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked hym, they toke the robe of hym agayne, and put his owne rayment on hym, and led him away to crucifie hym. And as they came out, they found a man of Cirene (named Simon) hym they compelled to beare his crosse. And they came vnto the place whiche is called Golgotha, that is to saye (a place of dead mens sculles) and gaue hym vineger myngled with gall to drynke: and when he had tasted thereof he woulde not drinke. When they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes and dyd cast lottes, that it myght be fulfylled whiche was spoken by the Prophete. They parted my garmentes among them, and vpon my vesture did they cast lottes. And they sat and watched him there, & set vp ouer his head the cause of his death writtē: This is Jesus ỹ king of the Jewes. Then were ther two theues crucified with him, one on the righthand, & another on the left. They that passed by, reuyled hym, waggynge their heades, and saying: thou that destroiedst the temple of God, and dydst builde it in three dayes, saue thy selfe. If thou be the sonne of God, come downe from the crosse. Lykewyse also the hye Priestes mockyng him with the Scribes and Elders, said: he saued other, himself he can not saue. If he be the kyng of Israell, let hym nowe come downe from the crosse, & we wyll beleue hym. He trusted in God, let hym delyuer hym nowe yf he wyl haue him: for he said, I am the sonne of God. The theues also which were crucified with hym, cast the same in his teeth. From the sixth houre was there darknesse ouer all the lande vntyll the ninth houre. And about the ninth houre, Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying: Ely, Ely, lama sabathany: that is to saye, my god, my god, why hast thou forsake me? Some of them ỹ stode there when they heard that, sayd. This man calleth for Helyas. And straight way one of them ranne and toke a sponge, and when he had fylled it full of vineger, he put it on a rede, & gaue him to drinke. Other sayd: let be, let vs see whether Helias wyll come and delyuer hym. Jesus when he had cryed agayne with a loude voyce, yelded vp the ghoste. And beholde, the vayle of the temple dyd rent in two partes, from the top to the bottome, and the earth dyd quake, and the stones rent, and graues dyd open, and many bodyes of Saintes whiche slept, arose and went out of the graues after his resurrection, and came into the holye Citie, and appeared vnto many. When the Centurion, and they that were with hym watchyng Jesus, sawe

the earthquake, and those thynges which happened, they feared greatly saying: Truely this was the sonne of God. And many women were there (beholdyng hym a farre of) which folowed Jesus from Galile, ministring vnto him: Emong which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of zebedes chyldren.

The Epystle.

WHat is he this that commeth from Edom, with redde coloured clothes of Bosra (which is so costly cloth) and commeth in so mightelye with all his strength? I am he that teacheth righteousnes, and am of power to helpe. Wherefore then is thy clothyng redde, and thy rayment lyke his that treadeth in the wyne presse? I haue troden the presse my selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me. Thus wyll I treade downe mine enemies in my wrath, and sette my feete vpon them in mine indignation. And their bloud shall bespynge my clothes, and so wyll I stayne al my rayment. For the day of vengeaunce is assigned in my hart, and the yere when my people shalbe delyuered is come. I looked about me, and there was no man to shewe me any helpe. I maruayled that no man held me vp. Then I held me by mine owne arme, & my feruentnes sustayned me. And thus wyll I tread downe the people in Esay. 63.

in my wrath, and bath them in my displeasure, & vpon the earth wyll I lay theyr strength, I wyl declare the goodnes of the lord, yea and the praise of the Lord for all that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, whiche he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and according to the multitude of his louyng kyndnes. For he sayd: these no doubt are my people, and no shrinking children, and so he was theyr sauiour. In their troubles he was also troubled with thē, and the Aungel that went forth frō his presence, delyuered thē. Of very loue and kyndnes that he had vnto them, he redemed them. He hath borne them and caryed them vp, euer sence the worlde began. But after they prouoked hym to wrath, and vexed his holy mynde, he was theyr enemie, and fought agaynste them hym selfe, yet remembred Israell the olde time of Moyses and his people, saying: where is he that brought them from the water of the sea, with them that feede his shepe: where is he that hath geuen his holye spirite among them: he led them by the ryght hande of Moises with his glorious arme, deuydyng the water before them (whereby he gat hym selfe an euerlastyng name:) he led them in the depe as an horse is led in the playne, that they shoulde not stumble, as a tame beast goeth in the fielde, & the breath geuen of God geueth hym rest. Thus (O God) hast thou led thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious name withall. Loke downe then from heauen, & behold the dwellyng place of thy sanctuary, and thy glory. How is it that thy gelousy, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, & thy louing kindnes wyl not be entreted of vs: yet art thou our father. For Abraham knoweth vs not, neither is Israell acquainted with vs. But thou lord art our father and redemer, and thy name is euerlasting. O lord, wherfore hast thou led vs out of thy way: wherfore hast thou hardned our hartes that we feare thee not: Be at one with vs againe for thy seruauntes sake, & for the generatiō of thine heritage. Thy people haue had but a lytle of thy sanctuary in possession: for our enemies haue troden downe the holy place. And we were thine from the begynnyng, when thou wast not theyr lord, for they haue not called vpō thy name.

℣ The Gospell.

After two dayes was Easter, and the dayes of swete bread. And the hye Priestes & Scribes sought how they might take him by crafte, & put him to death. But they sayd: not in the feast day, lest any busines arise among the people. And when he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, euen as he sat at meate, ther came a woman hauing an Alabaster box of ointment called Narde, ẏ was pure & costly, & she brake the boxe & powred it vpō his hed. And ther were some ẏ wer not content within thē selues, & said: what neded this wast of oyntment: for it might haue ben sold for moze then three hundred pence, & haue ben geuen vnto the poze. And thei grudged against her. And Iesus said: let her alone why troble ye her: She hath done a good worke on me: for ye haue poore w̄ you alwayes, & whēsoeuer ye wil ye may do thē good: but me haue ye not always, she hath done ẏ she could, she came aforehād to anoint my Mark. 14

body to the burying. Verely I sai vnto you, wher soeuer this Gospell shalbe preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shal be rehearsed in remembraunce of her. And Judas Iscarioth one of the twelue, went away vnto the hie priestes to betray hym vnto them. When they hard that, they were glad, and promised that they would geue hym money. And he sought howe he might conueniently betray him. And the first day of swete bread (when they offered the passeouer) his disciples said vnto him: where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou maist eate the Passe ouer? And he sent forth two of his disciples, and sayd vnto them: go ye vnto the citie, & there shal mete you a mā bearyng a pitcher of water, folow him. And whyther soeuer he goeth in, say ye vnto the good man of the house, the master saith, wher is the gest chaumber, where I shall eate the passe-ouer with my disciples? And he wyll shewe you a great parlor paued and prepared, there make ready for vs. And his disciples went forth, and came into the citie, & founde as he had sayd vnto them, and they made ready the Passeouer. And when it was nowe euentyde, he came with the twelue. And as they sat at borde and did eate, Jesus said: verely I saye vnto you, one of you, (that eateth with me) shall betray me. And they began to be sory, and to say to hym one by one: is it I? and an other sayd: is it I? he aunswered and sayde vnto them: it is one of the twelue, euē he that dyppeth with me in the platter. The sonne of man truly goeth as it is wrytten of hym, but woe to that man by whom the sonne of manne is betrayed:

good were it for that man, yf he had neuer bene borne. And as thei did eate, Jesus toke bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue to them, and said: Take, eate, this is my body. And he toke the cup, and when he had geuen thankes, he toke it to them, and thei al dranke of it. And he said vnto thē: Thys is my bloud of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verely I say vnto you, I wyll drynke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntill that day that I drinke it newe in the kingdome of god. And when they had said grace, they went out to the mount Oliuete. And Jesus saith vnto them: all ye shalbe offended because of me this night. For it is written: I wyll smyte the shepeheard, and the shepe shalbe scattered: but after that I am rysen againe, I wyl go into Galile before you. Peter sayde vnto him: and though all men be offended, yet wil not I. And Jesus sayth vnto him: verely I say vnto thee, that thys day, euen in this nyght, before the Cocke krow twise, thou shalt deny me thre times. But he spake more vehemently: no, yf I should dye with thee, I wyll not denie the: Likewise also said thei al. And they came into a place whiche was named Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, sit ye here while I go aside and pray. And he taketh with him, Peter and James, & John, and began to ware abashed and to be in an agony, and sayde vnto them: My soule is heauy euen vnto the death: tary ye heare and watch. And he went forth a little, & fel down flat on the ground and praied, that if it were possible, the hour might passe from him. And he said: Abba: father, all thynges are possible vnto thee, take away thys cup from me: neuertheles, not as I wyll, but that thou wilt be done. And he came and founde them slepinge, and sayeth to Peter: Symon, slepest thou? Couldest not thou watche one houre? watche ye and pray leste ye enter into temptacion: the spirite truely is ready, but the flesche is weake. And agayne he went aside and prayed, and spake the same wordes. And he returned and found them a slepe againe, for theyr eyes were heauy, neyther wist they what to aunswere him. And he came the thyrde time and sayde vnto them: slepe henceforth and take youre ease, it is inough. The houre is come: beholde the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners: Rise vp, let vs go. Lo, he that betraieth me is at hand. And immediatly whyle he yet spake cõmeth Judas (which was one of the twelue) and with hym a great number of people with swordes & staues, from the hye Priestes, and Scribes, and Elders. And he that betrayed hym, had geuen them a generall token, sayinge: whosoeuer I doe kysse, the same is he: take and leade him away warely. And assone as he was come, he goeth straycht way to him, and sayeth vnto him: Maister, Maister, and kyssed him, and they layde theyr handes on hym, and toke him. And one of them that stode by, drew out a sworde, and smote a seruaunt of the hye Priestes, and cut of hys eare. And Jesus aunswered and sayd vnto them: ye be come out as vnto a thiefe with swordes and staues, for to take me. I was dayly with you in the temple teachyng, and ye toke me not: but these thynges come to passe, ỹ the Scripture should be fulfilled. And they al forsoke him, and ran awai. And there folowed him a certayne yonge man clothed in linnen vppon the bare: and the yong men caught hym, and he lefte hys lynnen garment, and fled from them naked. And they led Iesus away to the hygh priest of al, and with him came al the hie priestes, and the Elders, and the Scribes. And Peter folowed hym a great way of (euen tyll he was come into the Palace of the hye Priest) & he sat with the seruauntes, and warmed himselfe at the fyre. And the hye priestes & al the coũsell sought for witnes against Iesu to put him to death, and found none: for manye bare false witnes against him, but their witnesses agreed not together. And there arose certaine & brought false witnes against him, saying: we heard him say, I wyl destroy this temple that is made with handes, & within thre dayes, I wyl build another made without hãdes. But yet their witnesses agreed not together. And the hie Priest stode vp among them, & asked Iesus, saying: aunswerest thou nothing? How is it that these beare witnes agaynst thee? But he held his peace, and aunswered nothyng. Agayne the hie Priest asked him, and said vnto him: Art thou Christ the sonne of the blessed? And Iesus sayd: I am. And ye shall see the sonne of man sitting on the ryght hand of power, and commynge in the cloudes of heauen. Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, & said: what nede we any further of witnesses? ye haue harde blasphemy, what thinke ye? And they al condemned him to be worthy of death. And some began to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fystes and to say vnto hym: Prophe-

And

And the seruauntes bufeted him on the face. And as Peter was beneth in the Palace, there came one of the wenches of the hiest Priest: and when she saw Peter warming himself, she loked on him and said: wast not thou also with Jesus of Nazareth? And he denied, saying: I know him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, and the Cocke krew. And a damosel (when she sawe hym) began agayne to saye to them that stode by: this is one of them. And he denyed it agayne. And anone after, they that stode by, said againe vnto Peter: surely thou art one of them, for thou arte of Galile, and thy spech agreeth therto. But he began to curse and to sweare, saying: I know not this man of whom ye speake. And agayne the cocke krewe, & Peter remembred the worde that Jesus had sayde vnto hym: before the cocke krowe twyse, thou shalt denye me three tymes. And he began to wepe.

¶ The Epistle.

Esay. l. THe Lorde GOD hath opened myne eare, therfore can I not say nay, neyther withdrawe my selfe: but I offer my backe vnto the smiters, and my chekes vnto the nippers. I turne not my face from shame and spittinge, and the Lord GOD shall helpe mee: Therefore shall I not be confounded. I haue hardened my face lyke a flynte stone, for I am sure that I shall not come to confusion. He is at hande that iustifieth me, who wyll then go to lawe with me? Let vs stande stand one agaynst another: yf there be any that wyll reason with me, let hym come here forth to me. Beholde, the lorde God standeth by me, what is he then that can condemne me? loe, they shalbe lyke as an olde clothe, the moth shal eate them vp. Therfore who so feareth the Lord among you, let hym heare the voyce of hys seruant. Who so walketh in darknes, and no lyght shineth vpon hym, let him put his trust in the name of the Lord, and holde hym vp by his God: but take hede, ye al kindle a fyre of the wrath of GOD, and stirre vp the coales: walke on in the glysterynge of your owne fyre, and in the coales that ye haue kyndled. This commeth vnto you from my hande, namely that ye shall slepe in sorowe.

¶ The Gospell.

AND anon in the dawnynge, the hye Priestes helde a counsell with the Elders & the Scribes, & the whole cōgregation, and bound Jesus, and led hym awaye, and delyuered hym to Pilate. And Pilate asked him: art thou the kyng of the Jewes? and he aunswered, & said to him: thou sayest it. And the hye Priestes accused hym of many thynges. So Pilate asked hym agayne, saying: aunswerest thou nothyng? Behold how many thinges thei lai to thy charge. Jesus aunswered yet nothynge, so that Pylate marueyled. At that feast Pilate dyd delyuer vnto them a prisoner, whom soeuer they would desyre. And there was one that was named Barrabas, whiche laye bounde with them that made insurrection: he had committed murther. And the Matth. xv people called vnto hym, and began to desyre hym that he would doe accordyng as he had euer done vnto them. Pilate aunswered them saying: wyll ye that I let loose vnto you the king of ỹ Iewes? for he knewe that the hie Priestes had delyuered hym of enuy. But the hie priestes moued the people that he shoulde rather delyuer Barrabas vnto them. Pilate aunswered agayne, and sayd vnto them: what wyll ye that I then do vnto hym whom ye call the kyng of the Iewes? And they cryed agayne, crucifie hym. Pilate sayd vnto thẽ: what euyl hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, crucifie hym. And so Pylate wyllyng to content the people, lette loose Barrabas vnto them, and deliuered vp Iesus (when he had scourged him) for to be crucified. And the souldiours led hym away into the common hall, and called together the whole multitude, and they clothed hym with purple, and they platted a crowne of thornes, and crowned him withall, and beganne to salute hym: Hayle kynge of the Iewes. And they smote him on the head with a reede, and dyd spyt vpon him, and bowed theyr knees, and worshypped hym. And when they had mocked hym, they toke the purple of him, and putte hys owne clothes on hym, and led him out to crucifie hym. And thei compelled one that passed bie, called Simon of Sirene (the father of Alexander and Rufus) which came out of ỹ field, to beare his crosse. And they brought hym to a place named Golgotha (whiche yf a manne interprete) is the place of dead mens sculles: and they gaue hym to drynke wine mingled with mirre, but he receiued it not.

And

And when they had crucified him, thei parted his garmentes, castyng lots vpon them, what euery man shoulde take. And it was about the thyrde houre, and thei crucified him. And the title of his cause was written: The king of the Jewes. And they crucified with hym two theues, the one on his right hand, & the other on his left. And ỹ scripture was fulfylled, which sayth: he was counted among the wicked. And they that went by rayled on him, waggynge their heades and sayinge: A wretch, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it againe in thre daies, saue thy self and come downe from the crosse. Likewise also mocked him the hye priestes among thē selues, with the Scribes, and sayde: he saued other men, hymselfe he cannot saue. Let Christ the king of Israel descēd nowe from the crosse, that we may se and beleue. And they that were crucified with hym, checked him also. And whē the sixt hour was come, darknes arose ouer al the earth, vntil the ninth hour. And at the ninth houre, Jesus cried with a loude voice, saying, Eloy, Eloy, lamazabathany? which is (if one interprete it) my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And some of thē that stode by, when they heard that, sayd: beholde he calleth for Helias. And one ranne and fylled a sponge full of vineger, & put it on a rede, & gaue hym to drynke, saying: let hym alone, let vs see whether Helyas wyll come and take him downe. But Jesus cryed with a loud voyce, and gaue vp the ghost. And the vayle of the Temple rent in two pieces from the top to the bottome. And when the Centurion (which stode before him) saw that he so cryed, and gaue vp the ghost, he sayde: truely thys man was the sonne of God. There were also women a good way of, beholding him: amonge whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the lyttle, and of Joses, & Mary Salome (whiche also whē he was in Galile had folowed him, and ministred vnto hym) and manye other women which came vp with him to Jerusalem. And now when the euen was come (because it was the day of preparing that goeth before the Sabboth) Joseph of the Citie of Aramathie a noble counsaylour, which also loked for the kyngdome of God, came and went in boldly vnto Pilate, and begged of him the body of Jesu. And Pylate marueyled that he was already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had ben any whyle dead. And when he knewe the trueth of the Centurió, he gaue the body to Joseph, and he bought a lynnen cloth, and tooke hym downe, and wrapped hym in the linnen cloth, and layde him in a sepulchre that was hewen out of a rock, and rolled a stone before the dore of the sepulchre. And Mary Magdalene, and Mary Joses beheld where he was layde.

¶ The Epistle.

Hebr. ix. WHeras is a Testament, there must also (of necessitie) be the death of him that maketh the Testament. For the Testament taketh aucthoritie when mē are dead: for it is yet of no value, as longe as he that maketh the Testament is alyue: for which which cauſe alſo: neither the firſt Teſtament was ordeyned without bloud. For when Moyſes had declared all the commaundementes to al the people, accordinge to the lawe, he tooke the bloud of Calues and of Goates, wyth water and purple wolle, and yſope, and ſprynkled both the booke and al the people, ſaying: this is the bloud of the Teſtament, which god hath appointed vnto you. Moreouer, he ſprinkled ỹ Tabernacle with bloud alſo, and all the miniſtring veſſels. And almoſt al thinges are by the lawe purged with bloud, and without ſhedding of bloud is no remiſſion. It is nede then, that the ſimilitudes of heauenly thinges be purified with ſuche thynges: but that the heauenly thynges them ſelues, bee pnrified with better ſacrifices then are thoſe. For Chryſt is not entred into the holye places that are made with handes, (whiche are ſimilitudes of true thynges) but is entred into very heauē, for to appeare now in the ſyght of God for vs: not to offer hym ſelfe often, as the hye prieſt entreth into the holy place euery yere with ſtraunge bloud: for then muſt he haue often ſuffred ſence the worlde began. But nowe in the ende of the worlde hath he appeared once to put ſinne to flyght by the offeringe vp of himſelfe. And as it is appoynted vnto all men that they ſhall once dye, and then commeth the iudgment: Euē ſo Chriſt was once offered to take away the ſinnes of many, and vnto thē that looke for him, ſhall he appeare agayne without ſynne, vnto ſaluation.

℣ The Goſpell.

¶ The Gospell.

Luke. 22 THe feast of swete bread drewe nye, which is called Easter, and the hye Priestes and Scribes sought how thei might kyl him, for they feared the people. Then entred Sathan into Judas, whose Syrname was Iscarioth (whiche was of the number of the. xii.) and he went hys waye and commoned with the hye Priestes and offycers, howe he might betray hym vnto them. And they were glad, and promysed to geue hym mony. And he consented, and soughte oportunitie to betraye hym vnto them when the people were awaye. Then came the daye of swete breade, when of necessitie the Passeouer muste be offred. And he sent Peter & John, saying: Goe and prepare vs the Passeouer, that we may eate. Thei said vnto him: where wilt thou that we prepare? And he saide vnto them: beholde, when ye enter into the citie, there shal a man mete you bearyng a pitcher of water: him folow into the same house that he entreth in, and ye shal say vnto the goodman of the house: the mayster sayeth vnto thee, where is the geast chamber where I shal eate the Passeouer with my disciples? And he shal shewe you a great perlour paued, there make readi. And they went and founde as he had sayd vnto them, and they made ready the Passeouer. And whē the houre was come, he sat downe, and the. xii. Apostles with him. And he said vnto them, I haue inwardly desired to eate thys Passeouer with you, before that I suffer. For I say vnto you: hēcefoorth wil I not eate of it any more, until it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God. And he toke the cup and

gaue thankes and ſaide: Take this, and deuide it among you. For I ſay vnto you: I wil not drinke of the fruite of this vine, vntil the kingdome of God come. And he tooke breade, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it, & gaue vnto them, ſaiing: This is my body which is geuē for you: This do in the remembraunce of mee. Lykewyſe alſo when he had ſupped, he toke the cup ſaying: This cup is the new Teſtament in my bloud, whych is ſhed for you, yet behold, the hande of him that betraieth me, is with me on the table. And truly the ſonne of mā goeth as it is appointed, but wo vnto that man by whom he is betrayed. And thei began to enquire among them ſelues, which of thē it was that ſhould do it. And there was a ſtrife among them which of them ſhoulde ſeme to be the greateſt. And he ſaid vnto them: the kinges of nacions raigne ouer them, and they that haue aucthoritie vpon thē, are called gracious: but ye ſhal not ſo be. But he that is greateſt among you, ſhal be as the yonger, & he that is chiefe, ſhalbe as he ẏ doth miniſter. For whether is greater he that ſytteth at meate, or he that ſerueth? Is it not he that ſitteth at meat? But I am among you as he ẏ miniſtreth, ye are they which haue bydden with me in my tēptaciōs. And I appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my father hath apointed to me, ẏ ye may eate and drinke at my table in my kyngdome, and ſit on ſeates iudginge the .xii. Trybes of Iſraell. And the Lorde ſayd, Simon, Simon, behold, Sathan hath deſyred to ſifte you as it were wheate: But I haue prayed for thee, ẏ thy fayth faile not. And whē thou art cōuerted, ſtrength thy brethrē.

And he saide vnto hym: Lorde, I am readye to go with thee into prison, and to death. And he sayd: I tell thee Peter, the Cocke shall not krowe thys daye, tyll thou haue denyed me thryse that thou knowest me. And he saide vnto them, when I sent you without wallet, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thyng? And they sayde, no. Then sayde he vnto them: but nowe he that hath a wallet, let him take it vp, & lykewise his scrip. And he that hath no sworde, let him sel his coate and bye one. For I saye vntoyou, that yet the same whiche is written, must be perfourmed in me: euen amonge the wycked was he reputed: For those thynges whiche are writen of me haue an ende. And they saide: Lorde beholde, here are two swordes: and he saide vnto them: it is enough. And he came out, and wente (as he was wonte) to mount Olyuete. And the disciples folowed him. And when he came to the place, he sayde vnto them: pray, lest ye fal into temptation. And he gat himselfe from them about a stones caste, and kneled downe and prayed, saying: Father, yf thou wilt, remoue this cup from me: Neuertheless, not my wil but thine be fulfylled. And there appeared an aungell vnto hym from heauen, comforting hym. And he was in an agony and prayed the longer, and his sweat was lyke droppes of bloud, tricking downe to the grounde. And when he arose from prayer, & was come to hys disciples, he founde them slepyng for heauynesse, and he saide vnto them: why slepe ye? Ryse and pray, lest ye fall into temptation. While he yet spake, beholde, there came a company, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelue, wēt

before them, and prealed nye to Jesus, to kysse him. But Jesus sayde vnto him: Judas, betrayest thou the sonne of man with a kisse? When they which were about him sawe what would folow, they sayd vnto him: Lord, shal we smyte with the swoorde? And one of them smote a seruaunt of the hie Priestes, and stroke of his ryght eare: Jesus aunswered and sayde: suffer ye thus farre forth. And when he touched hys eare, he healed hym. Then Jesus said vnto the hie Priestes and rulers of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him: ye be come out as vnto a theke, with swords and staues. When I was dayly with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no handes agaynst me: but this is euen your very houre, and the power of darknes. Then toke they him and led him, and brought him to the hie priestes house. But Peter folowed a farre of. And when they had kindled a fyre in the middes of the palace, & were set downe together. Peter also sat downe among them. But when one of the wenches beheld him, as he sat by the fyre (and loked vpon him) she sayde: thys same felow was also with him. And he denied him, saying, woman, I know hym not. And after a lyttle whyle, another sawe hym, and sayde: thou art also of them. And Peter sayde: man I am not. And about the space of an houre after, another affyrmed, sayinge: verely thys felowe was with hym also, for he is of Galile. And Peter sayde: man, I wote not what thou sayest. And immediatlye whyle he yet spake, the Cocke krewe. And the Lorde turned backe and loked vppon Peter. And Peter remembred the woorde of the Lorde, howe

he

he had layde vnto hym : before the Cocke crowe thou ſhalt denye me thryſe : And Peter went out and wept bytterly . And the men that toke Jeſus mocked him, and ſmote hym: and when they had blynfolded hym, they ſtroke him on the face, and aſked him, ſayinge: Arede, who is he that ſmote thee? And manye other thinges deſpitefully ſayd they againſt hym. And aſſone as it was daye the Elders of the people , and the hye Prieſtes and Scribes came together, and ledde hym into theyr counſell, ſaying: Art thou very Chriſt? tel vs. And he ſayd vnto them: if I tel you, ye will not beleue me: and if I aſke you, you wyl not aunſwere, nor let me goe: hereafter ſhal the ſonne of man ſit on the ryght hande of the power of God. Then ſayde they all: Art thou then the ſonne of God? he ſayd: ye ſay that I am. And they ſayd: what nede we of any further wytneſſe? For we oure ſelues haue heard of his owne mouth.

Thurſday before Eaſter.

¶ The Epiſtle.

1. Cor. xi. THys I warne you of, and commende not, that ye come not together after a better maner, but after a worſe. For firſt of all, when ye come together in the congregacyon, I heare that there is dyſcentyon amonge you, and I partly beleue it. For there muſte be ſectes amonge you, that they whiche are perfecte among you, may be knowen. When ye come together ther therefore into one place, the Lordes Supper cannot be eaten, for euery man begynneth afore to eate his owne supper. And one is hungry, and another is dronken. Haue ye not houses to eate and drinke in? despise ye the congregation of god and shame them that haue not? what shall I saye vnto you? shal I praise you? In this I praise you not. That which I deliuered vnto you, I receyued of the Lorde. For the Lord Iesus, the same nyght in whyche he was betrayed, tooke breade, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it and sayde: Take ye and eate, this is my body which is broken for you. This do ye in the remēbraunce of me. After the same maner also, he toke the cuppe when supper was done, saying: this cuppe is the newe Testament in my bloud. This do, as oft as ye drinke it in remembraunce of me. For as often as ye shal eate this bread, and drinke of thys cup, ye shal shew the Lordes death tyll he come. Wherfore, whosoeuer shal eate of this bread and drinke of this cup of the Lorde vnworthely, shalbe gylty of the body and bloud of the Lord. But let a man examine himselfe, and so let him eate of the bread and drynke of the cuppe. For he that eateth and drynketh vnworthelye, eateth and drynketh hys owne dampnation, because he maketh no difference of the Lordes body. For thys cause many are weake and sicke among you, and many slepe. For yf we hadde iudged oure selues, wee shoulde not haue ben iudged. But when wee are iudged of the Lord, we are chastened, that we should not be dampned with the worlde. Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tarrye one for another. If anye man hunger, let hym eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other thynges wyll I set in order when I come.

¶ The Gospell.

Luk. 23. THe whole multitude of them arose, & led him vnto Pilate. And they began to accuse him saying: we founde thys felow peruerting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying that he is Christ a kyng. And Pilate apposed him, saying: art thou the kinge of the Jewes? he aunswered him, and said: thou sayest it: Then said Pylate to the hie Priestes & to the people: I finde no fault in this man. And they were the more fierse, sayinge: he moueth the people, teachynge throughout al Jury, and began at Galile euen to this place. When Pilate heard mencion of Galile, he asked whether the man were of Galile. And assone as he knewe that he belonged vnto Herodes iurisdiction, he sent him to Herode, whiche was also at Jerusalem at that tyme. And when Herod sawe Jesus he was exceadyng glad, for he was desirous to see him of a longe season, because he had hard many thynges of him, and he trusted to haue sene some miracles done by hym. Then he questioned with hym many wordes. But he aunswered him nothyng. The hye Priestes and Scribes stode foorth and accused him straightly. And Herode with the men of warre despised him. And when he had mocked him, he araied him in white clothing, & sent him againe to Pilate. And ỹ same day Pilate & Herode were made frends together.

For

for before they were at variaunce. And Pilate called together the hye Priestes, and the rulers, & the people, and sayd vnto them: ye haue brought thys man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people: and beholde, I examine hym before you, and fynde no fault in thys man of those thynges whereof ye accuse hym, no nor yet Herode. For I sent you vnto him, and loe, nothynge worthy of death is done vnto him: I wyll therefore chasten him & let him lose. For of necessitie he must haue let one lose to them at that feast. And all the people cryed at once, saying, away with him, and deliuer vs Barrabas, which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and for a murther, was cast into prison. Pilate spake againe vnto them, willing to let Jesus lose. But thei cryed, saying: Crucifie him, crucifie him. He said vnto thē the thirde tyme: what euyl hath he done? I fynd no cause of death in him: I wyl therefore chasten him and let him go. And they cryed with loude voyces, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them, & of the hie Priestes preuayled. And Pilate gaue sentence that it shoulde be as they required, and he let lose vnto them, him that (for insurrection & murther) was cast into pryson, whom they had desyred, and he deliuered to them Jesus, to do with him what they would. And as they led him away, they cought one Simon of Cirene cōming out of the fielde, & on him layd thei the crosse, that he might beare it after Jesus. And there folowed him a great company of people, and of women, which bewayled & lamented him. But Jesus turned backe vnto them, & sayde: ye doughters of Jerusalem rusalem, wepe not for me, but wepe for your selues and for your children. For beholde, the dayes wyll come, in the which they shall say: Happy are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke. Then shall they begyn to say to the mountaynes, fall on vs: and to the hilles couer vs. For if they do this in a greene tree, what shall be done in the drye? And there were two euyll doers ledde with him to be slaine. And after that they were come to the place (which is called Caluarie) ther they crucified him and the euill doers, one on the ryght hande, & the other on the left. Then said Jesus, father forgeue them, for they wote not what they doe. And they parted his rayment, and cast lottes. And the people stode and beheelde. And the rulers mocked him with thē, saying: he saued other men, let him saue him selfe yf he be very Chryst the chosen of God. The souldiours also mocked hym, and came and offred him vineger, and sayd: yf thou be the kinge of Jewes, saue thy selfe. And a superscription was written ouer him with letters of Greke, and Latine, & Hebrue: This is the king of the Jewes. And one of the euyll doers whiche were hanged, rayled on him, saying: if thou be Christ, saue thy selfe and vs. But the other aunswered and rebuked hym saying: fearest thou not God, seyng thou art in the same damnation? we are righteously punyshed, for we receaue accordyng to our dedes: but this man hath done nothyng amysse. And he sayd vnto Jesus: Lord, remember me when thou commest into thy kingdome. And Jesus sayd vnto hym: verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradise. And it was about the. vi houre, & there was a darkenes ouer all the earth, vntyll the nynth houre, and the sunne was darkened, and the vayle of the Temple dyd rent, euen throughe the middes. And when Jesus had cryed with a loude voyce, he sayde: Father, into thy handes I commend my spirit. And when he thus had sayde, he gaue vp the ghost. When the Centurion saw what had hapned, he glorified god, saying: verely this was a righteous man. And al the people that came together to see that syght, and saw the thynges which had hapned, smote theyr brestes and returned. And all hys acquaintaunce and the women that folowed hym from Galile, stode a farre of beholding these thynges. And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsaylour, and he was a good man and a iust: the same had not consented to the counsayle and deede of them, whiche was of Aramathia, a Citte of the Jewes, whiche same also wayteth for the kyngedome of god: he went vnto Pilate and begged the body of Jesus, and toke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and layde it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherein neuer man before had ben layde. And that day was the preparynge of the Sabboth, and the Sabboth drewe on. The women that folowed after, which had come with hym from Galile, beheld the Sepulchre, and how his body was layde. And they returned, and prepared swete Odours, and oyntmentes, but rested on the Sabboth day, according to the commaundement.

¶ The Collectes.

ALmightie God, we beseech thee graciously to beholde thys thy family, for the whiche our Lorde Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and geuen vp into the handes of wycked men, and to suffer death vppon the crosse: who liueth and raigneth. &c.

ALmightie and euerlastynge God, by whose spirite the whole body of the Churche is gouerned and sanctified: receyue our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy congregation, that euery member of the same in his vocation & ministery, may truely and godly serue thee: through our Lorde Jesus Christ.

MErcyfull God who hast made all men, and hatest nothinge that thou haste made, nor wouldest the death of a synner, but rather that he should be conuerted and lyue: haue mercy vpon all Jewes, Turkes, Infidels, and Heretikes and take from them all ignorauncе, hardenes of hart and contempt of thy worde. And so fetch thē home blessed Lorde to thy flock, that they may be saued among the remnaũt of the true Israelites, and be made one fold vnder one shepeheard Jesus Christ our Lord: who liueth and raigneth. &c.

¶ The Epystle.

Hebr. x. THe lawe (whiche hath but a shadowe of good thynges to come, and not the verye fashion of thinges them selues) can neuer with those Sacrifices whiche they offer yeare by yeare continuallye, make the commers thereunto perfite. For woulde not then those sacrifices sacrifices haue ceassed to haue ben offred, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes? Neuertheless, in those sacrifices is there mencion made of synnes euery yere. For the bloud of oxen & goates can not take away sinnes. Wherfore, when he cõmeth into the world he saith: Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not haue, but a body hast thou ordeyned me. Burnt offeringes also for sinne hast thou not allowed. Then sayd I: lo, I am here. In the begynning of the boke it is written of me, that I should do thy wil, O God. I boue, when he saith: Sacrifice and offeryng, and burnt sacrifices, and sinne offerynges thou wouldest not haue, neyther hast thou allowed them (whiche yet are offered by the lawe) then sayde he: loe, I am here to do thy will, O God: he taketh away the fyrst to establyshe the latter: by the which wyll, we are made holy euen by the offering of the body of Iesu Christ once for all. And euery Priest is ready dayly, ministrynge and offeryng oftentimes one maner of oblation, whiche can neuer take away sinnes. But thys man after he hath offered one sacrifice for sinnes, is set downe for euer on the right hand of GOD, and from henceforth taryeth tyl his foes be made his fotestole. For with one offering hath he made perfect for euer, them that are sanctified. The holy ghoste hym selfe also beareth vs recorde, euen wgen he told before. Thys is the Testament that I wyll make vnto them. After those dayes (sayth the Lorde) I wyll put my lawes in their hartes, and in theyr myndes wyll I wryte them, and their synnes and iniquities wyll I remember no more. And where remission of these thynges is, there is no more offeryng for sinnes. Seing therfore brethren, that by the meanes of the bloud of Iesu, we haue libertie to enter into the holye place, by the new and lyuyng way, which he hath prepared for vs through the vayle (that is to say, by hys flesche.) And seynge also that we haue an hye Priest whiche is ruler ouer the house of God, let vs drawe nye with a true hart in a sure fayth sprynkled in our hartes from an euyl conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water: lette vs kepe the profession of our hope, without wauering (for he is faithfull that promised) and let vs consider one another, to the intent that we maye prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes, not forsakynge the felowshippe that we haue amonge our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so muche the more, because ye see that the day draweth nye.

¶ The Gospell.

John. 18. When Iesus had spoken these wordes, he went forth with his Disciples ouer the broke Cedron where was a garden, into the whiche he then entred with hys Disciples. Iudas whiche also betrayed hym, knewe the place, for Iesus ofte tymes resorted thyther with hys Disciples. Iudas then after he had receyued a bande of men (and ministers of the hie Priestes and Phariseis) came thyther with lanternes and fyrebandes, and and weapons. And Jesus knowynge all thynges that should come on him, went forth and said vnto them: whom seke ye? They aunswered him: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus sayd vnto them: I am he. Judas also which betrayed him, stode with them. Assone then as he had sayde vnto them, I am he. they went backeward, & fell to the ground. Then asked he them agayne: whom seke ye? They sayd, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered: I haue told you that I am he. If ye seke me, therfore let these goe theyr way, that the saying myght be fulfilled which he spake. Of them whiche thou gauest me haue I not lost one. Then Symon Peter hauyng a sworde, drewe it, and smote the hye Priestes seruaunt, and cut of his right eare. The seruauntes name was Maichus. Therefore saith Jesus vnto Peter, put vp thy sworde into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cuppe which my father hath geuen me? Then the company and the captaine, and the ministers of the Jewes, toke Jesus, and bound him, and ledde him away to Annas fyrste, for he was father in lawe to Cayphas, whiche was the hye Priest the same yeare. Cayphas was he that gaue counsayle to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man shoulde dye for the people. And Simon Peter folowed Jesus, and so dyd another Disciple: that Disciple was knowen to the hye Priest, and went in with Jesus vnto the palate of the hie Priest. But Peter stode at the doze without. Then went out that other Disciple (whiche was knowen to the hie Priest, & spake to the Damosel that kept the doze, & brought in Peter. The said the Damosell that kept the doze vnto Peter.

Art not thou also one of thys mans disciples? he sayde: I am not. The seruauntes and ministers stode there, which had made a fyre of coales: for it was cold, and they warmed them selues. Peter also stode amonge them and warmed himselfe. The hie Priest then asked Jesus of hys disciples, and of his doctrine. Jesus aunswered hym: I spake openly in the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue, and in the Temple whither all the Jewes haue resorted, and in secrete haue I said nothing. Why askest thou me? Aske them whiche hearde me, what I sayde vnto them. Behold, they can tel what I said. When he had thus spoken, one of the ministers which stode by, smote Jesus on the face saying: Aunswerest thou the hye Priest so? Jesus aunswered him: if I haue euyl spoken, beare witnes of the euyll: But yf I haue well spoken, why smytest thou me? And Annas sent him bound vnto Cayphas the hye Priest. Symon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe. Then sayd they vnto him. Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denyed it, and said: I am not. One of the seruaũtes of the hie Priestes, (hys cosin, whose eare Peter smote of) sayd vnto him: dyd not I se thee in the garden with him? Peter therfore denyed agayne, and immediatly the Cocke krewe. Then led they Jesus from Caiphas into the hall of iudgment. It was in the mornynge, and they them selues went not into the iudgement hall, lest they shoulde be defyled, but that they might eate the Passeouer. Pylate then went out to them, and sayde: what accusation bryng you against this man? They aunswered, and sayd vnto him, if he were not an euil

doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto the. Then saide Pilate vnto them: take ye him & iudge him after your owne lawe. The Jewes therfore sayde vnto him: It is not lawfull for vs to putte any manne to death, that the wordes of Jesus myght be fulfylled, whiche he spake, signifying what death he should dye. Then Pilate entred into the iudgement hall againe, and called Jesus, and sayde vnto hym. Arte thou the kynge of the Jewes? Jesus aunswered: sayest thou that of thy selfe, or dyd other tell it thee of me? Pylate aunswered: am I a Jewe? Thine owne nacion and hie Priestes haue deliuered the vnto me, what hast thou done? Jesus aunswered: my kyngdome is not of this worlde: yf my kyngdome were of this worlde, then woulde my ministers surely fyght, that I shoulde not be deliuered to the Jewes, but nowe is my kyngdome not from hence. Pilate therfore sayde vnto hym: Arte thou a kyng then? Jesus aunswered: thou sayest that I am a kyng. For this cause was I borne, & for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnes vnto the trueth. And all that are of the trueth heare my voyce. Pylate sayd vnto hym: what thyng is trueth? And when he had sayde this, he went out againe vnto the Jewes, and saith vnto them: I fynd in him no cause at al, ye haue a custome that I shoulde delyuer you one loose at Easter: wyll ye that I loose vnto you the kynge of the Jewes? Then cryed they al agayne, saying: Not hym but Barrabas: the same Barrabas was a murtherer. Then Pilate toke Jesus therefore, and scourged him. And ỹ souldiers wound a crowne of thornes and put it on his head. And they dyd on hym a purple garment, and came vnto hym, and sayde: Hayle kyng of the Iewes, and they smote hym on the face. Pilate went forth againe, and sayd vnto them: beholde, I bryng him foorth to you, that ye may know that I fynde no fault in hym. Then came Iesus foorth wearyng a crowne of thorne, and a robe of purple. And he saith vnto them: beholde the man. When the Priestes therefore and the ministers sawe hym, they cryed, Crucifie him, Crucifie hym. Pilate saieth vnto them: take ye him and crucifie him, for I fynd no cause in him. The Iewes aunswered him: we haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to die, because he made him selfe the sonne of God. When Pilate hearde that saying, he was the more afrayd, and went againe into the iudgement hall, and sayde vnto Iesus: whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none aunswere. Then sayde Pilate vnto hym. Speakeste thou not vnto me? knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to looce thee? Iesus aunswered: Thou couldest haue no power at all agaynste mee: excepte it were geuen thee frō aboue: Therfore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the more sinne. And frō thencefoorth sought Pylate meanes to looce hym: but the Iewes cryed saying: yf thou let him goe, thou art not Ceasars frende: for whosoeuer maketh hym selfe a kynge, is agaynste Ceasar. When Pilate hearde that saying, he brought Iesus foorth, and sat downe to geue sentence in a place that is called the pauement, but in the Hebrue tonge, Gabbatha. It was the preparing day of Easter, about the syxte houre. And he sayeth vnto the Jewes: behold your kyng. They cried, saying: away with him, away with hym, crucifie hym. Pilate sayth vnto them: shall I crucifie your kynge? The hye prestes aũswered: we haue no kyng but Ceasar. Then delyuered he hym to them to be crucyfyed. And they tooke Jesus and led hym away, and he bare his crosse, and went forth into a place which is called the place of dead mens sculles: but in Hebrue Golgotha, where they crucified him, & two other with hym, on eyther syde one, and Jesus in the myddest. And Pilate wrote a tytle and put it vpon the crosse. The wrytyng was: Jesus of Nazareth kyng of the Jewes. This tytle read many of the Jewes: for the place where Jesus was crucyfied, was nere to the citie. And it was wrytten in Hebrue, Greke, and Latine. Then sayd the hye prestes of the Jewes to Pilate: write not king of the Jewes, but that he sayde: I am kynge of the Jewes. Pilate aunswered: what I haue written that I haue written. Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, toke his garmentes and made foure partes, to euery souldier a parte, and also his coate. The coate was without seame, wrought vpon throughout. They sayde therfore among them selues: let vs not deuide it, but caste lottes for it who shall haue it, that the scrypture myght be fulfylled, saying: They haue parted my raiment among them, & for my coate did they cast lottes. And the souldiers did such thynges in dede. There stode by ỹ crosse of Jesus, his mother & his mothers sister, Mary ỹ wife of Cleophas, & Mary Magdalene. Whē Jesus therfore saw his mother and the Disciple, whom he loued, standynge, he saith vnto his mother: woman behold thy sonne, Then sayde he to the Disciple: beholde thy mothe. And from that houre, the disciple tooke her for his owne.

After these thynges, Iesus knowynge that all thynges were nowe perfourmed, that the scripture might be fulfilled, he sayd: I thyrst. So there stoode a vessell by full of vineger: therefore they filled a sponge with vineger, and wound it about with Isope, & put it to his mouth. Assone as Iesus then receiued of the vineger, he sayd: It is finished, & bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost. The Iewes therefore, because it was the preparyng of the Sabboth, that the bodies shoulde not remayne vppon the crosse on the Sabboth daye, (for that Sabboth day, was an hye day) besought Pilate that theyr legges myght be broken, and that they myght be taken downe. Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other which was crucified with hym. But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges: but one of the souldiours with a speare thruste hym into the syde, and forthwith there came out bloud and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his recorde is true. And he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleue also. For these thinges were done that the scripture should be fulfylled: ye shal not breake a bone of hym.

And agayne another scripture saith: they shall loke vpon hym whom they haue pearsed. After this, Ioseph of Aramathia (whiche was a Disciple ciple of Jesus, but secretly for feare of the Jewes) besought Pylate that he myght take downe the body of Jesus. And Pylate gaue hym licence. He came therefore and toke the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus (which at the beginnynge came to Jesus by nyght) and brought of Myrre and Aloes myngled together, about an oundreth pounde weight. Then toke they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linnen clothes with the Odours, as the maner of the Jewes is to bury. And in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a newe Sepulchre, wherein was neuer man layde: There layde they Jesus therefore because of the preparyng of the Sabbothe of the Jewes, for the Sepulchre was nye at hande.

¶ The Epistle.

IT is better (yf the wyll of God be so) that ye suffer for well doyng, then for euyll doyng. Forasmuch as Christe hath once suffred for sinnes, the iuste for the vniuste, to bryng vs to Godde: and was kylled as perteynyng to the flesche, but was quickened in the spirite. In whiche spirite he also wente and preached to the spirites that were in pryson, whiche sometyme hadde ben disobedient, when the longe sufferynge of God was once loked for, in the dayes of Noe, whyle the Arke was a preparing: wherein a fewe, that is to saye, eyght soules were saued by the water, lyke as baptisme also now saueth vs: not the putting away 1. When the euen was come, there came a rych man of Aramathya named Joseph, which also was Jesus disciple. He went vnto Pilate and begged the bodye of Jesus. Then Pilate commaunded the bodye to be delyuered. And when Joseph had taken the bodye, he wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth, and layde it in hys newe tumbe, which he had hewen out, euen in the rock, and rolled a great stone to the doze of the Sepulchze, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, syttynge ouer agaynst the Sepulchze. The next daye that foloweth the daye of prepareyng, the hygh Priestes and Phariseis came together vnto Pilate, sayinge: Syr, we remember that this deceyuer sayde whyle he was yet alyue: After thzee dayes I wyll ryse agayne. Commaunde therefoze that the Sepulchzee be made sure vntyl the thyzd daye, lest hys disciples come and steale hym away, and say vnto the people, he is rysen from the dead: and the laste errour shalbe wozse thē the first. Pilate said vnto them: ye haue a watch, go your way, make it as sure as ye can. So they went & made the Sepulchze sure with the watchmen, and sealed the stone.

At morning prayer, in stede of the Psalme, O come let vs. &c. These Anthemes shalbe song or sayde.

CHrist rysing againe from the deade, nowe dieth not. Death from henceforth hath no power vpon hym. For in that he dyed, he dyed but once to put away sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth vnto God. And so lykewyse, count your selues dead vnto sinne, but lyuyng vnto God, in Christ Jesus our Lorde.

CHrist is rysen againe the first fruites of them that slepe: for seing that by man came death, by man also commeth the resurrectiõ of the dead. For as by Adam all men do dye, so by Christ all men shalbe restored to lyfe.

PEter opened his mouth, and sayd: of a trueth I perceiue that there is no respect of persons with God: but in all people, he that feareth him and worketh ryghteousnes, is accepted with hym. Ye know the preaching that God sent vnto the children of Israell, preachyng peace by Jesus Christ which is lord ouer all thinges: which preaching was publyshed throughout all Jewry (and began in Galile, after the Baptisme which John preached) how God annointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy ghost, and with power. Whiche Jesus went about doyng good, and healyng al that were oppressed of the deuyll, for GOD was with him. And we are witnesses of all thynges whiche he did in the land of the Jewes, and at Jerusalem whom they slewe and hanged on tree. And it chaunced whyle they commoned together and reasoned, Jesus hymselfe drewe nere, and went with them. But theyr eyes were holdē that they should not know him. And he said vnto them: what maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, & are sad? And the one of them (whose name was Cleophas) aunswered & sayde vnto him: art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and haste not knowen the thynges whiche haue chaunced there in these dayes? he said vnto them: what thinges? And they sayd vnto hym: of Jesus of Nazareth, whiche was a Prophete, mightie in dede and worde before God and al the people: and howe the hye Priestes and our rulers delyuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified hym. But we trusted that it had bene he, whiche shoulde haue redemed Israell. And as touchyng all these thynges, to day is euen the thyrde day

And he began at Moses and all the Prophetes, and enterpreted vnto them in all scriptures which were written of him. And they drewnie vnto the towne whiche they went vnto. And he made as though he would haue gone further. And they constrayned him, sayinge: Abyde with vs, for it draweth towardes nyght, and the day is farre passed. And he went in to tary with them. And it came to passe as he sat at meat with them, he toke bread and blessed it, and brake, and gaue to them. And their eyes were opened, & they knew him, and he vanished out of theyr sight. And they sayde betwene them selues: dyd not oure heartes burne within vs, whyle he talked with vs by the way, and opened to vs the Scriptures? And they rose vp the same houre and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, sayinge: the Lorde is risen in dede, and hath appeared to Symon. Actes. 13.

YE men and brethren, Chyldren of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is this word of saluacion sent. For the inhabiters of Jerusalem and theyr rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voyces of the Prophetes, which are read euery Sabboth daye, they haue fulfylled them in condempning him. And when thei found no cause of death in him, yet desyred they Pylate to kyll him. And when they had fulfylled all that were written of him, they toke hym downe from the tree, and put him in a Sepulchre. But God raysed him againe from death the thirde day, and he was sene many dayes of them which went with hym from Galile, to Jerusalem, whiche are witnesses vnto the people. And we declare vnto you, howe that the promise (which was made vnto the fathers) God hath fulfilled vnto theyr children, (euen vnto vs) in that he raysed vp Jesus agayne. Euen as it is written in the second Psalme: thou art my sonne this day haue I begotten thee. As concernynge that he raysed hym vp from death, nowe no more to returne to corruption, he sayde on thys wyse.

The

The holy promyses made to Dauid, wyll I geue faithfully vnto you. Wherfore he saith also in an other place: Thou shalt not suffer thyne holy to se corruption. For Dauid (after that he had in hys tyme fulfylled the wyll of God) fell on slepe, and was layde vnto his fathers, and saw corruption. But he whom God rayled agayne, sawe no corruption. Be it knowen vnto you therfore (ye men and brethren) that through thys man is preached vnto you forgeuenesse of sinnes, and that by hym all that beleue are iustified from al thinges, from whiche ye coulde not be iustified by the lawe of Moyses. Beware therefore least that fall on you whiche is spoken of in the Prophetes: beholde ye despisers, and wonder, and perysshe ye: for I doe a worke in your dayes, whiche ye shall not beleue though a man declare it vnto you.

Handle me and see, for a spirite hath no flesshe and bones, as ye see me haue. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes and hys feete. And whyle they yet beleued not for ioy, and wondred, he said vnto them: haue ye here anye meate? And they offred him a peece of a broyled fysh, & of an hony combe. 1. Joh. 5.

ALl that is borne of God ouercōmeth the worlde. And this is the victorye that ouercommeth the worlde, euen our fayth. Who is he that ouercommeth the worlde, but he that beleueth that Jesus is the sonne of god. This Jesus Chryst is he that came by water and bloud, not by water onely, but by water & bloud. And it is the spirite that beareth witnes, because the spirite is trueth. For there are three whiche beare recorde in heauen: the father, the word, and the holy ghost: and these three are one. And there are three which beare record in earth: the spirite, and water and bloud: and these three are one. If we receyue the wytnesse of men, the wytnesse of

God

God is greater. For this is the witnes of god that is greater. which he testified of his sonne. He that beleueth on the sonne of God, hath the witnes in hymselfe. He that beleueth not God, hath made him a lier, because he beleueth not the record that God gaue of hys sonne. And thys is the recorde, howe that God hath geuen vnto vs eternall lyfe, and thys lyfe is in hys sonne. He that hath the sonne, hath lyfe, and he that hath not the sonne of god, hath not lyfe.

And when he had so said, he shewed vnto them his handes and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they sawe the Lorde. Then sayde Iesus to them againe. Peace be vnto you. As my father sent me, euen so send I you also. And when he had said these wordes, he breathed on them, and sayd vnto them: receiue ye the holy ghost. and also an example of godly lyfe: Geue vs the grace that we may alwayes most thankefully receyue that his inestimable benefite, and also dayly endeuour our selues to folowe the blessed steppes of his most holy lyfe.

¶ The Epistle.

1. Pet. ii. THis is thanke worthy, yf a manne for conscience toward god, endure griefe, & suffer wrongе vndeserued. For what prayse is it, yf when ye be bufeted for your faultes, ye take it paciently. But and yf when ye do wel, ye suffer wronge and take it paciently, then is there thanke with God. For hereunto verely were ye called. For Chryste also suffered for vs, leauynge vs an ensample that ye should folow his steppes, which did no sinne, neyther was there guile founde in his mouth, which when he was reuyled, reuyled not agayne: when he suffered, he threatened not: but commytted the vengeaunce to hym that iudgeth ryghteously, which his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that we beyng delyuered from sinne, should lyue vnto ryghteousnes. By whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as shepe going astray. but are nowe turned vnto the shepeheard, and bishop of your soules.

fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth and scattreth the shepe. The hired seruaunt fleeth because he is an hired seruaunt, and careth not for the shepe. I am the good shepeheard, and knowe my shepe, and am knowen of mine. As my father knoweth me, euen so know I also my father. The Epistle.

Iames.1 SEe that ye be doers of the worde, and not hearers only, deceauyng your owne selues. For yf any man heare the worde, and declareth not the same by his workes, he is lyke vnto a man beholdyng his bodely face in a glasse. For

But who so loketh in the perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therein (yf he be not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the woorke) the same shalbe happy in his dede. If any man among you seme to be deuout, and refrayneth not his tonge, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans deuocio is in vayne. Pure deuocion and vndefyled before god the father, is this: to visite the fatherlesse and wyddowes in theyr aduersitie, and to kepe hym selfe vnspotted of the worlde.

¶ The Gospell.

These thynges haue I spoken vnto you by prouerbes. The time wil come whē I shal no more speake vnto you by prouerbes: but I shall shewe you playnly from my father. At that day shall ye aske in my name: And I say not vnto you that I wyl speake vnto my father for you. For the father hym selfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, & haue beleued that I came out from God. I went out frō the father, and came into the worlde. Agayne, I leaue the worlde and go to the father. His disciples sayd vnto hym: Loe, now thou talkest playnly, & speakest no prouerbe. And he sayde vnto them: it is not for you to knowe the tymes or the seasons which the father hath put in his owne power. But ye shall receyue power, after the holy ghoste is come vpon you. And ye shalbe witnesses vnto me, not onely in Jerusalem, but also in all Jewrye, and in all Samaria, and euen vnto the worldes end. And when he had spoken these thinges, whyle they beheelde, he was taken vp on hye, and a cloude receyued hym vp out of theyr syght. 1. Joh. 4. DEarely beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God. And euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God. He that loueth not, knoweth not God, for God is loue. In this appeareth the loue of GOD to vswarde, because that God sent his onely begotten sonne into the world, that we might liue through him. Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sente his sonne to be the agrement for our sinnes. Dearely beloued, yf God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another. No man hath sene God at any tyme. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs. Hereby knowe we that we dwell in hym, and he in vs, because he hath geuen vs of his his spirite. And we haue sene, and do testifie that the father sent the sonne to be the sauiour of the worlde: whosoeuer confesseth that Iesus is the sonne of GOD, in hym dwelleth God, and he in God. And we haue knowen and beleued the loue that God hath to vs. God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in god and god in him. Herein is the loue perfecte in vs, that we shoulde trust in the day of iudgement. For as he is, euen so are we in this worlde. Ther is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare, for feare hath paynefulnes. He that feareth is not perfecte in loue. We loue him, for he loued vs firste. If a man saye, I loue god, and yet hate his brother, he is a lyer. For how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath sene, loue God whom he hath not sene? BE ye merciful as your father also is merciful. Iudge not, and ye shal not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shal not be condemned. Forgeue, and ye shalbe forgeuen. Geue, and it shalbe geuen vnto you, good measure, and pressed downe, and shaken together, and running ouer, shal men geue into your bosomes. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, shal other men mete to you againe. And he put forth a similitude vnto them. Can the blynd leade the blynd: do they not both fall into the ditche? The disciple is not aboue his maister: Euery man shalbe perfect euen as his maister is. Why seest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, but considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Either how canst thou saye to thy brother? Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beame that is in thyne owne eye? Fyrst thou ypocrite, caste out the beame out of thyne owne eye, then shalt thou see perfectly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye. Luke. vi

And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fyshes: But their nette brake, and they beckened to their felowes which were in the other shyppe, that they shoulde come and helpe them. And they came and filled both shippes, that they sonke agayne. When Symon Peter sawe thys, he fell downe at Jesus knees, saying: Lorde goe from me, for I am a sinfull man. For he was astonyed, and all that were with hym, at the draught of fyshes whiche they had taken, and so was also James and John the sonnes of zebede, whiche were parteners with Simon. Rom.vi. KNowe ye not, that all we which were baptised in Jesus Christ, are baptised to dye with him? We are buryed then with hym by baptisme for to dye: that lykewyse as Christ was rayled from death by the glory of the father, euen so we also should walke in a newe lyfe. For if we be grafte in death lyke vnto him, euen so shall we be partakers of the holye resurrection. 1. Cor. x.

BRethren, I woulde not that ye shoulde be ignorant, howe that our fathers were al vnder the cloude, and all passed through the sea, & were al baptised vnder Moises in the cloud, and in the sea, and did al eate of one spiritual meate, and did all drinke of one spirituall drynke. And they dranke of the spirituall rocke that folowed them whiche rocke was Christ. But in many of them had God no delyght. For thei were ouerthrowē in the wildernes. These are ensamples to vs, that we should not lust after euil things, as thei lusted. And that ye should not be worshippers of Images, as were some of them, according as it is written. The people sat downe to eate and drynke, and rose vp to play. Neyther let vs be defyled with fornication, as some of them were defyled with fornication, and fell in one day three and twentie thousande. Neyther let vs tempte Christe, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed of serpentes. Neither murmure ye, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. All these thynges happened vnto them for ensamples: But are writ ten to put vs in remembraunce, whom the endes of the worlde are come vpon. Wherefore, let hym that thynketh he standeth, take hede leste he fall. There hath none other tẽptacion taken you, but such as folowed the nature of man. The Stewarde sayde within hym selfe: What shal I do? for my maister taketh away from me the Stewardeshyppe. I can not digge, and to begge I am ashamed. I wote what to doe, that when I am put out of the Stewardshyppe, they maye receyue me into theyr houses. So when he had called all hys maysters detters together, he sayde vnto the fyrst: howe much owest thou vnto my mayster? And he sayde: an hundred tonnes of oyle. THO Abraham and his seede were the promyses made. He saith not in hys seedes, as manye: but in thy seede, as of one, whyche is Christ. Thys I say, that the lawe which began afterward, beyonde .iiii.C.and.xxx.yeares, doth not disanul the Testamēt that was confirmed afore of god vnto Christ ward, to make the promise of none effect. For yf the inheritaunce come of the lawe, it commeth not nowe of promyse. But God gaue it to Abraham by promise. Wherefore then serueth the law? The lawe was added because of transgression (till the sede came, to whom the promyse was made:) and it was ordained by Aungels in the hand of a mediatour. A mediatour is not a medyatour of one: But god is one. Is the lawe then against the promyse of God? God forbyd. For yf there had ben a lawe geuen which coulde haue geuen lyfe, then no doubt ryghteousnes should haue come by the lawe. IT chaunsed that Jesus went into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisеis, to eate bread on the Sabboth day, and they watched him. And beholde, there was a certayne man before him him whiche had the dropsie. And Jesus aunswered, and spake vnto the lawyers and Pharisseis, sayinge: Is it lawefull to heale on the Sabboth day? And they held theyr peace. And he toke hym and healed him, and let hym goe, and aunswered them saying: Whiche of you shall haue an Asse or an Oxe fallen into a pitte, and wyll not strayght way pul him out on the Sabboth day? And they coulde not aunswere hym agayne to these thynges. He put forth also a similitude to the geastes, when he marked howe they preaced to bee in the hyghest rowmes, and sayd vnto them. When thou art bydden to a weddynge of any man, sytte not downe in the hyghest rowme, lest a more honorable man then thou be bydden of him, and he (that bad him and thee) come and say to thee: geue this man rowme, and thou begyn with shame to take the lowest rowme: But rather when thou arte bidden, go and sit in the lowest rowme, that when he that bad thee commeth, he may say vnto thee: frende, sit vp hyer. Jesus sayd vnto hym: Thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God with all thy hearte, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mynde. Thys is the fyrst and greatest commaundement. And the second is like vnto it: Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. In these two commaundementes hange all the lawe and the Prophetes. Whyle the Phariseis were gathered together, Jesus asked them, sayinge: what thynke ye of Christe? whose sonne is he? They sayde vnto hym: the sonne of Dauid. There is no difference betwene the Iewe and the Gentle. For one is Lorde of all, whiche is ryche vnto all that call vpon hym. For whosoeuer doeth call on the name of the Lorde, shalbe safe. Howe then shall they cal on him on whom they haue not beleued? How shal thei beleue on him, on whom thei haue not heard? How shall they heare without a preacher? And howe shal they preach, without they be sent? As it is written: how beautiful are the feete of them which bryng tidinges of peace, and bring tydynges of good thinges? But they haue not all obeyed to the Gospell. For Esay sayth: Lord, who hath beleued our sayinges? so then fayth commeth meth by hearynge, and hearinge commeth by the worde of God. But I aske: haue they not harde? no doubt theyr sounde went out into all landes, and theyr woordes into the endes of the worlde. But I demaunde whether Israell dyd knowe or not? Fyrst Moyses saith: I wil prouoke you to enuy, by them that are no people, by a folysh nacion I wyll anger you. Esay after that is bolde, and sayth: I am found of them that sought me not: I am manyfest vnto them that asked not after me. ¶ The Epistle. Acts. 9.

AND Saule yet breathynge oute threatnynges and slaughter against the disciples of the Lorde: went vnto the hie Priest, and desyred of him letters to carye to Damasco to the Sinagoges, that yf he founde any of thys waye (were they men or women) he myght brynge them bounde to Ierusalem. And when he iourneied, it fortuned that as he was come nygh to Damasco, sodainly there shined round about him a light from heauen, and he fell to the earth, and hearde a voyce sayinge to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he saide: what art thou lord? And the lord saide: I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is harde for thee to kicke against the pricke. And he both trembling & astonied, said: Lord, what wilt thou haue me to do? And the lorde saide vnto him: aryse, and go into the citie, and it shalbe told thee what thou must doe. The men whiche iourneyed with him, stode amased, hearing a voyce, but seing no man. And Saul arose frō the earth, and when he opened his eies, he sawe no man: But they led hym by the hande, & brought him into Damasco. And he was thre dayes without sight, and neither did eate nor drynke. And there was a certayne Disciple at Damasco, named Ananias: and to him said the Lorde in a vision: Ananias? and he sayde: behold, I am here lord. And the lorde said vnto him: arise & go into the strete (which is called straight) and seeke in the house of Judas, after one called Saul of Tharsus. For behold he praieth. and hath sene in a visiō, a man named Ananias, comming in to him, and puttinge hys handes on hym, that he might receyue his sight. Then Ananias aunswered: Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, howe muche euill he hath done to thy sainctes at Jerusalem. and here he hath aucthoritie of the hie priestes, to bind al that cal on thy name. The lord sayd vnto hym, go thy way, for he is a chosen vessel vnto me, to beare my name before the gentils, and kinges, and the chyldren of Israel. For I wyl shewe him howe great thinges he muste suffer for my names sake. And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, & put his handes on hym, and saide: brother Saule, the lord that appeared vnto the in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holy ghost. And immediatly there fel frō his eies as it had ben scales, and he receiued sight and arose, and was baptised, and receiued meate, and was comforted. Then was Saule a certayne daies with the disciples that were at Damasco, & strayght way he preached Christe in the Synagogues, howe that he was the sonne of God. But al that heard him were amased, and said: is not this he that spoyled them which called on thys name in Jerusalem, & came hyther for that intent, that he might bryng thē bound vnto the hye Priestes? But Saule increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damasco affirmyng that this was very Christ.

Luke. 2. WHen the time of theyr Purification (after the lawe of Moises) was come, they brought him to Jerusalem to present hym to the Lorde, (as it is written in the lawe of the Lorde: euery manchyld that first openeth the matrix, shalbe called holy to the lorde:) and to offer (as it is sayde in the lawe of the lorde) a payre of turtle doues, or two yong Pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Symeon. And the same man was iust and godly, and looked for the consolation of Israell, and the holy ghost

They sayde: Some saye that thou arte Iohn Baptist, some Helias, some Jeremias, or one of the Prophetes. He sayth vnto them, but whom saye ye that I am? Simon Peter aunswered and sayde: thou arte Christe the sonne of the lyuyng GOD. And Iesus aunswered, and sayd vnto hym. Actes. 11. IN those dayes came Prophetes frō the citie of Ierusalem vnto Antioch: And there stode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirite that there shoulde be great dearth throughout all the world, which came to passe in the Emperour Claudius dayes. Then the disciples, euery man accordynge to his habilitie, purposed to sende succour vnto the brethren which dwelte in Iewry: which thyng they also dyd, and sent it to the elders, by the handes of Barnabas and Saul. At the same time Herode the kyng stretched forth his handes to vexe certayne of the congregation. And he kylled James the brother of Iohn with

She sayed vnto hym: Graunt that these my two sonnes may sit, the one on thy ryght hande, and the other on thy lefte, in thy kyngdome. But Iesus aunswered, and sayde: ye wote not what ye aske. Are ye hable to drinke of the cup that I shall drynke of, and to be baptised with the baptisme that I am baptised with? they sayd vnto hym: we are. He sayde vnto them: ye shall drynke in dede of my cup, and be baptised with the baptisme that I am baptised with: but to sit on my ryght hande, and on my left is not mine to geue, but it shall chaunce vnto them that it is prepared for of my father. And when the ten hearde this, they disdayned at the twoo brethren. But Iesus called them vnto hym, and sayde: ye knowe that the princes of the nacions haue dominion ouer them, and they that are greate men, exercyse aucthoritie vppon them. It shall not be so among you. But whosoeuer wyll be great amonge you let hym be your minister: and whosoeuer wyll be chiefe amonge you, let hym be your seruaunt. The number of them that beleued in the Lorde, bothe of men and women, grewe more and more: in so much that they brought the sicke into the stretes, and layd them on beddes and couches, that at the leaste way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, myght shadowe some of them. For we preache not our selues, but Christ Jesus to be the Lorde, and our selues your seruauntes, for Jesus sake. For it is God that cōmaundeth the lyght to shine out of darkenes, whiche hath shyned in our hearts, for to geue the lyght of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

SO many as entende to be partakers of the holye Communion, shall signifie their names to the Curate ouernight, or els in the morning afore the beginning of Morninge prayer, or immediatly after.

And if any of those be an open and notorious euyll lyuer, so that the congregation by hym is offended, or haue done any wronge to his neighbours by worde or dede: The Curate hauing knowledge therof, shall call him and aduertise him, in anye wyse not to presume to the lordes table, vntyll he haue openly declared himselfe to haue truly repented and amended his former naughty life, that the congregacion may therby be satisfied whiche afore were offended: and that he haue recompensed the parties, whom he hath done wrong vnto, or at the least declare himselfe to be in full purpose so to do, assone as he conueniently may.

The same order shall the Curate vse, with those betwene whom he perceiueth malice and hatred to rayne, not suffering them to be partakers of the lordes table, vntill he know them to be reconcyled. And yf one of the parties so at varyaunce, be content to forgeue from the bottome of his heart, al that the other hath trespassed against him, & to make amends for that he himself hath offended, and the other partie wil not be perswaded to a godlye vnitie, but remayne styll in his frowardnes and malyce: The minister in that case, ought to admit the penitent person to the holi Communion, and not him that is obstinate.

The Table hauing at the Communion tyme a fayre white lynnen cloth vpon it, shal stande in the bodye of the Churche, or in the Chaunsell, where Morninge prayer and Euenynge prayer be appoynted to be sayde. Psal. lxi. Blessed be the man that prouydeth for the sicke and nedy, the Lorde shall delyuer him in the time of trouble.

¶ Then shall the churchwardens, or some other by them appointed, gather the deuotion of the people, and put the same into the poore mens bore: and vpon the offring daies appointed, euery man and woman shal pay to the curate the due and accustomed offringes: after whiche done, the Priest shall say.

Let vs pray for the whole state of Christes church militant here in earth.

If there be none almose geuē vnto the poore, thē shall the wordes of accepting our almes be lefte out vnsayd.

ALmightie & euerliuing god, whiche by thy holy Apostle, haste taught vs to make prayers and supplications, and to geue thankes for all men: we humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our almose, and to receyue these our prayers which we offer vnto thy deuine maiestie: beseechynge thee to inspire continually the vniuersall churche, with the spirite of truth, vnitie and concorde: and graunt that al they that do confesse thy holy name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, & lyue in vnitie and godly loue. We beseech the also to saue and defend al christian Kynges, Princes, and gouernoures, and specially thy seruaūt Elizabeth our Quene, that vnder her we may be godly and quietly gouerned: & graunt vnto her whole counsaile, and to al that be put in aucthoritie vnder her, that thei may truly and indifferently differently minister iustice, to the punishment of wickednes and vyce, and to the maintenaunce of Goddes true religion and vertue. Geue grace (O heauenly father) to all Byshoppes, Pastours, and Curates, that they maye both by theyr lyfe and doctrine set forth thy true and lyuely worde, and rightly and duly minister thy holy Sacramentes: and to al thy people geue thy heauenly grace, and especially to thys congregation here present, that with meke hart and due reuerence, they may heare and receaue thy holy worde, truely seruing thee in holynesse and ryghteousnes all the dayes of theyr life. And we most humbly beseche thee of thy goodnesse (O Lord) to comfort and succour al them which in this transitory lyfe be in trouble, sorowe, nede, sickenesse, or anye other aduersitie: Graunt this O father for Jesus Christes sake our only mediatour and aduocate. Amen.

¶ The shall folowe this exhortation, at certayne tymes when the Curate shall see the people negligent to come to the holy Communion.

WE be come together at thys time derely beloued brethren, to feede at the Lordes supper, vnto the whiche in Goddes behalfe I byd you all that be here present, and beseche you for the Lorde Jesus Christes sake, that ye wyll not refuse to come thereto, being so louingly called and bidden of GOD him selfe, ye knowe howe grieuous and vnkynge a thynge it is, when a manne hath prepared a ryche feast, decked his table with all all kynde of prouision, so that there lacketh nothynge but the geastes to sit downe, and yet they whiche be called, without anye cause moste vnthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moued? who would not thinke a great iniury and wronge done vnto him? Wherfore moste dearely beloued in Christ, take ye good hede, least ye withdrawing your selues from this holy supper, prouoke Gods indignation agaynste you. It is an easy matter for a man to say, I wyl not communicate, because I am otherwise letted with worldly busines: but such excuses be not so easely accepted and allowed before God. If anye man say, I am a greuous sinner, and therfore am afrayde to come: wherfore then do you not repent and amend? When GOD calleth you, be you not ashamed to saye you wyll not come? when you shoulde returne to God, will you excuse your selfe, and say that you be not redye? Consider earnestly with your selues, how lyttle such fayned excuses shall auayle before GOD. They that refused the feast in the Gospell, because they hadde bought a farme, or woulde trye theyr yokes of Oxen, or because they were maryed, were not so excused, but counted vnworthy of the heauenly feast: I for my part am here present, and accordinge vnto myne office, I byd you in the name of God, I call you in Christes behalfe, I exhorte you, as you loue your owne saluation, that ye wyll be partakers of thys holye Communion. And as the sonne of GOD dyd vouchesafe to yeelde vppe hys soule by deathe vppon the Crosse for youre healthy:

euen so it is your duetie to receiue the Communion together in the remembraunce of his death, as he hymselfe commaunded. Nowe yf you wil in no wyse thus doe, consyder wyth youre selues howe great iniury you do vnto God, and howe sore punyshment hãgeth ouer youre heades for the same. And wheras you offende God so sore in refusynge thys holye banquete: I admonyshe, exhorte, and beseche you, that vnto thys vnkindenesse ye wyll not adde any more. Wheych thyng ye shal do, yf ye stande by as gasers and lokers on them that do cõmunicate, and be noo partakers of the same youre selues. For what thinge can thys be accoumpted els, then a further contempte and vnkindnes vnto god? Truely it is a greate vnthankefulnesse to say nay when ye be called: but the faulte is muche greater when men stande by, and yet wyl neyther eate nor drincke thys holye Communyon wyth other. I praye you what can thys be els, but euen to haue the misteryes of Chryste in derision? It is sayde vnto all: Take ye and eate. Take and drinke ye all of thys: dooe thys in remembraunce of me. Wyth what face thẽ, or with what countenaunce shall ye heare these woordes? What wyll thys be els, but a neglectinge, a dispysyng and mockynge of the Testament of Chryst: wherfore, rather thẽ you shoulde so dooe, departe you hence, and geue place to theym that be Godly disposed. But when you departe, I besech you ponder wyth youre selues from whom you departe: ye departe from the Lordes table, ye departe from your brethren, and from the banquette of most heauenly foode. These thynges yf ye earnestlye considre, ye shall by Gods grace returne to a better mynde: for the obteining whereof we shal make our humble peticion. while we shall receiue the holy Communion.

And sometyme shalbe sayd this also at the discretyon of the Curate.

DEarelye beloued, forasmuche as oure duetie is to render to almyghty God oure heauenly father mooste heartye thankes, for that he hathe geuen hys sonne oure Sauyoure Jesus Chryste not onely to dye for vs, but also to be oure spyrytuall foode and sustenaunce, as it is declared vnto vs aswell by Gods worde, as by the holye Sacramentes of hys blessed body and bloude, the wlyych beyng so comfortable a thinge to them whyche receiue it worthelye, and so daungerous to thē that wyll presume to receiue it vnworthelye: My duetye is to exhorte you to consyder the dignitie of the holye mysterye, and the great peryll of the vnworthy receiuyng thereof, and soo to searche and examyne your owne consciences, as you shoulde come holye and cleane to a moste godlye and heauenlye feaste, so that in no wyse you come, but in the maryage garment, required of God in holye Scrypture: and so come and be receyued as worthy partakers of suche a heauenly table. The waye and meanes thereto is: Fyrste to examyne youre liues and conuersacion by the rule of Gods commaundementes, and wherinsoeuer ye shall perceyue youre selues to haue offended, eyther by wyll, woorde or dede, there bewayle our owne synnefull lyues confesse youre selues to almyghty God with full purpose of amendement of lyfe. And yf ye shall perceyue your offences to be suche as be not onelye agaynst God, but also agaynst your neyghbours: then ye shal reconcyle youre selues vnto theym, redy to make restitutyon & satisfaction accordinge to the vttermost of your powers, for al iniuryes and wronges done by you to anye other, & lykewyse beyng redie to forgeue other that haue offended you, as you would haue forgeuenes of your offences at gods hande: for otherwise the receyuing of the holye Communion, doeth nothinge els but encrease your dampnation. And because it is requisite that no man shoulde comme to the holye Communion, but wyth a ful truste in Gods mercye, and wyth a quiete conscience: therefore yf there be anye of you whyche by the meanes aforesaid can not quiet his owne conscience: but requireth further comfort or counsell: then let him comme to me, or some other discrete and learned minister of gods word, & opē his griefe, that he maie receyue suche goostely counsayle, aduise, & comforte, as his conscience maye be relieued: and that by the ministerye of Gods word he maie receyue comforte and the benefite of absolution to the quietinge of his conscience, and auoydynge of al scruple and doubtfulnesse.

Then shall the priest say this exhortacion.

DEerely beloued in the lord: ye that mind to com to the holi communiō of the bodi and bloud of our sauiour christ must cōsider what S. Paule writeth to the corinthians: how he exhorteth al persons diligentlye to trye & examine them selues, before they presume to eate of that bread, and drynke of that cup, for as the benefyte is greate, yf wyth a truely, penitente heart and lyuely fayth, we receyue that holy sacramente, for then we spirituallye eate the fleashe of Chryste, and drynke his blonde, then we dwel in Chryste, and Chryste in vs, we be one with Christ, and Chryst with vs: so is the daunger great: if we receyue the same vnworthelye. For then we be giltye of the bodye and bloude of Chryst our sauioure. We eate and drinke our own damnation, not consyderynge the Lordes bodye. We kyndle Goddes wrathe agaynste vs, wee prouoke hym to plage vs wyth diuers diseases and sundrie kindes of death. Therefore yf anye of you be a blasphemer of God, and hinderer or slaunderer of his woorde, an adulterer, or be in malice or enuye, or in anye other greuous crime, bewayle youre synnes, and come not to this holye Table, least after the takynge of that holye Sacramente, the deuyl enter into you, as he entred into Judas. and fyll you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body and soule. Judge therefore youre selues (brethren) that ye be not Judged of the lord. Repent you trulie for your synnes past, haue a lyuelye and stedfast faythe in Chryste our sauyour. Amend your lyues, and be in perfecte charitye wyth al men, so shal ye be mete partakers of those holye mysteryes. And aboue all thynges ye muste geue moste humble and heartye thankes to god the father, the sonne, and the holye ghost, for the redemption of the world, bi the death and passion of our Sauyour Chryst both God and man: who did humble him selfe, euen to the deathe vpon the Crosse for vs miserable sinners, which lai in darkenes and shadowe of deathe, that he myght make vs the chyldren of God, and exalt vs to euerlasting lyfe. And to thend that we shoulde alwaye remember the excedinge great loue of our Master and onelye Sauiour Jesu Chryste, thus dyyng for vs, and the innumerable benefytes (whych by hys precious bloudeshedding) he hath obtayned to vs, he hath instituted and ordained holy misteryes, as pledges of his loue, and continuall remembraunce of his death, to our great and endlesse comfort. To him therfore wyth the father and the holye ghost, let vs geue (as we are mooste bounden) continuall thankes: submittynge oure selues wholye to his holy wyll and pleasure, and studying to serue him in true holynesse and ryghteousnesse all the dayes of our lyfe. Amen.

Then shal the Priest saye to them that come to receiue the holye Communion.

You that do truely and earnestly repent you of your sinnes, & be in loue and chariti wyth your neighbours and entende to leade a newe lyfe, folowynge the commaundementes of God, and walking from henceforth in his holie wayes: Draw nere, and take this holy Sacramente to youre comfort, make your humble confession to almyghty God before this congregacio here gathered together in his holi name, mekelye knelynge vpon your knees.

Then shall thys generall confessyon bee made, in the name of all those that are mynded to receyue the holye Communyon, eyther by one of theym, or els by one of the Mynysters, or by the Priest him selfe, all kneelynge humblye vpon theyr knees.

Almyghty God, father of our Lord Jesus Chryste, maker of al thinges iudge of all mē, we knowledge and bewayle our manifolde sinnes and wickednesse, whiche we from tyme to time most greuously haue cōmitted by thoughte, worde, & dede, agaynst thy diuine Maiestie: prouokinge moste iustely thy wrath and indignacion againste vs: we do earnestly repent, & be heartelye sorye for these our misdoynges: the remembraunce of them is greuous vnto vs, the burthen of theym is intollerable: haue mercy vpon vs haue mercy vpon vs, moste mercifull father, for thy sonne our Lorde Jesus Chrystes sake: forgeue vs al that is past, and graunte that we maie euer here after, serue and please thee in newenesse of lyfe, to the honour and glorie of thy name: Through Jesus our Lorde. Amen.

Then shall the Priest or the Bishop beyng present stand vp, and turning him selfe to the people, saye thus.

ALmyghtye God our heauenly father, who of his greate merci hath promysed forgeuenes of synnes, to all men which wyth hearty repentaunce and true faythe turne vnto him: haue mercye vpon you, pardon and deliuer you from al your synnes, confirme and strengthe you in all goodnes and bringe you to euerlastyng life: through Jesus Chryste our Lorde. Amen.

Then

Then shal the priest also saye.

Heare what comfortable wordes our Sauiour Christ sayth to all that truely turne to him. Come vnto me all that trauayle and be heaupe laden, & I shall refreshe you, so God loued the worlde that he gaue his onelye begotten sonne, to thende that all that beeleue in him shoulde not perysshe, but haue lyfe euerlasting.

Heare what sayncte Paule sayeth.

This is a true sayinge, and worthye of all men to be receyued that Iesus Christ came into ỳ world to saue sinners.

Heare also what sayncte John sayeth.

If anie man synne, we haue an aduocate wyth the father, Iesus Christe the ryghteous, and he is the propiciation for our synnes.

After the whyche the Preeste shall procede sayinge.

Lyfte vp your heartes.

Answere.

We lyft them vp vnto the Lorde.

Priefte.

Let vs geue thankes vnto our Lorde God.

Answere.

It is mete and ryghte so to do.

Priefte.

It is verye meete, ryghte, and our bounden dutye that we shoulde at all tymes and in all places, geue thankes vnto thee O Lorde holye father, almyghtye euerlasting God.

Here shall folowe the proper Preface accordynge to the tyme, yf there be anye specialye appoynted, or els immediatlye, shall folowe. Therewyth Angels, &c.

Proper prefaces.

Upon Chrystmas daye, and seuen dayes after.

BEcause thou diddest geue Iesus Chryste thine
Onelye sonne, to bee borne as thys daye for vs, who by the operacion of the holye ghoste was made verye manne of the substaunce of the virgin Marye his mother, and that wythoute spotte of synne, to make vs cleane frome all synne. Therefore. &c.

Upon Easter day, and seuen dayes after.

BUt chiefely are we bound to prayse the
for the gloryous resurrection of thy son Iesus Chryst our Lord: for he is the ve ry Pascal lãbe, whiche was offered for vs, aud hath taken awaye the synne of the world, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rysynge to lyfe agayne, hath restored to vs euerlastynge lyfe. Therefore wyth. &c.

Upon the Ascencion daye, and seuen dayes after.

THroughe thy most deare beloued sonne, Iesus Christe our Lorde: who after his moste gloryous resurrection, manifestly appeared to all his apostles, and in their syghte ascended vp into heauen to prepare a place for vs. that where he is, thyther myghte we also ascende, and raigne wyth him in glorye. Therefore

Vppon

Upon Whitsondaye, and seuen dayes after.

THroughe Jesus Christ our Lorde, according to whose moste true promyse the holye Ghost came downe this daye frome heauen, wyth a sodayne greate sounde as it had beene a myghtye wynde, in the lykenesse of fyrye tongues, lyghtenynge vppon the Apostles, to teache theym and to leade theym to all trueth, geuynge theim bothe the gyfte of diuers languages, and also boldenes with feruente zeale, constantlye to preache the Ghospell vnto all nacions, whereby we are broughte oute of darkenesse and errour, into the cleare lyghte and trewe knowledge of thee, and of thy sonne Jesus Christe. Therefore wyth. &c.

Upon the feaste of Trinitye onelye.

IT is verimete, right, and our bounde duety, that we should at all times, and in al places geue thankes to thee, O Lord, almyghty and euerlastyng god whych arte one God, one lord, not one onlie person, but thre persons in one substaunce: for that which we beleue of the glorie of the father, the same we beleue of the sonne and of the holy ghoste. wythout anye difference or inequalitie. Therefore wyth. &c.

After whyche preface shall folowe immediatly.

¶ Therefore with Angels and Archangelles, and wyth al the companye of heauen, we laud & magnifye thy gloryous name, euermore praysing the, and sayinge sayinge: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hostes heauen and earth are full of thy glory, glory bee to the O Lorde most hygh.

Then shall the prieste, kneelyng downe at Gods borde saye in the name of all them that shall receyue the Communion, this prayer folowynge.

WEe doe not presume to come to this thy table (O mercyful lord) trustyng in our owne righteousnes, but in thy manifold and greate mercies: we be not worthy so much as to gather vp the crūmes vnder thy table, but thou art the same lord, whose propertye is alwayes to haue mercye: graunt vs therfore (gracious lorde) so to eate the flesh of thy deare sonne Jesus Christ, and to drynke his bloud, that our sinneful bodyes maye be made cleane by his body, and our soules washed throughe his most precious bloude: and that we maye euermore dwel in him, and he in vs. Amen.

Then the priest standing vp, shall say as foloweth.

ALmyghtye God our heauenly father, whiche of thy tender mercy diddest geue thine onelye sonne Jesus Christe, to suffer death vpon the crosse for our redemptyon, who made there by hys one oblacion of him selfe, once offered, a full, perfecte, and sufficient sacrifice, oblacion, and satisfaction for the synnes of the whole worlde: and didde institute, and in his holie ghospell commaunde vs, to continue a perpetuall memorye of that hys precious cious deathe vntill his comminge agayne. Heare vs O mercifull father we beseche thee: and graunt that we receyuinge these thy creatures of bread & wyne, accordynge to thy sonne oure sauioure Iesu Christes holie institucion, in remembraunce of his death and passion, maye be partakers of his moste blessed body and bloud: who in the same night that he was betrayed, tooke breade, and when he hadde geuen thankes, he brake it and gaue it to his disciples, sayinge. Take, eate, this is my bodye whych is geuen for you. Do this in remembraunce of me. Lykewyse after supper, he toke the cup, and when he had geuen thankes, he gaue it to theym, sayinge Drynke ye all of this, for this is my bloude of the newe Testamente, whych is shedde for you and for manye, for remission of synnes: do this as oft as ye shall drynke it, in remembraunce of me.

Then shall the Mynister firste receyue the Communion in bothe kyndes him selfe, and next delyuer it to other Ministers, yf anye be there present (that they may helpe the chefe Mynister) and after to the people in theyr handes kneelinge. And when he deliuereth the breade he shal saye.

The bodye of our Lorde Iesus Christ, whiche was geuen for thee, preserue thy bodye and soule into euerlastinge lyfe: and take and eate this in remembraunce that Christe dyed for thee, and feede on him in thy hearte by faithe, with thankes geuinge.

And the Mynister that delyuereth the cuppe, shal saye.

The bloude of oure Lorde Jesus Christ whyche was shed for thee, preserue thy body and soule into euerlasting lyfe: and drynke this in remembraunce that Chrystes bloude was shedde for thee, and bee thankefull.

☞ Then shall the Priest say the Lordes prayer, the people repeating after him euerye peticion.

¶ After shalbe sayde as foloweth.

Lorde and heauenly father, we thy humble seruauntes, entierly desyre thy fatherly goodnes, mercifullie to accepte this our sacrifice of prayse & thankes geuing: most humbly beseechinge thee to graunte, that by the merytes and death of thy sonne Jesus Christ, and throughe fayth in his bloude, we and al thy whole churche, may obtayne remission of our synnes, and all other benefites of his Passion. And here we offer and present vnto thee, O lorde, our selues, oure soules and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and liue lye Sacrifyce vnto thee, humblye beseechynge the that al we whyche be partakers of this holy Communion, maye be fulfylled wyth thy grace and heauenlye benediction. And althoughe we be vnworthye, throughe our manifolde synnes, to offer vnto thee anye sacrifice: yet wee beseche thee to accepte this oure bounden duetye and seruice, not weyghynge our merytes, but pardonynge oure offences, through Jesus Chryste our Lorde: by whome and wyth whom, in the vnity of the holye ghoste, al honour and glory be vnto thee O father almyghtye, worlde wythout ende, Amen.

Dr this.

ALmyghty and euerliuing God, we moſt hartelye thanke the, for that thou doeſt vouchſafe to fede vs, whyche haue daelie receyued theſe holye miſteryes, wyth the ſpirituall foode of the moſte precyous bodye and bloude of thy ſonne our ſauiour Jeſus Chriſte, and doeſt aſſure vs thereby of thy fauour and goodneſſe towarde vs, and that we be verye membres incorporate in thy miſticall bodye, whych is the bleſſed companye of al faythful people, and bee also heyres throughe hope of thy euerlastinge kingdome, by the merytes of the moſte precious deathe and paſſion of thy deare ſonne: we nowe moſte humble beſeche thee, O heauenlye father ſo to aſſiſte vs wyth thy grace, that wee maye continue in that holye felowſhyppe, and do al ſuch good workes as thou haſt prepared for vs to walk in, throughe Jeſus Chryſte oure Lord: to whome wyth thee and the holye ghoſte, be al honoure and glorye, woorlde wythoute ende. Amen.

Then ſhalbe ſayde or ſonge.

GLori be to god on high. And in erth peace, good wil towards men. We praiſe the, we bleſſe the, we worſhip the. we glorifye the, we geue thankes to the for thi great glori. O lord god heauenly kyng. God the father almyghty. O Lord, the onely begotten ſonne Jeſu Chryſt: O Lorde God, Lambe of God, ſonne of the father father, that takeſt awaye the ſynnes of the woꝛlde, haue mercye vpon vs: Thou that takeſt awaie the ſynnes of the woꝛlde, haue mercie vppon vs: Thou that takeſt awaie the ſynnes of the woꝛlde: receiue our praier. Thou that ſitteſt at the righte hande of god the father haue mercy vpon vs: foꝛ thou onelie arte holye: Thou onely art the Loꝛde: Thou onely (O Chꝛyſt) wyth the holy ghoſte arte moſt high in the gloꝛye of God the father. Amen.

Then the prieſte oꝛ the biſhop, yf he bee preſent, ſhall let them departe wyth this bleſſing.

THe peace of GOD whyche paſſeth all vnderſtandynge, kepe your heartes and myndes in the knoweledge and loue of God, and of hys ſonne Jeſu Chꝛyſte our Loꝛde: and the bleſſinge of God almyghtye, the father, the ſonne, and the holye ghoſte be amongeſt you, and remaine with you alwayes. Amen.

Collectes to be ſayde after the Offertoꝛye, when there is no communion, euery ſuch day one. And the ſame mai be ſayde alſo, as often as occaſion ſhal ſerue after the collectes either of Moꝛninge and Euening pꝛaier, communion, oꝛ Letanye, by the diſcretion of the miniſter.

ASiſt vs mercifully, O Loꝛd in theſe our ſupplications and pꝛayers, & diſpoſe the wai of thi ſeruaũts, toward the attainemẽt of euerlaſting ſalua-cion: that amonge al the chaunges & chaunces of this moꝛtal life, thei mai euer be defended by thy moſt gracious and readye helpe: thꝛough Chꝛyſte our Loꝛde. Amen.

OAlmighty Lord and euerlyuing god, vouch safe we beseche the, to directe, sanctifye, and gouerne both our hartes and bodyes, in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the workes of thy commaundementes: that throughe thi moste myghtye protection, bothe here and euer, wee maye be preserued in bodye and soule: through our Lord and sauiour Jesus Christ. Amen.

GRaunt we beseche the almyghtye God, that the wordes whyche we haue heard this daye with our outwarde eares, maye through thy grace be so grafted inwardlye in our heartes, that they maye bringe forth in vs, the fruite of godlyuynge, to the honour and prayse of thy name: thorowe Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

PReuent vs O Lorde in all our doynges, wyth thy moost gracious fauoure, and further vs wyth thy continuall helpe, that in all oure workes begon, contynued and ended in thee: wee maye glorifye thy holye name, and finallye by thy mercye obtayne euerlastynge lyfe: throughe Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALmyghty God, the fountayne of al wysedome whych knowest our necessities before we aske & our ignorance in askynge: we beseche thee to haue compassion vppon oure infirmities, and those thynges whych for oure vnworthynesse wee dare not, and for oure blyndenes we cannot aske vouche vouchesake to geue vs for the worthynesse of thy soune Jesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

ALwyghty god, which hast promysed to heare the petitions of theim that aske in thy sonnes name: we beseech thee, mercyfullye to enclyne thyne eares to vs that haue made nowe our prayers and supplycacyons vnto thee: and graunt that those thynges whych we faythfullye asked accordyng to thy wyll, maye effectually be obtayned, to the releise of our necessitie, and to the setting forthe of thy glorye: through Jesus Christe oure Lorde. Amen.

Upon the holy dayes, yf there be no Communion, shall be sayde that is appoynted at the Communion, vntyll the ende of the Homely, concludinge with the generall prayer, for the whole state of Christes Church, militant here in earth, and one or moe of these Collectes before rehearsed, as occasion shall serue.

And there shalbe no celebracion of the Lordes supper except ther be a good numbre to communicate: with the priest, accordynge to hys discretion.

And yf there be not aboue twenty persons in the Paryshe of discretion to receiue the Communion: yet there shalbe no Communion, except foure or three at the least cõmunicate with the priest. And in Cathedrall and collegiate churches where bee manye Prestes and deacons they shall all receiue the Communyon with the Minister euery Sonday at the least, excepte they haue a reasonable cause to the Contrarye.

And to take away the superstition which any person hath or myghte haue in the breade and wyne, it shal suffyce that the bread be such, as is vsual to be eaten at the table with other meates, but the best and purest wheat breade, that conueniently maye be gotten. And yf any of the breade or wyne remayne, the Curate shall haue it to hys owne vse.

The breade and wine for the Communion, shall be prouyded by the curate and the churche wardens, at the charges of the paryshe, and the paryshe shalbe discharged of such summes of money, or other duetyes, whyche hetherto they haue paide for the same, by order of theyr houses euery Sundaye.

And note, that euery paryshyoner shall communycate, at the least three times in the yeare: of whych Easter to be one, and shall also receyue the Sacramentes, & other rightes accordynge to the order in thys boke appoynted. And yearely at Easter, euerye paryshyoner shall recken with his person, vycar, or curate, or his, or theyr deputie or deputies, & pay to thē or him, al ecclesiasticall duetyes, accustomably due, then and at that tyme to be payde.

¶ The Mynistration of Baptysme, to be vsed in the Churche.

It appeareth by auncyent wryters that the Sacramente of Baptisme in the olde time, was not commonlye ministred, but at two tymes in the yeare: at Easter, and Whytsontide. At which tymes it was openly mynistred, in the presence of all the congregation: whych custome (now being growen out of vse) although it cannot for many considerations be well restored agayne, yet it is thoughte good to folowe the same as nere as conueniently maye be: wherefore the people are to be admonyshed, that it is moste conuenyente that Baptysme shoulde not be ministred but vpon Sundayes, and other holye dayes, when the most number of people may come together, aswell for that the congregation there present maye testifye the receiuinge of theym that be newly Baptised into the number of Christes Church, as also because in the Baptisme of infantes, euerye man present may be put in remembraunce of hys owne profession made to God in hys Baptisme.

For whiche cause also it is expediente that Baptisme be ministred in the Englyshe tongue. Neuertheless (if necessitie so require) children may at all tymes be Baptysed at home.

Publyque

Publique Baptisme.

When there are chyldren to be baptised vpō the Sondai or holy day, the parentes shal geue knowlege ouernight or in the morning, afore the beginning of morning prai er, to the curat, and thē the Godfathers and Godmothers and people wyth the chyldren muste be redy at the Font, either immediatly after the last lesson at Morning pray- er or els immediatly after the last lessō at Euening prai er as the curate by his discretion shal appoynt. And then standing there, the Priest shal aske whether the chyldren be Baptised or no. If they aunswere no. Then shall the priest saye thus.

DEerely beloued, for asmuch as al men be conceyued and borne in synne, and that our Sauioure Chryst sayeth, none can enter into the kyngdom of God (except he be regenerate, and borne a newe of water and the holye ghost:) I beseech you to cal vp on God the father, through our lorde Jesus Chryst that of his bounteous mercye, he wyll graunte to these chyldren, that thinge whyche by nature they can not haue, that they maye be baptised with wa- ter and the holy ghost, and receyued into Chrystes holy Church, and be made lyuelye membres of the same.

Then the priest shall saye.

Let vs praye.

ALmyghtie and euerlasting god, whiche of thy greate mercie didst saue Noe and his familye in the arke, from perishinge by water: and also dydst safelye leade the chyldren of Israell thy people throughe the red Sea, figured thereby thy holie Baptiſme, and by the Baptyſme of thy well beloued ſonne Jeſus Chryſt, diddeſt ſanctifye the floude Jordan and all other waters, to the myſticall waſhynge awaye of ſynne: We beſeche the for thy infinite mercyes, that thou wilt mercifully loke vpon theſe childzen ſanctifye them and waſhe thē wyth thy holy ghoſt, that they beinge deliuered from thy wzath, may be receyued into the Arke of Chryſtes church, & beynge ſtedfaſt in fayth, ioyfull thzough hope, and roted in charity, may ſo paſſe the waues of this troubleſom woz1de, that fynallie they maye come to the land of euerlaſting life, ther to raygne wᵗʰ thee, woz1d with out ende, thzough Jeſus Chryſt our loz1de. Amen.

ALmyghtye and immoztall God, the ayde of al that necde, the helpe of all that flee to thee foz ſuccoure, the lyfe of theim that beleue, and the reſurrection of the dead: We call vpon the foz theſe infantes, that they commynge to thy holye Baptiſme maye receyue remiſſion of theyz ſynnes by ſpirituall regeneration. Receyue them (O Loz1de) as thou haſte pzomiſed by thy well beloued ſonne, ſayinge: Aſke and you ſhall haue, ſeke and you ſhall fynde, knocke and it ſhall bee opened vnto you. So geue nowe vnto vs that aſke. Lette vs that ſeeke fynde. Open the gate vnto vs that knocke, that theſe infantes maye enioye the euerlaſtinge benediction of thy heauenlye waſhinge, and maie come to the eternall kyngdome, whych thou haſt pzomiſed by Chzyſt our Loz1de. Amen.

Then ſhal the pzieſt ſay: heare the woz1des of the ghoſpel wzytten by ſaynct Marke in the tenth Chapter.

AT a certayne tyme they brought chyldren vnto Chryſt that he ſhould touche them, and his dyſciples rebuked thoſe that broughte theym. But when Jeſus ſaw it, he was diſpleſed, and ſaid vnto them: ſuffre litle chyldren to come vnto mee, & forbyd them not, for to ſuche belongeth the kyngedome of god. Verelye I ſaye vnto you, whoſoeuer doeth not receyue the kyngdome of god, as a lytle chylde, he ſhall not enter therein. And when he had taken theym vp in his armes, he putte his handes vpon them and bleſſed them.

After the Goſpel is red, the Miniſter ſhal make this breife exhortacion vpon the wordes of the Ghoſpel.

BRendes, you heare in this Ghoſpel the words of our Sauiour Chryſt, that he commaũded the chyldrẽ to be brought vnto him: Howe he blamed thoſe that wold haue kept them from him: How he exhorted al men to folowe theyr innocencye you perceyue how by his outwarde geſture and dede, he declared his good wyll toward them. For he embraced them in his armes, he layde his handes vpon them, and bleſſed theym: doubt ye not therefore, but earneſtlie beleue, that he wyll lykewyſe fauourably receiue theſe preſent infantes, that he wil embrace theym wyth the armes of his mercye, that he wyll geue vnto theym the bleſſynge of eternall lyfe, and make theym partakers of his euerlaſtynge kyngdome. Wherefore we beyng thus perſwaded of the good wyll of oure heauenlye father towarde theſe infantes declared by his ſonne Jeſus Chryſt, and nothynge doubtynge but that he fauourablye alloweth this charitable woorke of oures in bryngyng theſe chyldren to his holie Baptiſme, lette vs faythfullye and deuoutly geue thankes vnto him, and ſaye.

ALmyghtye and euerlaſtinge God, heauenlye father, wee geue the humble thankes, that thou haſt vouchſaued to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace and faythe in thee: encreaſe this knoweledge, and confirme this faythe in vs euermore: Geue thy holye ſpyryte to theſe infantes, that thei maye be borne agayne, and be made heyres of euerlaſtinge ſaluation, throughe our Lorde Jeſus Chryſt who lyueth and reygneth wyth the and the holye ſpirite, nowe and euer. Amen.

Then the Prieſte ſhall ſpeake vnto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wyſe.

WEl beloued frends, ye haue brought theſe chyldren here to be Baptiſed: ye haue prayed that our Lorde Jeſus Chriſt woulde vouchſafe to receyue them, to laie his hands vpon theym, to bleſſe theym, to releaſe theym of theyr ſynnes, to geue theym the kyngedome of heauen, and euerlaſtinge lyfe: ye haue hearde alſo that oure Lorde Jeſus Chryſte hathe promiſed in his Goſpell to graunte all theſe thynges that ye haue prayed for, whyche promyſe he for his part wyl moſte ſurelie kepe, and performe: Wherefore after thys promyſe made by Chryſte, theſe infantes muſte alſo faythfullye for theyr part promyſe by you that be theyr ſuertyes, that they wyl forſake th deuyll and all his woorkes, and conſtantly ſtantlye beleue Gods holye woꝛde, and obediently kepe his commaundentes.

Then ſhall the pꝛyeſte demaunde of the Godfathers and Godmothers theſe queſtions folowynge.

Doeſt thou foꝛſake the Deuill and al his woꝛks the vayne pompe and gloꝛye of the woꝛlde, with al couetous deſires of the ſame, the carnall deſyꝛes of the fleſh, ſo that thou wylte not folow noꝛ be led by them?

Aunſwere.

I foꝛſake them all.

Miniſter.

Doeſt thou beleue in God the father almighty, maker of heauen and earthe. And in Jeſus Chꝛyſte his onelye begotten ſonne oure Loꝛde, and that he was conceyued by the holy ghoſte, boꝛne of the vir gyn Mary: that he ſuffered vnder Põcious Pilate was crucified deade and buryed: that hee wente downe into hel, and alſo dyd ryſe agayne the thyꝛd daye: that he aſcended into heauen, and ſitteth at the righte hande of God the father almyghtye: and frome thence ſhal comme agayne at the ende of the wooꝛlde, to iudge the quycke and the deade. And doeſt thou beleue in the holie ghoſte. The holy Catholique Churche. The Communion of Sainctes The remiſſion of ſynnes, the Reſurrection of the fleſhe, and euerlaſtyng lyfe after death?

Aunſwere.

All this I ſtedfaſtlye beleue.

Miniſter.

Wylte thou be Baptyſed in thys faythe.

Aunſwere.

That is my deſyꝛe.

Then the pꝛieſt ſhall ſaye.

O Mercifull God graunt that the olde Adam in theſe childzen maye be ſo buryed, that the newe man may be raiſed vp in them. Amen.

Graunte that all carnall affections maye dye in theym and that all thynges belongynge to the ſpirite maye lyue and growe in them. Amen.

Graunte that they may haue power & ſtrength to haue victozye, and to triumphe agaynſte the deuyll, the wozlde and the fleſh. Amen.

Grauut that whoſoeuer is here dedicated to the by our office & miniſtery, may alſo be endued with heauenlye vertues, & euerlaſtingly rewarded thorowe thy mercy, O bleſſed lozd god, who doeſt liue & gouerne al thynges wozld without ende. Amen.

ALmyghtye euerliuing God, whoſe moſt derelye beloued ſon Jeſus Chryſt, foz the forgeuenes of our ſinnes, did ſhed out of his moſt precious ſide bothe water and bloude, and gaue commaundement to his diſciples that thei ſhoulde goe teache all nacyons, and baptiſe theym in the name of the father, the ſonne, and of the holye ghoſte: Regarde we beſeche the, the ſupplications of thy congregacion, and graunte that all thy ſeruauntes whyche ſhalbe baptiſed in this water, may receiue the fulneſſe of thy grace and euer remayne in the number of thy faythful and elect chyldzen, thzough Jeſus Chzyſt our lozde.

Then the prieſt ſhal take the child in his hands, and aſke the name: and namynge the chylde ſhal dyp it in the water, ſo it be diſcretly and ſwarely done: ſayinge.

N. I Baptyſe thee in the name of the father, and of the ſonne, and of the holy ghoſt. Amen.

And

And yf the chylde be weake, it shall suffice to powre water vpon it, saying the foresayde wordes.

N. I Baptise the in the name of the father, and of the Sonne, and of the holye Ghost. Amen.

Then the preeste shall make a crosse vppon the chyldes foreheade, sayinge.

WE receiue this child into the congregacion of Chrystes flocke, and doe sygne him wyth the sygne of the crosse in token that here after he shal not be ashamed to confesse the faith of Christ crucifyed, and manfullye to fyghte vnder his banner agaynst synne, the world, and the deuyl: and to continue Chrystes faythful souldiour and seruaunt, vnto his liues ende. Amen:

Then shall the preest saye.

SEynge nowe dearelye beloued brethren, that these chyldren bee regenerate and grafted into the bodye of Chrystes congregacyon: let vs geue thankes vnto God for these benefyts, & with one accorde make our prayers vnto almighty god that they may leade the rest of theyr life, according to this begynnynge.

Then shalbe sayde.

Our father wyche arte in heauen. &c.

Then shal the preest saye.

WE yelde the heartye thankes moste mercifull father, that it hathe pleased thee to regenerate this infant wyth thy holye spirite to receyue hym for thine owen chyld by adopcion, and to incorporate hym into thy holye congregacion. And humbly we beseech the to graunt ye

be

he being dead vnto ſinne, & liuing vnto ryghteouſnes and beyng buryed wyth Chryſte in his deathe maye crucifie the olde man, and vtterly abolyſh the whole bodye of ſynne, that as he is made partaker of the death of thy ſonne, ſo he maye be partaker of his reſurrection. So that finallye with the reſidue of thy holy congregacion, he may be inheritoure of thyne euerlasting kyngdome: thrughe Chriſt our Lorde. Amen.

At the laſt ende, the prieſte callynge the Godfathers and Godmothers together, ſhall ſaye thys ſhorte exhortacion folowynge.

FOrasmuche as theſe childzen haue promiſed by you to forſake the deuyll and all his workes, to beleue in God, and to ſerue him: you muſt remẽbre that it is youre partes and dueryes to ſee that theſe infantes be taughte ſo ſoone as they ſhall bee hable, to lerne what a ſolemne bowe, promiſe, and profeſſyon they haue made by you, and that they maye knowe theſe thynges the better, ye ſhall call vpon them to heare ſermons: And chiefelie ye ſhall prouid that they may learne the Crede, the Lords prayer, and the tenne Commaundementes in the englyſh tong, and al other thyngs which a chriſten mã oughte to knowe & beleue, to his ſoule healthe: & that theſe chyldzen may be vertuouſly brought vp to lede a godly and Chryſten lyfe, remembryng alwaye that Baptiſme doth repreſent vnto vs our profeſſion, whiche is to folowe the example of oure ſauiour Chriſte and to be made lyke vnto him: that as he died and roſe agayne for vs, ſoo ſhoulde wee whych are Baptiſed dye from ſynne, & ryſe agayne vnto ryghteouſneſſe, continuallye mortifynge all oure euyll and corrupte affectyons, and dayly proceedynge in all vertue and godlynes of lyuinge.

The

The Miniſter ſhal commaund that the chyldren be brought to the Biſchop to be confirmed of him, ſo ſone as they can ſaye in theyr vulgare tongue, the articles of the faith the Lordes prayer, and the ten Commaundementes, and be further inſtructed in the Cathechyſme ſette forthe for that purpoſe, accordingely as it is there expreſſed.

Oftheym that bee Baptyſed in pryuate houſes in tyme of neceſſitye.

The Paſtoures and Curates ſhall oft admoniſh the people, that they deferre not the Baptiſme of infantes anye longer then the Sunday, or other holye daye nexte after the chylde be borne vnleſſe vpon a greate and reaſonable cauſe declared to the Curate, and by hym approued.

And alſo they ſhall warne them, that wythout greate cauſe and neceſſitye, they Baptyſe not chyldren at home in theyr houſes. And when great nede ſhall compel them ſo to doe, that then they miniſter it on thys faſhyon.

Fyrſte let theym that be preſente cal vpon God for hys grace, and ſaye the Lords prayer, if the tyme wyl ſuffer. And then on of them ſhall name the chylde, and dyp him in the water, or powre water vppon him, ſayinge theſe wordes.

I Baptyſe the, in the name of the father, and of the ſonne, and of the holye Ghoſte. Amen.

And let them not doubt, but that the chylde ſo Baptyſed is lawfully and ſufficientlye baptiſed, and ought not to bee baptiſed agayne in the Churche. But yet neuertheleſſe, if the chyld whych is after this ſorte Baptiſed, do after warde lyue: it is expedient that he be brought into the Churche, to the entente the prieſt may examyn and trye, whether the chylde be lawfullye baptiſed or no. And yf thoſe that bryng any chylde to the churche do aunſwere that he is alreadie baptiſed, then ſhall the prieſt examine them further,

By

By whom the chylde was Baptiſed?
Who was preſent when the childe was Baptiſed?
Whether they called vpō God for grace and ſuccoure in that neceſſitie.
With what thinge, or what matter they dydde Baptiſe the chylde.
With what wordes the chylde was Baptiſed?
Whether they thinke the chylde to be lawfully and perfectly Baptiſed.

And yf the Myniſter ſhall proue by the aunſweres of ſuch as brought the chylde, that al thynges were done as they oughte to be: Then ſhal not he Chriſten the chyld again but ſhal receyue him as one of the flocke of the true chriſtian people, ſayinge thus.

I Certifye you, that in this caſe ye haue done well and accordynge vnto due order concerning the baptiſing of this childe, which being borne in oryginal ſinne, and in the wrath of god, is nowe by the lauer of regeneracion in Baptiſme, receyued into the number of the chyldrē of God, and heyres of euerlaſtinge lyfe: for oure Lorde Jeſus Chriſte doeſt not denye his grace and mercy vnto ſuche infantes, but moſte louynglye doth call them vnto hym, as the holye Ghoſpell doeth wytneſſe to our comforte, on this wyſe.

T a certayne tyme they broughte chyldren vnto Chriſte that he ſhould touche theym, and his diſciples rebuked thoſe that broughte theym. But when Jeſus ſawe it, he was diſpleaſed and ſayde vnto them: ſuffer lytle chyldren to come vnto me, and forbid forbyd them not, for to ſuche belongeth the kyngedome of God. Uerelye I ſaie vnto you, whoſoeuer doeth not receyue the kyngdome of God as a lytle chylde, he ſhal not enter therein. And when he had taken theym vp in his armes, he putte his handes vpon them and bleſſed them.

After the goſpell is red, the Miniſter ſhall make this exhortacion vpon the wordes of the Ghoſpel.

FRendes, you here in this Ghoſpell the wordes of our Sauiour Chryſt, that he commaũded the chyldrẽ to be brought vnto hym: Howe he blamed thoſe that woulde haue kept them from him: Howe he exhorted all men to folowe theyr innocencye, ye perceiue howe by his outwarde geſture and dede, he declared his good wyll towarde them. For he embraced theym in his armes, he layde his handes vppon them, and bleſſed them: doubt ye not therefore, but earneſtlye beleue, that he hathe lykewyſe fauourablye receiued this preſent infante, that he hath embraced hym wyth the armes of his mercye, that he hathe geuen vnto him the bleſſinge of eternal lyfe, and made him partaker of his euerlaſtyng kyngedome. Wherefore we beyng thus perſwaded of the good wyll of our heauenlye father declared by hys ſonne Jeſus Chryſt towardes this infant: Let vs faythfullye and deuoutlie geue thankes vnto him, and ſaie the prayer which the lord him ſelfe taught and in declaration of oure faithe, lette vs recite the articles contayned in our Crede.

Here the Miniſter wyth the Godfathers and Godmothers ſhall ſaye.

Oure

Our father whych arte in heauen. &c.

Then ſhall the prieſte demaunde the name of the chylde whyche beyng by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Miniſter ſhall ſaye.

Doeſte thou in the name of this chylde, forſake the Deuyll and all his woorkes, the vayne pompe and glorye of the worlde, with all the couetous deſyres of the ſame, the carnall deſyres of the fleaſhe, and not to folow and be led by them.

Aunſwere.

I forſake theym all.

Miniſter.

Dooeſt thou in the name of this chylde profeſſe thys fayth, to beleue in God the father almyghtye maker of heauen and earth. And in Jeſus Chryſte his onelye begotten ſonne oure Lorde: and that he was conceyued by the holy Ghoſt, borne of the vyrgyn Marie: that he ſuffered vnder Poncious Pilate, was crucified dead and buried: that he wente downe into hell, and alſo did riſe agayne the thyrd daye: that he aſcended into heauen, and ſitteth at the ryghte hand of God the father almyghtye: and frome thence he ſhall comme agayne at the ende of the worlde, to iudge the quycke and the dead. And do you in his name beleue in the holye ghoſte. The holye Catholique Churche. The Communion of Saynctes. The remiſſion of ſynnes, Reſurrection and euerlaſtinge lyfe after deathe.

Aunſwere.

Al this I ſtedfaſtly beleue.

Let

Let vs pray.

ALmyghtye and euerlaſtynge God, heauenlye father, we geue the humble thankes, for that thou haſt vouchſaued to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace and fayth in thee: encreaſe thys knowledge and confyrme thys faythe in vs euermore: Geue thy holye ſpyryte to thys infante, that he beynge borne agayne, and beyng made heire of euerlaſtynge ſaluation, throughe oure Lord Jeſus Chryſt, maye continue thy ſeruaunte, and attayne thy promyſe, throughe the ſame oure Lorde Jeſus Chriſt, thy ſonne: who lyueth and reygneth wyth the, in the vnitie of the ſame holye ſpyryte euerlaſtinglye. Amen.

Then ſhall the myniſter make thys exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

FOraſmuch as thys childe hath promiſed by you to forſake the deuill and all hys workes, to beleue in God, and to ſerue him: you muſt remẽbre that it is your part & duety to ſe that thys infãt be taught ſo ſone as he ſhalbe hable, to lerne what a ſolemne vow, promiſſe, & profeſſion he hath made by you: and that he maye knowe theſe thinges the better, ye ſhal cal vppon him to heare ſermõs: And chiefelye ye ſhall prouyde that he maye learne the Crede, the Lordes prayer, and the tenne Commaundementes in the Engliſhe tongue, and all other thynges whyche a chriſten manne oughte to knowe and beleue, to hys ſoule healthe: and that thys chylde maye be vertuouſlye broughte vp

vp to leade a godlye and a chryſten lyfe: Remembrynge alwaye that Baptyſme dothe repreſente vnto vs our profeſſion, whyche is to folowe the example of our ſauyoure Chryſte, and be made lyke vnto him: that as he dyed and roſe agayne for vs: ſo ſhould we whych are baptyſed, dye from ſynne, and ryſe agayne vnto ryghteauſnes, contynuallye mortifyinge all oure euyll corrupte affections, and dayly procedynge in all vertue and godlynes of liuynge.

And ſo forth as in Publyque Baptyſme.

But yf they whych bring the infantes to the Church, do make an vncertaine aunſwere to the prieſtes queſtions, and ſaye that they cannot tell what they thoughte, dyd or ſayde in that great feare and trouble of mynde, as oftentimes it chaunceth, then lette the prieſt baptiſe him in fourme aboue wrytten, concerning publique baptiſm ſauyng that at the dyppyng of the chylde in the Font, he ſhall vſe thys fourme of wordes.

¶ If thou be not Baptyſed alreadye. N. I Baptyſe thee in the name of the father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghoſte. Amen.

Confirmacion:

where in is conteyned a Cathechisme for chyldren.

TO the ende that Confyrmation maye bee ministred to the moore edifiynge of suche as shall receyue it (accordynge vnto S. Paules doctryne. who teacheth that all thynges shoulde bee done in the Churche to the edificatiō of the same) it is thought good that none hereafter shoulde bee confyrmed, but suche as canne saie in theyr mother tongue, the Articles of the saythe, the Lordes prayer, and the ten Commaundementes: and can also aunswere to suche questyons of this shorte Cathechisme, as the Bysshoppe, (or such as he shall appoynte) shall by his discretion appose them in. And this order is moste conuenyente to bee obserued for dyuers consideracions.

Fyrste, because that when chyldren come to the yeares of discretion, and haue learned what theyr Godfathers and Godmothers promysed for theym in Baptisme, they maye then them selues wyth theyr owne mouth, and wyth theyr owne consente openly before the Churche, ratifye and confyrme the same: and also promyse that by the grace of God they wyll euermore endeuour them selues faythfully to obserue and kepe suche thynges, as they by theyr own mouth and confessyon haue assented vnto.

Secondlye, forasmuche as confirmacyon is mynystred to them that be baptised, that by impositiō of handes and praier, they maye receyue strengthe and defence agaynste all temptacions to synne, and the assaultes of the woorlde and the deuyll: it is moste meete to bee ministred when chyldren come to that age that partlye by the fraylty of theyr owne flesh, partly by the assaultes of the worlde & the deuyll, they begynne to be in danger to fal into sundry kindes of synne.

Thyrdelye, for that it is agreable wyth the vsage of the Churche in tymes past, wherby it was ordeyned that Confyrmacion shoulde be minystred to them that were of perfect age, that they beyng instructed in Chrystes religion should openlye professe theyr owne fayth and promyse, to be obedyente vnto the wyll of God.

And that no man shal thinke that any detriment shal come to childzen by deferring of theyr confyrmaciō, he shal know for trueth, that it is certayne by Gods worde, that chyldzen beynge baptised, haue al thynges necessary for theyr salvacion, and be vndoubtedly saued.

A Cathechysme,

That is to saye, an instructyon to bee learned of euerye chylde, before he be brought to be confyrmed of the Bysshop.

Question.

What is your name.

Aunswere.

N. or. M.

Question.

Who gaue you thys name.

Aunswere.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptisme, wherein I was made a membre of Chryste, the chylde of God, and an inheritoure of the kyngdome of heauen.

Question.

What dyd youre Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?

Aunswere.

They didde promyse and bowe three thinges in my name. Fyrste that I shoulde forsake the deuill & all his woorckes and pompes, the vanytyes of the wycked woorlde, and all the synnefull lustes of the fleshe. Secondlye that I shoulde beleue all the articles of the Chrysten faythe. And thyrdlye that I shoulde keepe Gods holye wyll and commaundementes, and walke in the same all the dayes of my lyfe.

Question.

Doest thou not thynke that thou art bounde to beleue and to doe all that they haue promysed for thee?

Aunswere.

Yes verelye. And by Gods helpe so I wyl. And I heartelye thanke oure heauenlye father, that he hathe called me to thys state of saluation, through Jesus Chryst our sauiour. And I pray god to geue me his grace, that I may continue in the same vnto my lyues ende.

Question.

Rehearse the articles of thy beliefe.

Aunswere.

I Beleue in God the father almighty maker of heauen and of earth. And in Jesus Christe his onlye sonne our lorde. Which was conceyued of the holye ghost, borne of the virgin Marie. Suffred vnder Ponce Pilat was crucifyed, dead. and buried, he descended into hel. The thyrde daye he rose agayne from the dead. He ascended into heauen, and sytteth at the ryghte hande of God the father almyghtye. From thence he shall come to iudge the quycke and the deade. I beleue in the holye ghoostе. The holye Catholyke Churche. The Communion of saynctes. The forgeuenesse of synnes. The resurrectyon of the body and the lyfe euerlastinge. Amen.

Question.

What doeste thou chiefelye learne in these articles of thy beliefe?

Aunswere.

Fyrste, I learne to beleue in GOD the father, who hathe made me and all the worlde.

Secondlye, in God the sonne, who hathe redemed me and all mankynde.

Thyrdly in God the holy ghost, who sanctifieth me and all the electe people of of God.

Question.

Question.

You sayd that your Godfathers and Godmothers dyd promyse for you that you shoulde keepe Gods commaundementes. Tell me howe manye there be.

Aunswere.

Tenne.

Question.

Whych be they.

Aunswere.

The same whiche God spake in the .xx. Chapter of Exodus saying. I am the LORD thy God whiche haue broughte thee oute of the lande of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

i. Thou shalt haue none other Gods but me.

ii. Thou shalte not make to thy selfe anye grauen ymage, nor the lykenesse of anye thynge that is in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, nor in the water vnder the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: For I the Lorde thy god am a gelous God, and visite the synnes of the fathers vppon the chyldren, vnto the thyrde and fourth generacion of them that hate me, and shewe mercy vnto thousandes in theim that loue me and kepe my commaundementes.

iii. Thou shalt not take the name of the lorde thy GOD in vayne: for the lorde wyll not holde hym gyltlesse that taketh hys name in vayne.

iiii. Remember thou kepe holy the Sabboth day Six dayes shalt thou labour and do al ỹ thou hast to do: but the seuenth day is the Sabboth of the Lorde thy god. In it ỹ shalt do no maner of worke thou & thy sonne, & thy doughter, thy man seruaũt and thy mayde seruaunt, thy cattell, & the straunger that is within thy gates: for in sixe dayes the Lorde made heauen and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seuenth daye. Wherefore the Lorde blessed the seuenth day and halowed it.

v. Honoure thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes maye be longe in the lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee.

vi. Thou shalt do no murther.

vii. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

viii Thou shalt not steale.

ix. Thou shalte not beare false wytnes agaynste thy neyghbour.

x. Thou shalte not couet thy neyghbours house, thou shalt not couet thy neighbours wyfe, nor hys seruaunte, nor hys mayd, nor hys oxe, nor hys asse nor any thyng that is his.

Question.

What doest thou chiefely learne by these cõmaundementes.

Answere.

I learne two thynges. My duetie towardes god, and my duety towardes my neyghbour.

Question.

What is thy duetye towardes God.

Answere.

My duety towardes God, is to beleue in him, to feare hym, and to loue hym, with al my hart, with all my mynde, with all my soule, and wyth all my strength. To worship hym. To geue hym thankes To put my whole trust in hym. To call vpon hym, To honour hys holy name and hys worde, and to serue hym truelye all the dayes of my lyfe.

Questi

Question.

What is thy duetye towardes thy neyghboure?

Aunswere.

My duty towardes my neyghboure is to loue him as my selfe. And to do to all men as I woulde thei shoulde do vnto me. To loue honoure and succoure my father and mother. To honoure and obeye the kynge and his mynisters. To submit my selfe to all my gouernoures, teachers, spirituall pastours and maysters. To ozder my selfe lowly and reuerently to all my betters. To hurte no bodye by wozde noz dede. To bee true and iuste in all my dealynge. To beare no malyce noz hatred in my hearte. To keepe my handes frome pyckynge and stealynge, and my tongue from euyll speakynge, lyinge, and slaunderynge. To keepe my bodye in temperaunce, soberness & chastitie. Not to couet noz desyze other mens goodes. But learne and laboure trueli to get mine owne lyuynge, and to doe my duety in that state of lyfe vnto whyche it shall please God to call me.

Question.

My good childe knowe this, that thou arte not hable to doe these thynges of thy selfe, noz to walke in the commaundementes of GOD, and to serue him, wythout his speciall grace, whyche thou must learne at all tymes to call foz by dyligente prayer. Let me heare therefoze yf thou canst saye the Lozdes prayer.

Aunswere.

OUre father whyche arte in heauen, halowed be thy name. Thy kyngedome comme. Thy wyll bee done in yearthe as it is in heauen. Geue vs thys daye oure dayelye bzeade.

And forgeue vs our treſpalles, as we forgiue them that treſpaſſe agaynſte vs . And leade vs not into temptacion. But delyuer vs fromr euyll. Amen.

Queſtion.

What deſyreſt thou of God in this prayer.

Aunſwere.

I deſyre my Lorde God oure heauenlie father, who is the geuer of all goodnes, to ſende his grace vnto me and to all people, that wee maye worſhyp him, ſerue him, and obey hym as we oughte to doe. And I praye vnto GOD that he wyl ſende vs all thynges that bee nedefull bothe for our ſoules and bodyes . And that he wyll bee mercyfull vnto vs, and forgeue vs oure ſynnes, and that it wyll pleaſe him to ſaue and defende vs in all daungers ghoſtly and bodilye. And that he wyll keepe vs frome all ſynne and wyckednelle, and from our ghoſtly enemye, and frome euerlaſtynge deathe . And thys I truſte he wyll doe of his mercye and goodnes, thoroughe oure Lorde Jeſu Chriſte. And therefore I ſaye. Amen. So be it.

So ſone as the chyldren can ſay in theyr mother tongue, the articles of the fayth, the Lords prayer, and the tenne commaundementes: and alſo can aunſwere to ſuch queſtions of this ſhorte Catbechiſme, as the Byſhop (or ſuch as he ſhall appoynte) ſhall by his diſcretion appoſe them in: then ſhall they be broughte to the Biſhop by one that ſhalbe his Godfather or Godmother , that euerye chylde maye haue a wytnelle of his confirmation. And the Biſhop ſhall confyrme them on thys wyſe.

Confyr-

Our helpe is in the name of the Lorde.

Anuswere.

Whyche hathe made both heauen and earth.

Ministter.

Blessed is the name of the Lorde.

Anuswere.

Henceforth worlde wythout ende.

Ministter.

Lorde heare our prayer.

Anuswere.

And let our crye come to thee.

Let vs praye.

ALmyghtye and euerliuinge God, who haste vouchsaked to regenerate these thy seruauntes by water and the holye ghooste, and haste geuen vnto theym forgeuenesse of all theyr synnes: strengthen them we beseche thee (O Lorde) wyth the holye ghoste the comforter, and daylye encrease in theim thy manyfolde gyftes of grace, the spirite of wysedome and vnderstandinge, the spirte of counsayle & ghostly strength, the spirite of knowe-ledge and true Godlynes: and fulfyl them (O lord) wyth the spirite of thy holy feare. Amen.

Then the Bysshoppe shall laye hys hande vpon euerye chylde seuerallye, sayinge.

Defend, O Lord this chyld with thy heauenly grace, that he maye contynue thyne for euer, & dayly encreale in thy holie spirite more & more, vntyll he come vnto thy euerlastinge kyngedome. Amen.

Then

Then ſhall the Bychop ſaye.

Almyghtie euerlyuyng God, which makeſt vs bothe to wyll, and to doo thoſe thinges that bee good and acceptable vnto thi maieſty: we make our humble ſupplicacions vnto the, for theſe chyldren, vpō whom (after the example of the holye apoſtles) wee haue layde oure handes to certifye theym (by this ſygne) of thy fauour and gracious goodnes toward theim: lette thy fatherlye hande we beſeche thee, euer bee ouer them: let thy holye ſpirite euer bee wyth theim, and ſo leade theym in the knowledge and obedyence of thy worde, that in the ende, they maye obtayne the euerlaſtynge lyfe through our Lord Jeſus Chryſt: who wyth thee and the holye ghoſt lyueth and raigneth one God, worlde wythoute ende. Amen.

Then the Byſhoppe ſhall bleſſe the chyldren thus, ſayinge.

The bleſſing of God almighty, the father, the ſonne, and the holye ghoſte, be vppon you, and remayne wyth you for euer. Amen.

The Curate of euerye paryſhe, or ſome other at hys appoyntemente, ſhall diligentelye vppon Sondayes and holye dayes halfe an houre beefore Euenſonge, openlye in the Churche inſtructe and examyne ſo manye chyldren of his paryſhe ſente vnto hym as the tyme wyll ſerue, and as he ſhall thynke conuenyente in ſome parte of thys Cathechyſme.

And all Fathers, Mothers, Maiſters, and Dames, ſhall cauſe theyr Chyldren, Seruauntes, and Prentiſes, whych haue not learned theyr Cathechyſme, to comme vnto the Church at the tyme appoynted and obediently to heare and be ordered by the Curat, vntil ſuch tyme as they haue haue learned all that is here appoynted for thē to learne. And when soeuer the Bysshoppe shall geue knowledge for chyldren to be brought afore him to anie conuenient place for their confyrmation. Then shall the Curate of euerye paryshe, eyther bryng or sende in wrytynge, the names of al those chyldren of hys paryshe, whiche canne saye the Articles of their faythe, the Lordes prayer, and the tenne commaundementes: and also howe manye of theym can aunswere to the other questions conteyned in this Cathechisme.

And there shal none be admitted to the holye Communion, vntyll suche tyme as he can saye the Cathechysme and be confyrmed.

The fourme of solemnization of Matrimonye.

First the banes must be asked three seuerall Sundayes or holye dayes in the tyme of seruyce, the people beynge present after the accustomed maner.

And yf the personnes that would be maryed dwell in dyuers paryshes, the banes muste be asked in bothe parishes: and the Curate of thone paryshe, shall not Solemnyze Matrimonye betwyxt them, wythoute a certificate of the banes beynge thryse asked frome the Curate of the other paryshe. At the daye appoynted for Solemnization of Matrimonye, the persons to be maryed shal come into the bodye of the Churche wyth their frendes and neighbours, and there the Preist shall thus saye.

Dearelye

DEarelie beloued frends, we are gathered together here in the syght of God, and in the face of his congregacion, to ioyne together this manne and this woman in holye matrimonye, whiche is an honourable estate instituted of God in Paradyse, in the tyme of mannes innocencye: signifyinge vnto vs the misticall vnyon, that is betwyxte Chryste and his Church: which holye estate Christ adorned and beutified with his presence and fyrste myracle that he wroughte in Cana of Galyle, and is cõmended of S. Paule to be honorable amonge all men, and therefore is not to bee interprysed, nor taken in hande vnaduysedlye, lightlye, or wantonlye, to satisfye mennes carnal lustes and appetites, lyke bruite beastes that haue no vnderstandynge: but reuerentlye, discretlye, aduisedly, soberlye, and in the feare of God: duelye consideringe the causes for whiche Matrimonye was ordayned. One was the procreation of chyldren, to be brought vp in the feare and nourtour of the Lorde, and prayse of god. Secondly, it was ordeyned for a remedy againste syn, and to auoide fornication, that such persons as haue not the gyfte of contynencye, myght marry & kepe theim selues vndefyled membres of Chrystes bodye. Thirdlye for the mutuall societye, helpe and cõfort that the one oughte to haue of thother, bothe in prosperitye and aduersitye: into the whych holy estate these two persons present come to be ioyned Therfore yf any man can shewe any iust cause, why they may not lawefully be ioyned together: let him now speke, or elsherafter for euer holde hys peace.

And

And also speakynge to the persones that shalbee maryed, hee shal saye

I require and charge you (as you wyll aunswere at the dreadfull daye of iudgement, when the secretes of all heartes shall bee dysclosed) that yf eyther of you do know any impediment why ye may not be lawfullye ioyned together in Matrimonie, that ye confesse it. For be ye well assured, that so manye as be coupled together otherwyse then gods word doeth allow, are not ioyned together by God, neither is theyr Matrimonye lawful.

At whyche daye of maryage, yf anye manne doe alleadge and declare anye impedimente whye they maye not be coupled together in Matrimonye by Goddes lawe, or the lawes of thys Realme, and wyll bee bounde, and sufficiente suertyes wyth him to the partyes, or elles putte in a caution to the ful value of such charges as the persones to be maryed doeth susteyne, to proue his allegacyon. Then the solemnyzation must bee deferred vnto suche tyme as the trueth bee tryed. If no impesmente be alledged, then shall the Curate saye vnto the man.

N. Wylte thou haue this woman to thy wedded wyfe, to lyue together after Godes ordynaunce, in the holye estate of Matrimonye? Wylte thou loue her, comforte her, honoure and keepe her, in sickenesse and in healthe? And forsakinge al other, kepe thee onely to her, so longe as you both shall lyue.

The man shall answere,

I wyll.

Then

Then shal the prieste saye to the woman.

N. Wylte thou haue this man to thy wedded husbande, to lyue together after Goddes ordynaunce in the holye estate of matrimonye? Wilt thou obey him and serue him, loue honoure and keepe him, in sickenesse and in healthe, and forsakyng all other keepe thee onelye vnto hym, so longe as you bothe shall lyue?

The woman shall aunswere.

I wyll.

Then shal the Minister say.

Who geueth this woman to bee maried vnto this man?

And the Minister receyuinge the woman at her father or frendes handes, shall cause the manne to take the woman by the ryghte hande, and so eyther to gene theyr trouthe to other. The manne firste saying.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded wyfe, to haue and to holde from this daye forwarde, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenesse and in healthe, to loue and to cherysshe, tyll deathe vs departe, accordynge to Gods holye ordinaunce: And thereto I plyghte thee my trouthe.

Then shall they loose theyr handes, and the woman takynge agayne the man by the ryghte hande, shall saye.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded husbande, to haue and to holde from this day forwarde, for better, for worse, for rycher for poorer, in syckenesse and in health, to loue, cherysshe, and to obeye, tyll death vs departe, accordynge to Gods holy ordynaunce And thereto I geue thee my trouthe.

Then shall they agayne loose theyr handes, and the manne shall geue vnto the womanne a rynge, layinge the same vppon the booke wyth the accustomed duetye to the Prieste and Clerke. And the Prieste Priest takyng the ryng, shall delyuer it vnto the man, to put it vpon the fourth finger of the womans lefte hande. And the man taughte by the Priest shall saye.

Wyth this rynge I the wed: wyth my body I thee worshyp: and wyth all my worldly goodes I thee endowe. In the name of the father, and of the sone, and of the holye ghoste. Amen.

Then the man leauinge the ryng vpon the fourth finger of the womans lefte hande, the Mynyster shall saye.

Let vs praye.

Eternall God, creatoure and preseruer of all mankinde, geuer of all spirituall grace, the auctoure of euerlasting life: Send thy blessinge vppon theese thy seruauntes, thys man and this woman, whom wee blesse in thy name, that as Isaac and Rebecca lyued faythefullye together, so theese personnes maye surelye perfourme and keepe the bowe and couenaunte betwyxte theym made: wherof thys ryng geuen and receyued is a token and pledge, & maye euer remayne in perfecte loue and peace together, and lyue accordynge vnto thy lawes thrOugh Iesus Christe oure Lorde. Amen.

Then shall the priest ioyne theyr ryghte handes together and saye.

Those whome God hathe ioyned together, let no man put a sunder.

Then

Then shall the minister speake vnto the people.

FOrasmuche as .N. and .N. haue consented together in holye wedlocke, and haue witnessed the same before GOD and this company, and thereto haue geuen and pledged their trouthe eyther to other, and haue declared the same by geuing and receyuynge of a rynge, and by ioyning of handes: I pronounce that they be man and wyfe together. In the name of the father, of the sonne, and of the holye Ghoste. Amen.

And the mynyster shall adde thys blessinge.

God the father, God the sonne, God the holy ghoste, blesse, preserue, and kepe you: the lorde mercyfullye wyth his fauour loke vpon you, and so fyl you wyth all spirituall benediction and grace, that you maye so lyue together in thys lyfe, that in the worlde to come, you maye haue lyfe euerlastynge. Amen.

Then the Mynisters or Clerkes, goynge to the Lordes Table, shall saye or singe this Psalme folowynge.

BLessed are al thei that fere the lord: and walke in his wayes.

For thou shalte eate the laboure of thy handes: O well is thee, and happye shalte thou bee.

Thy wyfe shalbe as the friutful vine: vpon the walles of thy house.

Thy chyldren lyke the Olyue braunches: round aboute thy table.

Loe, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth

the Lorde.

The Lord from out of Sion, shal blesse the: that thou shalte see Hierusalem in prosperitye al thy life longe.

Yea, that thou shalt see thy childrens chyldren: and peace vpon Israel.

Glorye be to the father. &c. As it was in the. &c.

Or els this Psalme folowyng.

GOD bee merciful vnto vs and blesse vs: and shewe vs the lighte of his countenaunce, and be merciful vnto vs.

That thy way may be knowen vpon the earth: thy sauinge health among al nations.

Let the people prayse the (O GOD:) yea let al the people prayse thee.

O let the nacions reioyce and bee glad: for thou shalt iudge the flock ryghteously, and gouerne the nacions vpon the earth.

Let the people prayse thee (O God:) let all the people prayse thee.

Then shall the earthe bryng forth her encrease, and god, euen our God, shal geue vs his blessynge.

God shal blesse vs, and al the endes of the world shall feare him.

Glorye be to the father. &c. As it was in. &c.

The psalme ended, and the man and the woman kneeling afore the lords table: the Priest standing at the Table, and turninge his face towarde them, shall saye.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Answere.

Christ haue mercy vpon vs.

Ministre.

Lorde haue mercye vpon vs.

Our father whyche arte in heauen. &c:
And leade vs not into temptacion.

Aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euyll. Amen.

Minister.

O Lorde saue thy seruaunte, and thy handmayde.

Aunswere.

Whyche put theyr truste in thee.

Minister.

O Lorde sende theym helpe from thy holy place.

Aunswere.

And euermore defende them.

Minister.

Be vnto them a towre of strength.

Aunswere.

From the face of theyr enemye.

Minister.

O lorde heare our prayer.

Aunswere.

And let oure crye come vnto thee.

Minister.

God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, blesse theese thy seruauntes, & sowe the sede of eternall lyfe in theyr mindes, ỹ whatsoeuer in thy holi word they shal profitably learne, they may in dede fulfyll the same. Loke O lord mercifully vpon them from heauen, and blesse theym. And as thou diddest send thi blessing vpon Abraham and Sara to theyr great comfort: so vouchsafe to send thy blessyng vpõ these thi seruaunts, that they obeying thy wyl, and alway beynge in safetie vnder thy protection, maye abyde in thy loue vnto theyr lyues ende: thrroughe Jesu Chryste our lorde. Amen.

This

This prayer nexte folowinge shalbe admitted, where the woman is past childe birth.

O Merciful lord and heuenly father, by whose gracious gift mankynd is encreased: we beseche thee assiste with thy blessinge these two persons, that they maye bothe bee fruitefull in procreation of childzen, and also lyue together so longe in godly loue and honesty, that they maye see theyr chyldzens chyldzen, vnto the thyrde and fourth generacion, vnto thy praise and honoure: through the Jesus Chryst our Lorde. Amen.

O GOD, whyche by thy myghtye power hast made all thynges of noughte, whiche also after other thinges set in order, diddest apoynt that out of man (created after thyne owne ymage and similitude) woman shoulde take her begynninge: and knittinge theym together, dyddeste teache that it shoulde neuer bee lawefull to putte asunder those, whom thou by matrimonye haddeste made one: O GOD whyche haste consecrated the state of matrimonye to suche an excellente mysterye, that in it is signyfied and represented the spirituall maryage and vnitye betwixte Chryste and hys Churche: Looke mercifullye vppon theese thy seruauntes, that bothe thys manne maye loue hys wife, according to the word (as Christ did loue his spouse the churche, who gaue hym selfe for it, louinge and cherysshynge it euen as his owne flesshe.) And also that thys woman maye bee louynge and amiable to her husbande as Rachell, wyse as Rebecca, kaythfull and obediente as Sara, and in all quietnes, sobrietie and peace, be a folower of holye and godly matrones: O Lorde blesse theym bothe and graunte them to inherite thi euerlasting kingdome: through Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

Then shall the priest saye.

ALmyghtye god, whyche at the beginning dyd create our first parentes Adam and Eue, and did sanctifye and ioyne theim together in maryage: poure vpon you the riches of his grace, sanctifye and blesse you that ye maye please hym bothe in bodye and soule, and lyue together in holye loue, vnto your lyues ende. Amen.

Then shal begyn the Communion, and after the gospell shalbe sayd a sermon, wherin ordinarely, so ofte as there is anye mariage, thoffice of a manne and wyfe, shall bee declared, according to holy scripture: or if there be no sermon, the Minister shall reade this that foloweth.

All ye which be maryed, or which entend to take the holye estate of matrimonye vppon you, heare what holye scypture doeth saye, as touchynge the duty of husbandes towarde theyr wyues & wyues towarde theyr husbands. Sainct Paule in his Epistle to the Ephesians the fyfth Chapter dooeth geue this commaundement to all maryed men.

Ye husbandes loue youre wiues, euen as Christ loued the churche, and hathe geuen hym selfe for it, to sanctifie it, pourginge it in the fountayne of water, through thy worde, that he might make it vnto hym selfe a gloryous congregacion, not hauinge spot or wrynkle, or anye suche thynge. but that it shoulde be holy and blameles. So men are bounde to loue theyr owne wyues as theyr owne bodyes.

He that loueth his owne wyfe, loueth hym selfe. For neuer dyd anye man hate his owne flesshe, but norysheth and cherysheth it, euen as the lorde doth

the

membres of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

For this cause shal a man leaue father and mother, and shall be ioyned vnto hys wyfe, and they two shalbe one flesh e. This misterye is great but I speake of Chryste and of the congregation. Neuertheles, let euerye one of you soo loue hys owne wife euen as him selfe.

Lykewyse the same S. Paule (writinge to the Colossians) speaketh thus to all men that be maryed, ye men loue youre wyues, and be not bytter vnto them. Collo.iiii.

Heare also what Saincte Peter the Apostle of Christ, which was him selfe a maried man (sayeth vnto al men that are maried.) Ye husbands, dwel with your wyues accordinge to knowledge: Geuinge honoure vnto the wife as vnto the weaker vessell: and as heyres together of the grace of lyfe, so that youre prayers be not hyndered. 1.Pet.iii.

Hetherto ye haue hearde the duetie of the husbande towarde the wyfe.

Nowe lykewyse ye wyues, heare and learne your dutie towardes your husbandes, euen as it is playnly set forth in holy scrypture.

Saint Paule in the forenamed Epistle to the Ephesians, teacheth you thus, ye wom̃e submit your selues vnto your own husbandes as vnto the lorde: for the husband is the wyues heade, euen as Christ is the head of the Church. And he is also the sauyour of the whole bodye. Therefore as the churche or congregation is subiect vnto Christ: soo likewyse lette the wyues also be in subiection vnto their owne husbandes in all thynges. And agayne Ephe.v.

he sayeth: Let the wyfe reuerence her husbande.

Collos. iii. And (in his Epistle to the Collossians) Sayncte Paule geueth you this shorte Lesson. Be wyues submit youre selues vnto youre owne husbandes, as it is conuenient in the Lorde.

1. Pete. iii. Sayncte Peter also doeth instructe you verye godlie thus sayinge: Let wyues bee subiectes to their owne husbandes, so that yf anye obey not the word, they mai be wonne without the worde, by the conuersacion of the wyues, whyle they beholde youre chaste conuersacion coubled wyth feare, whose apparell let it not be outwarde, with broyded here and trimming aboute with golde, eyther in putting one of gorgeous apparell: but lette the hyde man whyche is in the hearte, be wythoute all corrupcion, soo that the spyryte bee mylde and quyet whyche is a precious thynge in the syghte of GOD.

For after this maner (in the olde tyme) dyd the holye women whych trusted in God apparell theymselues, beinge subiect to theyr owne husbandes: as Sara obeyed Abrahan calling him Lorde, whose daughters ye are made, doyng well, and beyng not dismayde wyth anye feare.

The newe maryed personnes, the same daye of theyr mariage, muste receyue the holye Communion.

The order for the visitacion of the Sicke.

The preest entryng into the sycke persons house, shal saye:

Peace bee in this house, and to all that dwell in it.

When he commeth into the sycke mans presence, he shal saye knelynge downe.

Remembre not lorde our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare vs good lord, spare thy people, whome thou haste redemed wyth thy most precious bloude and be not angry wyth vs for euer.

Lorde haue mercye vpon vs.
Christ haue mercye vpon vs.
Lorde haue mercye vpon vs.
Our father whiche art in heauen. &c.
And leade vs not into temptacion.

Aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euyll. Amen.

Minister.

O Lorde saue thy seruaunte.

Aunswere.

whych putteth his trust in thee.

Ministre.

Sende him helpe from thy holy place.

Aunswere.

And euermore mightelye defende him.

Ministre.

Let the enemye haue none aduauntage of hym.

Aunswere.

Nor the wycked approche to hurte hym.

Minister.

Be vnto him, O Lorde a stronge towre.

Aunswere.

From the face of his enemye.

Minister.

Lord heare our prayers.

Aunswere.

And let oure come vnto thee.

Minister.

O Lord loke down from heauen, behold visite and releise this thy seruaunte: Looke vpon him with the eyes of thy mercy, geue hym comfort and suer confidence in thee: Defende him from the daunger of the enemye, and kepe him in perpetuall peace and safty: through Jesus Chryste oure lorde Amen.

HEare vs almightye and most mercifull god and sauiour. Extende thy accustomed goodnes to this thy seruaunt whiche is grieued with sickenes: visite him O Lord, as thou diddest visite Peters wyues mother, and the Captaynes seruaunt. So visite and restore vnto this sycke person his former healthe (yf it be thy wyl) or els geue him grace so to take the visitacion, that after this paynefull life ended, he may dwell w^th^ the in lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

Then shall the Ministter exhorte the sycke person after this fourme or other lyke.

DEarelye beloued, knowe thys: that almighty GOD is the Lorde of lyfe and deathe, and ouer all thynges to theym perteyninge, as youthe, strengthe, halthe, age, weakenesse, and sickenes sickenes. Wherefore what soeuer your syckenes is knowe you certaynely that it is goddes visitacion. And for what cause so euer this sickenes is sent vnto you, whether it bee to trye your pacyence for the example of other, & that your fayth maie be founde in the daye of the lorde laudable, glorious, and honorable to the encrease of glorye, and endles felicitye. Or els it be sent vnto you to correcte & amende in you, whatsoeuer doeth offende the eyes of oure heauenlie father: knowe you certaynly, that yf you truelye repent you of your synnes, and beare youre sickenes pacientlye, trusting in Gods mercy for hys deare sonne Jesus Chrystes sake, and render vnto hym humble thanckes for his fatherlye visitacion, submittinge youre selfe wholye to hys wyll, it shall tourne to your profyte, and helpe you forwarde in the ryghte waye that leadeth vnto euerlasting life.

If the person visited be very sycke, then the Curate maye ende his exhortacion in this place.

¶ Take therefore in good worthe the chastement of the lorde. For whom the lorde loueth, he chastyseth, yea (as S. Paule sayeth) he scourgeth euerye sonne whyche he receaueth, yf you endure chastisemente, he offereth hym selfe vnto you, as vnto his owne chyldren. What sonne is he that the father chastiseth not? If ye be not vnder correction, wher of all true chyldren are partakers, then are ye bastardes & not chyldren. Therefore, seing that when our carnal fathers doe correcte vs, we reuerentlye obey them: shall we not now muche rather be obedient to our spirituall father, and so liue? And they for a fewe dayes doe chastyce vs after theyr owne pleasure, pleasure, but he dooeth chastice vs for oure profyt, to the intent he maie make vs partakers of his holynes. These wordes good brother are Gods wordes, and wrytten in holy scripture for our comforte and instruction, that we should pacientlye and wyth thankesgeuinge, beare our heauenlye fathers correction, when soeuer by any maner of aduersitye it shal please his gracious goodnes to visite vs. And there shoulde bee no greater comforte to Chrystian persons, then to be made lyke vnto Christ by sufferyng pacientlye aduersities, troubles, & sicknesses. For he him selfe wente not vp to ioye, but fyrste he suffered payne: he entred not into his glorie, before he was crucified. So truelye our waye to eternall ioye, is to suffer here wyth Chryste, and our doore to enter into eternall life, is gladly to dye with Christ that we maye ryse agayne from deathe, and dwell wyth him in euerlastinge lyfe. Nowe therefore takynge youre sickenes whych is thus profytable for you pacientlye: I exhorte you in the name of God, to remembre the profession whyche you made vnto God in youre Baptisme. And forasmuche as after this life, there is accoumpte to bee geuen vnto the righteous iudge, of whom al must be iudged wyth oute respecte of persons: I require you to examyne your self, and your state both toward God & man: so that accusynge and condemninge youre selfe for your owne faultes, you maye fynde mercye at oure heauenly fathers hande for Chrystes sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearefull iudgement. Therfore I shall shortly rehearse the articles of our fayth, that ye may know whether you do beleue as a chrystian man shoulde or no.

Here

Here the minister shall rehearse the Articles of the faith saying thus.

Doest thou beleue in God the father almyghtye.

And so forth as it is in Baptisme.

Then shall the Minister examine whether he be in charitie with all the worlde: Exhorting him to forgeue frō the bottome of his heart, all persons that haue offended hym: and yf he haue offended other, to aske theim forgeuenes: And where he hath done iniurye or wronge to anye man, that he make amendes to the vttermost of his power. And if he haue not afore disposed his goods let hym then make his wyl. But men must be oft admonyshed, that they set an order for their temporall goodes and landes, when they be in health. And also declare hys debtes what he oweth, and what is owynge vnto hym for dyschargynge of hys conscience, and quietnes of hys executours.

These wordes before rehearsed, maye be sayde before the Minister begin hys prayer, as he shall see cause.

The Minister maye not forget, nor omit to moue the sicke person, and that moost earnestlye, to liberalye toward the poore.

Yeare shall the sicke person make a speciall confession if he fele his conscience troubled with any weighty matter. After whych confession, the Preiste shal absolue him after thys sorte.

OUr Lorde Jesus Christ who hath left power to his Church to absolue al sinners, which truely repent and beleue in him, of his great mercy forgeue thee thine offences: and by hys aucthoritye committed to me, I absolue thee frome all thy synnes, in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy ghost. Amen.

And

And then the preist shall saye the Collecte folowynge.

Let vs praye.

Moste mercyfull God, whiche accordinge to the multitude of thy mercies, doest so put awaye the synnes of those which truely repente, that thou remembrest them no more: open thyne eie of mercy vpon this thy seruaunt, who moste earnestly desireth pardō and forgeuenes. Renue in him moste louinge father, whatsoeuer hath bene decaied by the fraude and malyce of the deuyl, or by his owne carnall wyll and frayle nes: preserue and continue this sickemembre in the vnytie of thy churche: consider his contrytion, accept his teares, asswage his payne, as shalbe sene to thee moste expedient for him. And forasmuche as he putteth his full trust onelye in thy mercye. Imputte not vnto hym hys former synnes, but take him vnto thy fauoure: throughe the merites of thy moste dearelye beloued sonne Jesus Christe. Amen.

Then the Minister shall saye thys Psalme.

In te domine speraui.
Psalm. lxxi.

IN the O Lorde haue I put my trust let me neuer be put to confusion, but ryd me, & deliuer me into thy ryghteousnes, enclyne thyne eare vnto me, and saue me.

Be thou my stronge holde (whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou arte my house of defence & my castell,

Delyuer

Deliuer me (O my God) out of the hande of the vngodlye: out of the hande of the vnrighteous and cruell man.

For thou (O Lord God) arte the thynge that I longe for: thou arte my hope euen from my youth.

Throughe thee haue I bene holden vp euer sence I was borne: thou arte he that toke me oute of my mothers wombe my prayse shal alwaye bee of the.

I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my suer truste is in thee.

Oh let my mouth be filled wyth thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory, and honor al the day long.

Caste me not awaye in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength fayleth me.

For myne enemyes speake agaynste mee, and they that laye wayte for my soule, take theyr counsayle together, sayinge: GOD hath forsaken hym, persecute him, and take him, for ther is none to delyuer him.

Go not farre fro me, O GOD: my GOD, hast thee to helpe me.

Let them bee confounded and perishe, that are agaynst my soule: let them be couered wyth shame and dishonoure, that seke to do me euyll.

As for me, I will pacientlye abyde alwaye: and wyll prayse thee more and more.

My mouth shall dailie speake of thy ryghteousnes and saluacion: for I know no ende thereof.

I wyll go forth in the strengthe of the lord God: and wyll make mencion of thy ryghteousnes onely

Thou (O God) hast taughte me from my youth vp vntill nowe: therefore I wyl tell of thy wonderous workes.

Forsake

Forsake me not (O God) in mine old age, when I am gray headed: vntyl I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generacion, & thy power to all theym that are yet for to come.

Thy ryghteousnes (O God) is verye high, and great thynges are they that thou hast done: O god who is lyke vnto thee.

O what greate troubles and aduersytyes haste thou shewed me: and yet dyddyst thou tourne and refreshe me, yea and broughtest me from the deepe of the earthe agayne.

Thou haste broughte me to greate honour, and comforted me one euerye syde.

Therefore wyll I prayse thee and thy faythefulnesse (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musicke: vnto thee will I syng vpon the harpe, O thou holye one of Israell.

My lippes wyl be fayne, when I sing vnto the: and so wyll my soule whom thou haste delyuered.

My tongue also shal talke of thy ryghteousnes all the daye longe: for they are confounded and broughte vnto shame that seeke to do me euyll.

Glorye bee to the father, and to the sonne: and to the holye Ghost.

As it was in the beginninge, is nowe, and euer shalbe: worlde wythout ende. Amen.

Addinge this.

O Sauiour of the world, saue vs, which by thi crosse and precious bloude haste redemed vs helpe vs we beseche thee, O God.

Then shall the Minister saye.

The

THe almyghty Lorde, whych is a mooste stronge towre to all theim that put theyr trust in him, to whom al thynges in heauen, in earth, and vnder earth, doe bowe and obeye be nowe and euermore thy defence, and make thee knowe and feele, that there is no other name vnder heauen geuen to man, in whome, and throughe whome, thou mayest receaue health and saluacion, but onelye the name of our Lorde Iesus Chryste. Amen.

The communion of the Sicke.

FOrasmuch as al mortal men be subiect to manie sodayne perilles, diseases, and sickenesses, and euer vncertayne what tyme they shal depart out of this life: Therfore, to thintēt they may be alwayes in a redines to dye whensoeuer it shal please almighty God to cal them, the Curates shall diligentlye from tyme to tyme, but specially in the plague tyme, exhorte theyr paryshners, to the ofte receyuing in the Church of the holie Communion of the body and bloude of oure Sauiour Chryst. Which, yf they doe: they shal haue no cause in theyr sodayne visitacion to be vnquieted for lacke of the same: but yf the sicke person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receyue the Communion in his house, then he muste gene knowledge ouer nyghte, or els earely in the morning to the Curate, signifiinge also howe manye bee appoynted to communicate wyth hym. And hauyng a conuenyente place in the sicke mans house, where the curate maye reuerentlye minister: and a good number to receaue the cōmunion wyth the sicke personne, wyth al thinges necessarye for the same, he shall there minister the holye Communion.

The

The Collecte.

ALmyghty euerliuinge GOD, maker of mankynde, which doest correcte those whom thou doest loue, & chastisest euerye one whom thou doest receaue: we beseche thee to haue mercy vpon this thy seruaunte visited wyth thy hande, and to graunt that he may take his sicknes paciently, and recouer his bodelye healthe (yf it bee thy gracious wyll) and whensoeuer his soule shall departe from the bodye, it maye be wythout spot presented vnto thee: through Jesus Chryst our Lorde. Amen.

The Epistle.

MI sonne despyse not the correction of the lorde. neyther faynt when thou arte rebuked of him: For whome the Lorde loueth, hym he correcteth, yea and he scourgeth euerye sonne, whome he receyueth.

The Gospel.

VErelye verelye I saye vnto you, he that heareth my word, and beleueth on hym that sent me, hath euerlastyng life, and shal not come vnto damnacyon. but he passeth from death vnto lyfe.

At the tyme of the distribution of the holye Sacramente, the preest shall fyrste receyue the communyon hym selfe, and after minister vnto theim that be appoynted to communicate wyth the sycke.

But yf anye man, eyther by reason of extremite of syckenes, or for lacke of warning in due tyme to the curate or for lacke of cõpany to receyue wyth him, or by any other iust impediment, do not receyue the Sacramente of chri-

ſtes body and bloude then the Curate ſhal inſtructe him, that if he do truely repent him of his ſins, and ſtedfaſtlye beeleue that Jeſus Chryſte hathe ſuffred death vpon the croſſe for him, and ſhed his bloude for his redemptiõ, earneſtlye remembrynge the benefytes he hath thereby, and geuinge him hartie thankes therefore, he doeth eate and drynke the bodye and bloude of our ſauiour chryſte profitable to his ſoules healthe, although he doe not receyue the Sacramente wyth his mouth.

When the ſicke perſon is viſited, & receyueth the holye Communion all at one tyme, then the prieſt for more expediciõ ſhal cut of the fourme of the viſitacion at ỳ pſalm In the O Lorde haue I put mi truſte: and go ſtrayght to the Commmunion.

In the time of plague, ſweat, or ſuch other lyke contagious tymes of ſickenes, or dyſeaſes, when none of the paryſhe or neyghboures can bee gotten to communicate wyth the ſicke in theyr houſes, for feare of the infeccyon vppon ſpeciall requeſt of the dyſeaſed, the Miniſter maye alonelye communicate wyth hym.

¶ The order for the burial of the deade.

The Prieſte meetynge the corps at the church ſtyle ſhall ſaye: or els the Prieſtes and Clerkes ſhall ſynge, and ſoo go eyther vnto the Church, or towardes the graue.

I Am the reſurrectyon and the lyfe (ſayeth the Lorde) he that beleueth in mee, yea thoughe he were deade, yet ſhall he lyue. And whoſoeuer lyueth and beeleueth in me: ſhall not dye for euer. Iohn. xi.

Iob.xix. I Know that my redemer liueth, & that I shall ryse out of the earth in the laste daye, and shalbe couered againe wyth my skynne, and shall see Godde in my flesh: yea, and my selfe shal beholde him, not wyth other, but wyth the same eyes.

1.Ti.vi. We brought nothyng into this woorlde, neyther may we cary any thyng out of Iob.i. this worlde. The Lorde geueth, and the Lorde taketh awaye. Euen as it hathe pleased the Lord, so commeth thinges to passe: blessed be the name of the Lord.

When they come to the graue, whiles the corps is made readye to be layde into the earthe, the Priest shal say, or the Priest and Clerkes shall synge.

Iob.ix. Man that is borne of a woman, hath but a shorte tyme to lyue, and is full of mysery, he commeth vp and is cut downe lyke a floure: he flyeth as it wer a shadowe, and neuer contynueth in one staye. In the middeste of lyfe wee bee in deathe: of whome may we seke for succour but of thee. O lord wyche for our synnes iustly arte displeased: yet O Lorde God moste holye, O Lord most myghtie, O holye and mooste mercifull sauioure, deliuer vs not into the bitter paynes of eternall deathe. Thou knowest lorde the secretes of oure hartes, shut not vp thy mercifull eyes to our prayers: But spare vs Lord most holy, O God most myghty. O holy and mercifull sauyour, thou mooste worthy iudge eternall nall, suffer vs not at our last houre for anye paynes of deathe, to fall from thee.

Then whyle the earthe shall be caste vppon the bodye by some standynge by the Preeste shall saye.

FOrasmuche as it hath pleased almyghtye God of his great mercy to take vnto hym selfe the soule of our deare brother here departed: we therefore committe his body to the ground, earth, to earthe, asshes to asshes, dulte to dust, in sure and certayne hope of resurrectyon to eternall lyfe, through oure Lorde Jesus Chryste, who shall chaunge oure vyle bodye, that it maye be lyke to his glorious bodye, accordinge to the myghtye workinge, whereby he is able to subdue al thynges to him selfe.

Then shalbe sayde or songe.

I Heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me: wryte from henceforth, blessed are the deade whyche dye in the Lord. Euen so saythe the spirite, that they reste frome theyr labours.

Then shal folowe this lesson taken out of the. xv. Chapter to the Corynthyans, the fyrste Epistle.

CHryste is risen from the deade, and becommeth the fyrst frutes of them that slepe. For bi a mã came death and by a man came the resurrectiõ of the dead. For as by Adam al dye: euen so by Chryst shal al be made alyue, but euerye manne in his owne order. The fyrste is Chrystes at his comming. Then cometh the ende, when he hathe delyuered vppe the kyngdome to God the father, when he hathe putte downe all rule and all aucthorytye and power. For he muste reygne tyll he hathe put all hys enemyes vnder his fete. The laste enemie that shalbe destroyed is deathe. For he hathe put al thynges vnder his feete. But when he sayeth, all thynges are put vnder him, it is manifeste that he is excepted, whyche dyd put all thynges vnder him. When al thynges are subdued vnto him, then shal the sonne also hym selfe be subiecte vnto him that put all thynges vnder him, that god may be al in al. Els what do they whyche are baptised ouer the dead, yf the deade rise not at all? Why are they then baptised ouer them? yea, & why stand we alwaythē in ieopardi? by our reioysinge whiche I haue in Chryst Jesu our lord, I dye dayly. That I haue soughte with beastes at Ephesus after the maner of menne. what auauntageth it me, yf the deade ryse not agayne? Let vs eat and drynke, for to morowe wee shal dye. Be not ye deceyued: euyl wordes corrupte good maners. Awake truelye out of sleepe, and synne not. For some haue not the knoweledge of God. I speake this to youre shame. But some man wyll saye: howe aryse the deade? With what body shal they come? Thou foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened except it dye. And what sowest thou? thou sowest not that bodye that shall bee, but bare corne, as of wheate or some other: but god geueth it a bodye at his pleasure, to euerye sede his owne body. All flesh is not one maner of flesshe, but ther is one maner of flesshe of men, and other maner of fleashe of beastes, and other of fyshes, another of byrdes. There are also celestiall bodyes, & there are bodyes terrestial. But the glory of the celestial is one, and the glorye of the terrestiall is another. There is one maner glorye of the sunne, & another glorye of the moone, & another glorye of the starres. For one starre differeth frome another in glorye: so is the resurrection of the deade. It is sowen in corrupcion, it ryseth agayne in incorruptyon. It is sowen in dishonoure, it ryseth agayne in honoure. It is sowen in weakenes, it ryseth agayne in power. It is sowen a naturall bodye, it riseth agayne a spirituall bodye. Ther is a natural bodye, and there is a spirituall body, as it is also wrytten: the fyrst man Adam was made a lyuyng soule, & the last Adam was made a quickeninge spirite. Howbeit, that is not fyrste whiche is spirituall, but that whyche is naturall, & then that whiche is spirituall. The fyrst man is of the earthe, earthye. The seconde man is the Lord from heuen heauenly. As is the earthye, such are they that bee earthye. And is the heauenlye, suche are they that are heauenly. And as we haue borne the Image of the earthye, soo shall wee beare the Image of the heauenly. This say I brethren, that flesh and bloud cannot inherite the kingdom of god, neither doth corrupcion inherite vncorruption. Behold, I shew you a misterye. We shall not all slepe: but we shal all be chaunged, & that in moment, in the twinklynge of an eie bi the last trumpe. For the trũpe shal blow and the deade shal rise incorruptible, and we shalbe chaunged. For this corruptible must putte on incor-ruption, and this moztall muſt put on immoztalitie. When thys cozruptible hath put on incozruption, and thys moztall hath put on immoztalytye: then ſhalbe bzoughte to paſſe the ſayinge that is wzytten. Death is ſwalowed vppe in vyctozye. Death where is thy ſtyng? Hell where is thy vyctozye: The ſting of death is ſinne: and the ſtrength of ſynne is the lawe. But thankes be vnto GOD, whych hath geuen vs victozy thzough oure Lozde Jeſus Chziſte. Therefoze my deare bzethzen, be ye ſtedefaſt and vnmoueable, alwayes ryche in the wozke of the Lozde, fozaſmuch as ye knowe howe that your labour is not in vayne in the Lozde.

The Leſſon ended, the Prieſt ſhall ſaye.

Lozde haue mercy vpon vs.
Chzyſt haue mercy vpon vs.
Lozde haue mercy vpon vs.
Our father which art in heauen.
And leade vs not into temptation.

But delyuer vs from euyll. Amen.

The Prieſt.

maye please thee of thy gracyous goodnes, shortly to accomplyshe the number of thine electe, and to haste thy kyngedome, that we wyth this oure brother, and all other, departed in the trewe fayethe of thy holy name, maye haue our perfecte consummacion and blysse, bothe in bodye and soule, in thy eternal and euerlasting glorye. Amen.

¶ The Collecte.

Mercyful GOD, the father of oure lorde Jesus Chryste, who is the resurreccion and the lyfe, in whome who soo euer beeleueth, shall lyue thoughe he dye. And who so euer liueth and beeleueth in hym shall not dye eternallye: who also taughte vs (by his holye apostle Paule) not to be sorye as men without hope for them that slepe in him: we meekelye beseech thee (O father) to rayse vs frome the deathe of synne, vnto the lyfe of ryghteousnes: that when wee shall departe thys lyfe, wee maye reste in him, as oure hope is, this oure brother doeth: and that at the generall resurrection in the laste daye, wee maye bee founde acceptable in thy syghte, and receaue that blessinge whych thy well beloued sonne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare thee, sayinge: Come ye blessed chyldren of my father, receyue the kyngedome prepared for you from the beginninge of the worlde. Graunte thys we beseech the O mercifull father, thrōugh Jesus Chryst our mediatour and redemer. Amen.

Cast away frome you all your vngodlynes that ye haue done, make you new heartes & a new spirite: wherefore wyll ye dye, O ye house of Israell: seynge that I haue no pleasure in the deathe of hym that dyeth (sayeth the Lord God.) Turne you then & you shal lyue. Although we haue synned, yet haue wee an advocate wyth the father, Jesus Chryst the ryghteous: & he it is that obtayneth grace for oure synnes, for he was wounded for oure offences, & smytted for oure wyckednes, Let vs therefore returne vnto hym, who is the mercifull receauer of all true penitente sinners, assuring our selfe, that he is redy to receyue vs, and moost wyllyng to pardon vs, yf we come to hym wyth saythefull repentaunce: If we wyll submitte oure selues vnto hym, and frome hencefoorthe walke in his wayes. If wee wyll take his easy yoke & light burden vpon vs, to folow him in lowlynes, pacyence, and charitye, & be ordred by the gouernaunce of his holy spirit, seking alwayes his glorye, and seruing hym duely in our vocatyon wyth thankes geuing, This yf we doe, Chryst wil delyuer vs from the curse of the lawe, and from the extreme malediction whych shall light vpon them y shalbe set on the lefte hande, & he wyl set vs on his right hande, and geue vs the blessed benediction of his father, commaundinge vs to take possession of his gloryous kingdom, vnto the whyche he bouchsafe to bryng vs all, for his infinite mercye. Miserere mei deus Psal.li.

HAue mercy vpon me (O God) after thy great goodnesse: accordynge to the multytude of thy mercyes, doo away myne offences.

Wash me throughly fro my wyckednesse, and clense me frō my syn.

For I knowledge my faultes: and my synne is euer before me.

Agaynste the onelye haue I synned and done this euyll in thy syght: that thou myghtest be iustifyed in thy saying, and cleare when thou arte iudged.

Beholde I was shapen in wickednes: and in synne hath my mother conceiued me.

But loe, thou requirest truth in inwarde parties: and shalt make me to vnderstande wysedome secretelye.

Thou shalt purge me with Isope, and I shalbe cleane: thou shalt washe me, and I shalbe whyter then snowe.

Thou shalt make me heare of ioye and gladnes: that ỹ bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

Turne thy face from my synnes, and put oute al my misdedes.

Make me a cleane hearte (O GOD) and renue a ryght spirite within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spyryte from me.

O geue me the comforte of thy helpe agayne: and stablyshe me with thy free spirite.

Then shall I teache thy wayes vnto the wycked, and synners shalbe conuerted vnto thee.

Delyuer

Deliuer me from bloudgiltynesse (O God) thou that arte the GOD of my healthe: and my tongue shall synge of thy ryghteousnes.

Thou shalt open mi lippes (O Lord:) my mouth shal shew thy prayse.

For thou desirest no sacrifice, els would I geue it thee: but thou delytest not in burnte offerynges.

The sacrifyce of God is a troubled spirite: a broken and a contrite hearte (O God) shalte thou not despyse.

O be fauourable & gracious vnto Sion: builde thou the walles of Hierusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifyce of ryghteousnes, with the burnte offerynges and oblacion: then shall they offer youuge bullockes vpon thine Altare.

Glorye be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the beginninge, is now. &c. Amen.

Lorde haue mercye vpon vs.

Chryst haue mercy vpon vs.

Lorde haue mercy vpon vs.

Our father whyche arte in heauen. &c.

And leade vs not into temptacion.

Aunswere.

But deliuer vs from euyll. Amen.

Minister.

O Lorde saue thy seruauntes.

Aunswere.

Whyche put theyr truste in thee.

Minister.

Sende vnto them helpe from aboue.

Minister.

Helpe vs O God our sauiour.

Answere.

And for the glorie of thy names sake delyuer vs, be mercifull vnto vs synners, for thy names sake.

Minister.

O Lorde heare our prayers.

Answere.

And let our crye come vnto thee.

Let vs praye.

O Lord we beseche thee mercifully heare our prayers, and spare all those whiche confesse theyr synnes to thee, that they (whose consciences by synne are accused) by thy mercyfull pardon maye be absolued, through Chryste our Lorde. Amen.

O Moste myghtye God and mercyfull father, whyche haste compassyon of all men, and hatest nothynge that thou hast made: whyche wouldest not the deathe of a synner, but that he shoulde rather tourne frome synne, and bee saued: mercifully forgeue vs our trespasses, receiue & comfort vs, which be grieued and weried with the burthen of our synne. Thy propertye is to haue mercy to the onely it apperteineth to forgeue sinnes: spare vs therefore good lorde, spare thy people whome thou hast redemed. Enter not into iudgemẽt wyth thy seruauntes, whych be vile earth, and miserable sinners: but so turne thi yze from vs, which mekely knowe ledge knowledge our vylenes, and truelye repente vs of our faultes: so make hast to heelpe vs in this woꝛld that we maye euer liue with thee, in the woꝛlde to come: thꝛoughe Jesus Chꝛyste ours Loꝛde. Amen.

Then shall the people saye thys that folowyth, after the Minister.

TUrne thou vs, O good LORDE and so shal we be turned: bee fauourable (O LORDE) bee fauourable to thy people, whyche turne to thee, in weppynge, fastinge, and prayinge: foꝛ thou arte a mercifull GOD, full of compassion, longe sufferynge, and of a greate pietie. Thou spareste when wee deserue punishemente, and in thy wꝛathe thynkeste vppon mercye. Spare thy people good LORDE, spare them, and let not thy heritage be bꝛoughte to confusion, heare vs O loꝛd foꝛ thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercyes loke vpon. vs.

BLeſſed is that man that hathe not walked in the counſell of the vngodlie: nor ſtande in the way of ſinners and hathe not ſyt in the ſeate of the ſcornefull. Morning praier.

But his delyght is in the law of the Lorde: and in his lawe wyll he exerciſe hym ſelfe daye and nyghte.

And he ſhalbe lyke a tree planted by the water ſyde: that wyl bryngе forth his fruyte in due ſeaſon

His leafe alſo ſhall not wyther: and loke whatſoeuer he doeth, it ſhal proſper.

As for the vngodlye, it is not ſo wyth them: but they are lyke the chaffe which the wynd ſcattereth awaye from the face of the earth.

Therfore the vngodly ſhall not be able to ſtand in the iudgemente: neyther the ſynners in the congregacion of the ryghteous.

But the Lorde knoweth the way of the ryghteous: and the way of the vngodly ſhall peryſhe.

Quare fremuerunt gentes. pſalm.ij.

Hy do the Heathen so furiouselye rage together:and whye do the people ymagine a vayne thynge.

The kynges of the earth stande vp, and the rulers take counsel together:a gaynste the Lorde, and againste his annointed.

Let vs breake theyr bandes a sunder:and cast awaye theyr cordes from vs.

He that dwelleth in heauen shall laughe them to scorne:the lorde shal haue them in derysion.

Then shall he speake to them in his wrathe:and vexe them in his sore displeasure.

Yet haue I set my kynge:vppon my holie hyll of Sion.

I wyll preach the law, whereof the Lord hath sayde vnto me:thou arte my sonne, this daye haue I begotten thee.

Desyre of me, and I shall geue thee the heathen for thyne enheritaunce: and the vttermoste part of the earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt bruise them wyth a rod of yron:and breake them in pieces lyke a potters vessell.

Be wyse nowe therefore, O ye kynges:be learned ye that are iudges of the earthe.

Serue the lord in feare: and reioyce vnto hym wyth reuerence.

Kisse the sonne lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the ryght way, if hys wrathe be kindeled, yea but a litle:blessed are all they that put theyr truste in him.

LOrde howe are they encreaſed that trouble me: many are they that ryſe agaynſte me.

Many one there be that ſaye of my ſoule: there is no helpe for hym in (hys) GOD.

But thou O lorde arte my defender: thou arte my worſhyp and the lyfter vp of my heade.

I did call vpon the lord with my voice: and he heard me out of hys holye hyll.

I layed me downe and ſlept: and roſe vp again for the lord ſuſteined me.

I will not be afrayde of ten thouſandes of people: ỹ haue ſet thẽ ſelues againſt me round aboute.

Vp lorde and helpe me, O my GOD: for thou ſmiteſt all mine enemies vpon the cheke bone: thou hath broken the teeth of the vngodly.

Saluation belongeth vnto the Lorde: and thy bleſſinge is vpon the people.

O ye ſonnes of men howe longe wyl ye blaſpheme myne honoure: and haue ſuche pleaſure in vanitie and ſeeke after leaſynge?

Knowe this alſo, that the Lorde hath choſen to hymselfe the man that is godlye: when I call vpon the Lorde, he wyll heare me.

Stand in awe, and sinne not comen with your owne hearte, and in your chambre and be styll.

Offre the sacrifice of ryghteousnes: and putte your truste in the Lorde.

There be manye that wyll saye: who wil shewe vs any good.

LORD lyfte thou vp: the lyght of thy countenaunce vpon vs.

Thou hast putte gladnes in my heart: sence the time that their corne and wine (and oile) encreased.

I wil lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lorde onelye that makest me dwell in safetye.

Verba me auribus. Psal.v.

Ponder my wordes, O LORDE: consyder my meditation.

O herken thou vnto the voyce of my callynge: my king and my God, for vnto thee wyll I make my praier.

My voyce shalt thou heare betimes O lord: earlye in the mornynge wyll I directe my prayer vnto thee, and wyll loke vp.

For thou arte the God that hath no pleasure in wickednesse: neither shal any euil dwell with the.

Such as be folyshe, shall not stand in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

Thou shalt destroye them that speake leasinge: the Lorde wyl abhorre both the bloud thirstie and deceitfull deceytefull manne.

But as for me, I wyll come into thy house, euen vpon the multitude of thy mercye: and in thy feare wyll I worshyppe towarde thy holye temple.

Leade me, O lorde, in thy ryghteousnes, because of myne enemies: make thy waie playne before my face.

For there is no faythefulnes in his mouth: their inwarde partes are verye wyckednes.

Their throote is an open sepulchre: they flatter wyth their tongue.

Destroye thou theym, O God, let theym perysshe throughe their ymaginacyons: caste theym oute in the multitude of their vngodlines, for they haue rebelled agaynste thee.

And let all them that put their truste in thee reioyce: they shal euer be geuyng of thankes, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy name shall be ioyfull in thee.

For thou Lorde wylte geue thy blessynge vnto the ryghteous: and wyth thy fauourable kyndenes wylte thou defende hym, as wyth a shielde.

Domine ne in furore. Psalm.vi.

O Lorde, rebuke me not in thyne indignacion: neyther chasten me in thy displeasure. Euening praier.

Haue mercie vpon me, O lorde: for I am weake, O lorde, heale me, for my bones are vexed.

My soule is also sore troubled: but lorde howe longe wylte thou punishe me.

Turne thee, O lorde, and deliuer my soule: oh saue me for thy mercyes sake.

For in deathe no man remembreth the: and who wyll geue thee thankes in the pytte?

I am weary of my gronynge euery nyght wash I my bed: and water my couche wyth my teares.

My beauty is gone for verie trouble: and worne away because of all myne enemyes.

Away from me al ye that worke vanity: for the lorde hath heard the voyce of my weppynge.

The Lorde hath heard my peticyon: the Lorde wyl receyue my prayer.

All myne enemyes shalbe confounded and sore vexed: they shalbe tourned backe, and put to shame sodeynlye.

Domine deus meus. Psalm.vij.

O Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: saue me from al them that persecute me, and delyuer me.

Lest he deuour my soule lyke a lion and teare it in pieces: while there is none to helpe.

Oh Lorde my GOD, if I haue done anye suche thing: or yf there be any wyckednes in my handes.

If I haue rewarded euyl vnto him that dealte frendely wyth me: yea, I haue delyuered hym that wythout any cause is myne enemye.

Then let myne enemye persecute my soule, and take me: yea, let him tread my life down vpon the earth, and laye myne honoure in the dust.

Stande vp O lorde in thy wrathe, and lyfte vp thy selfe: because of the indygnacions of myne enemyes, aryse vp for me in the iudgemente that thou hast

haſte commaunded:

And ſo ſhall the congregaciō of the people come aboute thee: for theyr ſakes therefore, lyfte vp thy ſelfe agayne.

The Lorde ſhall iudge the people, geue ſentence wyth me, O Lorde: accordyng to my righteoulnes, and accordynge to the innocencye that is in me.

Oh let the wyckednes of the vngodlye come to an ende: but guide thou the iuſte.

For the ryghteous GOD: tryeth the verye heartes and reynes.

My helpe commethe of GOD: whyche preſerueth theym that are trewe of hearte.

God is a righteous iudge (ſtrong and pacient:) and God is prouoked euerye daye.

If a manne wyll not tourne, he wyll wheat his ſworde: he hath bent hys bowe, and made it redy.

Beholde he trauaileth wyth myſchiefe: he hath conceyued ſorow, and broughte forthe vngodlynes

Hee hathe grauen and dygged vp a pytte: and is fallen him ſelfe into the deſtruction that he made for other.

For his trauayle ſhal come vpon his own head: and his wyckednes ſhall fall vppon his own pate.

I wyll geue thankes vnto the lorde accordynge to his ryghteouſneſſe: and wyll prayſe the name of the Lorde the moſte hygheſte.

Domine dominus noſter. Pſalm. viii.

O Lorde

Lorde our gouernour, how excellēt is thy name in all the worlde: thou that haste sette thy glorye aboue the heauens.

Out of the mouth of verie babes and suckelinges hast thou ordeyned strength because of thyne enemyes: that thou myghtest styll the enemye & the auenger.

For I wil consider thy heauens, euen the worke of thy fyngers: the Mone and the starres whyche thou haste ordeined.

What is man that thou arte myndefull of hym: and the sonne of man that thou visitest hym:

Thou madest hym lower then the Aungelles: to crowne hym wyth glorye and worshyp.

Thou makeste hym to haue dominyon of the workes of thy handes: and thou haste put all thynges in subiection vnder his feete.

All shepe and oxen: yea, and all the beastes of the fyelde.

The foules of the ayre, and the fysshe of the sea: and whatsoeuer walketh throughe the pathes of the Seas.

O Lorde oure gouernoure: howe excellente is thy name in all the worlde.

Confitebor tibi. Psalme.ix.

Morning praier.

I wyll geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, wyth my whole hearte: I wyll speake of thy maruaylous woorkes.

I wyll be gladde, and reioyce in thee: yea, my songes wyll I make of thy name, O thou moste moſt hyeſt.

Whyle mine enemies are dziuen backe: they ſhal fall, and peryſhe at thy preſence.

For thou haſte mainteyned my ryghte and my cauſe: thou arte ſet in the throne that iudgeſt ryght

Thou haſte rebuked the Heathen, and deſtroied the vngodli: thou haſt put out theyr name for euer and euer.

O thou enemie, deſtructions are come to a perpetuall ende: euen as the cities whiche thou haſte deſtroyed, theyr memoryall is periſhed with them.

But the lord ſhall endure for euer: he hathe alſo prepared his ſeate for iudgement.

For he ſhall iudge the worlde in ryghteouſneſſe: and miniſter true iudgement vnto the people.

The lorde alſo will be a defence for the oppreſſed euen a refuge in due tyme of trouble.

And they that knowe thy name wyll put theyr truſte in thee: for thou lorde haſt neuer failed theim that ſeeke thee.

O praiſe the lord which dwelleth in Sion: ſhew the people of hys doynges.

For when he maketh inquiſition for bloud, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poore.

Haue mercye vppon me (O Lorde: conſydre the trouble whiche I ſuffre of them that hate me, thou that lyfteſt me vp from the gates of death.

That I maye ſhewe all thy prayſes within the portes of the daughter of Syon: I wyll reioyce in thy ſaluation.

The Heathen are ſunken downe in the pytte that that they made:in the same nette whych they hidde preuelye,is theyr owne foote taken.

The Lord is knowē to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in ẏ worke of his own hands.

The wycked shalbe turned vnto hell: and all the people that forgeat God.

For the poore shall not be alwaie forgotten:the paciēt abiding of the meke,shal not perysh for euer.

Up Lord and let not mā haue the vpper hand: let the Heathen bee iudged in thy syghte.

Put them in feare (O Lord:)that the Heathen maye knowe them selues to be but men.

Vt quid domine. Psalm.x.

Hy standest thou so farre of (O Lord:) and hidest thy face in the nedefull tyme of trouble?

The vngodlye for his owne luste doeth persecute the poore: let them bee takē in the crafty wilines that thei haue ymagined

For the vnoodlye hathe made boast of his owne heartes desyre: and speaketh good of the couetous (whom God abhorreth.

The vngodlye is soo proude, that he careth not for God:neyther is God in all hys thoughtes.

His waies are alwaye greuouse, thy iudgementes are far aboue out of his sight: and therefore defyeth he all his enemyes.

For he hath sayde in his hearte:tushe, I shal neuer be cast downe, there shal no harme happen vnto me.

His

His mouthe is full of cursyng, and deseeyte and fraude: vnder his tongue is vngodlynesse and vanitye.

He sytteth lurkynge in the theuyshe corners of the streates: and pryuilye in his lurkynge dennes doeth he murther the innocente, his eyes are set agaynste the poore.

For he lyeth waytinge secretelye, euen as a Lyon lurketh he in his denne: that he may rauyshe the poore.

He doeth rauysh the poore: when he getteth him into his nette.

He falleth downe and humbleth hym selfe: that the congregacion of the pore may fal into the hand of his captaynes.

He hath sayde in his hearte, tushe, God hath forgotten: he hideth awaye his face, and he wyll neuer see it.

Aryse, O Lorde God: and lyfte vp thyne hande forget not the poore.

Wherfore should the wycked blaspheme God: whyle he doeth saye in his hearte: tushe, thou God carest not for it.

Surelye thou haste seene it: for thou beholdeste vngodlynes and wronge.

That thou mayst take the matter into thy hand the poore commytteth him selfe vnto thee: for thou arte the helper of the frendelesse.

Breake thou the power of the vngoly and malycious: take away his vngodlines, and thou shalt fynde none.

The Lorde is kynge for euer and euer: and the heathen are perysshed oute of the lande.

Heathen

Lorde, thou haste heard the desyre of the poore: thou preparest theyr hearte, and thyne eare harkened thereto.

To helpe the fatherlesse and poore vnto theyr ryghte: that the manne of the yearthe bee no moore exalted agaynst them.

In domino confido. Psalm.xi.

IN the Lorde put I my truste, how say yea then to my soule: that she shoulde flye as a bryde vnto the hyll.

For loe, the vngodlye bende theyr bow, and make readie theyr arrowes wythin the quiuer: that they may pryuely shoote at them, whyche are trewe of hearte.

For the foundacions wyll bee caste downe: and what hathe the ryghteous done.

The lorde is in his holye Temple: the Lordes seate is in heauen.

His eyes consider the poore: and his eye liddes trieth the chyldren of men.

The lorde alloweth the ryghteous: but the vngodlye and hym that delyghteth in wyckednesse doeth his soule abhorre.

Vppon the vngodlye he shall rayne snares, fyre and brymstone: storme and tempeste, thys shall bee theyr portion to dryncke.

For the ryghteous lorde loueth ryghteousnes: his countenaunce wil behold the thing that is iust Saluum me fac domine. Psal.xii.

Helpe

HElpe me Lorde, for there is not one Godly mã left: for the faythful are minished from among the chyldren of men. They talke of vanitye, euerye one with his neyghbour: they doe but flatter w they: lyppes, and dissemble in they: double hearte. Euening praier.

The lorde shall roote oute al deceytefull lippes: and the tongue that speaketh proude thynges.

Whych haue sayde: wyth oure tongue wyll we preuayle: we are they that ought to speake, who is lorde ouer vs.

Nowe for the comforteles troubles sake of the nedye: and because of the depe syghinge of the pore.

I wyll vp (sayeth the Lord) and wyl helpe euerye one: from hym that swelleth agaynst hym, and wyll set them at reste.

The wordes of the Lorde are pure wordes, euen as the syluer: whyche frome the earthe is tryed and purified seuen tymes in the fyre.

Thou shalt keye them O Lorde: thou shalt preserue hym from this generacion for euer.

The vngodlye walke on euerye side, when they are exalted: the chyldren of men are put to rebuke.

Vsquequo domine. Psalm.xiij.

HOw longe wylte thou forgeat me O Lorde, for euer: howe longe wilte thou hide thy face from me?

Howe longe shall I seeke counsayle in my soule and bee so vexed in my hearte: howe longe shall myne myne enemies triumphe ouer me.

Consider and here me, O Lord my god: lyghten myne eyes, that I slepe in death.

Least myne enemye saye, I haue preuayled agaynst hym: for yf I be cast downe, they that trouble me wyll reioyce at it.

But my truste is in thy mercye: and my hearte is ioyfull in thy saluation.

I wyll synge of the Lorde, because he hath dealt so louyngly with me: yea I wyll prayse the name of the Lorde the most hyghest.

Dixit incipiens. Psa.xiiij

THe foole hath sayde in his hearte: there is no GOD.

They are corrupte, and become abhomynable in their doynges: there is not one that doeth good, no not one.

The Lord loked downe from heauen vpon the chyldren of men: to see if there were any that wold vnderstande, and seke after God.

But they are all gone oute of the waye, they are altogether become abhominable: there is none that doth good, no not one.

Their throte is an open sepulchre, wyth theyr tongues they haue deceaued: the poyson of aspes is vnder theyr lyppes.

Theyr mouth is full of cursynge and bytternes theyr feete are swyfte to shedde bloude.

Destruction and vnhappynes is in theyr waies and the way of peace haue they not knowen: there is no feare of God before theyr eyes.

is

Haue they no knowledge that they are all suche workers of mischyfe: eatynge vppe my people as it were breade.

And call not vpon the Lorde: there were they brought in greate feare (euen where no feare was) for god is the generation of the ryghteous.

As for you, ye haue made a mocke at the counsayle of the poore: because he putteth hys truste in the Lorde.

Who shall geue saluation vnto Israell oute of Syon: when the Lorde turneth the captyuytye of his people, then shall Jacob reioyce, & Israel shalbe glade.

Domine quis habitabit. psal.xv.

Euen he that leadeth an vncorrupt life: and doeth the thing which is right and speaketh the truth from his heart.

He that hathe vsed no deceyte in his tongue, nor done euyll to his neyghbours: and hath not slaundered his neyghbours.

He that setteth not by him selfe, but is lowelye in his owne eyes: and maketh muche of them that feare the lorde.

He that sweareth vnto his neyghboure and disapointeth him not: though it wer to his hinderaũce

He that hath not geuen his money vpon vsury: nor taken reward agaynst the innocente.

O my ſoule, thou haſte ſayde vnto the Lorde: thou art my god, my goodes are nothing vnto the.

All my delighte are vpon the Sayntes that are in the earthe: and vpon ſuch as excell in vertue.

But they that runne after another GOD: ſhall haue great trouble.

Their drinke offerynges of bloud wyll not I offer, neyther make mention of their names wythin my lyppes.

The lord him ſelfe is the portion of myne enheritaunce and of my cup: thou ſhalt maintaine my lot.

The lot is fallen vnto me in a fayre grounde, yea I haue a goodly heritage.

I wyl thanke the lord for geuing me warnynge my reynes alſo chaſten me in the night ſeaſon.

I haue ſet God alwayes before me: for he is on my ryght hand, therefore I ſhall not fall.

Wherefore my heart was glade, and my glorye reioyſed: my fleſhe alſo ſhall reſt in hope.

For why? thou ſhalte not leaue my ſoule in hell: neyther ſhalte thou ſuffer thy holye one to ſe corruption.

Thou ſhalt ſhewe me the path of lyfe, in thy preſence is the fulues of ioye: and at thy ryghte hande there is pleaſure for euermore.

Exaudi domine iuſtitiam. Pſal.xvij.

Heare

HEare the ryghte, O Lord, consider my complaynt: and harken vnto my prayer that goeth not oute of fayned lyppes.

Let my sentence com forth frō thy presēce: & let thy eyes loke vpō the thing that is equal.

Thou hast proued and visited myne hart in the nyght season, thou hast tryed me, and shalt fynd no wyckednes in me: for I am vtterlye purposed that my mouthe shall not offende.

Because of mens woorkes that are done against the wordes of thy lippes: I haue kept me from the wayes of the destroyer.

O holde thou vp my goynges in thy pathes: that my foote steppes slyppe not.

I haue called vnto thee, O God, for thou shalte heare me: incline thyne eare to me, and harken vnto my wordes.

Shewe thy marueylous louinge kindnes, thou that arte the sauiour of them that trust in the: from suche as resyste thy ryghte hande.

Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hide me vnder the shadowe of thy wynges.

From the vngodlye that trouble me: myne enemyes compasse me rounde aboute, to take awaye my soule.

They are inclosed in theyr own fatte: and theyr mouthe speaketh proude thynges.

They lye waytinge in oure waye one euerye syde: tourninge theyr eyes downe to the grounde.

Lyke as a Lyon that is gredy of hys pray: and as it were a Lyons whelpe lurkynge in secrete places

Up Lorde, dysapoynt hym and cast him downe delyuer my soule frome the vngodlye: whyche is a sworde of thyne.

From the men of thy hande, O Lorde, frome the men I saye, and from the euyll worlde: which haue theyr porcion in this lyfe, whose bellyes thou fyllest wyth thy hidde treasure.

They haue chyldren at theyr desyre: and leaue the reste of theyr substaunce for theyr babes.

But as for me, I wyll beholde thy presence in ryghteousnes: and when I awake vppe after thy lykenesse, I shall be satisfied wyth it.

Diligam te domine. Psalme xviii.

Eueninge praier.

I wyll loue thee, O lorde, my strengthe the lorde is my stonye rocke and my defence: my sauiour, my God, & my myghte in whome I wyl truste, my buckeler, the horne also of my saluacion, and refuge.

I wyll call vppon the lorde whych is worthy to be praysed: so shall I bee safe fro my enemyes.

The sorowes of deathe compassed mee: and the ouerflowynges of vngodlynes made me afrayde.

The paynes of hel came about me: the snares of deathe ouertoke me.

In my trouble wyll I call vppon the lorde: and complayne vnto my God.

So shall hee heare my voyce oute of hys holie Temple: and my complaynte shall comme beefore him, it shall enter euen into his eares.

The earth trembled and quaked, the very foundacions

dacions also of the hylles shoke and were remoued. because he was wroth.

There wente a smoke oute of his presence: and a consumynge fyre out of hys mouthe, soo that coles were kyndled at it.

He bowed the heauens also and came down: and it was darke vnder his feete.

He rode vppon the Cherubines and did flye: hee came flyinge vppon the wynges of the wynde.

He made darkenes his secrete place: his pauilion round aboute hym, wyth darke water & thicke cloudes to couer hym.

At the bryghtenesse of his presence, his cloudes remoued: hayle stones, and cooles of fyre.

The Lord also thundred out of heauen: and the hyghest gaue his thunder, hayle stones and cooles of fyre.

He sente oute his arowes and scatered them: he caste forthe lyghtninges, and destroyed them.

The springes of waters were sene: and the foũdacyons of the rounde worlde were discouered at thy chiding, O Lorde, at the blastyng of the breath of thy displeasure.

He shall sende downe from the hygh to fetch me: and shal take me oute of many waters.

He shall delyuer me from my strongest enemye, and from thẽ whych hate me: for they are to mighty for me.

They preuented mee in the daye of my trouble: but the Lorde was my vpholder.

He broughte me forthe, also into a place of lyberty: he broughte me forth, euen beecause he had a fauor vnto me.

The lord shall reward me after my righteous dealyng: accordinge to the clennes of my handes, shall he recompence me.

Because I haue kepte the wayes of the Lorde: and haue not forsakē my God as the wycked doeth

For I haue an eye vnto all hys lawes: and wyll not cast out hys commaundementes from me.

I was also uncorrupt before him: and eschewed myne owne wyckednesse.

Therefore shall the Lorde reward me after my ryghteous dealynge: and accordynge vnto the clennes of my handes in his eye sighte.

With the holy thou shalt be holy: & with a perfecte man thou shalt be perfecte.

With the clene, thou shalte be cleane: and wyth the frowarde thou shalt learne frowardnes.

For thou shalt saue the people that are in aduersitie, & shall bring down the high lokes of ỳ proud.

Thou also shalt light my Candle: the Lorde my God shall make my darkenes to be lyght.

For in the I shal discomforte an host of men: and wyth the helpe of my god, I shall leape ouer ỳ wal.

The way of God is an vndefiled way, the word of the lorde also is tried in the fier: he is the defender of all them that put their truste in hym.

For who is GOD but the lorde? or who hathe any strength: except our GOD.

It is GOD that gyrdeth me wyth strengthe of warre: and maketh my way perfecte.

He maketh my fete lyke hartes fete; and setteth me vp on hygh.

Hee teacheth my handes to fyghte : and myne armes shall breake euen a bowe of steele.

Thou haste geuen me the defence of thy saluacion: thy ryghte hande also shal holde me vppe, and thy louynge correction shall make me greate.

Thou shalte make roume ynoughe vnder mee for to go: that my fote steppes shall not slyde.

I wyll folowe vppon myne enemyes and ouertake theym: neyther wyll I tourne agayne, tyll I haue destroyed them.

I wyll smyte theym, that they shall not be hable to stande but fall vnder my feete.

Thou haste gyrded me wyth strengthe vnto the battayle: thou shalte throwe downe myne enemies vnder me.

Thou haste made myne enemyes also to tourne their backes vpon me: and I shall destroye theym that hate me.

They shall crye, but there shalbee none to helpe them: yea, euen vnto the Lorde shall they crye, but he shal not heare theym.

I wyll beate them as small as the dust before the wind: I wil cast them out as the clay in the stretes

Thou shalt deliuer me frō ỹ striuings of the people: & thou shalte make me the head of the heathen.

A people whome I haue not knowen shall serue me.

Assoone as they heare of me, they shall obey me: but the straunge chyldren shall dissemble wyth me

The straunge chyldren shall fayle; and be afraid out of their prysons.

The Lorde lyueth, and blessed bee my stronge helper

helper, and prayſed bee the God of my ſaluacion.

Euen the God, which ſeeth that I be aduenged: and ſubdueth the people vnto me.

It is he that deliuereth me from my (cruel) enemyes, and ſetteth me vp aboue myne aduerſaryes: thou ſhalt ryddе me from the wycked man.

For this cauſe I wyl geue thankes vnto thee O Lorde among the Gentiles: and ſynge prayſes vnto thy name.

Greate proſperitye geueth hee vnto hys kyng: and ſheweth louyng kindnes vnto Dauyd his annoynted, and vnto hys ſeede for euermore.

Celi enarrant gloriam dei. Pſalm.xix.

Morning praier.

The heauens declare the glorye of God: and the fyrmamente ſheweth his handye worke.

One daye telleth another: and one nyghte certifieth another.

There is neyther ſpeche nor language: but their voyces are hearde amonge them.

Their ſounde is gone oute into all landes: and their wordes into the endes of the worlde.

In theym hathe he ſet a tabernacle for the ſunne: whyche cometh forth as a brydegrome oute of hys chamber, and reioyſeth as a gyaunte to runne hys courſe.

It goeth forthe from the vttermoſte parte of the heauē and runneth about vnto the end of it againe and there is nothynge hyd from the heate thereof.

The lawe of the LORD is an vndefyled lawe conuer-

conuertynge the soule:the testimonye of the Lorde is sure, and geueth wysedome vnto the symple.

The statutes of the lord are ryghte and reioyce the hearte:the commaundemente of the Lorde is pure and geueth lyghte vnto the eyes.

The feare of the Lorde is cleane,and endureth forеuer:the iudgementes ofthe Lorde are trewe, and ryghteous al together.

More to be desyred are they then golde,yea then much fyne gold:sweter also then the honie and the honye combe.

Moreouer,by them is thi seruaunt taughte:and in keepynge of them there is greate rewarde.

Who can tel howe ofte he offendeth:- O cleanse thou me from my secret faultes.

Kepe thy seruaunte also from presumpteous synnes least they get dominion ouer me:soo shall I be vndefyled,and innocente frome the greate offence.

Let the wordes of my mouth, and the meditacion of my hearte:be (alwaie) acceptable in thy sight.

O Lorde:my strength and my redemer.

Exaudiat te dominus. Psal.xx.

THe Lorde heare thee in the daye of trouble:the name of the GOD of Jacob defende thee.

Sende thee helpe frome the sanctuarye:and strengthe thee oute of Syon.

Remember all thy offerynges: and accepte thy brente sacrifyce.

Graunte thee thy heartes desyre: and fulfyll all thy mynde.

We wyll reioyce in thy saluacyon, and triumph in the name of the Lorde oure God: the Lord persourme al thy petecions.

Now know I that the Lord helpeth his annioted, and wyl heare him from his holy heauen: euen wyth the wholsome strengthe of his ryghte hand.

Some put theyr truste in charretes, and some in horses: but wee wyll remember the name of the Lorde our God.

They are broughte down and fallen: but we are rysen and stande vpryghte.

Saue Lorde and heare vs: O kynge of heauen when we call (vpon thee.)

Domine in virtute tua. Psalm.xxi.

THe kynge shall reioyce in thy strengthe O Lorde: exceedynge gladde shall he bee of thy saluacion.

Thou haste geuen hym his hartes desire: & hast not denied him the request of hys lippes

For thou shalte preuente him wyth the blessings of goodnes: and shalt set a crowne of pure gold vpon his heade.

He asked lyfe of thee, and thou gauest him a long lyfe: euen for euer and euer.

His honour is great in thy saluacion: glory and greate worshyppe shalte thou laye vpon hym.

For thou shalt geue him euerlastingfilicity: and make hym glad wyth the ioy of thy countenaunce.

And why? because the kinge putteth his truste in the lord: and in the mercie of the moste hyest, he shal not not myscary.

All thine enemies shall feele thy hand: thy right hande shall fynde out theym that hate thee.

Thou shalt make them like a fyery ouen in time of thy wrath: the lorde shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fyre shal consume them.

Their frute shalte thou roote oute of the earthe: and their sede from among the chyldren of men.

For they entended myschife againste thee: and ymagined suche a deuise, as they are not hable to performe.

Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strynges of thy bowe shalte thou make readye agaynst the face of them.

Be thou exalted lord, in thy owne strength: soo wyll we synge and prayse thy power.

Deus deus meus. Psal. xxii.

My God, my God (loke vppon me, why haste thou forsaken me: and arte so farre from my health, & from the wordes of my complaint.

O my GOD, I cry in the daye tyme, but thou heareste not: & in the night season also I take no rest.

And thou contynuest holye: O thou worship of Israell.

Our fathers hoped in thee, they trusted in thee: and thou diddest delyuer them.

They called vppon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worme and no man, a very scorne of men, and the outcast of the people.

All they that se me, laugh me to scorne: thei shote oute theyr lippes, and shake the heade, sayinge.

He trusted in God that he woulde deliuer him: let him delyuer hym, yf he wyll haue hym.

But thou arte he that tooke me oute of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers brestes.

I haue beene lefte vnto thee euer sence I was borne: thou art my God euē frō my mothers wōbe

O goe not from me, for trouble is hard at hād: and there is none to helpe me.

Manye oxen are come aboute mee: fat bulles of Basan close me in euerye syde.

They gape vpon me wyth theyr mouthes: as it were a raumpynge and roaryng lyon.

I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my heart also in the myddes of my bodye, is euen lyke meltynge waxe.

My strengthe is dryed vp lyke a potsherde and my tongue cleueth to my gummes: and thou shalte brynge me into the duste of deathe.

For (manye) dogges are come aboute mee: and the counsel of the wycked layeth siege agaynst me.

They pearced my handes and my feete: I maye tell all my bones, they stande starynge and lokinge vpon me.

They parte my garmentes amonge theim: and cast lottes vpon my vesture.

But be not thou farre frō me O Lord: thou art my succour, hast the to helpe me.

Delyuer my soule from the sweorde: my dearlynge from the power of the dogge.

Saue

Saue me from the Liõs mouth: thou hast hard me also from among the hornes of the Unicornes.

I will declare thy name vnto my brethren : in the myddes of the congregacion wyl I praise thee.

O prayse the Lorde ye that feare him, magnifye hym all ye of the sede of Jacob :and feare hym al ye seede of Israell.

For he hathe not despysed nor abhorred the low estate of the poore, he hath not hidde his face from hym: but when he called vnto him , he hearde hym.

My praise is of thee in the greate congregacion: my vowes wyll I perfourme in the syght of them that feare hym.

The poore shal eate and bee satisfyed, they that seke after the lorde shal prayse hym: your heart shal lyue for euer.

All the endes of the worlde shal remember them selues, and bee tourned vnto the Lorde: and all the kynredes of the nacyons shal worshyp before hym.

For the kyngedome is the Lordes: and he is the gouernour among the people.

All suche as bee fatte vpon earth: haue eaten and worshypped.

All they that go downe into the dust , shal kneele before him: & no mã hath quickened his own soule.

My seede shall serue hym : they shalbee counted vnto the Lorde for a generacion.

They shall come, and the heauens shall declare hys ryghteoulnes: vnto a people that shalbe borne whome the Lorde hathe made.

THe Lorde is my shepeharde: therefore can I lacke nothynge.

He shall feede me in a grene pasture, and leade me forth beside the waters of comforte.

He shall conuerte my soule, and bringe me forth in the pathes of ryghteousnes: for his names sake.

Yea: though I walcke through the valey of the shadowe of death, I wyl feare no euyl: for thou art wyth me, thy rodde and thy staffe comforte me.

Thou shalte prepare a table beefore me, agaynste theym that trouble me: thou haste annoynted my heade wyth Oyle, and my cuppe shall bee full.

But thy louynge kyndenes and mercye shal folowe me all the dayes of my lyfe: and I wyll dwell in the house of the Lorde for euer.

THe earth is the lords, and al that therein is: the compasse of the woorlde, and they that dwell therein.

For he hathe founded it vppon the seas: and prepared it vpon the flouddes.

Who shall ascende into the hyll of the LORD? or who shall ryse vp in his holye place.

Euen he that hathe cleane handes, and a pure heart: and that hath not lifte vp his mind vnto vanitye, nor swoorne to deceyue his neyghboure.

He shall receyue the blessynge frome the Lorde: and righteousnes from the GOD of his saluacion.

This is the generacion of theym that seke him, euen euen of them that seke thy face O Jacob.

Lyfte vp youre heades, O ye gates, and be ye lyfte vp ye euerlastinge doores: and the king of glo rye shall come in.

Who is the king of glory? it is the Lorde strong and mightye: euen the Lorde, mighty in battayle. Lift vp your heades (O ye gates:) and be ye lyfte vp ye euerlastinge doores: and the kynge of glorye shall come in.

Who is the king of glory? euen the Lorde of hos stes, he is the kyng of glory.

Ad te domine. Psal.xxv.

VNto the (O Lorde) wyll I lyfte vp my soule, my God, I haue put my truste in thee: O let me not be confounded, neyther let myne enemies triūph ouer me.

For all they that hope in the shall not be ashamed: but such as trāgresse without a cause shalbe put to confusion.

Shew me thy wayes, O lorde: and teache me thy pathes.

Leade me forth in thy truth, and learne me, for thou art the God of my saluation: in the hath bene my hope al the daye long.

Cal to remēbraūce (O lord) thy tender mercyes & thy louing kindnes, which hath ben euer of olde.

Oh remember not the sinnes and offences of my youth: but accordyng to thy mercy thinke thou vppon me O Lorde, for thy goodnesse.

Gratious & ryghteous is the lorde, therfore wyll he teache synners in the waye.

Them that be meke shall he guide in iudgment and suche as be gentle: them shal he learne his wai.

Al the pathes of the lorde are mercy and truth: vnto suche as kepe his couenaunte and his testimonyes.

For thy names sake, O lorde: be mercyfull vnto my synne, for it is greate.

What man is he that feareth the lorde? him shal he teache in the waye that he shall chose.

His soule shall dwell at ease: and his seede shall enherite the lande.

The secretes of the lorde are among them that feare him: and he wyll shewe them his couenaunt

Myne eyes are euer lokinge vnto the lord: for he shall plucke my fete out of the nette.

Turne the vnto me, and haue mercy vppon me: for I am desolate and in miserye.

The sorowes of my hearte are enlarged, O bring thou me out of my troubles.

Loke vpon myne aduersitie and misery: and forgeue me all my synne.

Consider myne enemyes howe manye they are and they beare a tyrannous hate agaynst me.

O kepe my soule and deliuer me: let me not be confounded for I haue put my truste in thee.

Let perfectnes and ryghteous dealyng waite vpon me: for my hope hath bene in thee.

Deliuer Israell, O God: oute of all troubles.

Iudica me domine. Psal.xxvi.

BE thou my iudge (O Lord) for I haue walked innocently: my truſt hath ben alſo in the lord, therfore ſhall I not fal.

Examine me, O Lorde and proue me: try out my reynes and my hearte.

For thy louing kyndnes is euer before mine eies and I wyll walke in thy trueth.

I haue not dwelte with vayne perſons: neyther wyl I haue felowſhyp with the deceitfull.

I haue hated the congregation of the wycked: and wyll not ſyt among the vngodly.

I wyll waſhe my handes in innocency, O Lord: and ſo wyll I go to thyne altare.

That I maye ſhew the voice of thankeſgeuing: and tell of all thy wonderous workes.

Lord, I haue loued the habitation of thy houſe: and the place where thine honor dwelleth.

O ſhutte not vp my ſoule with the ſynners: nor my lyfe with the bloudethyrſtye.

In whoſe handes is wyckednes: and theyr ryght handes are full of gyftes.

But as for me, I wyll walke innocently: O deliuer me, and be mercyfull vnto me.

My foote ſtandeth ryghte: I wyll prayſe the lorde in the congregations.

THe Lorde is my lyght and my ſaluatyon, whom then ſhall I feare? the lorde is the ſtrengthe of my lyfe, of whome then ſhall I be afrayde. Euening prayer.

When the wicked (euen myne enemyes and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesshe, they stombled and fell.

Though an hoste of men were layed agaynst me, yet shal not my hart be afrayde: and thoughe there rose vp warre agaynst me, yet wyll I put my trust in him.

One thinge haue I desyred of the Lorde, which I wyl requyre, euen that I maye dwel in the house of the Lorde all the dayes of my life: to beholde the fayre bewtye of the Lord, and to visite his temple.

For in the tyme of trouble he shall hide me in hys tabernacle: yea, in the secreat place of his dwelling shal he hide me, and set me vp vpon a rocke of stone

And nowe shall he lyft vp my heade: aboue mine enemyes rounde aboute me.

Therefore wyll I offre in his dwellynge anoblacion wyth greate gladnes: I wyll synge & speake prayses vnto the lorde.

Hearken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I crie vnto thee: haue mercye vppon me, and heare me.

My hearte hathe talked of thee, seke ye my face: thy face lorde wyll I seke.

O hide not thou thy face fro me: nor cast thy seruaunte awaye in displeasure.

Shewe thy ſeruaunte the lyghte of thy countenaunce:and ſaue me for thy mercies ſake.

Let me not be confounded,O Lorde, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confuſion and be put toſcilence in the graue.

Let the lyinge lippes be put to ſilence, whyche cruellye,diſdaynefullye,and diſpitefullye,ſpeake agaynſte the ryghteous.

O howe plentifull is thy goodnes whych thou haſte layde vppe for theym that feare thee:and that thou haſt prepared for theym that put their truſt in thee,euen before the ſonnes of men.

Thou ſhalt hide them pryuelye by thyne own preſence,frõ ỹ prouoking of al men,thou ſhalt kepe thẽ ſecretlye in thy tabernacle from the ſtrife of tonges

Thankes be to the lord: for he hathe ſhewed me marueylous greate kyndnes in a ſtronge citye.

And when I made haste, I saide: I am cast out of the syghte of thyne eyes.

Neuertheless, thou heardeste the voyce of my prayer when I cryed vnto the.

O loue the lord, al ye his Sayntes, for the lord preserueth them that are faythfull, and plenteously rewardeth the proude doer.

Be stronge, and he shall stablyshe your hearte: all ye that put your truste in the lorde.

Morning praier.

PLeade thou my cause O Lorde, wyth thē that striue wyth me & fight thou agaynst theim that fyght agaynst me.

Lay hand vpon the shyeld and buckler, and stande vp to helpe me.

Bryng forthe the speare, and stoppe the way agaynste them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluacion.

Let them be confounded and put to shame that seke after my soule: let theym be tourned backe and broughte to confusion that ymagyne myschife for mee.

Let theym be as the duste before the wynde: and the aungell of the lorde scaterynge them.

Lett

Let theyr waye be darke and slipperye: and let the aungel of the Lorde persecute them.

For they haue pryuelye layd theyr net to destroy me without a cause: yea, euē without a cause haue they made a pytte for my soule.

Let a sodaine destruction come vpon him vnawares: and his net that he hath layd pryuely catch hymselfe, that he maye fal into his owne mischiefe.

And my soule bee ioyfull in the Lorde: it shall reioyce in his saluacion.

And my bones shall saye Lord, who is lyke vnto the, whiche deliuerest the poore from him that is to stronge for him: yea, the poore and him that is in myserye, from hym that spoyleth him.

False witnes did rise vp: they layd to my charge thynges that I knowe not.

They rewarded me euyll for good: to the greate dyscomforte of my soule.

Neuertheiesse, when they were sycke I put one sacke clothe, and humbled my soule wyth fastynge: and my prayer shal turne into myne owne bosome.

I behaued my selfe, as thoughe it had beene my frende, or my brother: I went heauely, as one that mourneth for hys mother.

But in myne aduersitye they reioysed and gathered them together: yea, the verye abiectes came together agaynste me vnawares, makyng mowes at me and ceased not.

Wyth the flatterers were busye mockers: whyche gnashed vpon me wyth theyr teeth.

Lorde, howe longe wilt thou loke vpon this? O delyuer my soule from the calamityes whyche they bryngе on me, and my dearlynge from the Lyons.

So wyll I geue thee thankes in the great congregation: I wyl prayse thee among much people.

O let not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer me vngodlye, neyther let theim wynke wyth theyr eyes that hate me wythout a cause.

And whie theyr cõmoning is not for peace: but they ymagine deceytefull woordes againste theym that are quiet in the lande.

They gaped on me with theyr mouthes and said fye on thee: fye on the, we saw it wyth our eyes.

This thou hast sene, O lorde: holde not thi tong then go not farre from me O Lorde.

Awake and stand vp to iudge my quarel: aueng thou my cause, my God and my Lorde.

Judge me, O Lorde my God: accordyng to thy ryghteousnes: and let theim not tryumph ouer me.

Let theim not saye in theyr heartes: there there, so woulde we haue it: neither let them say, we haue deuoured hym.

Let them bee put to confusyon and shame togethere, that reioyce at my trouble: let theym bee clothed wyth rebuke and dishonoure that boast themselues agaynst me.

Let theym bee glad and reioyce that fauoure my ryghteous dealyng: yea let them say alway, blessed be the lord whyche hath pleasure in the prosperitye of his seruaunte.

And as for my tonge, it shalbee talkynge of thy ryghteousnes: and of thy prayse all the daye longe.

Dixit iniustus. Psalme.xxxvi.

My

MY harte sheweth me the wyckednes of the vngodlye, that there is no feare of God before hys eyes.

For he flatreth hym selfe in his owne syghte: vntyll hys abhomynable synne be founde oute.

The woordes of hys mouthe are vnryghteous and full of deceypt: he hath left of to behaue himself wyselye, and to doe good.

He ymagined mischife vpon his bed, and hathe set himselfe in no good waye, neyther doeth he abhorre anye thynge that is euyl.

Thy mercie O Lord: reacheth vnto the heauen and thy faythefulnes vnto the cloudes.

Thy ryghteousnesse standeth lyke the stronge mountaines: thy iudgements are like ỹ great depe

Thou Lord shalt saue both man and beast, how excellent is thy mercy O God: & the chyldrē of mē, shall put theyr truste vnder ỹ shadow of thi wings.

They shall bee satisfied wyth the plenteousnes of thy house: and thou shalte geue them drynke of thi pleasures as oute of the ryuer.

For wyth the is the wel of lyfe: and in thy light shall we se lyghte.

O continue forth thi louing kindnes vnto them that knowe thee: and thy ryghteousnes vnto them that are true of hearte.

O let not the fote of pryd come against me: and let not the hande of the vngodlie cast me downe. There are they fallen (all) that worke wyckednes that are caste down, and shal not be hable to stand.

Eueninge praier.

FRette not thy selfe because of the vngodlye neither be thou enuyous agaynst the euyll doers.

For they shall sone be cut down like the grasse: and be withered euen as the grene hearbe.

Put thou thy truste in the Lord, and be doynge good: dwell in the lād, and verely thou shalt be fed.

Delyghte thou in the Lorde: and he shall geue thee thy hartes desyre.

Committe thy way vnto the Lorde: and put thy trust in him, and he shall bring it to passe.

He shall make thy righteousnes as cleare as the lyght: and thy iust dealinge as the none daye.

Hold the still in the lord, and abide pacientlye vpō him: but greue not thy selfe at him, whose wai doth prosper against ỹ mā that doth after euil coūsailes.

Leaue of from wrath, and let go displeasure, fret not thy selfe, els shalt thou be moued to do euyl.

Wycked doers shalbe roted out, and they that pacientlye abide the lorde: those shal enherite the land.

Yet a lytle while, & the vngodly shalbe clene gone thou shalt loke after his place, and he shalbe away.

But the meke spirited shal possesse the earth: and shalbe refreshed in the multitude of peace.

The vngodly seketh counsayle agaynst the iust: and gnasheth vpon hym with hys teeth.

The Lorde shal laugh hym to scorne: for he hath sene, that his day is commynge.

The vngodlye haue drawen oute the sworde, & haue bended their bow: to cast down the pore and nedy, and to slay such as be of a ryght conuersatiō.

Their sweorde shal goe thorow their own hart:

and

and theyr bowe shalbe broken.

A small thynge that the ryghteous hath: is better then great ryches of the vngodlye.

For the armes of the vngodlye shalbee broken: and the lorde vpholdeth the ryghteous.

The lorde knoweth the dayes of the godlye: and their enheritaunce shall endure for euer.

They shall not be confounded in the perilous time and in the dayes of dearth they shall haue ynough.

As for the vngodly, they shal perysh, and the enemies of the lorde shal consume as the fat of lambes yea, euen as the smoke shal they consume awaie.

The vngodlye borowoeth and payeth not again but the ryghteous is mercifull: and liberall.

Suche as be blessed of GOD, shall possesse the land & they that be cursed of him shalbe roted oute.

The lorde ordereth a good mans goyng: & maketh his waye acceptable to hym selfe.

Though he fall, he shal not be cast awaye: for the Lorde vpholdeth him wyth his hande.

I haue bene yonge, and nowe am olde: and yet sawe I neuer the ryghteous forsaken, nor his seede beggynge their breade.

The ryghteous is euer mercifull, and lendeth: and his sede is blessed.

Flye from euell, and doe the thinge that is good and dwell for euermore.

For the Lorde loueth the thing that is ryght: he forsaketh not his that bee godlye, but they are preserued for euer.

(The ryghteous shalbe punished:) as for the sede of the vngodlye, it shalbe roted oute.

The ryghteous shall enheryte the land : and dwell therein for euer.

The mouthe of the righteous is exercised in wisdome: and his tongue wilbe talking of iudgement.

The lawe of his God is in his heart: and his goynges shall not slyde.

The vngodlye seeth the ryghteous : and seketh occasyon to slaye hym.

The Lorde wyl not leaue hym in his hand: nor condemne him when he is iudged.

Hope thou in the lord, and kepe his waye: and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the land when the vngodlye shall perysshe, thou shalte see it.

I my selfe haue sene the vngodly in great power: and flourysshynge lyke a grene baye tree.

And I went by, and loe, he was gone: I sought hym, but (hys place) coulde no where be founde.

Kepe innocencie, and take hede vnto the thing that is ryghte, for that shall bringe a man peace at the laste.

As for the transgressours, they shal perysh together: and the ende of the vngodlye is, they shall bee roted oute at the laste.

But the saluacyon of the ryghteous commethe of the Lorde: whyche is alsoo their strengthe in the tyme of trouble.

And the Lord shal stand by them, and saue them he shall delyuer theym from the vngodly: and shall saue them because they put theyr truste in hym.

My harte was hote wythin me, and whyle I was thus muſinge:the fyre kyndled,and at the laſt I ſpake wyth my tongue.

Lorde,let me knowe myne ende, and the number of my dayes: that I maye bee certyfyed howe longe I haue to lyue.

Beholde

Behold,thou haste made my dayes as it were a spanne longe,and myne age is euen as nothyng in respecte of the:and verelye euery man liuing is all together vanitye.

For man walketh in a vayne shadowe, and disquieteth him sefe in vayne: he heapeth vp ryches, and cannot tell who shall gather theim.

And nowe Lorde,what is my hope: truelye my hope is euen in the.

Delyuer me from all myne offenees: and make me not a rebuke vnto the folyshe.

I became domme,and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doynge.

Take thy plagus awaye frome me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauye hande.

When thou wyth rebukes doest chasten manne for synne,thou makest his beautye to consume awaye like as it were a moth frettynge a garment: euerye man therefore is but vanitye.

Heare my prayer,O lorde. and with thyne eares cõsider my callyng: holde not thy peace at miteres

Morning praier.

WE haue heade wyth our eares (O god) oure fathers haue tolde vs: what thou haſte done in theyr tymr of olde.

Howe thou haſt dryuen out the heathen with thy haude, and planted them in: how thou haſte deſtroyed the nacions, and caſte theym oute.

For thei gate not the land in poſſeſſion through theyr owne ſwoorde, neither was it theyr own arme that helped them.

But thy ryghte hande and thyne arme, and the lyghte of thy countenaunce: becauſe thou haddeſte aſſauoꝛ vnto them.

Thou arte my kinge (O God:) ſende helpe vnto Jacob.

Through the wyl we ouerthꝛowe our enemyes: and in thy name wyll we treade them vnder, that ryſe vp agaynſte vs.

Foꝛ I wil not truſt in my bowe: yet it is not my ſweoꝛde that ſhal helpe me.

But it is thou that ſaueſt vs from our euenye: and putteſt them to confuſion that hate vs.

We make oure boaſte of God al daye longe: and wyl pꝛayſe thy name foꝛ euer.

But now thou art farre of, and putteſt vs to cõfuſion: and goeſt not foꝛth wyth our armyes.

Thou makeſt vs to tourne our backs vpon our enemyes: ſo ỹ they which hate vs, ſpoile our goods

Thou letteſt vs be eaten vp like ſhepe: and haſt ſcattered vs among the heathen.

Thou ſilleſt thy people foꝛ noughte: and takeſte no money foꝛ them.

Thou makeſte vs to bee rebuked of oure neyghbours: to be laughed to ſcoꝛne and had in diriſion of them that are rounde aboute vs.

Thou makeſte vs to bee a bywoꝛde amonge the Heathen: a that the people ſhake their heades at vs

My confuſion is daily beſoꝛe me: and the ſhame of my face hath couered me.

Foꝛ the voyce of the ſlaunderer and blaſphemer foꝛ the enemye and auenger.

And thoughe all thys be come vpon vs, yet doe we not foꝛget thee: noꝛ behaue our ſelfes frowardlie in thy couenaunte.

Oure

Oure heart is not turned backe: neither our stepes gone oute of thy waye.

If we haue forgotten the name of our god, and holden vp oure handes to anie straunge God: shal not God searche it oute, for he knoweth the verye secretes of the hearte.

For thy sake also are we kylled all the day long: and are counted as shepe appoynted to be slayne.

Up Lorde, why slepest thou: awake, and be not absent from vs for euer.

Wherefore hidest thou thy face? and forgettest oure mysery and trouble.

For oure soule is brought lowe vnto the dust our belye cleueth vnto the grounde.

So shall the kyng haue pleasure in thy beautye for he is thy Lorde God, and worshippe thou hym.

And the daughter of Tyre shalbe there wyth a gyfte: lyke as the ryche also amonge the people shal make theyr supplication before thee.

The kynges daughter is all glorious wythin: her clothing is of wrought golde.

She shalbe brought vnto the kyng in raiment of nedle worke, the virgines that be her felowes, shal beare her companie, and shalbe brought vnto thee.

Morning praier.

The Lorde euen the moſt mighty God, hath ſpoken & called the worlde from the riſynge vp of the ſunne vnto the goinge downe therof.

Out of Sion hath god appered: in perfect beauty.

Oure God ſhall come, and ſhal not keepe ſilence, there ſhall goe before him a conſuminge fier: and a myghtie tempeſt ſhalbe ſtyred vp roũd about him

He ſhal cal the heauen from aboue: and the erthe that he maye iudge his people.

Gather my ſaynts together vnto me: thoſe that haue made a couenaunte wyth me, wyth ſacrifice.

And the heauens ſhal declare his righteouſnes: for God is iudge himſelfe. Heare, O my people, & I wyl ſpeake, I my ſelfe wil teſtifie againſt thee: O Iſrael, for I am god, euen thy god

I wyll not reproue thee: becauſe of thy ſacrifyces, nor for thy burnte offerynges, becauſe they were not alwaye before me.

I

I wyl take no bullocke oute of thy house: nor hee goates out of thy foldes.

For all the beastes of the foreste are myne: and so are the cattels vpon a thousande hylles.

I knowe all the foules vppon the mountaynes: and the wilde beastes of the fielde are in my syght.

If I be hungry I wyl not tel thee: for the whole worlde is myne, and all that therein is.

Thynkest thou that I wyl eate bulles flesh: and drynke the bloude of goates?

Offer vnto God thankes geuinge: and paie thy vowes vnto the most hyest.

And call vpon me in the tyme of trouble: so wyl I heare thee, and thou shalte prayse me.

But vnto the vngodly said god: why doest thou preach my lawes, & take my couenaũt in thi mouth

Wheras thou hatest to be reformed: and hast caste my wordes behinde thee.

When thou sawest a these, thou consẽtedst vnto him: and hast ben partaker wyth the aduouterers.

Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednes: and wyth thy tonge thou haste set furthe deceyte.

Thou satest & speakest against thy brother: yea and hathe slaundered thyne owne mothers sonne.

These thinges hast thou done, & I held my tong, & thou thoughtest wyckedlye, that I am eueu such a one as thy selfe: but I wyl reproue the and set before thee, the thynges that thou haste done.

O consider this, ye that forget God: lest I pluck you awaye, and there bee none to delyuer you.

Thou haſt geuen a token for ſuch as feare thee: that they maye tryumph becauſe of the trueth.

Therefore were thy beloued delyuered: helpe me wyth thy ryghte hande and heare me.

God hath ſpoken in his holines, I wil reioyce & deuyde Sichem: & mete out the valley of Sucoth.

Giliad is mine, & Manaſſes is mine: Ephraim alſo is the ſtrēgth of my head, Juda is my lawgeuer Moab is my waſhe pot, ouer Edom wyll I caſte oute my ſhoe: Philiſtia be thou glad of me.

Who wyl lead me into the ſtrong city: who wyl bryng me into Edom?

Haſte thou not caſte vs oute (O God:) wilt not thou (O God) go out wyth our hoſtes.

O be thou our helpe in trouble: for vayne is the helpe of man.

Thorow god ſhal we do greate actes: for it is he that ſhall treade down oure enemyes.

From the endes of the earth wil I call vnto thee: when my hearte is in heuynes.

Oh ſet me vp vppon the rocke that is hier then I: for thou haſte bene my hope, and a ſtrong tower for me agaynſte the enemye.

I wyll dwell in thy tabernacle for euer: and my truſte ſhalbe vnder the couerynge of thy wynges.

For thou, O lorde, haſte hearde my [illegible] and haſte hast geue an heritage to those that feare thy name.

Thou shalte graunte the kinge a longe life that his yeares may endure thorowout al generacions
He shal dwel before god for euer: o prepare thy louyng mercy & faythfulnes, ỹ thei may preserue him
So wyll I alwaye singe prayse vnto thy name. that I maye dayly perfourme my vowes.

Nonne deo subiecta. Psalm. lxii.

Morning praier.

MY soule truelye waiteth stil vpon God: for of hym commeth my saluacion.
He verelie is my strength and my saluacion: he is my defence so that I shall not greatlye fall.
Howe longe wyl ye ymagine mischiefe againste euery mã: ye shalbe slaine al the sorte of you: yea as a tottering wall shal ye be, & like as a brokẽ hedge.
Their deuises is onli how to put him out whõ god wil exalt: their delight is in lies thei geue good wordes with their mouth, but curse with their hearte.
Neuertheless, my soule wayte thou still vppon God: for my hope is in him.
He truely is my strength and saluacion: he is my defence so that I shal not fall.
In God is my healthe and my glory: the rocke of my myghte, and in God is my truste.
O put your trust in him alwai ye people: power out youre heartes before him, for god is our hope.
As for the chyldren of men, they are but vayne, the children of men are deceitful vpon the waights they are altogether lighter then vanitye it selfe.
O truste not in wronge and robberye, geue not your selfes vnto vanyty, if ryches encrease, set your hearte vpon them.
God spake once and twyse, I haue also heard the same same that power belongeth vnto God.

And that thou lord art merciful: for thou rewardest euerye man according to his worke.

Deus deus meus. Psalm.lxiii.

O God thou art my god, earlye wyl I seke the My soule thyrsteth for thee: my flesche also longeth after thee, in a barren and dry land, where no water is.

Thus haue I loked for thee in holynes: that I myghte beholde thy power and glorye.

For thy louinge kindenes is better then the lyfe itselfe: my lyppes shall prayse thee.

As long as I lyue, wyll I magnify thee on this maner: and lyfte vp my handes in thy name.

My soule shalbe satisfied, euen as it were wyth marye and fatnesse: when my mouth prayseth thee wyth ioyefull lyppes.

Haue I not remembred thee in my bed: & thought vpon thee, when I was wakynge.

Because thou hast bene my helper: therefore vnder the shadowe of thy wynges wyll I reioyce.

My soule hangeth vpon thee; thy righte hande hathe vpholden me.

These also that seeke the hurte of my soule: thei shal goe vnder the earth.

Let them fal vpon the edge of the sweord: that they maye be a portion for foxes.

But the king shal reioyce in GOD, al thei also that sweare by him shal be cõmẽded: for the mouth of theym that speake lyes shalbe stopped.

Exaudi deus orationem meam Psal.lxiiij.

HEare my voyce, O god: in my prayer preserue my lyfe from feare of the enemye, Hyde me from the gatherynge together of the frowarde: & frō the insurrection of wicked doers.

Whiche haue whet their tongue like a sweorde: and shote oute their arrowes, euen bitter worde.

That they maye priuely shote at him whyche is perfect: sodeinly do they hyt hym and feare not.

They conrage them selues in mischife: and common among them selues how they may lay snares and saye that no man shall see them.

They ymagine wickednes, and practise it: that they kepe secrete among themselues, euery man in the depe of his hearte.

But god shall sodainly shote at thē with a swifte arrowe: that they shalbe wounded.

Yea their owne tongues shal make them fal: in so much ỹ whoso seeth thē shall laugh thē to scorne.

And all men that see it, shall saye, this hath God done: for they shall perceaue that it is his worke.

The ryghteous shall reioice in the lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of hearte shalbe glad.

THou O god art praised in Sion: and vnto the shall the vowe be performed: in Jerusalem.

Thou that heareſt the prayer: vnto the shall all flesh come.

My misdedes prenayle against me: Oh be thou mercyfull vnto our synnes.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest and receauest vnto thee: he shall dwell in thy courte and shalbe satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, euē of thy holy temple.

Thou shalt shewe vs wonderful thinges in thy ryghteouseryghteousnes(O God)of oure saluacion:thou that arte the hope of al the endes of the earth,and of thē that remayne in the broad sea.

Whiche in his strengthe setteth faste the mountaynes: and is gyded aboute wyth power.

Which stilleth the raginge of the sea:and the noise of his waues: and the madnes of his people.

They also that dwel in the vttermost partes(of the earthe)shalbe afrayed at thy tokens: thou that makest the outegoynges of the morning and euenninge to prayse thee.

Thou visitest the earthe, and blessest it:thou makest it verye plenteous.

The riuer of God is ful of water:thou preparest their corne for soo thou prouidest for the earthe.

Thou waterest her forowes, thou sendest rayne into the litle vallyes thereof: thou makest it softe wᵗ the droppes of rayne,and blessest the encrease of it.

Thou crownest the yere wyth thy goodnesse: and thy cloudes droppe fatnesse.

They shal drop vpō the dwellinges of ꝑ wildernes:and the litle hylles shal reioyce one euery syde. The foldes shalbe ful of shepe:the valleies also shal stand so thicke wᵗ corne, that they shal laugh & sing.

Iubilate deo. Psalm lxvi.

O Be ioyful in God, al ye landes:syng prayses vnto the honor of his name, make his prayse to be gloryous.

Saye vnto god, O howe wonderfull art thou in thy woorkes: thorowe the greatenes of thy power shal thyne enemyes bee founde lyers vnto thee.

For al the worlde shall worship thee:sing of thee and prayse thy name.

O come hyther and behold the worckes of God: howe wonderfull he is in his doynge towarde the chyldren of men.

He tourned the sea into drye lande, so that they went thorowe the water on foote: there did we reioyce therof.

He ruleth wyth his power for euer, his eyes beholde the people: and suche as wyll not beleue, shall not be able to exalte them selues.

O prayse our God (ye people:) and make ỹ voyce of his prayse to be hearde.

Which holdeth our soule in life: and suffereth not oure feete to slyp.

For thou (O GOD) haste proued vs: thou also haste tryed vs, lyke as syluer is tried.

Thou broughtest vs into the snare: and layd trouble vpon our loynes.

Thou sufferedste men to ryde ouer oure heades, we wēt thorow fire and water: and thou broughtest vs oute into a welthye place.

I wyl goe into thy house wyth burnt offerings and wyl paye thee my vowes whiche I promised wyth my lipppes: and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.

I wil offer vnto thee, fat burnt sacrifices, wt the incence of rammes: I wyl offer bullockes & goates

O come hether, and hearken al ye that feare god: and I wyl tel you what he hath done for my soule.

I called vnto hym wyth my mouthe: and gaue hym prayses wyth my tongue.

If I enclyne vnto wyckednes wyth my heart: the lorde wyl not heare me.

But God hathe heard me, & considered the voice

of my prayer.
Prayſed be god whiche hathe not caſt out my praier: nor turned his mercye from me.

Quam bonus Israel. Psalm. lxxiij.

TRuelye God is louyng vnto Israell: euen vnto suche as are of a cleane hearte.

Neuertheles, my fete were almooste gone: my treadynges had well nigh slypte.

And whie? I was greued at the wycked: I do also also see the vngodlye in suche prosperitye.

For they are in no peryl of deathe: but are lustye and strong.

They come in no misfortune lyke other folk, neither are they plagued lyke other men.

And this is the cause that they bee so holden wyth pryde, and ouerwhelmed wyth crueltye.

Theyr eyes swell for fatnesse: and they doe euen what they luste.

They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemy, their talkinge is agaynste the most highest.

For they stretche forth their mouth vnto the heauen: and their tonge goeth thorow the worlde.

Therefore fall the people vnto theim: and thereout sucke they no small aduauntage.

Tushe saye they, howe shoulde god perceyue it: is their knowledge in the most hyghest.

Loe, these are the vngodlye, these prosper in the worlde, and these haue ryches in possession: and I saide, then haue I clensed my harte in vayne, and washed my handes in innocencye.

All the daye longe haue I benne punished: and chastened euerye morning.

Yea, and I had almoste sayde euen as they: but loe, then should I haue condemned the generacion of thy chyldren.

Then thought I to vnderstand this, but it was to heard for me.

Vntyl I went into the sancturary of God, then vnderstode I the ende of these men.

Namelie howe thou doest set thē in slippery places: and castest them downe, and destroyest them.

O howe sodaynelye doe they consume, perysshe and and come to a fearefull ende.

Yea,euen lyke as a dreame when one awaketh: soo shalte thou make their ymage to vanyshe oute of the citye.

Thus my harte was grieued: and it went euen throughe my raynes.

So foolyshe was I and ignorannte: euen as it were a beaste before thee.

Neuertheles, I am alwaie by thee: for thou hast holden me by my ryghte hande.

Thou shalt guyde me with thy counsell: and afterwarde receaue me wyth thy glorye.

Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vpon earth, that I desire in cõparison of thee.

My flesshe and my hearte faileth: but god is the strengthe of my hearte, and my porcion for euer.

For loe, they that forsake thee shall perysh: thou hast destroyed al theym that committe fornication agaynste the.

But it is good for mee to holde me faste by God, to put my trust in the lord god: & to speake of al thy woorkes, in the gates of the daughters of Sion.

Vt quid deus repulisti. Psalm. lxxiiij.

O God wherefore art thou absente from vs so longe: why is thy wrathe so hoate agaynste the shepe of thy pasture.

O thinke vppon thy congregacyon: whom thou haste purchased and redemed of olde.

Thynke vpon the trybe of thyne enherytaunce: and mounte Sion wherein thou hasste dwelte.

Lift vp thy fete that thou mayest vtterly destroy euery enemy: whych hathe done euyl in thy Sanc-tuarye

tuarye.

Thine aduersaries roare in the myddes of thy congregacions: & set vp their banners for tokens.

He that hewed timber afore out of ꝑ thicke trees: was knowen to bringe it to an excellente woorke.

But now they breake down al the carued woorke thereof: with axes and hammers.

They haue set fire vppon thy holye places: and haue defiled the dwellinge place of thy name, euen vnto the grounde.

Ye, they said in their hearts, let vs make hauocke of them altogether: thus haue they brente vppe all the houses of God in the lande.

We se not oure tokens, ther is not one Prophet more: no not one is there among vs that vnderstãdeth any more.

O god, howe long shal the aduersary do this dishonor: howe longe shall the enemye blaspheme thy name for euer.

Why withdrawest thou thi hand: why pluckest thou not thy right hand oute of thy bosome, to consume the enemye.

For God is my kyng of olde: the healpe that is done vpon earth, he doth it him selfe.

Thou diddest deuide the Sea, through thy power: thou breakeste the heades of the dragons in the waters.

Thou smotest the heades of Leuiathan in pyeces: and gauest hym to be meate for the people in the wyldernes.

Thou broughtest out fountaines & waters out of the hard Rockes, thou driuest vp myghtye waters.

The daye is thyne, and the nyghte is thyne:

thou

thou haste prepared the lyghte and the sunne.

Thou haste set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made sommer and wynter.

Remember this, O Lorde, howe the enemye hathe rebuked: and howe the folyshe people hathe blasphemed thy name.

O delyuer not the soule of the Turtle doue, vnto the multitude of the enemyes: and forgette not the congregacion of the poore for euer.

Loke vpon the couenaunte: for all the earthe is full of darkenes, and cruell habitacions.

O let not the simple goe away ashamed: but let the poore and nedye geue prayse vnto thy name.

Aryse O god, mayntayne thyne own cause: remẽber howe the folyshe man blasphemeth the dayelye

Forget not the voyce of thine enemyes, the presumpcion of theym that hate thee,: increaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. lxxv

Morning praier.

VNto the (O GOD) doe we geue thanks: yea vnto thee doe we geue thankes.

Thy name also is nygh: and that do thy wonderous workes declare.

When I receaue the congregacion: I shal iudg according vnto righte.

The earth is weake, and al the inhabitours therof: I beare vp the pillers of it.

I sayde vnto the fooles, deale not so madly: and to the vngodlye, set not vp your horne.

Sette not vp youre horne on hyghe, and speake not wyth a stiffe necke.

For promocion cometh neyther frome the East, nor from the West: nor yet from the South.

And

And whie: God is the iudge: he putteth downe one, and setteth vp another.

For in the hande of the Lord there is a cup, and the wyne is red: it is full myxt, and he powreth oute of the same.

As for the dregges thereof: all the vngodlye of the earthe shall drincke theym, and sucke them out.

But I will talke of the God of Jacob: and praise hym for euer.

All the hornes of the vngodly also will I breake: and the hornes of the ryghteous shalbe exalted.

Notus in Iudæa. Psalm.lxxvi.

IN Jewrye is God knowen: his name is greate in Israell.

At Salem is his tabernacle: and hys dwelling in Sion.

There breake he the arrowes of the bowe: the shyelde, the sweorde, and the battayle.

Thou arte of more honour and mighte: then the hilles of the robbers.

The proud are robbed, they haue slept their slepe and al the men (whose handes were mightye) haue founde nothinge.

At thy rebuke (O God of Jacob:) both the charet and horse is fallen.

Thou, euen thou arte to bee feared: and whoo maye stande in thy syghte, when thou arte angrie.

Thou dydst cause thy iudgemente to bee hearde from heauen: the earth trembled and was still.

When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe al

the meke vpon earthe.

The fearcenes of man shal tourne to thy prayse: and the fearcenes of other shalt thou restrayne.

Promise vnto the lorde your god, and kepe it al yea that bee rounde aboute hym: bryng presentes vnto hym that oughte to be feared.

He shall restrayne the spyryte of Prynces: and is wonderfull amonge the kynges of the earthe.

Voce mea ad dominum. Psal.lxxvii.

I Will crye vnto God wyth my voyce, euen vnto God will I crye wyth my voyce: and he shall hearken vnto me.

In the time of my trouble I soughte the lorde: my sore ran and ceassed not, in the nighte season my soule refused comforte.

When I am in heauines, I will thynke vppon GOD: when my hearte is vexed and wyll complayne.

Thou holdeste myne eyes wakyng: I am so feble that I cannot speake.

I haue considered the dayes of olde: and the yeares that are past.

I call to remembraunce my songe: and in the nyghte I common with mine owne heart, and searche oute my spyrytes.

Wyl the Lorde absente himself for euer: and will he be no more entreated.

Is his mercye cleane gone for euer: and is his promyse come vtterlye to an ende for euermore.

Hathe God forgotten to bee gracious, and wyll he he shut vp his louinge kyndenes in displeasure.

And I sayde, it is myne owne infirmitie: but I wyl remembre the yeares of the ryghte hand of the moste hyghest.

I wyl remember the worckes of the Lorde: and call to mynde thy wonders of olde tyme.

I wyll thynke also of all thy woorkes: and my talkynge shalbe of thy doynges.

Thy waye, O God, is holye: who is soo greate a God as our God.

Thou arte the GOD that doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power amonge people.

Thou hast mightelie delyuered thy people: euen the sonnes of Jacob and Joseph.

The waters sawe thee, O GOD: the waters sawe thee and were afrayde, the depthes also were troubled.

The cloudes powred oute water, the ayre thundred and thyne arrowes went abrode.

The voyce of the thunder was heard rounde aboute: the lightnynges shone vppon the grounde, the earthe was moued and shoke withall.

Thy way is in the sea, & thy pathes in the great waters: and thy fote steppes are not knowen.

Thou leddest thy people lyke shepe: by the hand of Moyses and Aaron.

Attende popule. Psalm. lxxviii.

HEare my lawe, O my people: enclyne youre eares vnto the wordes of my mouthe. Euenınge praier.

I wil open my mouth in a parable: I wil declate harde sentences of olde.

Whyche we haue heard and knowen: and such as our fathers tolde vs.

That we shoulde not hide theym from the chyldren of the generacions to come: but to shewe the honour of the Lorde, his myghtye and wonderfull woorke that he hath done.

He made a couenaunt wyth Jacob, and gaue Israel a law: which he commaunded our forefathers to teache their children.

That their posteritie myghte knowe it: and the chyldren whych were yet vnborne.

To the intente that when they camme vppe: thei myghte shewe their chyldren the same.

That they myghte put their truste in God: and not to forget the woorkes of God, but to keepe hys commaundementes.

And not to bee as their forefathers, a faythlesse and stubburne generacion: a generacion that sette not their heart aryght, and whose spyryte cleaueth not stedfastlye vnto God.

Lyke the chyldren of Ephraim, whyche beynge harnessed and caryinge bowes: tourned theym selues backe in the daye of battayle.

They kept not the couenaunt of God: & woulde not walke in his lawe.

But forgat what he had done: and the wonderfull woorkes that he had shewed for theim.

Merueylous thinges dyd he in the syght of our fathers in the lande of Egipte: euen in the feylde of Zoan.

He deuided the sea, and let theim goe throughe: he made the waters to stande on a heape.

In the daie time also he led them with a cloude: and all the nighte throughe wyth a lyghte of fyre.

He claue the hard rockes in the wildernes: and gaue them drynke thereof, as it hadde bene oute of the greate depth.

He broughte waters out of the stony rocke: so that it gushed oute lyke the riuers.

Yet for all this, they sinned more agaynste him: and prouoked the moste highest in the wyldernes.

They tempted God in their heartes: and required meate for theyr luste.

They spake againste God also, sayinge: shal God prepare a tabernacle in the wyldernes?

He smote the stoni rocke in dede, that the water gushed out, & the streames flowed wythal: but can he geue breade also, or prouyd flesche for his people?

When the Lorde heard thys, he was wroth: so the fyre was kindeled in Jacob, and there came vp heauye displeasure agaynste Israell.

Because they beleued not in GOD: and putte not theyr truste in his healpe.

So he commaunded the clouds aboue: and opened the dores of heauen.

He rayned downe Manna also vpon theym for to eate: and gaue them fode from heauen.

So man did eate Angels fode: for he sent theym meate enoughe.

He caused the Easte winde to blowe vnder the heauen: and throughe his power he broughte in the Southwest wynde.

He rayned flesche vpon theim as thicke as duste: and fethered foules lyke as the sande of the sea.

He let it fall amonge theyr tentes:euen round a boute theyr habitacion.

Soo they dyd eate,and were well filled:for hee gaue them theyr owne desyre,they were not disappoynted of theyr luste.

But whyle the meate was yet in theyr mouthes the heauye wrathe of God came vppon theim:and slewe the welthiest of theym, yea,and smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.

But for all this they synned yet moze: and beeleued not his wonderous wozkes.

Therefoze their dayes dyd he consume in banitie:and their yeares in trouble.

When he slew them they soughte him:and turned them earely and requyred after God.

And they remembred that GOD was theyr strength:& that the hygh God was their redemer.

Neuertheles,they dyd but flatter him wt theyr mouthes:and dissembled with him in their tōgues

For their hearte was not whole wyth him:neither continued they stedfast in hys couenaunte.

But hee was so mercifull:that hee forgaue theyr mysdedes,and destroyed theym not.

Yea, manye a tyme turned he his wzath away, and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise

For he considered that thei were but fleashe,and that they were euen a wynde that passeth awaye, and commeth not agayne.

Manye a tyme dyd they pzouoke him in the wyldernes:and greued him in the deserte.

They turned backe,and tempted God:and moued ued the holye one in Israell.

They thoughte not of his hande: and of the day when he delyuered thē from the hand of the enemy

Howe he had wrought his miracles in Egipte: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

He tourned their waters into bloud: so that thei myghte not drynke of the riuers.

He sent lice among them and deuoured them vp: and frogges to destroye them.

He gaue their fruites vnto the caterpiller: and theyr labor vnto the grashopper.

He destroied theyr vines with hayle stones: and their mulbery trees with the froste.

He smote theyr cattel also with hayle stones: and theyr flockes wyth hote thunderboltes.

He caste vpon them the furiousnes of his wrath anger, displeasure: and trouble, and sente euyll angels amonge them.

He made awaye to his indignacion, and spared not theyr lyfe from death: but gaue theyr lyfe ouer to the Pestilence.

And smote all the firste borne in Egipt: the most pryncipal and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

But as for his own people, he led them forth like sheepe: & caried them in the wildernes like a flocke.

He brought thē out safely, that they should not feare: & ouerwhelmed theyr enemyes wyth the sea.

And brought them in the borders of his sanctuarye: euen in his mountaine, whyche he purchased wyth his ryghte hande.

He cast out the heathen also before thē, cauled their lande to be deuyded emong them for an heritage: & made the tribes of Israel to dwell in theyr tentes.

So they tempted and displeased the moste highe God:and kept not his testimonyes.

But tourned theyr backes, and fell awaye lyke theyr forefathers:starteinge asyde lyke a brokenne bowe.

For they greued hym wyth theyr hilalters: and prouoked hym to displeasure wyth theyr Images.

When God heard this he was wrath:and toke sore displeasure at Israell.

So that he forsoke the tabernacle in Silo:euen the tente that he had pytched amonge them.

He delyuered their power into captiuitye : and theyr beautye into the enemyes hande.

He gaue his people ouer allo into the sweord:and was wrath wyth his inheritaunce.

The fyer consumed the ponge men , and theyr maydens were not geuen to mariage.

Theyr prystes were slayne wyth the sworde: & there were no widdowes to make lamentacion.

So the Lorde awaked as one oute of slepe: and lyke a Gyaunte refreshed wyth wyne.

He smote his enemies in the hinder partes:and put them to a pertuall shame.

He refused the tabernacle of Josepth : and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

But chose the tribe of Juda:euen the hil of Sion whiche he loued.

And there he buylded his temple on hye: & layde the foundacion of it lyke the ground which he hath made continualiye.

He chose Dauyd also his seruaunt: and toke him awaye from the shepe soldes.

As

As he was folowing the ewes great with yong ones, he tooke him: that he mighte feede Jacob his people, and Israell his enheritaunce.

So he fede them wyth a faythfull & trew heart and ruled them prudently wyth all hys power.

Deus venerunt. Psal. lxxix.

O God, the heathen are come into thy enheritaunce: thy holy temple haue thei defiled, and made Jerusalem an heape of stones. Morning praier.

The deade bodyes of thy seruauntes haue they geuen to bee meate vnto foules of the ayre: and the flesshe of thy saynctes vnto the beastes of the lande.

Their bloud haue they shed like water on euery side of Jerusalem: & there was no man to bury thē.

We are become an open shame to oure enemies: a very scorne and derision vnto them that are roūd aboute vs.

Lorde howe longe wylt thou be angry: shal thy gelousye burne lyke fyer for euer?

Power out thyne indignacyon vpō the heathen that haue not konwen thee: and vppon the kyngedomes that haue not called vpon thy name.

For they haue deuoured Jacob: and layd waste his dwellynge place.

O remember not our olde sinnes, but haue mercye vppon vs, and that soone: for we are comme to greate miserye.

Helpe vs, O GOD of our saluacion: for the glorye of thy name.

O delyuer vs: and bee mercyfull vnto oure sinnes for thy name sake.

Wherefore doe the heathen saye: where is now theyr God.

O let the vengeaunce of thy seruauntes bloude that is shed: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in oure syghte.

O let the sorowefull syghynge of the prysoners come before thee: accordynge to the greatnes of thy power, preserue thou those that are appoynted to dye.

And as for the blasphemy (wherwyth our neighbours haue blasphemed thee:) rewarde thou them O Lorde, seuen folde into their bosome.

So wee that be thy people, and shepe of thy pasture, shall geue thee thankes for euer: and wyll alwaye be shewynge forth thy prayse, from generacion to generacion.

Qui regis Israel. Psalme. lxxx.

HEare, O thou shepeheard of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph lyke a shepe: shewe thy selfe also, thou that sittest vpon the Cherubines.

Before Ephraim, Beniamin, & Manasses: stirre vp thy strengthe, and come and helpe vs.

Turne vs agayne, O God: shewe the lyghte of thy countenaunce, and we shalbe whole.

O Lorde God of hostes: howe longe wylt thou be angrye wyth thy people that prayeth.

Thou fedest them with the bread of teares: and geuest them plenteousnes of teares to drynke.

Thou haste made vs a verye stryfe vnto oure neyghbours: and our enemyes laughe vs to scorne

Tourne vs agayne thou God of hosts: shewe the lyghte of thy countenaunce, and we shalbe whole.

Thou haste broughte a viue oute of Egipt: thou haste caste oute the heathen, and planted it.

Thou madest rowme for it: & when it had taken roote

roote, it filled the lande.

The hylles were couered with the shadow of it: and the boughes thereof were lyke the goodly Cedre trees.

She stretched out her braunches vnto the sea: and her boughes vnto the ryuer.

Why hast thou then broken downe her hedge: that all they which go by, plucke of her grapes.

The wild bore out of the wodde doth rote it vp: and the wyld beastes of the field deuoure it.

Turne the againe thou GOD of hostes: loke downe from heauen, beholde and visite thys vine.

And the place of the vyneyarde that thy ryght hand hath planted: and the braunch that thou madest so stronge for thy selfe.

It is brent with fyer, and cut downe: and they shal perysshe at the rebuke of thy countenaunce.

Let thy hand be vpon the mā of thy right hand and vpon the sonne of man: whom thou madest so stronge for thine owne selfe.

And so wyll not we goe backe from thee: Oh let vs lyue, and we shall call vpon thy name.

Turne vs agayne, O Lorde GOD of hostes: shew ȳ light of thy coūtenaunce, & we shalbe whole Exultate deo. Psal.lxxxi.

SIng we merely vnto god our strength: make a cheresull noyse vnto the god of Jacob.

Take the Psalme, bryng hether the tabret: the mery harpe with the lute.

Blow vp the trompet in the newe mone: euen in the time appointed, & vpon our solemne feast day.

For this was made a statute for Israell: & a lawe

of

of the God of Jacob.

This he ordeined in Joseph for a testimony whē he came out of the land of Egypt, and had hearde a straunge language.

I eased hys shoulders from the burthen: and his handes were deliuered from (makyng) the pots.

Thou calledst vpon me in troubles, and I delyuered thee: and hearde thee, what tyme the storme fell vpon thee.

I proued the also: at the Waters of stryfe.

Heare, O my people, and I wyll assure thee O Israel: yf thou wylt hearken vnto me.

There shall no straunge God be in thee: neither shalt thou worshyp any other God.

I am the lorde thy God, which brought the out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wyde and I shall fyll it.

But my people woulde not heare my voice: and Israell would not obey me.

So I gaue them vppe vnto their own heartes luste: and let them folowe theyr owne imagynacyons.

O that my people wsulde haue herkened vnto me: for if Israell had walked in my wayes.

I should lone haue put downe theyr enemies: & turned my hande agaynst their aduersaryes.

The haters of the lord shoulde haue bene founde lyers: but their tyme shoulde haue endured for euer.

He should haue fedde them also wyth the finest wheate floure: and wyth honye oute of the stonye rocke shoulde I haue satisfyed thee.

God is verye greatly to be feared in the counſel of the ſaynctes:and to bee hadde in reuerence of all that are aboute hym.

O Lord God of hoſtes,who is lyke vnto the:thi trueth(moſte mightye Lorde) is on euerye ſyde.

Thou ruleſt the raginge of the ſea: thou ſtilleſte the waues there of when they aryſe.

Thou haſte ſubdued Egipte, and deſtroyed it: thou haſt ſcattered thine enemyes abꝛode with thy myghtye arme.

The heauens are thyne, the earth alſo is thine: thou haſte layd the foundacion of the round woꝛld and all that therein is.

Thou haſte made the Noꝛth and the Southe: Tabor and Hermon ſhall reioyce in thy name.

Thou haſt a myghty arme: ſtronge is thy hand and highe is thy ryghte hande.

Ryghteouſnes & equitie is the habitacion of thi ſeate:mercye and trueth ſhall go beforꝛe thy face.

Bleſſed is the people,O lorde that can reioyce in the:they ſhall walk in the lyght of thy countenaũce

Their delyte ſhalbe daylye in thy name:& in thy ryghteouſnes ſhall they make their boaſte.

For thou arte the glorye of theyꝛ ſtrengthe: and in thy louynge kyndnes thou shalte lyfte vppe oure hornes.

For the Lorde is oure defence: the holye one of Israell is oure kynge.

Thou spakeste sometyme in visions vnto thy Saynctes: and saydste, I haue layde helpe vppon one that is myghtye, I haue exalted one cholenne out of the people.

I haue founde Dauid my seruaunte: wyth my holye oyle haue I annoynted him.

My hand shal holde him fast: and my arme shall strengthen hym.

The enemy shal not be able to do hym vyolence: the sonne of wyckednes shall not hurte hym.

I shal smite downe his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

My truth also and my mercye shalbe with him: and in my name shall his horne be exalted.

I wyll set his dominion also in the sea: and hys ryghte hande in the floudes.

He shall call me: thou arte my father, my GOD and my strong saluacion.

And I wyll make him my fyrste borne: hygher then the kynges of the earth.

My mercye wyll I keepe for him for euermore: and my couenaunte shall stande faste wyth hym.

His seede alsoo wyll I make to endure for euer: and his throne as the dayes of heauen.

But yf his chyldren forsake my law: and walke not in my iudgementes.

If they breake my Statutes, and kepe not my commaundementes: I wyll visite theyr offences wyth the rodde, and theyr synne wyth scourges.

Neuertheleſſe, my louyng kindneſſe wyll I not vtterlie take from him: noꝛ ſuffre my trueth to faile

My couenaunte wil I not breake, noꝛ alter the thing that is gone out of my lippes: I haue ſwoꝛn once by my holineſſe, that I wyl not fayle Dauid.

His ſeede ſhall endure foꝛ euer; and his ſeate is lyke as the ſunne befoꝛe me.

He ſhall ſtande faſte foꝛ euermoꝛe as the mone: and as the faythfull witneſſe in heauen.

But thou haſte abhoꝛred and foꝛſaken thyne annoyncted: and arte diſpleaſed at him.

Thou haſt broken the couenaunt of thy ſeruaunt and caſte his crowne to the grounde.

Thou haſt ouerthꝛowen all his hedges: and broken downe his ſtronge holdes.

All they that goe by, ſpoyle him: and he is becom a rebuke to his neghbours.

Thou haſt ſet vp the right hand of his enemies: and made al his aduerſaryes to reioyce.

Thou haſte taken awaye the edge of his ſwoꝛde: and geueſt him not victoꝛye in the battayle.

Thou haſte putte oute his gloꝛie: and caſt his thꝛone downe to the grounde.

The dayes of his youthe haſte thou ſhoꝛtened: and couered him with diſhonoure.

Loꝛde, how longe wilte thou hide thy ſelfe, foꝛ euer: and ſhall thy wꝛath burne lyke fyer:

O remember howe ſhoꝛte my tyme is: wheꝛfoꝛe haſte thou made all men, foꝛ noughte.

What manne is he that lyueth, and ſhall not ſee deathe: and ſhal he delyuer his own ſoule from the hande of hell.

Loꝛde, where are thy olde louynge kindeneſſe:

whiche thou swarest vnto Dauid in thy trueth.

Remember (Lorde) the rebuke that thy seruaũtes haue: and how I do beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.

Wherwith thine enemies haue blasphemed the and slaundered the fotesteppes of thine annoynted

Blessed be the Lorde for euermore. Amen.

Domine refugium. Psalm.xc.

LOrde thou haste bene my refuge: from one generacion to another. Morning praier.

Before the mountaynes were brought forth or euer the earthe and the worlde were made: thou arte god from euerlasting, & world without ende.

Thou turnest man to destruction: agayne thou sayest, come agayne ye chyldren of men.

For a thousande yeares in thy syghte, are but as yesterdaye: seyng that is past as a watch in ỹ night

Assone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a slepe: and fade awaye sodeynlye lyke the grasse.

In the morning, it is very gren, & groweth vp: but in the euening it is cut down dryed vp, & withered

For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afrayde at thy wrathfull indignacion.

Thou hast set our misdedes before thee: and our secrete sinnes in the lyghte of thy countenaunce.

For when thou art angri, al our dayes ar gone we bringe oure yeares to an ende, as it were a tale that is tolde.

The dayes of oure age are three score yeres and tenne, and thoughe menne bee so stronge that they come to fourescore yeares: yet is theyr strengthe then but laboure and sorowe, soo soone passeth seth it awaye, and we are gone.

But who regardeth the power of thi wrath: for euen therafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

O teache vs to numbre oure dayes: that we may applye oure heartes vnto wysedome.

Tourne thee agayne, O lorde, at the last: and be gracious vnto thy seruauntes.

O satisfie vs wyth thy mercy, and that soone: so shall we reioyce and be glad al the dayes of our life

Comfort vs agayne now after the time that thou haste plaged vs: and for the yeare wherin we haue suffered aduersitye.

Shewe thy seruauntes thy woorke: and theyr chyldren thy glorye.

And the glorypous maiestye of the Lorde oure God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hãdes vpon vs, O prosper thou our handye worke.

Qui habitat. Psalme.xci.

VWho so dwelleth vnder the defẽce of the most hyghe: shall abyde vnder the shadowe of the almyghtye.

I wyl saye vnto the lord: thou arte my hope and my stronge holde, my God in hym wyll I truste.

For he shall delyuer thee frome the snare of the hunter: and from the noysome pestilence.

He shal defend thee vnder his winges, and thou shalte be safe vnder his fethers: his faithfulnes and trueth shalbe thy shyelde and buckler.

Thou shalte not be afrayde for anye terrour by nyghte: nor for the arrowe that flyeth by daye.

For the Pestilence that walketh in the darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the none day.

A

A thousand shal fal beside thee: and ten thousand at thy ryghte hand, but it shall not come nigh thee.

Yea, wyth thyne eyes shalt thou beholde: and see the rewarde of the vngodlye.

For thou Lord art my hope: thou haste set thyne house of defence verye hye.

There shall no euyll happen vnto thee: neyther shal any plage come nye thy dwellynge.

For he shall geue his aungels charge ouer thee: to keepe thee in al thy wayes.

They shal beare thee in theyr handes: that thou hurte not thy foote agaynste the stone.

Thou shalte goe vppon the Lion and Adder: the yonge Lion and the Dragon shalte thou tread vnder thy feete.

Because he hathe set his loue vpon me, therefore shall I delyuer him: I shall set him vppe, because he hathe knowen my name.

He shall call vpon me, and I wyll heare him: yea I am wyth him in trouble, I wyl deliuer hym, and bryng him to honoure.

Wyth longe life wyll I satisfye hym: and shewe hym my saluacion.

Bonum est confitere. Psal.xcii.

IT is a good thynge to geue thankes vnto ỹ lord: and to singe prayses vnto thy name, O most high

To tell of thy louing kindnes early in the morninge: and of the trueth in the nyght season.

Upon an instrument of ten strynges, & vpon the Lute: vpon a loude instrumente, & vpon the harpe.

For thou lorde hast made me glad thrǫngh thy woorkes: and I wyll reioyce in geuinge prayse, for the operacions of thy handes.

O Lord, how glorious are thy worckes: and thy thoughtes are verye depe.

An vnwise man doth not well consider this: and a foole doeth not vnderstande it.

When the vngodlie are grene as the grasse, and when al the workes of wickednes do florysshe: then shal they bee destroyed for euer, but thou lorde arte the moste high for euermore.

For loe, thyne enemies, O lord, loe thine enemies shall perysh: and all the workers of wyckednes shal be destroyed.

But my horne shal bee exalted, lyke the horne of an vnicorne: for I am annoynted wyth freshe oyle.

Mine eye also shal see his lust of myne enemyes: and myne eare shall heare his desyre of the wycked that ryse vp agaynste me.

The righteous shal florysh lyke a palme tre: and shall spriede abrode lyke a Cedre in Libanus.

Such as be planted in the house of the lord: shal florysh in the courtes (of the house of oure God.)

They shal also bryng forthe more fruite in theyr age: and shalbe fat and well lykynge.

Thei that mai shew how true the lord my strength is: & that there is none vnrighteousnes in him.

Dominus regnauit. Psalm xciii.

THe Lorde is kynge, and hath put on gloryous apparell: the lord hath put on his apparel, and gyrded hymselfe wyth strengthe.

He hath made the rounde worlde so sure: that it can not be moued.

Euer sence the worlde began hath thy seat bene prepared: thou arte from euerlastinge.

The flouddes are risen (O Lord) the flouddes haue haue lyfte vp theyr noyſe: the flouddes lift vp theyr waues.

The waues of the ſea are myghtye, and rage horribly: but yet the Lorde that dwelleth on hye is myghtyer.

Thy teſtimonies, O lorde, are very ſure: holines becommeth thyne houſe for euer.

Deus vltionum. Pſal. xciiii.

O Lorde God to whom vengeaunce belongeth thou Godde to whome vengeaunce belõgeth ſhew thy ſelfe.

Aryſe thou iudge of the worlde: and rewarde the proude after theyr deſeruyng.

Lorde howe longe ſhall the vngodly: how long ſhal the vngodly tryumph.

How long ſhall al wycked doers ſpeake ſoo dyſdaynefully: and make ſuch proude boaſtynge.

They ſmite downe thy people O lord: and trouble thyne herytage.

They murther the wyddow and the ſtraunger and put the fatherleſſe to death.

And yet they ſaye, tuſhe, the Lorde ſhall not ſee neyther ſhal the God of Jacob regard it.

Take hede, ye vnwyſe among the people: O ye fooles, when wyll ye vnderſtande.

He that plãted the eare, ſhall he not heare: or he that made the eye, ſhal he not ſee.

Or he that nurtereth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, ſhall he not punyſhe.

The lord knoweth the thoughtes of man: that they are but vayne.

Bleſſed is the man, whõ thou chaſteneſt (O lord) and teacheſt in thy lawe.

That

That thou maist geue him pacience in time of aduersitie: vntill the pit be digged vp for the vngodly

For the lorde wyll not fayle hys people: neyther wyll he forsake his enheritaunce.

Untyll righteousnes turne agayne vnto iudgement: all such as be true of hearte shall folowe it.

Who wyll ryse vp with me against the wicked: or who wyll take my parte against the euil doers?

If the lord had not helped me: it had not fayled but my soule had ben put to silence.

But when I sayde, my foote hath slypped: thy mercye (O Lorde) helped me vp.

In the multitude of the sorowes that I had in my hearte: thy comfortes haue refreshed my soule.

Wylt thou haue anye thing to do with the stoole, of wickednesse: whyche imagyneth myschefe as a lawe?

They gather them together agaynste the soule of the ryghteous: & condemne the innocēte bloude.

But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confydence.

He shall recompence theym their wyckednesse, and destroye them in their owne malyce: yea, the Lorde our God shal destroye theym.

Venite exultemus. Psal.xcv.

Morning Praier.

O Come, let vs syng vnto the Lorde: let vs hartely reioyce in the strength of oure saluacion.

Let vs come before his presence wyth thankes geuyng: and shewe oure selues gladde in him with psalmes.

For the lorde is a great GOD: and a gret king aboue all GODS.

In

In his hande are al the corners of the earth.and the strengthe of the hylles is his also.

The sea is his and he made it: and his handes prepared the drye lande.

O come,let vs worshyp and fall downe:& knele before the Lorde our maker.

For he is (the Lord) our God:and we are the people of his pasture,and the sheepe of his handes.

To daye yf ye wyll heare his voyce, harden not youre heartes:as in the prouocacion, and as in the daye of temptacion in the wyldernes.

When youre fathers tempted mee: proued me, and sawe my workes.

Fortye yeares longe was I greued wyth this generacion,and sayde:it is a people that do erre in their heartes,for they haue not knowen my wayes

Unto whome I sware in my wrathe:that thei shoulde not enter into my rest.

Cantate domino canticum. psal.xcvi.

O Syng vnto the lord a newe songe:singe vnto the Lorde, all the whole earthe.

Sing vnto the Lorde, and prayse his name: be tellynge of his saluation from daye to daye.

Declare his honoure vnto the heathen: and his wonders vnto all people.

For the lorde is greate and can not worthely bee praysed:he is more to be feared then all Goddes.

As for all the Gods of the Heathen,they bee but Idolles,but it is the LORD that made the heauens.

Glorye and worshyppe are beefore him:power and honoure are in his sanctuarye,

Ascribe

Ascribe vnto the Lorde(O ye kinredes of the people:)ascribe vnto the lorde worshyp and power.

Ascribe vnto the Lord the honour due vnto his name:bryng presentes and come into his courtes

O worshyp the lord in the beautye of holines:let the whole earth stande in awe of hym.

Tell it oute among the heathen that the lord is kyng:and that it is he whych hath made the round worlde so fast that it can not be moued,& how that he shall iudge the people ryghteouslye.

Let the heauens reioyce: & let the earth be glad let the sea make a noyse,and all that therein is.

Let the fielde be ioyfull,and all that is in it: then shal al the trees of the wood reioyce before the lord

For he commethe,for he commeth to iudge the earthe:and wyth ryghteousnes to iudge the world and the people wyth his truth.

Dominus regnauit. Psalm.xcvii.

THe Lord is kynge,the earth may be glad thereof:yea the multitude of the Iles maye be glad thereof.

Cloudes and darkenes are rounde aboute hym: rygteousnes and iudgemente are the habitacion of his seate.

There shall go a fyre before him:and burne vppe his enemyes on euerye syde.

His lightninges gaue shine vnto the worlde:the earth saw it and was afrayde.

The hilles melted lyke waxe at the presence of ỳ lord:at the presence of the lord of the whole earth

The heauens haue declared his ryghteousnes: and all the people haue sene his glorye.

Confounded be al thei that worship carued ima ges: and that delyght in vayne gods, worship him all ye gods.

Sion heard of it, and reioyced: and the doughters of Juda were glad, because of thy iudgement O Lorde.

For thou Lorde art hyer then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted farre aboue all GODS.

O ye that loue the Lorde, see that ye hate the thing which is euyl: the lord preserueth the soules of his saiuctes, he shall delyuer them from the hand of the vngodly.

There is sprange vp a light for the righteous: & a ioyfull gladnes for such as be true hearted.

Reioyce in the Lorde, ye ryghteous: and geue thankes for a remembraunce of hys holynes.

Cantate domino. Psal.xcviii.

O Synge vnto the Lorde a newe songe: for he hath done marueilous thynges. Euening praier.

With his owne ryght hande, and wyth hys holye arme: hath he gotten him selfe the victorye.

The lord declared his saluaciō: his righteousnes hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercye and truth towarde the house of Israell: and all the endes of the worlde haue sene the saluacion of our God.

Shewe youre selues ioyfull vnto the Lorde all ye landes: synge, reioyce, and geue thankes.

Prayse the lord vpon the harpe: syng to the harp with a psalme of thankesgeuyng.

With trompettes also and shawmes: O shewe your selues ioyfull before the lord the kynge.

Let

Let the ſea make a noyſe, and al that therin is: the rounde worlde, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floudes clap theyr handes, and let the hylles be ioyfull together before the lorde: for he is come to iudge the earth.

With righteouſnes ſhall he iudge the world and the people with equitie.

Dominus regnauit. Pſal xcix.

The Lorde is kynge be the people neuer ſo vnpacient: he ſytteth betwene the Cherubynes, be the earth neuer ſo vnquiet.

The lorde is greate in Sion: and hye aboue all people.

They ſhall geue thankes vnto thy name: which is great, wonderfull and holye.

The kynges power loueth iudgemēt, thou haſt prepared equitie: thou haſte executed iudgemente and ryghteouſnes in Jacob.

O magnifye the lord our God: and fall downe, before his foteſtoole, for he is holye.

Moſes and Aaron among his prieſtes, and Samuell amonge ſuche as call vppon his name: theſe called vpon the lorde, and he heard them.

He ſpake vnto them out of the cloudy pyller for they kept his teſtimonies: and the lawe that he gaue them.

Thou heardeſt them (O lord our God) thou forgaueſt theym, O God: and punyſhedſt theyr owne inuentions.

Domine exaudi orationem meam. psal.Cii.

Morning praier.

HEare my praier, O Lorde: and let my crynge come in vnto thee.

Hyde not thy face fro me in the time of mi trouble: enclyne thyne eares vnto me when I cal, O heare me, and that ryghte soone.

For my dayes are consumed away lyke smoke: & my bones are brente vp, as it were a fierbrande.

My hearte is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eate my breade.

For the voyce of my groning: my bones wil scant cleaue to my flesshe.

I am become lyke a pellican of the wyldernesse and lyke an Owle that is in the deserte.

I haue watched, and am euen as it were a sparowe: that sitteth alone vpon the house top.

Myne enemyes reuyle me al the day long: and they that are mad vppon mee, are sworne together agaynste me.

For I haue eaten asshes as it were breade: and mingled my drynke with wepinge.

And that because of thine indignacio and wrath for thou haste taken me vp, and cast me downe.

My dayes are gone lyke a shadow: and I am withered lyke grasse.

But thou (O lord) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembraunce throughout all generacions.

Thou shalte arise, and haue mercy vpon Sion:

for

for it is tyme that thou haue mercye vpon her, yea the tyme is come.

And why, thy seruauntes thynke vpon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

The heathen shall feare thy name, O lorde: and al the kynges of the earth thy maiestye.

When the lorde shal buyld vp Syon: and when hys glorye shall appeare.

When he tourneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: and despyseth not theyr desyre.

Thys shalbe written for those that come after: and the people whyche shall be borne, shall prayse the lorde.

For he hath loked downe from his sanctuary: out of the heauen dyd the lord behold the earth.

That he might heare the mourninges of such as bee in captiuitie: and deliuer the chyldren appoynted vnto death.

That they may declare the name of the Lorde in Syon: and his worshyp at Jerusalem.

When the people are gathered together: and the kyngdomes also to serue the lorde.

He brought downe my strength in my iourneye: and shortned my dayes.

But I sayd, O my god, take me not away in the middest of mine age: as for thy yeares, they endure throughout all generations.

Thou lorde, in the beginning hast layed the foundacions of the earth: & the heauens are the worke of thy handes.

They shall perysshe, but thou shalt endure: thei al shall waxe olde as doeth a garment.

And as a vesture shall thou chaunge them: and they shalbe chaunged:but thou arte the same, and thy yeres shall not fayle.

The chyldzen of thy seruaunte s shall continue: and their seede shall stande faste in thy sighte.

Benedic anima mea. psalm.Ciii.

PRayse the lozd, O my soule:and al that is with in me,prayse his holye name.

Prayse the lozd, O my soule:and forget not all his benefites.

Whyche forgeueth all thy sinne: and healeth all thyne infirmityes.

Whyche saueth thy lyfe frome destruction: and crowneth thee wyth mercye and louing kindnes.

Whych satisfied thy mouth wyth good thynges: makynge thee yonge and lustie as an Eagle.

The lozd executeth righteousnes and iudgemēt foz al them that are oppzessed wyth wzong.

He shewed his wayes vnto Moses:his wozkes vnto the chyldzen of Israel.

The Lozde is full of compassion and mercy:long sufferynge and of greate goodnes.

He wyl not alwaye be chydinge:neyther kepeth he his angre foz euer.

He hath not dealte wyth vs after oure sinnes: noz rewarded vs accozdyng to oure wickednesses

Foz looke how hie the heauen is in comparison of the earthe:soo greate is his mercye also toward them that feare him.

Looke how wide also the East is from the West so farre hathe he set our synnes from vs.

Yea lyke as a father pitieth his own chyldzē:euen so is the lozde mercyfull vnto them that feare hym.

Foz he knoweth whereof wee bee made: he remembzeth

meinbzeth ihat we are but dust.

The dayes of man are but as grasse: foz he flozy sheth as a floure of the sielde.

Foz as sone as the wynd goeth ouer it: it is gone and the place thereof shall knowe it no moze.

But the mercifull goodnesse of the Lozde endureth foz euer and euer, vppon theim that feare him: and his ryghteousnes vpon chylders chyldzen.

Euen vppon suche as keepe his couenaunte: and thynke vpon his commaundementes to do theym.

The Lozde hathe pzepared his seate in heauen: and his kingdome ruleth ouer all.

O pzayse the Lozde ye angels of his, ye that excell in strength: ye that fulfil his commaundement and hearken vnto the voyce of vys woozdes.

O pzayse the Lozde al ye his hostes: ye seruaun tes of his, that do his pleasure.

O speake good of the Lozd al ye wozkes of his in al places of his dominion: pzaise thou the Lozde, O my soule.

PRayse the Lozde, O my soule, O Lozde my God: thou arte become exceadynge glozyous, thou arte clothed wyth maiestye and honour. Euenynge praier.

Thou deckeste thy selfe wyth lighte, as it were with a garmente: and spzedest out the heauens like a curtayne.

Which layeth the beames of his chaumbers in the waters, and maketh the cloudes his charette, and walketh vpon the wynges of the wynde.

He maketh his angels spirites: and his mynisters a flamynge fyer.

Hee layed the foundacions of the earthe: that it neuer ſhoulde moue at anye tyme.

Thou couereddſt it wyth the depe lyke as with a garmente: the waters ſtande in the hilles.

At thy rebuke they flye: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afrayed.

They goe vp as hye as the hilles, and down in the valleys beneath: euen vnto the place whyche thou haſte appoynted for them.

Thou haſt ſet theym theyr bondes whych they ſhall not paſſe: nether turne again to couer ꝑ earth.

He ſendeth the ſprynges into the riuer, whyche runne amonge the hilles.

All beaſtes of the fyelde dryncke thereof: and the wylde Aſſes quench their thirſte.

Beſide them ſhal the foules of the ayre haue their habitacion: and ſing among the braunches.

He watereth the hilles from aboue: the earth is filled wyth the fruite of thy worke.

He bryngeth forth graſſe for the cattel: and grene herbe for the ſeruice of men.

That he maye bryng fode out of the earth, and wyne that maketh glad the heart of man: and oyle to make him a cherefull countenaunce, and breade to ſtrengthe mans hearte.

The trees of the lorde alſo are ful of ſappe: euen the Ceders of Libanus whyche he hathe planted.

Wherin the birdes make their neſtes: and the firre trees are a dwellyng for the Storke.

The hie hilles are a refuge for the wild goates: and ſo are the ſtonye rockes for the conyes.

He appoynted the Moone for certayne ſeaſons: and the Sunne knoweth his goyng downe.

Thou makeſt darkenes that it maye be nyght:

wherein wherein al the beastes of the forest doe moue.

The Lyons roaryng after theyr pray: doe seeke theyr meate at God.

The sunne aryseth, and they get them away together: and lay them downe in theyr dennes.

Man goeth forth to his worke and to his labor: vntyll the euenynge.

O lord how manifolde are thy workes: in wisedome hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy ryches.

So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are thynges creppynge innumerable, bothe smale and greate beastes.

There go the shyps: and there is that Leuiathã whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.

These wayte all vpon thee: that thou maist geue them meate in due season.

When thou geuest it them they gather it: & when thou openest thy hand thei are filled with good.

When thou hydest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away theyr breath they dye, and are turned agayne to theyr dust.

When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they shal be made: & thou shalt renewe the face of the earth.

The glorious maiestye of the lord shal endure for euer, the lord shall reioyce in his workes.

The earth shall tremble at the loke of him: if he do but touche the hylles, they shall smoke.

I wyll syng vnto the Lord as long as I liue: I wyll prayse my God whyle I haue my beyng.

And so shall my wordes please hym: my ioy shal be in the lorde.

As for synners, they shall be consumed oute of the earthe, and the vngodlye shall come to an ende: prayse thou the Lorde, O my soule praise the Lord.

Morning praier.

O Geue thankes vnto the lord, and call vpō his name: tel ẏ people what thynges he hath done

O let your songs be of him, and prayse him: and let your talkynge be of al his wonderous workes.

Reioyce in his holie name: let the hearte of them reioyce that seeke the lorde.

Seeke the lorde and his strengthe: seke his face euermore.

Remēbre ẏ meruaylous workes that he hath done his wonders, and the iudgementes of his mouthe.

O ye sede of Abraham his seruaunt: ye chyldren of Jacob his chosen.

He is the lorde our God: his iudgements are in all the worlde.

He hath ben alway mindfull of his couenaunt & promyse: that he made to a thousande generacions

Euen the couenaunte that he made wyth Abraham: and the othe that he sware vnto Isaac.

And apoynted the same vnto Jacob for a law: and to Israell for an euerlasting testamente.

Saying vnto thee wyl I geue the lande of Canaan: the lot of your enheritaunce.

When there was yet but a fewe of theym: and they straungers in the lande.

What time as they wente frō one nacion to another: frome one kingdome to another people.

He suffered no man to doe them wronge: but reproued euen kynges for theyr sakes.

Touche not myne annoynted: and doe my Prophetes no harme.

Moreo-

Moreouer he called for a darth vpon the lande: and destroyed all the prouision of breade.

But he had sent a man before them: euen Joseph which was solde to be a bond seruaunt.

Whose fete they hurt in the stocke: the yron entred into his soule.

Untyll the time came that his cause was knowen: the word of the lorde tryed hym.

The king sent and deliuered him: the Prynce of the people let hym goe free.

He made him lord also of his house: and ruler of all hys substaunce.

That he mighte enstourme his princes after hys wyl: and teach his Senatours wisedome.

Israell also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a straunger in the land of Ham.

And he encreased hys people exceadynglye: and made them stronger then theyr enemyes.

Whose heart turned so that they hated his people: and dealt vntruly wyth hys seruauntes.

Then sent he Moses hys seruaunt: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

He sente darkenes and it was darke: and they were not obedient vnto hys worde.

He tourned theyr waters into bloude: and slewe theyr fyshe.

Their land brought forth frogges: yea, euen in theyr kynges chambers.

He spake the worde, and there came al maner of flyes: and lyce in al theyr quarters.

He gaue them haylestone for rayne: and flambes

of

olfyze in theyz lande.

He ſmote their vines alſo, and fig trees: and deſtroyed the trees, that were in theyz coaſtes.

He ſpake the wozd, and the graſſehoppers cam & caterpillers innumerable: & did eat vp al the gras, in their land, and deuoured the fruit of their groũd

He ſmote all the firſte bozne in theyz lande: euen the chiefe of all their ſtrengthe.

He bzoughte them fozth alſo wyth ſiluer & gold there was not one feble perſon among their tribes Egipte was glad at their departing: foz thei were afrayed of them.

He ſpzed out a cloude to be a couerynge: and fier to geue lyghte in the nyghte ſeaſon.

At theyz deſyze he bzought quayles: and he filled them wyth the bzeade of heauen.

He opened the rocke of ſtone, & the waters flowed oute: ſo that ryuers ran in the dzye places.

Foz why? he remembzeth his holy pzomiſe: and Abzaham his ſeruaunte.

And he bzoughte fozth his people with ioy: and his choſen wyth gladnes.

And gaue theym the landes of the heathen: and thei toke the labours of the people in poſſeſſion.

That they might kepe his ſtatutes: and obſerue his lawes.

Confitemini domino. Pſalm Cvi.

Euenynge praier.

O Geue thankes vnto the Lozd, foz he is gracious: and his mercy endureth foz euer.

Who can expzeſſe the noble actes of the lozd: oz ſhewe fozth al his pzayſe?

Bleſſed are they that alwaye kepe iudgement: and ryghteouſnes.

Remembze

Remembre O Lorde, accordynge to thy fauoure that thou beareſt vnto thy people: O vyſit me with thy ſaluacion.

That I may ſe the felicitye of thy choſen: and reioyce in the gladnes of thy people, and geue thankes wyth thyne enheritaunce.

We haue ſinned with our fathers: we haue done amyſſe, and dealte wyckedly.

Our fathers regarded not thy wōders in Egipt neither kept thei thi great goodnes in remēbraūce but were diſobediente at the ſea, euen at the red ſea Neuertheleſſe, he helped them for his names ſake: that he myghte make his power to be knowen.

He rebuked the red ſea, & it was dryed vp: ſo he led thē through the depe, as through a wylderneſs.

And he ſaued them from the aduerſaries hande: and delyuered them from the hande of the enemye.

As for thoſe that troubled thē, the waters ouerwhelmed theym, there was not one of theym leſte.

Then beleued they his wordes: and ſang prayſe vnto him.

But wythin a whyle they forgat his woorkes and wouilde not abide his counſayle.

But luſt came vpon them in the wilderneſs: and they tempted god in the deſerte.

And he gaue theim theyr deſyre: and ſēt leaneſſe wythal into theyr ſoule.

Thei angred Moſes alſo in the tentes: and Aaron the ſayncte of the Lorde.

So the erth opened and ſwalowed vp Dathā: and couered the congregacion of Abiram.

And the fyer was kindled in theyr companie: the flame brent vp the vngodly.

They

They made a calfe in Horeb: and worshipped the molten Image.

Thus they turned their glorye into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay.

And they forgat God their sauiour: which had done so great thynges in Egipte.

Wonderous woorkes in the lande of Ham: and feareful thynges by the red sea.

So he sayde, he woulde haue destroyed theim, had not Moses his chosen stande before him in the gap: to turne away e his wrathful iudignacion, lest he shoulde destroye them.

Yea, they thought scorne of that pleasaunt land: and gaue no credence vnto his worde.

But murmured in their tentes: and harkened not vnto the voyce of the Lorde.

Then lyfte he vp his hande agaynste them: to ouerthrowe them in the wyldernes.

To caste out their sede among the nacions: and to scatter them in the landes.

They ioyned theim selues vnto Baal Peor: and eate the offerynges of the deade.

Thus they prouoked him to anger wyth their owne inuencions: and the plague was great amonge them.

Then stode vppe phinees, and praied: and so the plague ceased.

And that was coumpted vnto hym for ryghteousnes: among al posteritycs for euermore.

They angred hym also at the waters of stryfe: so that he punished Moyses for their sakes.

Because they prouoked his spirite soo: that hee spake vnaduisedlye wyth his lyppes.

Neither

Neither destroyed they the Heathen: as the lord commaunded them.

But were myngled amonge the Heathen: and learned theyr woorkes.

In soo muche that they worshipped their ydols which turned to their own decay: yea, they offred their sonnes and doughters vnto deuylles.

And shed innocent bloud, euen the bloud of their sonnes and of their doughters: whom they offred vnto the Idols of Canaan, and the lande was defyled with bloude.

Thus were they stained with their own woorkes and went a whoring with their own inuencions.

Therfore was the wrath of the lord kyndled agaynst his people: in so much that he abhorred hys owne enheritaunce.

And he gaue thē ouer into the hand of the heathen and they that hated them: were lordes ouer them.

Theire enemyes oppressed them: and had them in subiection.

Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled againste him with theyr owne inuencyons, and were brought downe in their wyckednes.

Neuertheless, when he sawe theyr aduersytye: he hearde theyr complaynte.

He thought vpō his couenaunt, and pitied thē according vnto the multitude of his mercyes: yea he made all those that had led them away captyue to pitie them:

Deliuer vs lorde oure God, and gather vs from among the Heathen: that we mai geue thankes to thy holy name, and make oure boast of thy prayse.

Blessed be the lorde god of Israell, from euerla

Morning praier.

O Geue thankes vnto the loyde, foy he is gracious: and his mercye endureth foy euer.

Let them geue thankes, whome the loyde hath redemed: and delyuered from the hande of the enemye.

And gathered them out of the lands: from the East, and from the west, from the Noyth, and from the South.

They went astraye in the wyldernes out of the waye: and founde no citie to dwell in.

Hungry and thirstye: their soule saynted in them

So they cryed vnto the Loyde in their trouble: and he delyuered them from theyr distresse.

He led them foy the by the ryght waye: that they myghte go to the cytye where they dwelte.

O that men woulde therefoye prayse the loyde, foy his goodnes: and declare the wonders that he doeth foy the chyldren of men.

Foy he satisfieth the empty soule: and filleth the hungrie soule wyth gladnes.

Suche as sit in darkenes, and in the shadow of deathe: beynge faste bounde in miserye and yron.

Because they rebelled against the woyds of the Loyd: and lyghtlye regarded the counsayle of the moste hyghe.

He also broughte down theyr hart thoyow heauines: they fell down, and there was none to helpe theym vp.

So when they cried vnto the loyd in theyr trouble: he delyuered them oute of their distresse.

Foy

For he broughte them out of darkenes, & out of the shadowe of death: & brake their bondes in sūdre

O that men woulde therefore praise the lord for his goodnes: and declare the wōders that he dothe for the chyldren of men.

For he hathe broken the gates of brasse: and smitten the barres of Iron in sunder.

Foolyshe men are plaged for theyr offence: and because of theyr wyckednes.

Theyr soule abhorred al maner of meat: and thei were euen harde at deathes doore.

So when they cryed vnto the lord in their trouble: he delyuered them out of their distresse.

He sente his woorde and healed them: and they were saued from theyr destruction.

O that men would therfore prayse the lorde for his goodnes: and declare the wōders that he doeth for the chyldren of men.

That thei woulde offer vnto him the sacrifice of thankesgeuing: & tel out his workes with gladnes

They that go downe to the sea in shippes: and occupye theyr buslines in greate waters.

These men see the workes of the Lorde: and his wonders in the depe.

For at his word the stormye wind ariseth: whiche lyfteth vp the waue thereof.

They are caryed vppe to heauen, and downe againe to the depe: their soule melteth away because of the trouble.

They rele to and fro, and stacker like a dronken man: and are at theyr wyttes ende.

So when they crye vnto the lorde in theyr trouble: he delyuereth them out of their distresse.

For

For he maketh the storme to ceasse: soo that the waues thereof are still.

Then are they glad, because thei be at rest: & soo he bryngeth thē vnto the hauen wher they wold be

O that men woulde therefore prayse the lord for his goodnes: and declare the wōders that he doth for the chyldren of men.

They that woulde exalte hym also in the congregacion of the people: and prayse hym in the seate of the elders.

Which turneth the floudes into a wyldernes: and dryeth vp the water sprynges.

A fruitfull land maketh he barren: for the wickednes of them that dwell therein.

Agayne, he maketh the wildernes a standynge water: and water sprynges of a drye grounde.

And there he setteth the hungry: that they may buylde them a citie to dwell in.

That they maye sowe theyr lande: and plante vineyardes to yelde them fruites of encrease.

He blesseth theym so that they multiplye exceadingelye: and suffreth not theyr cattell to decrease.

And agayne, when they are minished & brought lowe: through oppression, throughe plage or trouble.

Thoughe he suffer theym to bee euyll entreated throughe tyrauntes: and let theym wander oute of the waye in the wildernes.

Yet helpeth he the poore out of misery: and maketh hym householdes lyke a flocke of shepe.

The ryghteous wyll consider this, and reioyce: and the mouthe of al wyckednes shalbe stopped.

Whoso is wyse, wyll ponder these things: & thei shall vnderstande the louing kindnes of the Lorde.

The woorkes of the Lord are great: sought out of al them that haue pleasure therein.

His woorke is worthy to be praysed and had in honoure, and his righteousnes endureth for euer.

The mercifull and gracious lorde hath so doone his marueylous woorkes: that they ought to be had in remembraunce.

He hath geuen meat vnto them that feare him: he shall euer be myndefull of his couenaunte.

He hath shewed hys people ỹ power of his woorkes

What ayleth thee, O thou ſea that thou fleddeſt and thou Jordan that thou waſte dryuen backe.

Ye mountaynes that ye ſkypped like rammes: and ye litle hilles, lyke younge ſheepe.

Tremble thou earth at the preſence of the lord: at the preſence of the God of Jacob, Whyche turned the hearde rocke into a standing water:and the flinte stone into a spryngyng well.

Non nobis domine. Psalm.Cxv.

NOt vnto vs(O Lorde)not vnto vs,but vnto thy name geue the prayse: for thy louyng mercye,and for thy truthes sake.

Wherfore shall the heathen saye:where is now theyr God.

As for oure God he is in heauen: hee hathe done whatsoeuer pleaseth him.

Their Idols are siluer & golde:euen the worke of mens handes.

They haue mouthes and speake not: eyes haue they and see not.

They haue eares,and heare not:noses haue they and smell not

They haue handes,& handle not, fete haue they and walke not:neyther speake they thorow theyr throote.

They that make them are lyke vnto theym:and so are all they that put theyr truste in them.

But thou house of Israel trust thou in the lord: he is theyr succour and defence.

Ye house of Aaron,put your truste in the lorde: he is their helper and defender.

Ye that feare the lorde,truste ye in the Lorde: he is theyr helper and defender.

The Lorde hath bene mindful of vs, and he shal blesse vs:euen he shall blesse the house of Israell, he shall blesse the house of Aaron.

He shall blesse theym that feare the lorde: bothe small and greate.

The lord shall encreease you more and more:you and your chyldzen.

Ye are the blessed of the lozd: whyche made heauen and earth.

All the whole heauens are the lozdes: the earth hath he geuen vnto the chyldzen of men.

The dead prayse not thee (O Lozde) neyther all they that goe downe into the silence.

But we wyll prayse the lozde: from thys tyme forth for euermoze.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi.

Morning praier.

I Am well pleased that the lozde hathe heard the voyce of my prayer.

That he hath enclined his eare vnto me: therefoze wyll I call vpon hym as long as I lyue.

The snares of death compassed me round about and the paynes of hell gat hold vpon me.

I shall find trouble and heuines, and I shal cal vpon the name of the lozd: (O lozd) I beseche thee delyuer my soule.

Gracious is the lozde and righteous: yea, oure God is mercyfull.

The lozd preserueth the simple: I was in miseri and he helped me.

Turne agayne then vnto thy reste O my soule: for the lozd hath rewarded thee.

And why? thou hast deliuered my soule frō death mine eies from teares: and my feete from fallinge.

I wyll walke before the lozde: in the lande of the lyuynge.

I beleued and therefoze wyll I speake: but I was soze troubled, I sayde in my haste, all men are lyers.

What reward shall I geue vnto the Lozd: for all the benefites that he hathe done vnto me.

I wil receaue the cup of ſaluacion: and cal vpon the name of the lorde.

I wyll paye my vowes now in the preſence of all his people: right deare in the ſighte of the Lord is the death of his ſayntes.

Behold (O Lorde) how that I am thy ſeruaunt: I am thy ſeruaunte, and the ſon of thy handemayde thou haſt broken my bondes in ſonder.

I wyl offer to thee, the ſacrifice of thankeſgeuinge and wyll call vpon the name of the Lorde.

I wil pay my vowes vnto the Lord, in the ſight of all his people: in the courtes of the lordes houſe, euen in the myddeſte of thee, O Ieruſalem. Prayſe the lorde.

Laudate dominum. Pſalm. Cxvii.

O Prayſe the Lorde all ye Heathen: prayſe ye hym all ye nacions.

For his mercifull kindeneſſe is euer more and more toward vs: and the trueth of the Lord endureth for euer. Prayſe the Lorde.

Confitemini domino. Pſalm. Cxviii

O Geue thankes vnto the Lorde for he is gracious: becauſe his mercye endureth for euer.

Let Iſraell nowe confeſſe that hee is gracious: and that his mercye endureth for euer.

Let the houſe of Aaron nowe confeſſe: that hys mercye endureth for euer.

Yea let them nowe that feare the lord confeſſe, that his mercye endureth for euer.

I called vpon the lorde in trouble: and the lorde hearde me at large.

The lord is on my ſide: I wyl not fear what mā doeth doeth vnto me.

The Lord taketh my parte wyth them that helpe me: therfore shal I se mi desyre vpon mine enemies
It is better to trust in the lord: then to put anie confidence in man.
It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in prynces.
All nacions compassed me rounde about: but in the name of the Lorde wyll I destroye them.
They kept me on euerie side, they kept me in (I saye) one euerye syde: but in the name of the Lorde wyll I destroye them.
They came aboute me lyke bees: and are extinct euen as the fyre among the thornes: for in the name of the Lorde I wyl destroye them.
Thou haste thrust sore at me, that I myght fal: but the lorde was my helpe.
The lorde is my strengthe and my songe: and is become my saluacion.
The voyce of isy and health is in the dwellings of the ryghteous: the ryghte hand of the lord bringeth myghtye thynges to passe.
The ryghte hand of the lorde hath the preeminence the ryghte hand of the lord bringeth myghtye thinges to passe.
I wyll not dye, but lyue: and declare the workes of the lorde.
The lord hath chastened and corrected me: but he hathe not geuen me ouer vnto death.
Open me the gates of righteousnes, that I mai go into them: and geue thankes vnto the Lorde.
This is the gate of the lorde, the righteous shal enter into it.

I wyll thanke thee, for thou hast heard me: and arte become my saluacion.

The same stone which the buylders refused is become the heade stone in the corner.

This was the Lordes doing: and it is marueilous in oure eyes.

This is the daie whyche the lorde hathe made: we wyll reioyce and be glade in it.

Helpe (me) nowe O lorde: O lord send vs prospe-ritye.

Blessed bee he that comethe in the name of the lorde: we haue wyshed you good lucke, ye that be of the house of the lorde.

God is the Lord, whych hath shewed vs light: binde the sacrifice wyth cordes, yea euen vnto the hornes of the aultare.

Thou arte my God, and I wil thanke the: thou arte my God, and I wyll prayse thee.

O geue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is gracious: and his mercye endureth for euer.

Beati immaculati. Psalme. Cxix.

BLessed are those that be vndefyled in the way: and walke in the lawe of the Lorde. Euening praier.

So shall I not be confoūded: whyle I haue respecte vnto all thy commaundementes.

I

I wyll thanke thee, wyth an vnfayned heatre when I shall haue learned the iudgementes of thy ryghteousnes.

I wyll keepe thy ceremonyes: O forsake me not vtterlye.

In quo corrigit.

WHerwythall shall a younge man clense his way euen by rulyng him selfe after thy word Wyth my whole heart haue I sought the: O let me not go wrong out of thy commaundements

Thy worde haue I hid wythin myne heart: that I shoulde not sinne agaynst thee.

Blessed art thou O lord: O teache me thy statutes.

Wyth my lippes haue I bene tellynge: of all the iudgementes of thy mouthe.

I haue had as greate delyghte in the way of thy testimonyes: as in all maner of ryches.

I wil talke of thy commaundements: and haue respecte vnto thy wayes.

My delyghte shalbe in thy statutes: and I will not forget thy wordes.

Retribue seruo.

O Do wel vnto thy seruaunte: that I may liue and kepe thy worde.

Open thou myne eyes: that I maye see the wonderous thynges of thy lawe.

I am a straunger vpon earthe: O hyde not thy commaundemente from me.

My soule breaketh oute for very feruent desire: that it hath alwaye vnto thy iudgementes.

Thou hast rebuked the proud: & cursed are they that do erre from thy commaundementes.

O turne from me shame and rebuke: for I haue kept thy thy testimonies.

Princes also did sit and speake against me: but thy seruaunte is occupyed in thy statutes.

For thy testimonyes are my delyghte : and my counsaylers.

Adhesit pauimento.

MY soule cleaueth to the dust: O quicken thou me accordynge to thy worde.

I haue knowelegded my wayes, and thou heardest me: O teache me thi statutes.

Make me to vnderstande the way of thy cõmaundements: so shall I talke of thy wõderous workes

My soule melteth away for very heauines: comfort thou me accordynge vnto thy worde.

Take fro me the waye of lyinge : and cause thou me to make much of thy lawe.

I haue chosen the way of trueth: and thy iudgementes haue I layed before me.

I haue stycken vnto thy testimonies: O lord confounde me not.

I wyl runne the way of thy commaundements when thou haste set my hearte at libertie.

Legem pone.

TEache me, O Lorde, the waie of thy statutes: and I shall keepe it vnto the ende. Morning praier.

Geue me vnderstandynge, and I shall kepe thy lawe: yea, I shall keepe it wyth my whole hearte.

Make me to go in the pathe of thy commaundementes: for therein is my delyte.

Enclyne my heart vnto thy testimonies: and not to couetousnes:

O tourne awaye mine eyes, lest they behold vanitye: and quycken thou me in thy waye.

O ſtablyſhe thy woꝛde in thy ſeruaunte: that I maye feare thee.

Take awaye the rebuke that I am afayd of, foꝛ thy iudgementes are good.

Behold my delyghte is in thy commaundementes, O quycken me in thy ryghteouſnes.

Et veniat ſuper me.

LEt thy louyng mercy come alſo vnto me, o loꝛd euen thy ſaluacion accoꝛdynge vnto thy woꝛd.

So ſhall I make anſwere vnto my blaſphemers: foꝛ my truſte is in thy woꝛde.

O take not the woꝛd of trueth vtterly out of my mouth: foꝛ my hope is in thy iudgementes.

So ſhal I alway kepe thy law: yea foꝛ euer & euer.

And I wil walke at liberty: foꝛ I ſeke thy commaundementes.

I wyl ſpeake of thy teſtimonyes alſo: euē befoꝛe kynges: and wyll not be aſhamed.

And my delighte ſhalbe in thy cominaundementes: whyche I haue loued.

My handes alſo wyll I lyfte vp vnto thy commaundementes whyche I haue loued: and my ſtudye ſhalbe in thy ſtatutes.

Memor eſto verbi tui.

O Thynke vpon thy ſeruaunte, as concerning thy woꝛde: wherein thou haſte cauſed mee to put my truſte.

The ſame is my comfoꝛt in my trouble: foꝛ thy woꝛde hath quickened me.

The proude haue had me exceadingly in derſiſion: yet haue I not ſhrinked from thy lawe.

Foꝛ I remembred thine euerlaſting iudgementes, O loꝛde: and receyued comfoꝛte.

I am

I am horribly afrayde for the vngodlye: that forsake thy lawe.

Thy statutes haue bene my songes: in the house of my pilgrimage.

I haue thoughte vpon thi name, O lorde in the nighte season: and haue kepte thy lawe.

This I had: because I kepte thy testimonies.

Portio mea domine.

Thou art my portion, O lord: I haue promised to kepe thy lawe.

I made mine humble peticion in thy presence wyth my whole hearte: O be merciful vnto me accordynge vnto thy woorde.

I called myne owne wayes to remembraunce: and turne my feete into thy testymonyes.

I made hast: and prolonged not the tyme to keepe thy commaundementes.

The congregacions of the vngodli haue robbed me: but I haue not forgotten thy lawe.

At mydnight wil I ryse, to geue thankes vnto thee: because of thy ryghteous iudgementes,

I am a companyon of al them, that feare thee: and kepe thy commaundementes.

The earth, O Lord, is full of thy uiercy: O teach me thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecesti.

O Lorde, thou haste dealte graciously wyth thy seruaunte: accordynge vnto thy worde.

O learn me true vnderstandyng and knowledge: for I haue beleued thy commaundementes.

Beefore I was troubled I wente wronge: but now haue I kepte thy worde.

Thou art good & gracious: o teach me thy statuts.

The proude haue imagined a lye agaynste mee: but I wyll kepe thy commaundementes wyth mi whole hearte.

Their heart is as fat as braune: but my delight hath bene in thy lawe.

It is good for me that I haue bene in trouble: that I may learne thy statutes.

The law of thy mouth is dearer vnto me: then thousandes of golde and syluer.

Manus tue fecerunt.

Eueninge praier.

THy hands haue made me and fashioned me: O geue me vnderstanding, that I may learn thy commaundementes.

They that feare thee wil be glade when they see me: because I haue put my trust in thy worde.

I know, O lord, that thi iudgmentes are ryghte and that thou of verye faythfulnes hast caused me to be troubled.

O let thy mercyfull kindnes be my comfort: accordynge to thy word vnto thy seruaunte.

O let thy louynge mercyes come vnto me, that I may lyue: for thy law is my delyght.

Let the proud be cõfounded, for thei go wickedly about to destroye me: but I wyll be occupyed in thy commaundementes.

Let suche as feare thee: and haue knowen thy testimonies be turned vnto me.

O let mine heart be found in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Defecit anima mea.

MY soule hath longed for thy saluacion: and I haue a good hope, because of thy worde.

Mine eies long sore for thy word, saying: O when

when wylte thou comforte me.

For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet doe not I forget thy statutes.

Howe many are the dayes of thy seruaunt: whē wilte thou bee auenged of them that persecute me.

The proude haue digged pittes for me: whyche are not after thy lawe.

All thy commaundementes are true: they persecute me falsely, O be thou my helpe.

They had almost made an ende of me vpon earth: but I forsoke not thy commaundementes.

O quicken me after thy louynge kindnes: and so shal I kepe thy testimonies of thy mouth.

In eternum domine.

O Lorde: thi word endureth for euer in heauē.

Thy trueth also remayneth from one generacion to another: thou hast layed the foūdacion of the earth, and it abideth.

They continue this daye, accordyng to thyne ordinaunce: for all thynges serue thee.

If my delight had not bene in thy law: I should haue perished in my trouble.

I wyll neuer forget thy commaundemētes: for wyth them thou haste quickened me.

I am thyne, oh saue me: for I haue sought the commaundementes.

The vngodlye layde wayte for me, to destroye me: but I wyll consider thy testimonyes.

I see that all thynges come to an ende: but thy commaundementes is exceadinge broade.

Quomodo dilexi,

LOrde, what loue haue I vnto thy lawe, al the day longe is my study in it.

Thou, through thy commaundements hast made me wyser then myne enemyes: for they are euer wyth me.

I haue more vnderstandyng then my teachers: for thy testimonies are my studye.

I am wiser then the aged: because I keepe thy commaundements.

I haue refrayned my feete from euery euil way that I maye keepe thy worde.

I haue not shronke frome thy iudgementes: for thou teachest me.

O howe swete are thy wordes vnto my throte: yea, sweter then honye vnto my mouth.

Through thy commaundementes I get vnderstandynge: therefore I hate all wycked wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Morning prayer.

THy worde is a lantarne vnto my feete: and a lyghte vnto my pathes.

I haue sworne: and am stedefastely purposed to kepe thy ryghteous iudgementes.

I am troubled aboue measure: quycken mee, O lorde, accordynge vnto thy worde.

Let the free wil offeryinges of my mouth please thee, O lorde: and teache me thy iudgementes.

My soule is alwaye in my hand: yet dooe not I forget thy lawe.

The vngodlie haue layde a snare for me: but yet I swarued not from thy commaundementes.

Thy testimonyes haue I claymed as mine heritage for euer: and whye, they are the verye ioye of myne hearte.

I haue

I haue applyed myne hearte to fulfyll thy ſtatutes alwaye: euen vnto the ende.

Iniquos odio habui.

I Hate theym that imagyne euyll thynges: but thy lawe doe I loue.

Thou art my defence and ſhyelde: and my truſt is in thy woꝛde.

Awaye frome mee ye wycked: I wyll keepe the commaundementes of my god.

O ſtablyſh me accoꝛdinge vnto thy woꝛde, that I may lyue: & let me not be diſapoynted of my hope Holde thou me vp, and I ſhalbe ſafe: yea, my delyghte ſhalbe euer in thy ſtatutes.

Thou haſte troden downe al them that depart from thy ſtatutes: foꝛ they imagine but diſceyte.

Thou putteſt away al the vngodly of the earth lyke dꝛoſſe: and therefoꝛe I loue thy teſtimonies.

My fleſhe trembleth foꝛ feare of thee: and I am afrayde of thy iudgementes.

Feci iudicium.

I Deale wyth the thyng that is lawful and ryght: O geue me not ouer vnto myne oppꝛeſſours:

Make thou thy ſeruaunt to delight in that whiche is good: that the pꝛoude do me no wꝛonge.

Myne eyes are waſted away wyth lokyng foꝛ thy healthe: and foꝛ the woꝛde of thy ryghteouſnes

O deale wyth thy ſeruaunte accoꝛdyng vnto thi louynge mercye: and teache mee thy ſtatutes.

I am thy ſeruaunte, O graunte me vnderſtandynge: that I maye knowe thy teſtimonyes.

It is time foꝛ thee Loꝛde to laye to thyne hande: foꝛ they haue deſtroyed thy lawe.

For I loue thy commaundementes: aboue golde and precious stone.

Therefore holde I streyght al thy commaundementes: and all false wayes I vtterlye abhorre.

Mirabilia.

THy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soule kepe them.

When thy word goeth forth, it geueth lyght and vnderstandynge: euen vnto the simple.

I opened my mouth and drew in my breath: for my delyghte was in thy commaundementes.

O loke thou vpon me, and be merciful vnto me: as thou vsest to doe vnto those that loue thy name.

Order my steppes in thy worde: and so shall no wickednes haue dominion ouer me.

O delyuer me from the wrongfull dealinges of men: and so shall I kepe thy commaundementes.

Shewe the lighte of thy countenaunce vpon thy seruaunte: and teach me thy statutes.

Myne eyes gushe out wyth water: because men kepe not thy lawe.

Iustus es domine.

RIghteousnes arte thou, O Lorde, and true is thy iudgemente.

The testimonyes that thou hast cõmaunded: are exceadyng ryghteous and true.

My zeale hath euen consumed me: because mine enemyes haue forgotten thy wordes.

Thy woorde is tried to the vttermoste: and thy seruaunte loueth it.

I am small, and of no reputacion: yet doe not I forget thy commaundementes.

Thy ryghteousnes is an euerlasting ryghteousnesse:

uelle:and thy lawe is the trueth.

Trouble and heauinesse haue taken holde vpon me:yet is my delyghte in thy commaundementes.

The ryghteousnes of thy testymonyes is euerlastynge:O graunte me vnderstandinge,& I shal liue Clamaui in toto corde meo.

I Call wyth my whole hearte: heare me,O Lorde, I wyll kepe thy statutes. Euenin⁹ praier.

Yea,euen vppon thee dooe I call:heelpe me,and I shall kepe thy testimonyes.

Eearelye in the morninge doe I crie vnto thee: for in thy worde is my truste.

Myne eyes preuent the night watches, that I myghte be occupied in thy wordes.

Heare my voyce,O lorde, accordynge vnto thy louynge kindenesse:quicken me accordyng as thou arte wonte.

They draw nie that of malice persecute me:and are farre from thy lawe.

Be thou nye at hande, O Lorde:for al thy commaundementes are true.

As concerninge thy testimonyes : I haue knowen long sence,that thou haste groundad them for euer

Vide humilitatem.

O Considre myne aduersitye, and delyuer me: for I do not forget thy lawe.

Auenge thou my cause, and delyuer mee: quycken me accordyng vnto thy worde.

Health is far from the vngodly, for they regard not thy statutes.

Greate is thy mercye, O Lorde : quycken me as thou art wonte.

Many ther are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet do not I swarue from thy testimonies.

It greueth me when I see the transgressours: because they kepe not thy law.

Consider O Lord, how I loue thy cõmaũdemẽtes: O quicken me accordinge to thy louinge kindenes.

Thy worde is true from euerlasting: all the iudgementes of thy ryghteousnes endure for euermore.

Principes persecuti sunt.

PRynces haue persecuted me wythout a cause: but my hearte standeth in awe of thy wordes.

I am as glade of thy worde: as one that findeth great spoyles.

As for lyes, I hate and abhorre theym: but thy lawe do I loue.

Seuen tymes a day doe I praise thee: because of thy ryghteous iudgementes.

Great is the peace that they haue which loue thi lawe: and they are not offended at it.

Lorde I haue loked for thy sauinge healthe: and done after thy comaundements.

My soule hath kepte thy testimonies: and loued them exceadingly.

I haue kepte thy commaundementes and testimonies: for al my wayes are before thee.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

LEt my complaynte come before thee, O Lorde: geue me vnderstandynge, accordyng vnto thy worde.

O let my supplication come before the: delyuer me accordyng to thy woorde.

My lyppes shal speake of thy prayse: when thou hast haste taughte me thy statutes.

Yea, my tonge shall singe of thy worde: for all thy commaundementes are ryghteous.

Let thyne hand helpe me: for I haue chosen thy commaundementes.

I haue longed for thy sauing health O Lorde: and in thy lawe is my delyghte.

O let my soule lyue, and it shall prayse thee: and thy iudgementes shall helpe me.

I haue gone astraye lyke a shepe that is lost: oh seke thy seruaunte, for I do not forget thy commaũdementes.

Ad dominum cum tribularer. Psal.Cxx.

WHen I was in trouble, I called vppon the Lorde: and he heardе me. Morning praier.

Deliuer mi soule (O Lord) from lying lippes and from a deceyptfull tonge.

What rewarde shalbe geuen or done vnto the, thou false tonge, euen myghty and sharpe arrowes wyth whoate burning coales.

Wo is me that I am constrayned to dwell wyth Mesech: and to haue myne habitacion amonge the tentes of Cedar.

My soule hath long dwelt among them, that be enemyes vnto peace.

I labour for peace, but when I speake vnto them thereof: they make them to battayle.

Leuaui oculos meos. Psal.Cxxi.

I Wyll lyfte vppe mine eyes vnto the hylles: frome whence commeth my helpe.

My helpe commeth euen from the Lorde: whiche hath made heauen and earth.

He wyll not ſuffer thy fote to be moued: and he that kepeth thee wyll not ſlepe.

Beholde he that kepeth Iſraell, ſhall neyther ſlumber nor ſlepe.

The Lorde him ſelfe is thy keeper: the Lorde is thy defence vpon thy ryght hande.

So that the ſunne ſhall not burne thee by day: neyther the Moone by nyghte.

The lorde ſhall preſerue ther from all euyll: yea it is euen he that ſhall kepe my ſoule.

The lorde ſhall preſerue thy goyng out, and thy commynge in: from thys tyme forth for euermore.

I was glade when they ſayde vnto me: we wyll goe into the houſe of the lorde.

Our feete ſhall ſtande in thy gates, O Ieruſalem.

Ieruſalem is buylded as a cytye that is at vnitye in it ſelfe.

For thyther the tribes go vp euen the tribes of the Lorde: to teſtifye vnto Iſrael, to geue thankes vnto the name of the lorde.

For there is the ſeate of iudgemente: euen the ſeate of the houſe of Dauyd.

O praye for the peace of Ieruſalem: they ſhall proſper that loue thee.

Peace be within thy walles: and plenteouſnes wythin the palaces.

For my brethren and companyons ſakes: I wyll wyſhe the proſperitye.

Yea, becauſe of the houſe of the lord our God: I wyl ſeke to doe thee good.

Ad te leuaui oculos meos. Pſal, Cxxiii

VNto thee lyfte I vp myne eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heauens.

Beholde euen as the eyes of seruaunts looke vnto the handes of theyr maysters, and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the hand of her maisters: euen so oure eyes wayte vpon the Lorde our God, vntil he haue mercye vpon vs.

Haue mercye vpon vs, O lord: haue mercy vpon vs: for we are vtterlye despised.

Our soule is filled wyth the scornefull reproofe of the wealthye: & with the dispitefulnes of the proud Nisi quia dominus. Psalm. Cxxiiii.

IF the Lorde him selfe had not beene of oure syde (nowe maye Israell saye:) yf the lorde hym selfe had not bene of ours syde, when men rose vppe agaynste vs.

They had swallowed vs vp quicke: when they were so wrathfullye displeased at vs.

Yea the waters had drowned vs: and the streame had gone ouer oure soule.

The deepe waters of the proud haue gone ouer oure soule.

But praysed be the Lord wych hath not geuen vs ouer for a praye vnto theyr teeth.

Oure soule is escaped euen as a byrde out of the snare of the fouler: the snare is broken, and we are delyuered.

Oure helpe standeth in the name of the Lorde: wyych hath made heauen and earth.

Qui confidunt in domino. Psalm. Cxxv.

THey that put theyr truste in the Lorde: shalbe euen as the mounte Sion: which may not be remoued, but standeth faste for euer.

The

The hilles stand about Jerusalem, euen so standeth the lorde rounde aboute his people: from this tyme forth for euermore.

For the rodof the vngodlye commeth not into the lot of the ryghteous: lest the ryhteous put their hande vnto wyckednes.

Do well, O Lorde, vnto those that be good and true of hearte.

As for such as turne backe vnto theyr owne wickednes: the lorde shall leade them forth wyth the euyll doers, but peace shalbe vpon Israel.

In conuertendo. Psalm. Cxxvi.

Euening praier.

WHen the lord tourned agayn the captiuitiof Sion: thē wer we like vnto them that dream Then was our mouth fulled wyth laughter: and our tong wyth ioye.

Then saide they amonge the heathen: the Lord hathe done greate thynges for them.

Yea, the Lorde hath done greate thynges for vs al readye: whereof we reioyce.

Turne oure captiuitye, O Lorde: as the ryuers in the South.

They that sow in teares shall reape in ioye.

He that now goeth on his waye weping, and beareth forthe good seede: shall doubtles come agayne wyth ioye, and bryng his sheues wyth hym.

Nisi dominus edifi. Psalm Cxxvii.

EXcepte the lorde builde the house: their labour is but lost that buylde it.

Except the Lord kepe the city: the watchman waketh but in vayne.

It is but lost labour that ye hast to ryse vp earely, & so

so late take rest: and eate the breade of carefulnes, for so he geueth his beloued slepe.

Loe, chyldren and the fruite of thy wombe: are an heritage and gyfte that commethe of the lorde.

Like as the arrowes in the hand of the Gisaunt; euen so are the younge chyldren.

Happye is the man that hathe his quiuer full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speake wyth theyr enemyes in the gate.

Beati omnes. Psalme.Cxxviii.

BLessed are all they that feare the Lorde: and walke in his wayes.

For thou shalt eate the labours of thine handes O well is thee, and happye shalte thou be.

Thy wyfe shalbe as the fruictful vine: vpon the walles of thyne house.

Thy children like the Olyue braunches: round aboute thy table.

Loe, thus shall the man bee blessed: that feareth the Lorde.

The lorde from oute of Syon shall so blesse the that thou shalte se Jerusalem in prosperitye all thy lyfe longe.

Yea that thou shalte se thy childers children: and peace vpon Israell.

Sepe expugnauerunt. Psalm.Cxxix.

MAny a tyme haue they foughte agaynste me fro my youth vp: (maye Israell nowe saye.)

Yea manye a tyme haue they vexed me fro my youth vp: but thei haue not preuailed agaīst me

The plowers plowed vpō my backe: and made long forowes.

But

But the ryghteous Lorde: hathe hewen the snares of the vngodlye in pieces.

Let them be confounded and turned backward: as many as haue euyll wyll at Sion.

Let them be euen as the gralle growyng vpon the houle toppes: which withereth afore it be plucked vp.

Wherof the mower filleth not his hand: nether he that byndeth vp the sheaues, his bosome.

So that they wyche go bye, say not so muche as the Lorde prosper you: we wysshe you good lucke, in the name of the Lorde.

De profundis clamaui. Psalme.Cxxx.

Oute of the deepe haue I called vnto thee, O lorde: lorde heare my voyce.

Oh let thyne eares consider well: the voyce of my complaynte.

If thou lorde wylte be extreme to marke what is done amysse: Oh lorde who maye abide it.

For there is mercye wyth thee: therefore shalte thou be feared.

I loke for the lord, my soule doth wayte for him: in his worde is my truste.

My soule stieth vnto the Lorde before the morninge watche: (I saye before the morning watch.)

O Israell, truste in the Lorde, for wyth the lord there is mercy: and wyth him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeme Israell: from all his sinnes.

Domine non est exaltatum. Psalm.Cxxxi.

Lorde, I am not hye mynded: I haue no proud lokes.

I doe

I doe not exercise my selfe in greate matters whyche are to hye for me.

But I refrayne my soule, and kepe it lowe, lyke as a chylde that is weaned frome his mother: yea, my soule is euen as a weaned chylde.

O Israell trust in the lorde: from this time forth for euermore.

Memento domine dauid. Psal. Cxxxii.

LOrde Remembre Dauid: and all his trouble.

Howe he sware vnto the lorde, and vowed a vowe vnto the almyghtie God of Jacob. Morning praier.

I wyll not come wythin the tabernacle of my house: nor climbe vp into my bed.

I wyll not suffer mine eyes to slepe, nor mine eie liddes to slumber: neyther the temples of my heade to take any rest.

Untyl I finde oute a place for the temple of the lorde: an habitacion for the myghtie God of Jacob Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata: and found it in the woode.

We wyl goe into his tabernacle: and fal low on oure knees before his fote stole.

Aryse, O Lord, into thy resting place: thou, and the arke of thy strength.

Let thy priestes be clothed with righteousnes: and let thy saynctes syng wyth ioyefulnes.

For thy seruaunt Dauids sake: turne not away the presence of thine annointed.

The Lord hath made a faythful othe vnto Dauid: and he shall not shrynke from it.

Of the fruite of thy body: shal I set vpon thy seat

If thy childzen wyll kepe my couenaunt and my testimonies that I shall learne them: their childzen also shal syt vpon thy seate for euermoze.

For the lozd hath chosen Sion to be an habytacion for hym selfe: he hath longed for her.

This shalbe my rest for euer: here wyll I dwell, for I haue a delyte therein.

I wil blesse her vitailes with encrease: and wyll satisfye her poozr wyth breade.

I wyl decke her pryestes wyth healthy: and her saynctes shall reioyce and synge.

Ther shal I make the hozne of Dauid to flozysh I haue ozdeyned a lantarne for myne annoynted.

As for his enemies, I shal cloth them with shame but vpon hym selfe shall hys crowne flozyshe.

Ecce quam bonum. Psal. Cxxxiii.

BEholde how good and ioyfull a thyng it is bze thzen: to dwell together in vnitie.

It is lyke the precious oyntment vpon the heade that ran down vnto the beard: euen vnto Aarons beard, and wente downe to the skyztes of his clothynge.

Lyke the dewe of Hermon: whyche fell vppon the hyll of Sion.

For there the Lozde promised his blessing: and lyfe for euermoze.

Ecce nunc benedicite dominũ. Psal Cxxxiiii.

BEholde (nowe) prayse the Lozde: all ye the seruauntes of the Lozde.

Ye that by night stand in the house of the lozd: (euen in the courtes of the house of our God.)

Lyft vp your handes in the sanctuari: and praise the lozde.

The

The Lorde that made heauen and earthe: geue the blessinge out of Syon.

Laudate dominum. Psalme.Cxxxv.

O Prayse the Lorde, laude ye the name of the Lorde, prayse it: O ye seruauntes of the lord.

Ye that stande in the house of the Lorde: in the courtes of the house of our God:

O prayse the lorde, for the lorde is gracious: O synge prayses vnto his name, for it is louelye.

For whiche the lorde hath chosen Jacob vnto him selfe: and Israell for his owne possession.

For I knowe that the Lord is greate: and that our lorde is aboue all Gods.

What soeuer the Lord is pleased, that did he in heauen and in earth: and in the sea, and in all deepe places.

He bryngeth forth the cloudes from the endes of the worlde: and sendeth forth lyghtnings wyth the rayne, brynginge the windes out of his treasures.

He smote the firste borne of Egypt: both of man and of beaste.

He hathe sent tokens and wonders in the mides of thee, O thou lande of Egipt: vpon Pharao, and all his seruauntes.

He smote dyuers nacions: and slewe myghtye kynges.

Seon king of the Ammorytes, and Og the king of Balan: and all the kingdomes of Canaan.

And gaue their land to be and heritage: euen an heritage vnto Israell his people.

Thy name, O Lord, endureth for euer: so doeth thy memoryall, O Lorde, frome one generacion to another.

For

For the Lorde wyll auenge his people: and bee gracious vnto his seruauntes.

As for the Images of the heathen, they are but syluer and golde: the worke of mens handes.

They haue mouthes and speake not: eyes haue they, but they see not.

They haue eares, and yet they heare not: neyther is there any breath in theyr mouthes.

They that make them, are lyke vnto them: and so are all they that put theyr trust in them.

Prayse the Lorde ye house of Israell: prayse the Lorde ye house of Aaron.

Prayse the Lord ye house of Leui: ye that feare the Lorde, prayse the Lorde.

Praysed be the Lorde out of Sion: whych dwelleth at Hierusalem.

Confitemini domino. Psalm. Cxxxvi.

Euening praier.

O Geue thankes vnto the Lord: for he is gracious, and his mercye endureth for euer.

O geue thanks vnto the god of al GODS for his mercye endureth for euer.

O thanke the Lorde of all lordes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Whyche onelye doth the greate wonders: for his mercye endureth for euer.

Whyche by his excellente wysedome made the heauens: for his mercye endureth for euer.

Whyche laied out the earthe aboue the waters: for his mercye endureth for euer.

Whiche hath made greate lyghtes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

The Sunne to rule the day: for his mercye endureth for euer.

The

The Moone and the starres to gouerne the nyght: for hys mercy endureth for euer.

Which smote Egipt with theyr firste borne: for his mercy endureth for euer.

And brought out Israell from among them: for his mercy endureth for euer.

With a myghtie hande and stretched out arme: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Which deuided the redde sea in two partes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

And made Israell to go thorowe the myddes of it: for his mercy endureth for euer.

But as for Pharao & his hoste, he ouerthrewe thē in the red sea: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Which led his people throughe the wyldernes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Which smote great kynges: for hys mercy endureth for euer.

Yea and slewe myghty kynges: for hys mercye endureth for euer.

Seon kynge of the Ammorites: for his mercye endureth for euer.

And Og the kyng of Basan: for his mercy endureth for euer.

And gaue away theyr lande for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Euen for an heritage vnto Israel his seruaunt for hys mercy endureth for euer.

Whych remembred vs when we were in troble for hys mercy endureth for euer.

And hath delyuered vs from our enemies: for hys mercye endureth for euer.

Whyche geueth foode to al flesh: for hys mercy endureth for euer.

O geue thankes vnto the God of heauen: for his mercys endureth for euer.

O geue thankes to the Lord of Lordes: for his mercye endureth for euer.

Super flumina. Pſal.Cxxxvii.

BY the waters of Babilon we ſatte downe and wepte, when wee remembred (thee) O Sion.

As for oure harpes, we hanged theym vp: vpon the trees that are therein.

For they that led vs awaye captiue, required of vs then a ſonge and melodye in our heauines: ſyng vs out of the ſonges of Sion.

Howe ſhall we ſynge the lordes ſong: in a ſtraūg lande?

If I forget thee, O Jeruſalē: let my right hande forget her connyng.

If I do not remember the, let my tongue cleaue to the roofe of my mouth: yea, yf I prefer re not Jeruſalem in my myrth.

Remembre the chyldren of Edom, O lorde: in the day of Jeruſalem, howe they ſayde, down with it, downe with it, euen to the grounde.

O doughter of Babilon, waſted with miſery: yea happy ſhall he be, that rewardeth ther as thou haſt ſerued vs.

Bleſſed ſhall he be, that taketh thy chyldren: and throweth theym agaynſt the ſtones.

Confitebor tibi domine. Pſal. Cxxxviii.

I wyll geue thankes vnto thee, O lorde, wyth my whole harte: euen before the Gods wyll I ſynge prayſe vnto thee:

I wyll worſhyppe towarde thy holye temple:

and

and prayse thy name, because of thy louing kindnes and trueth: for thou haste magnified thy name and thy worde aboue all thynges.

When I called vpon thee, thou heardest me: and endudest my soule wyth much strength.

All the kynges of the earthe shall prayse thee, O lorde: for thei haue hearde the wordes of thy mouth.

Yea, thou shalsing in the waies of the lord: that greate is the glorye of the lorde.

For thoughe the lord be hye, yet hath he respecte vnto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them a farre of.

Though I walke in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thyne hand vnto the furiousnes of mine enemies, and thi right hande shall saue me.

The Lorde shall make good his louyng kindnes towarde me, yea thy mercie O lord, endureth for euer: deny se not thē the workes of thyne own hands.

Domine probasti me. Psal. Cxxxix.

O Lord thou hast searched me out, and knowē me: thou knowest my downe sittinge, and myne vprisinge, thou vnderstandeste my thoughtes long before. Morning praier.

Thou art about mi path, and about my bed: and spyest out al my wayes.

For loe, there is not a woorde in my tongue: but thou O Lorde knowest it altogether.

Thou hast fashioned me behind and before: and layde thyne hande vpon me.

Such knowledge is to wonderful and excellent for me: I can not attayne vnto it.

Whyther shall I goe then from thy spirite? Or whyther shall I goe then frome thy presence?

If I clymbe vp into heauen, thou art there: if I go downe to hell thou arte there alsoo.

If I take the wynges of the morninge: and remaine in the vttermost partes of the sea.

Euen ther also shall thy hand leade me: and thy ryghte hande shall holde me.

If I saye peraduenture the darkenes shal couer me: then shall my nyghte be tourned to daye.

Yea the darknes is no darknes with the, but the night is all cleare as the day: the darknes and light (to thee) are bothe a lyke.

For my reynes are thyne: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.

I wyl geue thankes vnto thee, for I am fearfully & wonderously made: maruellous are thy worke and that my soule knoweth ryghte well.

My bones are not hide from thee, though I be made secreatlye: & fashioned beneath in the earthe.

Thyne eyes did se my substaunce, yet beyng vnperfite: & in thy boke wer al my membres wrytten.

Whiche day by day were fashyoned: when as yet there was none of them.

How deare are thy counsailes vnto me, O god: how greate is the summe of theim.

If I tell theym, they are mo in number then the sand: when I wake vp, I am present with thee.

Wylt thou not slay the wicked, O God: depart from me ye bloude thirstye men.

For they speake vnryghteouslye agaynste thee: and thyne enemyes take thy name in vayne.

Doe not I hate them, O Lorde, that hate thee: and am not I greeued with those that ryse vppe agaynste thee.

Yea

Yea, I hate theym ryghte sore: euen as thoughe they were myne enemyes.

Trye me, O God, and seke the grounde of mine hearte: proue me and examine mine thoughtes.

Loke well yf there be anye waye of wyckednes in me: and leade me in the waye euerlastinge.

Eripe me domine. Psalm. Cxl.

DElyuer mee, O lorde, from the euyll men: and preserue me from the wycked men.

Whyche imagine mischiefe in theyr hartes and styre vp stryfe al the daye long.

They haue sharpened theyr tongues lyke a serpente Adders poyson is vnder theyr lyppes.

Keepe me, O Lorde, from the handes of the vngodlye: preserue me from the wycked men, whyche are purposed to ouerthrowe my goynges.

The proude haue layed a snare for me: & spred a net abrod wyth cordes: yea and set trapes in my way.

I sayde vnto the Lord, thou art my God: heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lorde.

O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast couered my heade in the daye of battayle.

Let not the vngodly haue his desyre, O Lorde: let not his mischeuous imagination prosper, leaste they be to proude.

Let the mischiefe of theyr owne lyppes fall vpon the heade of theim: that compasse me aboute.

Let hoate burning coales fall vpon them: lette them be caste into the fyre and into the pytte, that they neuer ryse vp agayne.

A man full of wordes shall not prosper vppon the earthe: euyll shall hunte the wycked person to ouerthrowe him.

Sure I am that the Lord wyl aueng the poze: and mayntayne the cause of the helpeles.

The righteous also shal gene thankes vnto thy name: and the iust shal continue in thy sighte.

Domine clamaui. Psalm. Cxli.

LOrde I call vpon thee, haste thee vnto me: and consider my voyce, when I crye vnto thee.

Let my prayer bee set forthe in thy sighte as the incence: and let the lyftyng vp of my handes, be an euening sacrifice.

Set a watche, O Lorde, before my mouth: and kepe the dooze of my lippes.

O let not myne heart be enclined to anye euyll thynge: let me not be occupyed in vngodly woorkes wyth the men that woorke wyckednes, least I eate of suche thynges as please them.

Let the righteous rather smite me frendly: and reproue me.

But let not their precious balmes breake myne head: yea, I wyl pray yet agaynst theyr wickednes Let theyr iudges be ouerthrowen in stonye places: that they may heare my woordes, for they are swete Our bones lye scatered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth woode vppon the earthe

But myne eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my truste, O cast not oute my soule.

Kepe me from the snare whyche they haue layde for me: and from the trappes of the wycked doers.

Let the vngodlye fal into theyr own nettes toge ther: and let me euer escape them.

Voce mea ad dominum. Psalm. Cxlii.

Euenynge praier.

I Cried vnto the Lorde wyth my voyce: yea, euen vnto the Lorde dyd I make my supplicacion.

I powred oute my complayntes beefore him:

and shewed hym of my trouble.

When my spirite was in heauines, thou knowest my path: in the waye wherein I walke, haue they priuely layde a snare for me.

I loked also vpon my ryght hand: and see, there is no man that woulde knowe me.

I had no place to flee vnto: and no manne cared for my soule.

I cried vnto thee, O Lorde, and sayd thou arte my hope & my portion: in the lande of the lyuinge.

Consyder my complaynt: for I am brought very lowe.

O deliuer me from my persecutours: for they are to stronge for me.

Bryng my soule oute of prison, that I may geue thankes vnto thy name: which thing yf thou wylte graunt me, then shall the ryghteous resorte vnto my companye.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cxliii.

HEare my praier, O Lord, and consider my desyre: hearken vnto me for thy truth and righteousnes sake.

And enter not into iudgement with thy seruaunt: for in thy syght shall no man lyuynge be iustyfyed.

For the enemie hath persecuted my soule, he hath smytten my lyfe downe to the grounde: he hath laied me in the darkenes, as the men that haue ben longe deade.

Therfore is my spirite vexed within me: and mi heart within me is desolate.

Yet I do remembre the time past. I muse vpon al thy workes: yea, I exercise my selfe in the workes of my handes.

I ſtrethe foorthe my handes vnto thee: mi ſoule gaſpeth vnto thee, as a thyrſtye lande.

Heare me, O lord, and that ſoone, for my ſpirite waxeth faynte: hide not thy face from me, leſt I be lyke vnto them that goe down into the pyt.

O let me heare thy louinge kindnes betimes in the morninge, for in the is mi truſte: ſhewe thou me the waye that I ſhoulde walke in, for I lifte vp my ſoule vnto thee.

Delyuer me, O Lord from myne enemies: for I flee vnto thee to hide me.

Teach me to doe the thynge that pleaſeth thee: for thou arte my god, let thy louing ſpirite leade me forth vnto the lande of ryghteouſnes.

Quicken me, O Lorde, for thi names ſake: & for thi ryghteouſnes ſake, brynge my ſoule out of trouble.

And of thy goodnes ſlea myne enemyes: & deſtroye al them that vexe my ſoule, for I am thy ſeruaunte, Benedictus dominus. Pſal. Cxliiii.

Morning praier.

BLeſſed be the lorde mi ſtrength: which teacheſt my handes to warre, and my fingers to fighte.

My hope, and my forteſſe, my caſtel and delyuerer, my defender in whome I truſte: which ſubdueth my people that is vnder me.

Lord what is man that thou haſt ſuch reſpect vnto him: or the ſon of man that thou ſo regardeſte hym:

Man is lyke a thing of nought: his time paſſeth away lyke a ſhadowe.

Bowe thy heauens, O Lorde: and come downe touche the mountaynes, and they ſhall ſmoke.

Caſte forthe the lightnyng, and teare them: ſhote oute thyne arrowes and conſume them.

Sende down thyne hand from aboue; delyuer me

and

and take me out of the greate waters, frō the hand of straunge chyldren.

Whose mouth talketh of vanity: and their right hand is a ryghte hande of wyckednes.

I wyll singe a new song vnto thee, O God: and synge prayses vnto thee vpon a ten stringed lute.

Thou that gauest victory vnto kyngs: and hast delyuered Dauid thy seruaunte frome the perill of the swoorde.

Saue mee and delyuer mee frome the hande of straunge children: whose mouth talketh of vanitye and their righte hande is a ryghte hand of iniquity

That our sonnes maye growe vp as the yonge plantes, and that our doughters may be as the pulished corners of the temple.

That oure garners maye be full and plenteous wyth all maner of store: that our shepe may bryng forthe thousands and ten thousands in our stretes

That oure oxen maye be strong to labour, that there bee no decaye: no leading into captiuitie, and no complayning in our streates.

Happy are the people that be in such a case: yea blessed are the people whych haue the lord for their GOD.

Exaltabo te deus. Psal. Cxlv.

I wyll magnifie thee, O god, my king: and I wyll prayse thy name for euer and euer.

Euery day will I gue thankes vnto thee: and praise thy name for euer and euer.

Greate is the lorde, and merueylous, worthy to be praysed: there is no ende of his greatnes.

One generacion shal prayse thy workes vnto another: and declare thy power.

As for me I wyll be talkyng of thy worshyp: thi glorye, thy prayse, and wonderous workes.

So that men shal speake of the might of thi meruelous actes: and I wyll also tell of thy greatnes.

The memoryall of thyne aboundaunt kindnes, shalbe shewed: and men shal singe of thy ryghteousnes.

The Lorde is gracious and merciful: long suffe rynge, and of greate goodnes.

The lorde is louynge vnto euerye man: and his mercye is ouer al his workes.

All thy woorkes prayse thee O Lorde: and thy saynctes geue thankes vnto thee.

They shewe the glorye of thy kingedome, and talke of thy power.

That thy power, thy glorye, and myghtines of thy kyngdome myght be knowen vnto men.

Thy kingedome is an euerlastynge kyngdome: and thy dominion endureth throughoute all ages.

The lorde vpholdeth al suche as fall: and lifteth vp al those that be downe.

The eyes of all wayte vpon thee, O Lorde: and thou geuest them their meate in due season.

Thou openest thine hande: and fillest al things lyuing wyth plenteousnes.

The lorde is ryghteous in al his wayes: and holy in al his workes.

The lord is nye vnto al them that cal vpon him: yea, all suche as call vpon him faythfullye.

He wyll fulfyl the desyre of them that fear him: he also wil heare their crie, and wyll helpe theym.

The lord preserueth al them that loue hym: but scattereth abrode al the vngodly.

My

My mouthe shal speake the prayse of the Lorde: and let al flesh geue thankes vnto his holye name for euer and euer.

Lauda anima mea Psalm.Cxlvi.

PRayse the Lord, O my soule, whyle I lyue will I prayse the lorde: yea as longe as I haue any beynge, I wyll singe prayses vnto my God.

O put not youre trust in Princes, nor in anye chylde of man: for there is no helpe in them.

For when the breath of mã goeth forth, he shal turn agayne to his earthe, & then al his thoughts perish

Blessed is he that hath the god of Jacob for his helpe: and whose hoope is in the Lorde his GOD.

Which made heauen and earth, the Sea, and al that therein is: which kepeth his promyse for euer.

Whyche helpeth them to right that suffre wrong whiche fedeth the hungrye.

The lorde loseth men out of prison: the Lord geueth light to the blinde.

The lorde helpeth them that are fallen: the lorde careth for the ryghteous.

The lord careth for the straungers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widdowe: as for the waye of the vngodlye, he turneth it vpside downe.

The Lorde thy god, O Sion, shall be kinge for euermore: and throughout all generacions.

Laudate dominum. Psalme.Cxlvii.

O Prayse the lord, for it is a good thing to singe prayses vnto our God: yea, a ioyful and pleasaunte thing is it to be thankefull. Euening prayer.

The lord buildeth vp Jerusalem: and gathereth together the outecastes of Israel.

He healeth those that are broken in hearte: and geueth

geueth medicine to heale their sickenes.

He telleth the number of the starres: and calleth them al by their names.

Great is our lord, and great is his power: yea his wysedome is infinite.

The Lord setteth vp the meke: and bringeth the vngodly to the grounde.

O synge vnto the lord wyth thankes geuynge: synge prayse vnto the harpe vnto our god.

Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth rayne for the earth: & maketh the grasse to growe vpon the mountaynes, (an hearbe for the vse of men.)

Which geueth fodder vnto the cattell: and fedeth the younge rauens that cal vpon hym.

He hath not pleasure in the strēgth of an horse: neyther delighteth he in any mans legges.

But the lordes delighte is in theym that feare him: and put their trust in his mercy.

Prayse the Lord, O Jerusalem: prayse thy god O Syon.

For he hathe made fast the barres of thy gates: and hath blessed thy chyldren within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders: and fylleth the wyth floure and wheate.

He sendeth forth his commaundemente vppon earthe: and his woord runneth verye swiftelye.

He geueth snow lyke wolle: and scattereth the hoare froste lyke ashes.

He casteth forthe his yse lyke morsells: who is able to abide his froste?

He sendeth oute his word, and melteth them: he bloweth wyth his wynde, and waters flowe.

He

He sheweth his word vnto Jacob: his statutes and ordinaunces vnto Israell.

He hath not dealte so wyth any nacyon: neither haue the heathen knowledge of his lawes.

Laudate dominum de celis. Psal. Cxlviii.

O Prayse the lorde of heauen: prayse him in the heygh.

Prayse him al ye aungels of his: prayse him al his hoste.

Prayse him Sunne and Mone: prayse him all ye starres and lyghte.

Prayse him al ye heauens: and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

Let theym prayse the name of the lorde, (for hee spake the word, and they were made:) he commaunded, and they were created.

He hath made them fast for euer and euer: he hath geuen them a lawe, whych shal not be broken.

Prayse the lorde vpon earth: ye dragons: and al depes.

Fyre and hale, snowe and vapors: wynde and storme fulfyllynge his worde.

Mountaynes and all hilles: fruitefull trees and all Ceders.

Beasts and al cattel: wormes & fethered foules

Kynges of the earth and al people: prynces and all iudges of the worlde.

Yong men and maidens, olde mē and childzen prayse the name of the lord: for his name onely is excellent, and his praise aboue heauen and earthe.

He shall exalt the horne of his people, al his saintes shall prayse him: euen the chyldzen of Israell, euen the people that serueth him.

Cantate domino. Pſalme. Cxlix.

O Sing vnto the Lord a new ſong: let the congregacion of ſayncte̅s prayſe hym.

Let Iſraell reioyce in hym that made him: & let the chyldren of Sion be ioyeful in theyr kynge.

Let them prayſe his name in the dau̅ce: let them ſing prayſes vnto him wyth tabret and harpe.

For the lorde hath pleaſure in his people: and helpeth the meke hearted.

Let the ſayncte̅s be ioyfull wyth glory: let them reioyce in their beddes.

Let the prayſes of God bee in theyr mouth: and a two edged ſworde in theyr handes.

To bee auenged of the Heathen: and to rebuke the people.

To binde theyr kinges in chaynes: and their nobles with linkes of Iron.

That they may be auenged of them: as it is writ ten: ſuche honoure haue all his ſayncte̅s.

Laudate dominum. Pſalm. Cl.

O Prayſe god in his holynes: prayſe him in the firmament of his power.

Prayſe him in his noble actes: prayſe him accordinge to his excellent greatneſſe.

Prayſe him in the ſounde of the trumpet: prayſe him vpon the lute and harpe.

Prayſe him in the cimbales and daunces: prayſe him vpon the ſtringes and pipe.

Prayſe him vpon the well tuned cimbals: praiſe him vpon the loude cimbals.

Let euery thing that hath breath: praiſe the lord

A generall confession of sinnes to be said euerie morninge.

ALmyghtye God our heauenly father I confesse and knowledge that I am a miserable and a wretched sinner, and haue manifoldewaies most grieuouslie trangressed thi most godly cõmaundementes, throughe wycked thoughtes, vngodlye lustes, sinnefull woordes and dedes and in my whole lyfe. In sinne am I borne and conceyued, and there is no goodnesse in me, inasmuche as yf thou shouldest enter into thy narrowe iudgemẽt wyth me, iudginge me accordíng vnto the same. I were neuer able to suffre or abide it, but muste nedes perysshe, and bee damned for euer. Soo litle helpe, comforte, or succour, is there eyther in me, or in any other creature. Onelye this is my comforte. (O heauenlye father) that thou dydst not spare thy onelye deare beloued son, but diddest geue him vp vnto the moste bitter, and moste vyle and slaunderous death of the crosse for me, that he myght so pay the raunsome for my sinnes, satisfye thy iudgement still and pacifie thy wrath, reconcile me agayne vnto ther, and purchase mee thy grace and fauor, and euerlastynge lyfe. Wherfore throughe the merite of his moste bitter deathe and passyon, and throughe his innocente blondshedinge, I beseche the, O heauenly father, that thou wylt vouchsafe to be gracious ous and mercyfull vnto me, to forgeue, and to pardon me al my synnes, to lighten my heart with thy holy spirite, to renue, confirme and strengthen me with a right and a perfect faith, and to enflame me in loue towarde thee and my neighboure, that I may hencefoorth with a willing and a glade hearte, walke as it becommeth me, in thy most godly commaundementes, and so glorify and prayse thee euerlasting. And also that I may with a free conscience and quiet heart in al maner of temptations, afflictions or necessities, and euen in the very pangues of death crye boldly, and merely vnto thee, and say I beleue in god the father almighty, maker of heauen and earth. And in Jesus Christe. &c. But O Lorde God heauenly father, to comforte my self in affliction and temptation with these articles of the christen faythe, it is not in my power. For faith is thy gyfte, and forasmuch as thou wilt be praied vnto, and called vpon for it. I come vnto thee, to pray and beseech thee, both for that, and for all my other necessities, euen as thy deare beloued sonne oure Sauioure Christ Jesus hath him selfe taught vs. And from the very botome of my hearte. I cry and say: O our father whych arte in heauen. &c.

Praiers to be saide in the Morninge.

O Mercyfull Lorde god heauenly father, I rẽdre most high laudes, praise, & thankes vnto the, that thou hast preserued me both this night, and al the time and dayes of my lyfe hetherto vnder thy protection, and hast suffred me to liue vntill this present houre. And I beseche thee har-telye, thou wylte vouchsafe to receyue me this day, and the residue of my whole lyfe from hencefoꝛthe into thy tucion, ruling and gouerning me with thy holye spirite, that all maner of darkenes of misbeliefe, infidelitye, & of carnall lustes and affectyons, maye be vtterly chased and dryuen out of my heart and that I maye bee iustified and saued both bodie and soule thoꝛow a ryght and a perfecte fayth, and so walke in the lyghte of thy moste godlye truth, to thy gloꝛye and prayse, & to the profitte and furtheraunce of my neighboure, thoꝛow Jesus Chꝛist our Loꝛde and Sauiour. Amen.

ALl possible thankes that wee are able, we rendre vnto thee, O Loꝛde Jesus Chꝛyst: foꝛ that thou haste wylled this night past to be prospeꝛous vnto vs, & we beseech thee lykewyse to prospeꝛ al this same daye vnto vs, foꝛ thy gloꝛy, and foꝛ the healthy of our soule: & that thou whiche arte the true lyghte, not knowing any going downe, and which art the sunne eternall, geuyng life, foode and gladnes vnto all thynges: vouchesafe to shine into oure mindes, that we may not any wher stumble to fall into any sinne, but may thꝛough thy good guiding and conducting, come to the lyfe euerlastinge. Amē

O Loꝛd Jesus Chꝛyst, which art the true sonne of the woꝛlde, euermoꝛe arysinge and neuer goynge downe, whiche by thy most holesom appearinge and sighte doest bryng foꝛthe, pꝛeserue, nouryshe and refreshe all thinges, aswel that are in heauen as also that are on earth: we beseche thee mercifullye and fauourablye to shyne into our heartes, that the night and darkenes of sinnes, & the mistes of errours on euery side dꝛiuen away thou bryghtli shininge wythin oure heartes, wee may al oure lyfe space go wythout any stumblyng or offence, & may decentely and semely walke (as in the day time) beynge pure and cleane from the workes of darkenes and abounding in al good workes which god hath prepared for vs to walke in: which with the father and wyth the holy ghoste, liuest and raygnest for euer and euer. Amen.

O God and Lorde Jesus Chryst, thou knowest, yea and hast also taught vs how great the infirmitye and weakenesse of man is, and howe certayne a thinge it is, that it can nothing do wythout thy godly helpe. If man trust to hym selfe, it cannot be auoyded, but that he muste hedlong runne and fal into a thousande vndoynges and mischiefes: O oure father, haue thou pitye & compassion vpon the weakenes of vs thy children, be thou prest and readye to helpe vs alwayes shewyng thy mercy vpon vs and prosperyng whatsoeuer we godly go about: so that thou geuynge vs lyghte, wee maye se what thyngs are truely good in dede thou encouraging vs, we maye haue an earneste delyre to the same, & thou beynge our guide, we may come where to obtayne them: for we hauing nothyng but mistrust in our selues, doe yelde and commit our selues ful and whole vnto thee alone, which worckest al thinges in all creatures to thy honoure and glorye. So be it.

A prayer against temptacion.

O Lorde Jesus Chryste, the only stai & fence of our mortal state, our onely hope, our only saluacion our glorie & our triūph, who in ỹ flesh (which thou hadst for our only cause take vpō the) didst suffer thy self to be tēpted of sathā, & who only and alone of al men didst vtterlie ouercome & vanquiche ſinne, death, the woꝛlde, the deuyl and all the kingdom of hel: and whatſoeuer thou haſte ſo ouercomed, foꝛ our behoofe it is that thou haſt ouercommed it: neyther hath it ben thy wyll to haue any of thy ſeruauntes kepe battel oꝛ fight wyth any of the foꝛſayd euyls, but of purpoſe to rewarde vs with a crowne of the moꝛe glooꝛy foꝛ it, & to the intente that thou mightest likewyſe ouerthꝛow Sathan in thy membꝛes, as thou hadſte afoꝛe done in thyne owne perſon, geue thou (we beſech thee) vnto vs thy ſouldiers (O Lió moſt vyctoꝛyous of the tribe of Juda ſtrength agaynſte the roaring Lion, whiche continually wandereth to and fro, ſeking whom he may deuoure. Thou beynge that ſame ſerpente, the true geuer of health & life that were nayled on high vpõ a tree, geue vnto vs thy litle ſelye ones, wilines againſt the deceitful awayting of the moſt ſubtil ſerpente. Thou beyng a lambe as white as ſnowe, the vanquiſher of Sathans tyꝛanye, geue vnto vs thy litle ſhepe the ſtrength and vertue of thy ſpirit, that beynge in our owne ſelues weake and feble, and in thee, ſtronge and valeant, we may wythſtande and ouercome al aſſaults of the deuyl, ſo that our ghoſtlye enemy may not gloꝛie on vs, but beyng conqueꝛers thꝛough the, we may geue thankes to thi mercye, whyche neuer leaueth them deſtitute that put theyꝛ truſte in thee: who lyueſte and raygneſt God foꝛ euer wythout ende.

Oh send the wisedō out of thi holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maiestye, that she may be with me and labour with me that I maye knowe what is acceptable in thy sight for she knoweth and vnderstandeth al things and she shal conducte me right soberlye in my workes, and preserue me in her power. So shal mi workes be acceptable. Amen.

A praier against vvorldlie carefulnes.

O Most deare and tender father, our defender and norysher, endue vs wyth thy grace, that we maie cast of the greate blindnesse of oure myndes, and carefulnes of worldly thinges, & may put our whole study and care in keping of thy holie lawe. And that we may labour and trauaile for oure necessities in this lyfe, lyke the byrdes of the ayre, and the lilyes of the filde, wythoute care. For thou haste promised to be carefull for vs, and haste commaunded that vpon thee we should cast al our care: whiche lyuest and raygnest, worlde withoute ende, Amen.

A praier necessarie for al persons.

O Mercifull god, I a wretched sinner reknowledge my selfe bound to kepe thy holye-commaundementes, but yet vnable to perfourme theym, and to bee accepted for iuste, wythoute the ryghteousnes of Jesu Christ thy onely sonne, who hath perfectly fulfylled thy lawe, to iustifye al men that beleue and trust in hym. Therefore graunte me grace I beseech thee to bee occupyed in doynge of good workes, whyche thou commaundest in holy Scrypture, all the dayes of my lyfe to thy glory, and yet to truste onelye in thy mercye, and in chrystes merytes to be poutged from my synnes, and not in my good workes, be they neuer soo manye. Geue me grace to lone thy holye worde feruently, to searche the Scryptures dylygentlye to reade theym humblye, to vnderstande theym truelye, to lyue after theym effectuallye. Order my lyfe soo, O Lord, that it be alway acceptable vnto thee. Geue me grace not to reioyce in any thinge that displeaseth thee, but euermore to delite in those thynges that please thee, be they neuer so contrarye to my desyres. Teache me so to praye, that my peticyons maye be graciously heard of thee. Kepe me vpright amonge diuersitie of opinyons and iudgementes in the worlde, that I neuer swarue from thy trueth, taught in holye Scrypture. In prosperitie, O Lorde saue me that I waxe not proude. In aduersytie, helpe me that I neyther dyspayre nor blaspheme thy holy name, but takyng it pacyentlye, to geue the thankes, and truste to be delyuered after thy pleasure. When I happen to fall into synne thorowe frailtie, I beseche thee to worke true repentaunce in my hearte, that I may be sorye wyth

Bountifull Jesu, O swete sauioure, O
Chryst the sonne of God haue pitye vp-on me, mercifully heare me and despise not my prayer. Thou haste created me of nothinge, thou hast redemed me frō the bondage of sinne, death and hell, neyther with golde nor siluer, but wyth thy most precious bodye once offered vpon the crosse, and thine own bloude shed once for all for my raunsom: therefore caste me not away whom thou by thy great wisedom hast made: despise me not whō thou haste redemed with suche a precious treasure. Nor let my wyckednes destroye that, whyche thy goodnes hathe buylded: Nowe whiles I lyue, O Jesu haue mercye on me, for if I dye oute of thy fauour, it wylbe to late afterwarde to cal for thy mercye (whiles I haue time to repent loke vpō me with thy merciful eies, as thou dydst vouchsafe to loke vpon Peter thyne Apostle, that I may bewayle my sinful life, and obteyne thy fauour and die therin. I reknowledge, that if thou shouldest deale with me accordynge to very iustice, I haue deserued euerlasting death. Therfore I appeale to thy highe throne of mercye trustyng to obteyne Gods fauour not for my merites, but for thy merites (O Jesu) who haste geuen thy selfe an acceptable sacrifice to ỹ father to appease his wrathe, and to brynge all sinners (truely repentinge and amending their euyll lyfe) into his fauoure agayne. Accept me, o lorde among the number of them that shalbe saued, forgeue mee my sinnes, geue me grace to leade a godlye and innocent lyfe, graunt me thy heauenlye wysedome, inspire my heart wyth fayth hope and charitie: geue me grace to bee humble in prosperitye, pacient in aduersity, obedient to my rulers, faythfull vnto them that trust me: dealing trulye wyth all menne, to lyue chastely in wedlocke, to abhorre adultery, fornication and all vnclennes, to do good after my power vnto al menne, to hurt no man that thy name maye be glorified in me, during this presente lyfe, and that I afterwarde maye obteyne euerlastinge lyfe thorow thy mercye; and the merytes of thy passion. nes of my sinnes. Let thy ryghteousnes hyde and couer my vnryghteousnes. Let the merytes of thy passion and bloud, be the satisfaction for mi sinnes. Geue me lord thy grace, that my fayth and saluacion in thi bloude wauer not in me, but euer be firme and constante, that the hope of thy mercye, and life euerlasting, neuer decaye in me, that charitie waxe not coulde in me: finallye, that the weakenes of my fleash bee not ouercome with the feeare of deathe. Graunt me merciful sauiour, that when death hath shut vp the eyes of my body, yet that the eyes of my soule may still behold and loke vpon thee: that whē death hathe taken awaye the vse of my tongue and speach, yet that my heart may cry and say vnto thee. (in manus tuas domine commendo spiritum meum.) that is to saye: O Lorde, into thy handes I geue and commit my soule. (Domine Iesu accipe spiritum meum) Lord Iesu receyue my soule vnto thee. Amen.
